

TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Home to the Spring Session of the Raleigh Dart League for week #1, Wednesday, January 15, 2020 Issue #JK769
The "Is This Really The First Season In My Tenure With Zero New Teams Formed Or At Least Realigned?" Edition

QUITE A FEW CHANGES IN RECENT SEASONS

You can find most of these in important reminders sprinkled throughout this newsletter (and especially on this page and page 9), as well as in the rules and on the scoresheet. But let's just summarize a few of the most important highlights here in just a few words: there is no call-in requirement; we no longer have a fax number for scoresheet returns; all scoresheets have to be turned in no later than Friday; not indicating who took part in 1001 games carries a penalty; and not indicating who 'blocker' players are carries a penalty foboth teams.

A LIST OF OTHER RECENT REMIINDERS

FAILURE TO INCLUDE "BLOCKER" NAMES

In games with a shorthanded team (and thus, one or more "blockers"), failure to list the names of all competitors in those games will bear a consequence for BOTH teams. If the submitted scoresheet is missing names, BOTH teams will receive a 5-point penalty.

RESCHEDULING? MAKE SURE I KNOW ABOUT IT

Failure to notify the statistician of a rescheduled match in the proper timeframe is now a 16-point penalty for each team.

FORFEIT ETIQUETTE

If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us all an easy favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.

NO MORE 2ND PLACE TEAM PLAQUES

Roughly one team in the league has voiced any opposition to this change, and that was a drunken rant a couple seasons ago now. The reality is that the 2nd place team plaques had little meaning, and almost nobody still wants to take one home. Thus, the second place team plaques were discontinued a few seasons ago.

THROWING AFTER BUSTING IS ILLEGAL PRACTICE

Continuing to throw darts after clearly busting your turn is now officially against RDL rules. Obviously, if you hit a wire and didn't realize a dart was in, etc., changes the situation. But continuing to chuck away will be deemed unsportsmanlike conduct and is subject to the ladder of warnings/penalties that can come with those issues.

WHAT SCOREKEEPERS CAN SAY DURING CRICKET

It is now official RDL policy that during cricket, the scorekeeper may only tell the thrower how many of each number has been hit during this turn, and may not report any more of the situation (whether a number is now closed, new point total, points still needed, etc.).

PLAYING THE WRONG OPPONENT

I was going to paraphrase what happens when people don't pay attention and go to the line and play the wrong person, but I think this one is just easier if I copy the rule here: "f) If a player plays a game on the wrong board (resulting in playing the incorrect opponent) regardless of when the error is discovered, if the entire match is not complete and the scoresheet signed, the game must be replayed. No statistics from the incorrectly played game are valid. If both players play on the "wrong" board but are playing the correct opponent, no action will be taken."

EARBUD/HEADPHONE USAGE AT MATCHES

This one is still a hot-button issue, but the ruling was made seasons ago... As of Fall 2017: players can wear earbuds/headphones during a match, while scorekeepers can not. Hilarious that the second part of that sentence even needs typing.

HARD COPY TONS FOR ESTABLISHMENTS ONLY

The default is no hard copy Tons for any team unless they specifically request to be added back to the snail mail list. For now, we still mail hard copies to each of our host establishments.

HANDLE BUSINESS BEFORE WEDNESDAYS...

If you want to add a player(s) to your roster, they cannot play until they are approved and their dues are paid. And those additions and/or changes cannot be done on Wednesdays (even during the day on Wed.), as the Membership Director & Treasurer (yes, both are currently the same person) have their matches that day as well.

SCORESHEETS

You have 3 copies in your team packet. Clearly, you'll need to make some copies for the remainder of the season. Don't forget.

SCORESHEET RETURN DEADLINE

The weekly deadline for submission of your scoresheets is no longer the end of Saturday. The new deadline as of the Fall 2017 season is 11:59 p.m. Friday (unless you had a rescheduled match - then it's within two days of whatever day you played).

1001 PARTICIPANT LISTING IS MANDATORY

Inclusion of the player names for all 1001 participants for BOTH teams on the scoresheet is now mandatory! Failure to include those names will incur a penalty equal to a late scoresheet mailing penalty. There is even a box on the front of the scoresheet for names!

ROSTER UPDATES AND SPELLING

Please note: rosters provided in this preseason packet include only players added prior to January 13th. Later additions will appear on the team statistics pages beginning in week 2. Also, please check the spellings and phone numbers from your roster listing - note any changes on your scoresheet or send me an email.

HOSTING TOURNAMENT MATCHES

It is the responsibility of the CAPTAINS (not the RDL board) to ensure their host bars are informed of the tournament schedule when it is released around weeks 12/13. A new rule provision allows host bars to opt out of the tournament rotation, if they want to be done with darts after the regular season. However, they must notify the membership director by week 5, if that is the case.

THIS SEASON'S HOME BARS - We have 26 once again

Out from last season (4): Capital City Tavern, Champions Bars & More, Chow Pizza Bar, and Wingin' It Bar and Grille.

New this season (4): Hot Shots (back after one season away), Isaac Hunter's Tavern (back after one season away), Overtime Sports Pub (back after four seasons away), and The Pickled Pub (this season's only really "first-time" RDL host establishment).

THE TREASURER AND MEMB. DIRECTOR WILL NOT ACCEPT CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER ETC.! BRING A CHECK! AND DO NOT BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20.

WHO ARE THOSE GUYS?

Many teams just keep their same team name season after season (or an obvious close relative to that name), but not all. For the most part, the same teams change names each season. Anyway, here is a list of this season's new names:

- A2/ Birth of an Element . . .was. . . Unstable Elements
- A4/ Liver Die! . . .was. . . Dead Beats
- A5/ Deez Nuts . . .was. . . North Raleigh Alliance
- A6/ Dartistic Disturbance . . .was. . . Dartistic Side of the Moon
- A7/ Repeat Offenders . . .was. . . Things That Bounce
- B1/ Irrelevant Final Answer . . .was. . . Irrelevant Elements
- B5/ Double or nothin' . . .was. . . Kiss Our Inconsistency
- E3/ Rock Out With Your Cork Out! . . .was. . . Beat My Cork!
- E8/ OH' SHEETZ! . . .was. . . The Happy Crew
- F1/ Active Shooters . . .was. . . Down to F!
- F2/ Still F'd . . .was. . . Irish Ton
- F5/ My Darts R Bigger . . .was. . . Make Darts Great Again
- F7/ Darters.Under.Constant.Kilts.Scrutiny (D.U.C.K.S.) . . .was. . . Not Dead Ducks Yet
- F8/ Coach Yrself Clean . . .was. . . Coach Never Walks Alone
- G1/ Is It Still In? . . .was. . . Is It In, Again?
- G5/ Starving Dartists . . .was. . . The Replacements
- G8/ Bulls Hitters . . .was. . . Darty B's

New teams: NONE! Not even one! Zero!! -- I looked back through 1997 (46 seasons, the length of time for which I actually tracked how many new roster formations there were), and this is the first time in that span that the league had no new teams in a season

BEST NEW TEAM NAMES THIS SEASON

Only 17 new team names this season. A few others are "different but nowhere near different enough to be worth mentioning", so we will just consider the 17 above for this goofy little column. And for me, this season's new name competition comes down to a very clear top two. But first, let's address a few others...

- ... this season's corporate shills, who also take home the title for most annoying use of 'all caps'... OH' SHEETZ!
- ... this season's second-best last-minute alteration when they found out the divisions had been scrunched together... Repeat Offenders.
- ... the 'try-hards' who maybe would have gotten more credit if they hadn't misspelled my name when they turned it in... Darters.Under.Constant.Kilts.Scrutiny (also, they never do anything wrong at all, so they're never under scrutiny...)
- ... the team that gets bonus points (of some type, not sure which type) for employing the single most-often used team name in league history... Bulls Hitters [this is what, the 5th team with this name during my tenure here, I think?]
- ... this season's best play on words that is especially appropriate for a league of beer-swilling darters with a full-on competitive spirit... my second favorite of the season... Liver Die!

And my favorite of the season, a team that quickly came up with a division-specific replacement name when they found out their first name submission no longer matched their division alignment (just like happened for the Repeat Offenders above)... Still F'd!

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs

"C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs

"E, F, G" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "H" = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:
for ALL Divisions (8 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played

All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for years. I will list all of the penalties assessed right here, so that anyone who thinks the point math is incorrect can just check here to see who lost what when.

For those of you who missed the Fall Banquet, you missed the tournament results and may have even missed the final regular season results. What follows here on page 5, and also on pages 6-8, are the final Fall divisional standings, tournament results, tournament perfect throws, and the season-long individual awards. One last chance to relive the glory...

Just for kicks, I've included symbols for all of the penalties "earned" last season too...
Although, to be fair, there were very few penalties in the entire fall season.

SEASON-LONG PREDICTIONS

JK's Standard Disclaimer : Rosters will change multiple times after I've written this, but that's out of my control. So, I go forward with some guesses every season. I could say nothing and let you wonder how ridiculously little I know about our talent levels, or I could do this, and remove all doubt. Wouldn't want to leave you wondering, right? (And yes, I get the schedules from Membership Director Heather Bohanan early enough to do separate week 1 picks nowadays, but you can probably glean most of those from this column...)

"A" Division: Alright, well... I never like to not pick my own team, but the Bullies just became the first team since we formed Element that we didn't beat in any of our matchups. I basically HAVE to go with a team that just rolled to an undefeated masterpiece (Bullies, I mean). Plus, that will give my team something to use to prove me wrong (because we all know that proving our teammates wrong is one of the best parts of even having teammates). Bob Terry's return to 'uber-dangerous on every dart' will push Fringe to third place again, just ahead of Deez Nuts (formerly North Raleigh Alliance, which was a much better name) and their shiny new Kenny Persson addition. [Side note: Deez Nuts is frickin' deep and if they all "show up", they could easily win the A tournament. I don't expect enough weekly consistency for them to take the season, but they are super-scary in a one-match head-to-head.] Liver Die! (minus Jeff Reygers) will haul in fifth, followed by a great battle between Dartistic, Darty Minds, and Repeat Offenders (who really seemed to be finding their "A selves" by late last season - I'm glad the divisions squeezed and they get to stay up here).

"B" Division: Lots of times we see teams form in lower divisions and climb for a couple years, winning division after division. But it's usually right about B division where that climb seems to hit stumbling blocks. The fact is, there are teams at the top and middle of B that made that climb before you, and are still just looking for that last big step to jump into A and stay there (or maybe they've been there repeatedly already are more like A/B teams). Anyway, the point is, teams get to B and find a LOT more competition and often stop climbing. I don't think we're going to see that this season... I think BOTH Boom Baby and Show Me Your Tips are going to just make B the next stop on their way to a shot at A. Who wins might actually depend on some physical health issues, but for now, I'm certainly pulling for full recovery, so I'll take Boom Baby. I'm guessing that Inconsistent will actually be consistent and finish 3rd in B for the second time in a row, but the updated Double or nothin' (formerly Kiss My) roster is very intriguing indeed. Rif Raf, McGavin, and DD214 have all been so even that I guess they stay way, maybe in that order. Which leaves me with Irrelevant... which is barely recognizable as the Irrelevant team that sprinted up the ladder for a while - I already missed Dave, but now Jeremy, Kenn, Joey and Chris too?

"C" Division: Wow, Flightless missed registration by mistake, or I suspect I would be picking them right here at the top of C (if they weren't pushed up to B already). But in their absence, I'm absolutely going with Why So Serious?, last season's stormtrooper death squad. After that, I'm going to gamble that Cheap Shots is about to add a couple weapons and haul in second, followed by a dangerous Bulls Up bunch that sometimes drops a few that I feel like they shouldn't. Methodical will narrowly outrun Big Bulls and Nine Lives for fourth (but if the Niners ever figure out their attendance issues, they could take it all).

"D" Division: And right about here, these picks start feeling almost friggin' impossible. The Bandits are so experienced, and they've played in upper divisions and all that, so I kinda have to go with them here (but like all my picks in this division, it is with little conviction). After that, I will continue to fire off random guesses... and go with... hmmm... maybe... Treble Yell? Sure, why not? The Machine will have to be in this fight too, as will Loaded. Which brings me to We Still Don't Know! What we actually don't know is whether they will end up re-adding their missing players from last season - because they lost a lot. If they don't, I'm thinking fifth. But if they get them back, move this pick up to the top. Sharks (very dangerous, by the way), Game, and Hump Day round this one out.

"E" Division: Question 1 is, how do we have Dr.unks with no Robert Reece?! Weird, I'm tellin' ya. Anyway, do not underestimate the addition of Rob Ehrmann to Is It In? If he is a regular, I'm taking Is It In? to claim E. After that, I'm going to take the Reece-less Dr, followed by the ever-naibiting Rangers. The Kings, able to win any match in this division, but not consistent enough for a title, will be fourth, and they will be followed closely by Cork. Death Throw will try to keep their recent hot streak alive, and will outlast Ma and Pa and Sheetz (though I'm guessing the roster for Sheetz is on the likely-to-change-a-bit list.)

"F" Division: Oooo, I think we're in for a good little race here in F. The Sofa Kings seem to have a taste for winning lately, so I'm going with them, but Active Shooters and Sanchez are going to be right with them the whole way. [Side note to Active: I admit that I hate your name a little bit... the accessibility of guns to sick young individuals has made for some pretty awful days in our county. I get the play on words, and it's well done, but it's just not my taste. And before anybody thinks I'm picking them, their team name last season was my absolute favorite, so shut up and piss off. I actually like the guys on Active.] Make Darts and Wire will haul in 4th/5th, just ahead of Coach, the Ducks, and Still F'd.

"G" Division: What is it with Gretzky bleeding players? Who leaves a team full of women? That just doesn't happen... But somehow it has again, meaning I'm taking Still In? for the G crown. Gretzky will still haul in the #2 spot, but just barely ahead of the Dart Knights. Starving Dartists and Tips & Shafts will squeeze ahead of the Reefers, but I could argue this group in any order. Then Throw It tops the newly-reformed Hitters (formerly Darty B's).

THE PAGE OF INFORMATION THAT I RUN EVERY SEASON...

This is the place where I remind all of you of several things so that you can't say "I didn't know that" later on when you screw up. Sort of takes the blame off me if any of these bad things happen... which I sort of consider to be a good thing...

Some of these things change over the years, some don't... but please read them again.

This stuff is really important for the smooth flow of our nights out with our hobby.

COPIES OF COMPLETED SCORESHEETS

Keep a copy - it's as simple as that. I could give you all the reasons why, but I've done that a hundred times. Just keep a copy of your sheet, even if you lose, because you just never know when one of them will be lost by the postal service or your opponents. Hey, it has happened in twenty-four of the last thirty-two seasons...

EMAILED TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Of course, we email the Tons of Newsletter. In fact, for the teams (as opposed to the host establishments) that's the only way we distribute the newsletter (aside from posting it on the league website - another convenient and cost-effective electronic avenue). And if you were already on last season's list of Tons receivers, the you are still on the list. If you would like to be removed from the list, simply email me back and let me know. If you weren't on the list and you would like to receive it, just email my address listed on page 4 and I'll add you to the list. All you need is a relatively recent version of Microsoft Excel (or Acrobat Reader) to view it (and to not be a whiner, or an ass, or just difficult to like). I generally send the Tons out by Monday or Tuesday; however, if I forget then I apologize, but it will be coming soon.

HOST ESTABLISHMENT EDITIONS OF TONS OF NEWS

For now at least, we still send hard copies of the Tons to each of our host establishments. And the edition for each of those host establishments is selected edition-wise based on which division holds the most of that bar's teams. If there is more than one division with the same number of teams in a given bar, then the highest division is the edition for that establishment.

SIMPLE TRUTHS THAT YOU SHOULD NEVER FORGET

1. Any player who plays in a match without properly registering and paying dues (with/to the League Membership Director, as she is also temporarily accepting seasonal dues payments) prior to throwing is an ineligible player. Playing an ineligible player will cost your team its win (if you did indeed win), all game points from that match, and all statistics from that match, regardless of how well or poorly that ineligible player did.
2. Any player who doesn't play in any of the four primary sets of the match, but plays in the 1001 tiebreaker is an ineligible player - see number 1 (above) for the horror of this mistake.
3. Indicate which players of both teams took part in 1001 games on the front of the scoresheet. This is now MANDATORY, and allows us to check for ineligible players, record statistics, etc.
4. If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us a favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.
5. Wednesday player additions are not allowed. It turns out that Board members have dart matches too, so all roster additions are required to be completed no later than Tuesday for any player to play in that week's match.

MANY SCORESHEET RETURN PATHS AVAILABLE - BUT NOT ENTIRELY THE SAME AS IN RECENT YEARS!

We have three routes remaining for turning in your scoresheets..

First, you can use your scanner (or your phone in some cases) and email me an image of the sheet (my email addresses are in the Tons every week and also on the back of the scoresheet).

Second, you can shoot me photos of your scoresheet if you want to take care of returning it immediately! Just make sure you have good lighting, you're close enough to the sheet, and it's IN FOCUS. (note: out-of-focus or overly dark photos will not be acceptable... duh). And you can send those photos by email or text (as with my email addresses, my phone number is on the scoresheet back).

Finally, you can still use the old school U.S. Postal Service. My address is also on the back of the scoresheet, but I caution you... I predict that this system will go away before too long (as I only get one via this route maybe once a year now... if that).

[Quick note if you do actually decide to send me a hard copy via the snail mail side of things. Buying a ($1.35-ish?) certificate of mailing could prove to be a nice piece of evidence if your scoresheet ever gets lost in the mail. Do NOT send your scoresheet by certified mail - I do NOT want to have to go to the post office repeatedly (or at all, to be honest) to sign for your scoresheets.]

If you use any of the modern electronic methods, I'll even email or text you a quick confirmation of receipt (since I'll have your email address or phone number, of course) - thus eliminating any worry about whether the sheet got through to me :o).

NO CALL-IN REQUIREMENT FOR MATCH RESULTS

As of the Fall 2017 season, winning teams are no longer required to call in match results each week. And actually, the league is now at the point where we have discontinued the VoiceMail number. Not enough use of it to warrant the cost any longer.

TEAM NAMES ON YOUR SCORESHEETS

Every season there are several instances of teams listing the team names on opposite sides of the scoresheets (meaning that one team's name is written above the other team's players). Obviously, I will eventually figure these out when the names under a team name aren't on the roster, but it would be cool if you simply indicate the error in some way (or simply flip the names - I would rather an away team be on the home side and vice versa than have the wrong people ANI THUS BACKWARDS FINAL SCORE under each side). Thanks

CHECK BOTH SCORESHEETS

We run an item like this every season, and sometimes more than once. And here it is again because it's often needed repeatedly. When you are signing scoresheets at the end of the night, it is up to you to make sure that they match. If the other team turns in a sheet without your ASP or fast game or something, it really sort of doesn't exist... In RDL, not on the sheet = didn't happen.
