

TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Home to the Fall Session of the Raleigh Dart League for week #8, Wednesday, September 29, 2021 Issue #JK792

The "68 Passing Yards Plus 67 Yards Lost To Sacks = 1 Net Passing Yard For The Bears" Edition

WHEN REPORTING "HIGH INS"...

We put this item directly on the scoresheet. We put a reminder in bold italics next to the table of these on page 3 every week. And we run reminders in bold underline in the first newsletter or two every single season. And yet, I'm still going to repeat it here... because a few still need it. PART 1: "High Ins" are only from 301. They are never ever ever from 501 or 1001. Never. PART 2: "High Ins" only count on your first turn at the line in a game of 301. This means that a 160 to start scoring on your fifth turn is really quite impressive, but is NOT High In. Please do NOT report throws like these as "High Ins". It would be awful if an award went to the wrong person because you were ignorant of the rules. So don't be.

POSTPONED WEEK 6 "F" MATCH RESULT

Flight Privilege 16 @ 8 Sofa Kings. 4-2, 4-2, 4-2, 4-2.
ASPs: Flight Privilege, 5.5; Sofa Kings, 2.0. No Hot Darts.

RDL TRIVIA

This is the favorite newsletter item for many of you, so it's time to bring it back! The Tons is starting to get a little space now, thus this item's return. I'll put a question here, anybody that is so inclined can shoot me a guess by email (or in person, of course), and then next week I'll include the answer (as well as recognition for those that give the best answers). Question topics are basically "anything I think to look up", so let's have at it.

This week's question(s): I have been the statistician for 48 "full" seasons before this one (stupid Sp20 was anything but "full"), and the number of perfect throws have varied greatly across the seasons. While it is true that this season's 45 teams are the lowest number in my time here (the other seasons have ranged from 49 to 68 teams per season), the THREE Ton-80s that have been reported still seem like a very low total for the midway point of the season. What is the record for fewest regular season Ton-80s during my statistician tenure? What is the record low when combining the season and tournaments?

THE STUFF I NOTICE

-- So you see the trivia question above that highlights how few Ton-80s we've had this season, but the season is half way over and we also don't have a High In above 120 in any division yet.
-- I think Tommy Beaird of DD-214 had one of the most unique stat lines ever in week 6. He had five throws worthy of all-star points, but all five of them were 1.5 points each. All his cricket throws were 6m and up, and all his '01 throws were 121 and up. Lots of people have had five of those higher throws in a night, but not without a regular old 5m or Ton along the way.
-- Every player in B division is losing more than a quarter of his/her games so far. (well, among those with a decent number played)
-- Every team in the league except The Bullies in A has lost more than 35% of their games so far.
-- How the hell is the best DCkt team in B (and third best DCkt team in the entire league) in sixth place?

RDL HEADLINES

"A" Division: Bullies handle Liver in cricket to hit the midway point as the only undefeated team in the entire league; the Element, Fringe post big wins, establish clear "top 4" in A
"B" Division: Serious closes out a tough Darty Daze squad in DCkt to grab the halfway lead alone; Boom takes 5 doubles from Armed in a huge battle of close contenders; Terror Bulls take all four sets from Show Me, now hold the highest point total (per week) outside of A and control their own title fate
"C" Division: Shark Shooters nearly let a match slip in doubles against winless last place team, but still hold onto 2nd place; Outlaws win a match in which it was the opponents(!) being shorthanded; Niners handle Rif Raf, have good point total
"D" Division: Off Constantly wipes out Hump Day in DCkt in a huge matchup to see who stays in the top pair; Bandits and Machine get past the bottom two teams, each getting to 0.500
"E" Division: Rangers take five doubles to hand Sanchez a 2nd straight loss and turn what looked like an E runaway into a giant ol' E melee; Corkers win their 4th straight, climb right into the heart of the E battle; shorthanded Death Throw gets by the Ducks in a pretty big pairing in the center of the stack
"F" Division: Dart Side gets out the 501 brooms to hand the Dart Knights their first loss, and to take over the top F spot from them; Privilege yanks Coach back to the group 2 wins behind the leaders on the power of Wes Wissinger's 20/50 two-dart 1001 winner; We Throw It posts a first Fall victory

-- I feel like Darty Sanchez is inspiring a future trivia question... They presently sit alone at the top of E, and they won't have won less than 52% of their games. They're 5-2 and averaging only 12.14 points per match. ... Flight Privilege in F has the same point total so far, and they're in 5th place.
-- 16 different teams have already successfully blocked at least one time this season, with at least one in each division (1 team in A, 1 in B, 4 in C, 3 in D, 4 in E, 3 in F). Of the 16 teams, all but one of them have blocked a total of only 1-4 points each. But the Dysfunctional Outlaws in C have already successfully blocked 13 points (no other entire division has blocked more than 8).

Name the band/singer? the song? Last week's answers: Song 1 = "I'm Still Standing" by Elton John; Song 2 = "I Won't Back Down" by Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers; Song 3 = "Alive" by Pearl Jam. And the theme? Surviving and staying strong. Which is really topical in a pandemic era, but was actually honestly inspired by the fact that Survivor returned to CBS last Wednesday. No, seriously, that's why. Love that show. [The only person who hit more than one song was Paul Jacobi, who nailed the whole thing, and had this excellent extended theme guess: "1.5yrs+ into this pandemic shit and still here, trying to enjoy life. Or something like that. :) " I'm so with that. - JK]
Week 8, song #1 lyric: "Some girl to thrill me and then go away... .. Some girl that knows the meaning of a, Hey hit the highway"
Week 8, #2: "I need your love and I won't bring no pain, A little birdie told me that you feel the same, I'm for the real and for you I'm true blue"
Week 8, song #3 lyric: "We are undercover passion on the run, Chasing love up against the sun, We are strangers by day"

It's kind of amazing to me how often people (a lot of them being captains who come to the meetings) send me a text or email asking how they can get in touch with one of the Board members (or, yes, all of the Board members). And all I do (beyond just copying the Board member on my reply) is point them toward page 4. You guys know that the contact information for the Board members is on page 4 every single week of the season, right? (To be fair, they're generally on page 8 in the banquet issue, so a minor difference in that one case.)

Turns out there are also a few other things on that page about which people often ask me... The season-long minimum game requirements for awards! The log of all penalties during the season! The list of minimum requirements for being included in the Hot Darts section below! The calendar of important dates, both in the RDL and in other area stuff! The list of local blind draws! Ohmigosh... that page is just chock full of info every single week. Should probably keep a copy of it sometimes, no?

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs

"C" Division = 3.5 or more ASPs

"D, E" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "F" = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:

for Divisions "B", "E" and "F" (8 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played

All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played for Divs. "A" (except team A3), "C" and "D" (7 teams / div.):

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played

All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for team A3 (due to 1 forfeit received):

min. of 15 Singles Games Played, 30 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

PREDICTIONS FOR THE WEEK

Oh, last week was not much of a gem for me. Only week 4 has been a worse week so far, as I tallied only a 13-8 record last Wednesday. I had my standard pile of five matches that swung on a single dart, but I get those all the time and I suppose I'm just getting used to them. That brings me to 102-44 for the season (69.9% correct), and I'm above 0.500 for every team in A, B and F divisions. And I finally got a One Armed Bandits pick correct!! Which makes Darty Sanchez my new arch nemesis, as I've missed five of their matches in a row now...

Match of the week: (D Div.) Big Bulls @ Off Constantly-Reboot. Off Constantly finds itself in the Match of the Week for the second consecutive week, due in large part to their clutch win last Wednesday. Now what we have is a head-to-head showdown for the D lead alone, with Off Constantly facing a Big Bulls squad that hasn't lost since this pairing seven weeks ago. And you know what? It's OC again, 13-11.

Match #2: (C Div.) Dysfunctional Outlaws @ F Bombs. The F Bombs sit atop C alone, but there is a small mob nipping at their heels... and that mob includes their opponent tonight. The last time these two got together, the Outlaws won a whole bunch but were too shorthanded to "win." The newly full Outlaws take this and make C messy, 14-10.

Match #3: (E Div.) Left, Right, Corkers @ Death Throw. A month ago, the Corkers were 0-3 and staring at the E cellar walls. Then they made a move to not be shorthanded every night, and they've been screaming up the standings ever since. Now we have this awesome pairing of two of the FOUR teams one match behind the E leaders. And there is no way I'm picking against the Corker freight train just yet. 14-10.

Match #4: (A Div.) Lunatic Fringe @ The Reunited Element. Three of the four teams that have ruled A recently find themselves in a very tight trio. Here's the first battle in the three-week race to see who will define themselves as the top chase team for The Bullies. I'm hoping Element doesn't fall way behind in 301 this time around. Element, 14-10.

Match #5: (B Div.) Armed & Hammered @ Darty Daze. Armed lost a singles lead last week to a DCkt sweep, dropping them into a near-tie with Darty in the middle of B. It isn't late season yet, but dropping to 0.500 will probably end the title hopes for the loser of this one. Darty squeaked out a win last time around, and I see the same here, 13-11.

Match #6: (A Div.) North Raleigh Alliance @ The Bullies. Well, in the next few weeks, one of two things will happen. Either The Bullies will continue knocking back the three chase teams, or they'll take a loss or two and it will be full-on game on in A. The Alliance is super talented and clearly can win this, but The Bullies are too deep, 14-10.

Matches #7 & #8: (F Div.) The Neighborhood Dart Knights @ Sofa Kings; Dart Side of the Moon @ Coach 4:4. With the Dart Side pulling out one of the clutchest 501 sweeps in recent league history last week, the F race is back on like Donkey Kong. That week 14 rematch already looks like a Match of the Week (Season?). But first things first... both the Dart Knights and Dart Side need to avoid stumbling against some dangerous teams. And that starts tonight. The Knights thumped Sofa Kings last time, and they win again, 15-9. And Dart Side ekes past Coach for payback, 13-11.

Matches #9 & #10: (E Div.) Salty Damn Duck Gone @ Darts & Debauchery; Ones Are Closed @ Red-eye Rangers. What looked to be a runaway in F two weeks ago, is anything but that today. The middle six teams in E all sit either 4-3 or 3-4, and are well within reach of an E title... or of a bottom-two spot that likely means F div. in the Spring. Despite losing 3 of their last 5, I think the balance of Debauchery will bring them a 14-10 win. And the division cricket leader Rangers are going to build off their big win last week, 14-10.

Match #11: (A Div.) Shadows Count @ 3-Peat A-fenders. Every season or two, I remind people here that getting into A is a really damn tough accomplishment. And staying in A is something few teams ever can do. Huge props to any team that does it. And the winner here has a shot at one of those coveted "stays." Looks like it's time for the Shadows to haul in that first A match victory, 13-11.

Match #12: (B Div.) Boom Baby!!! @ Consistently Inconsistent. Boom is just kind of hanging around behind the leaders, lurking and waiting for a shot to jump up. If they win out, they almost certainly take B. But they better pay attention here first. Boom gets it, 14-10.

Match #13: (E Div.) Just F'd @ Darty Sanchez. Sanchez started 5-0. Then lost back-to-back by a combined 33-15. Could that slide continue against the last-place team!? Sure, maybe. But nah. 15-9.

And the remaining 8 matches, sorted by division:
 B Division: Serious? 15, Show Me 9; Terror Bulls 15, DD-214 9.
 C Division: Shark Shooters 15, Rif Raf 9; Cheapies 14, Toeing 10.
 D Division: Hump Day! 15, Menace 9; Machine 15, Royalty 9.
 F Division: Banging 17, Gutter Balls 7; Privilege 16, We Throw It 8.
