The "Sometimes The Last Concert Date On A Tour Really Is More Fun Than The Rest" Edition

LAST REMINDER - END OF SEASON BANQUET PROPOSALS

It's almost RDL banquet time again! The Board is soliciting bids for the Spring 2019 banquet, to be held Saturday, May 18th, from 11 am until the Blind Draw concludes (usually around 6 pm). Bars are not required to close to regular patrons; however, if there will be non-RDL persons there, it's necessary to ensure sufficient room for RDL members/guests, and that food paid for by RDL is reserved for RDL.

In order for your proposal to be considered, you will need to provide for the following: ➤ Facility should be available for set up by 9:30 a.m the morning of the 18th. ➤ Bar should open by 11:00 a.m., food served approximately at 12 noon ➤ Menu requirements: buffet style meal – the particulars of the menu are up to the establishment, however it should be more extensive than subs and appetizer:

➤ Plan to feed 150 people. ➤ Complimentary non-alcoholic beverages, soft drinks, tea, etc ➤ Some type of beer special would be greatly appreciated. ➤ Seating for 80+ ➤ Space to accommodate a total of 8+ dart boards for the Blind Draw. (If your establishment already has boards, they will count toward the total of 8. ➤ PA system. ➤ Adequate staff. ➤ Adequate parking that is close by, free and not time-limited (ex., 2 hr zones) ➤ Bid proposal must be for the total to be charged, incl. menu items, taxes, gratuity, & any other charge:

Bids are due by Saturday, April 20th, to Vice President Maridy Knight.

If you have interest in submitting a bid or receiving further info., please contact Maridy amaridy16@gmail.com or (919)-417-7828.

MISSING WEEK 9 MATCH RESULT

H division: Neighborhood Dart Knights (mail penalty)14 @ 10
Tips & Shafts. 4-2, 4-2, 4-2, 2-4. Dart Knights = 8.0 ASPs;
Tips & Shafts = 6.5 ASPs. Hot Darts = Matthew Wilson, 3.5
ASPs; Mark Gamble, 3.0 ASPs.

WHEN THINGS AREN'T ON A SCORESHEET...

So, a handful of times each season, things like fast games, or high outs, or even just some all-star point throws, don't get written on a scoresheet. Or they only get written on a losing team's sheet, and the losing captain doesn't make sure the other team has it when "checking" the sheet at the end of the match. Either way, whatever is missing didn't get onto the sheet that was sent to the statistician. And how do we handle it when the team with the missing item lets me know? Well, I ask the opposition if they distinctly remember it occurring. And if the team DOES distinctly remember it, then we add it. If the other team disagrees, or simply doesn't remember/know, then the thing doesn't get added back in. Period. It pays to double-check everything! Or else your achievement might just disappear (because if it's not on the sheet, and the other team doesn't 100% know that it happened, then it... didn't happen... at least officially). [And if anybody wonders how strictly I hold everybody to this, two Wednesdays ago I missed my team's match. And the fast DCKT of the season was thrown. And it wasn't put on the sheet. And while I completely and wholly trust my teammates (many of whom have been my friends for literally decades), I still didn't add it until the team fully confirmed that it happened. Because a rule is a rule is a rule. For everybody.]

UPDATE TO A LOCAL BLIND DRAW

Effective immediately, Brown's Billiards has bumped up the payout for its Friday blind draws if the signups reach 16 players. You can find the specifics for that one (and all the other local blind draws) in the calendar on page 4 of the Tons every week of the season.

LATE SCORESHEET PENALTY REMINDER

Last reminder here... if any team reaches a THIRD late score sheet penalty in a season, starting with the third one, the team loses the match win in addition to the regular 16 points.

RDL HEADLINES

"Leaguewide": only 4 fast game categories still unclaimed; and we are down to only 2 undefeated teams and 1 winless team (not counting the team that quit after just one match played)
"A" Division: Element handles Dead Beats, opening the door for Fringe to climb into the top four with a romp over Darty
"B" Division: Jedis jump out fast, clinch early, making the 501 sweep-back pretty... Irrelevant; Things get by DD, now just 1 point out of first; Rif Raf wins, still within reach of B lead
"C" Division: Previously winless Machine takes 11 cricket pts. from (then-)division-leading Cheapies!; the Niners' win streak hits 4, putting them only a match back of new leader Bangin
"D" Division: Brian Smith finishes Projectile's 501 sweep come back on Show Me with a 107-Out for the win! (and yep, it was 57/50); WINNAU wins 5th straight, wk13 showdown in line?
"E" Division: Game and Just the Tip both post solid wins to keep within reach of Serious, with both of them getting shots at the leader in the last four weeks - the first coming tonight
"F" Division: Parade needs an extra leg to barely sneak past the last-place Reefers and stay undefeated; Hump Day rolls to win, now really alone in 2nd after Scorekeeper falls again
"G" Division: rumors of Dr.unks's demise not too overstated? 3rd loss in the last 4 weeks; Irish Ton and Old Darting each handle their business, heading toward a big wk12 brouhaha
"H" Division: only one match in H last week... wow; and in that match, the Knights dealt Coach's title hopes a crushing blow

Looking for the trivia column? Well, you can find that (as well as maybe a couple other random story items) on page 6.

Name the band/singer? the song? Last week's answers: Song 1 = "Say Something" by A Great Big World; Song 2 = "Wild World" by Cat Stevens; Song 3 = "Ramble On" by Led Zeppelin. And the theme? Well, after a week in which everything was about coming home, it only made sense to have set about... leaving. Obvious follow-up, no? Plus, I kinda love that Cat Stevens song and I just wanted to use it. [Not a lot of players this week, and nobody got all of them. In fact, only Pete Rutten got 2 of the 3 plus the theme. Busy week, I guess. - JK]
Week 11, song #1 lyric: "Got to keep on pushin' mama, You know they're running late, Without love, where would you be now"
Week 11, song #2 lyric: "Wrong way on a one way track, Seems like I should be getting somewhere, Somehow I'm neither here nor there"
Song #3: "Crazy, but that's how it goes, Millions of people living as foes, Maybe it's not too late, To learn how to love and forget how to hate"

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs
"E, F, G" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "H" = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:

for Divisions "A" (except team A4) and "B" (8 teams / div.):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played for team A4 (due to 1 forfeit received):
min. of 18 Singles Games Played, 35 Total Games Played for Divisions "C", "D", "E", "F" and "G" (7 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for all "H" division teams (due to 2 forfeits received):

Singles win %-age: min. of 14 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 27 Total Games Played

PREDICTIONS FOR THE WEEK

Kind of a run-of-the-mill little 16-8 record last week, with my standard five matches lost in results that swung on one dart. This is a hard dang task... why do I keep putting myself through this? Wait... it's you guys putting me through this, not me... It's you guys who suck. You hear me? Anybody who flips my prediction sucks. So don't do that. Sitting at 174-76 (69.6% correct) now (and at 60%+ in every division).

Match of the week: (B Div.) Irrelevant Details @ Things That Bounce. The free-for-all known as B division will have only one team get through week 11 with fewer than 4 losses. And that team is the winner of this head-to-head doozy of a headliner. Irrelevant stole the win with a 501 sweep last time. This time they fall one game short. Things, 13-11.

Match #2: (C Div.) Bangin' the Neighbors @ Consistently Inconsistent. I don't know if this match would mean more or less if Inconsistent had won last week. But either way, this is a huge in a division with four teams within a match of the lead (with the points really close across all four too). I think Inconsistent flips the week 4 script with a 13-11 win.

Match #3: (E Div.) Why So Serious? @ Just the Tip. Either Serious is about to eliminate one of its only two competitors... or Just the Tip is about to reinvigorate a great three-team race to the finish. I love Just the Tip and their 4-wins-in-the-last 5, but Serious is just too good. 14-10.

Match #4: (H Div.) Another Coach Creation @ Grip It Lightly. This was set to be in the running for match of the week, and then Coach got frigg'in' dumped last week! If Coach wins now, a lot of the drama in H ebbs away. Sadly, I think their DCKt advantage carries Coach, 13-11.

Match #5: (G Div.) Dr.unks @ Irish Ton. A month ago I would've said this was going to be a barnburner with title fight written all over it. But what a month it has been for the Dr. I simply have to go Irish, 14-10.

Match #6: (H Div.) Tips & Shafts @ Darty Sanchez. If only the Tips had a little more to climb back in the race... But, they don't. So a win here would be great, but a tad too late. I'm taking... Sanchez, 13-11.

Match #7: (F Div.) Don't Hit the Scorekeeper @ Bulls On Parade. The Parade is the only team to clinch a top-2 spot so far, and if they can get past this scary hurdle, they'll nearly clinch F. Parade, 15-9.

Match #8: (D Div.) Big Bulls @ Bulls Up. Show Me still has to face WINNAU, so maybe... just maybe... there is enough time for the winner here to steal a miracle division crown. Bulls Up, 14-10.

Match #9: (C Div.) Nine Lives @ Double In, Stumble Out. Two of the other contenders play tonight (guaranteeing an L for somebody) and the Niners are rollin'. They keep title hopes alive and well, 14-10.

Match #10: (B Div.) Shooter McGavin @ Rif Raf. If the Things win tonight, all Rif Raf would have to do to take B is win out and gain a handful of points. That all has to start with a win here, 14-10.

Match #11: (G Div.) Wayne Gretzky @ All About That Bull! Yet another intra-pile battle from that bottom-four-of-G tangle I've been talking about for weeks. I think it's Gretzky in this one again, 14-10.

Match #12: (B Div.) DD 214 @ One Armed Bandits. If the Bandits want to avoid a slide back to C, they pretty much have to beat the two teams right in front of them. Alas, DD gets the 1001 this time.

And the remaining 14 matches, sorted by division:

A Division: The Unintimidated Element 17, Jameson's Monkeys 7; Darty Minds 13, Dartistic Abandon 11; North Raleigh Alliance 14, Dead Beats 10; The Neighborhood Bullies 16, Lunatic Fringe 8.

B Division: Red Eyed Jedis 13, Kiss This Crüe 11.

C Division: Sharky's Machine 13 (win streak!), Menace 11.

D Division: WINNAU 14, Garage, Inc. 10; Show Me 16, My Cork 8.

E Division: Game 14, Rangers 10; Shark Shooters 15, Nightmare 9.

F Division: Hump Day 14, Kings 10; Accoutrement 13, Reefers 11.

G Division: Old Darting Bastards 15, Quackers 9.

H Division: Neighborhood Dart Knights 16, We Throw It 8.

Question(s) from two weeks ago (we held the answer last week due to space constraints, so we're including it now: While we're on a perfect throw run, let's go with these: How many people are in the RDL Ton-70-In Club? And how many are in the RDL Ton-70-Out Club? (and, of course, only in our last 46.5 seasons plus partial older extras)

The answer: Alright, soooo... first thing we have to point out is that an "In" in 301 could happen on any turn of the game prior to 2010. Yep, if you blanked for nine turns and then threw a 170, you would be averaging only 17 points per turn... and... you would own a 170-In. Thus, for the throws in this list before 2010, they might well have happened on the first turn. Or they might well have happened sometime much later when the opponent was already shooting at the out. So there, there's the disclaimer (and no, the question of "how can anyone defend throwing at the bull to start as a solid strategy?" is not a disclaimer... it's just a very mathematically defensible question in an argument :o).

Ok, so the 170-In Club (7 people): Phillip Maxwell (Sp96), Will Benso (Fa97), Don Graves (Sp99), Tom Winters (Fa07), Tom Flood (Sp13 - must be first turn), Tim Mozzetti (Sp14 - must be first turn), and Mike Seward (the only person to do it more than once, in Fa00 in the tournament, in Fa04, and in Sp06).

And the 170-Out Club (8 people who actually had to win their games!) Dale Hyler (Sp04), Jerry Oakley (Fa04), Jason Kilts (Fa05 tournament), Robbie Phillips (Fa06), Tim McNamara (Fa09 tourn.), Fon Denton (Sp13), Justin McCurry (Sp14), and the only person with two recorded 170-Outs... Mike Hall (Sp95 tourn., from my 15-partial-season pre-JK-record collection, and the Fa04 tourn.). Best part about Hall's Sp95 one? He had 172 when he started his prior turn, and he wired two single-1s and had a 3rd-dart bounce- out to leave the 170!

Last week's question: (by request from Dan Butterworth of Bulls Up) What is the lowest season finish of any team that actually led its division in total points?

The answer: In the past 46 seasons (the amount of time I've been the statistician), we've had 341 divisions. And in those 341 divisions, only 12 times has the division point leader finished lower than 2nd place. And of those 12, a whopping (and unsurprising) 9 finished just down in 3rd place (Freebirds, Sp98 E div.; Grateful Darts, Fa00 D div.; The Replacements, Fa03 E div.; Dogs of War, Fa07 B div.; The SurReal Decoys, Sp10 F div.; Cork A Diddle Do!, Sp11 C div.; Force 8 from the Planet XXX, tied with the division winner in Fa11 E div.; Bull Hunters, Sp17 G div.; and Double In, Stumble Out! in Sp18 E div.). The 10th of our 12 on the list finished in 4th place - Chalk It Up in Fa14's H division. Which leaves just our two top point earners who fell way down their division lists... Both teams finished an astonishing 5th out of 7 teams in their divisions, and neither due to any penalty losses or anything. Big Bulls, just last season(!) finished 5th in I division, narrowly taking the division point crown despite their 5-7 record. And FYL&EMS, back in the Sp03 season, finished 5th in E division with 6-6 record, despite having 15(!) points more than the next-highest-scoring team (a team which actually only finished 2nd themselves). ... Oh, man, I can see so many possibilities in this season's standings that could send somebody over to this club... parity, baby!

This week's question: In the Fall 2003 season, the league instituted the "Fulton Crowley rule" - the addition of a match loss for each late scoresheet penalty after your first two in a given season. How many times since that rule was instituted has a team lost a match win for a 3rd (or more) late sheet? (Note: many years prior, as in pre-1996, every late scoresheet also cost you the match win! Ouch. Pretty harsh, eh?)

THE 9-MARK 8-MARK HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

Last Wednesday, there were three matches over at Sharky's Place. My team's match was on the middle pair, the Machine's first win of the season in C was on the right end, and the Rangers-Nightmare match in E was on the left end. During doubles cricket, a thunderous yell followed by a good amount of roaring cheers erupted from board 2. Zach Powell of the Rangers had just popped a 9-mark and the crowd was rolling, the chalker was writing it all up (close 19s, 19 points, close 18s, close 17s, I believe), and the throwers on a couple of boards 3 through 6 were regrouping from the jolt. Literally everyone was looking over after that much ruckus, which was probably a bummer for Powell... as about a dozen people saw what was up, and all loudly noted that the 19s were already closed (even if the scorekeeper had chalked up the 19 points in the excitement). Ah, the heat of the moment! Followed by the chill of the bummer of reality. 8 marks was still pretty awesome though. Or at least it was until Powell's opponent Jason Zelinack had the nerve to pitch a 9-mark that fully counted later in that same game! Holy crap, what a kick in the shins, eh? (At least Powell's pair still won that game in the end, I think.)

SOME TEAMS EVIDENTLY DO THIS BETTER THAN OTHERS

A few times every season, a league member just feels the urge to shoot me a message about an opponent with whom they had a particularly good time. And I'm not just talking weekly "captain email notes" because those arrive pretty often since a lot of captains add a little text with the scoresheet emails. What I'm talking about is a player who has no need to email me for any reason other than to compliment somebody else. Like I said, I probably receive maybe 3 or 4 of those every season. And I kid you not, I would bet more than half of those are about the One Armed Bandits, season after season after season. I actually noted something like this in a banquet Tons a few years ago, but it's still happening today. The Bandits themselves are of course less than 2% of the league's teams, yet they receive more than 50% of the league's unsolicited "we love hanging out with those guys" messages. Wow.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCORE TABLE - To see how your team has performed against other opponents, find your team in the left column, then read across to the right week by week. Each week lists the team number of the opponent as well as the match result and points scored for your team. An upper-case opponent number is a home match for your team, while a lower-case opponent number is a road match for your team. To see what the opponent scored in any given week's match (because sometimes matches have fewer than 24 total points when a blocker is involved), just find the score on the corresponding opponent line for that same week. (Match forfeits are listed in italics.)
