The "I'm Sure A Trip To Maine Is... Exciting... Right?" Edition

TWO IMPORTANT NOTES FOR FALL 2022

The alignment of teams into divisions this season

As is relatively common (especially when the team number is changing, such as during the progression back from a pandemic-fueled lull), teams form, teams return, etc. And if an expanded number of teams that form/return have clear lower-end or clear higher-end talent, that situation necessitates pushing the team stack up or down a bit more than might have been expected by some teams. Thus, you might be in a higher division this season than you expected - rest assured that this was not an error, but rather is a response to team formation dynamics.

New Rules that apply to the use of DartConnect

Each team (and all people on the RDL email list) received a new set of rules this season. The only changes relative to the previous version all pertain to using DartConnect devices to keep score. It is critical that everyone understand what is/isn't allowed, and what it takes to "agree" to use the device. Find them in these sections: MATCHES.F.1 [page 5 of 12 in the rules], and MATCHES.F.4.b.5 [page 6 of 12 in the rules]

A LIST OF RECENT IMPORTANT REMINDERS

FAILURE TO INCLUDE "BLOCKER" NAMES

In games with a shorthanded team (and thus, one or more "blockers"), failure to list the names of all competitors in those games will bear a consequence for BOTH teams. If the submitted scoresheet is missing names, BOTH teams will receive a 5-point penalty.

RESCHEDULING? MAKE SURE I KNOW ABOUT IT

Failure to notify the statistician of a rescheduled match in the proper timeframe is now a 16-point penalty for each team.

FORFEIT ETIQUETTE

If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us all an easy favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.

NO MORE 2ND PLACE TEAM PLAQUES

Roughly one team in the league has voiced any opposition to this change, and that was a drunken rant a few years ago now. The reality is that the 2nd place team plaques had little meaning, and almost nobody still wants to take one home. Thus, the second place team plaques were discontinued a few years ago.

THROWING AFTER BUSTING IS ILLEGAL PRACTICE

Continuing to throw darts after clearly busting your turn is now officially against RDL rules. Obviously, if you hit a wire and didn't realize a dart was in, etc., changes the situation. But continuing to chuck away will be deemed unsportsmanlike conduct and is subject to the ladder of warnings/penalties that can come with those issues.

WHAT SCOREKEEPERS CAN SAY DURING CRICKET

It is now official RDL policy that during cricket, the scorekeeper may only tell the thrower how many of each number has been hit during this turn, and may not report any more of the situation (whether a number is now closed, new point total, points still needed, etc.).

PLAYING THE WRONG OPPONENT

I was going to paraphrase what happens when people don't pay attention and go to the line and play the wrong person, but I think this one is just easier if I copy the rule here: "f) If a player plays a game on the wrong board (resulting in playing the incorrect opponent) regardless of when the error is discovered, if the entire match is not complete and the scoresheet signed, the game must be replayed. No statistics from the incorrectly played game are valid. If both players play on the "wrong" board but are playing the correct opponent, no action will be taken."

EARBUD/HEADPHONE USAGE AT MATCHES

This one still pops up now and then, but the ruling was made seasons ago... As of Fall 2017: players can wear earbuds/headphones during a match, while scorekeepers can not. Hilarious that the second part of that sentence even needs typing.

HANDLE BUSINESS BEFORE WEDNESDAYS...

If you want to add a player(s) to your roster, they cannot play until they are approved and their dues are paid. And those additions and/or changes cannot be done on Wednesdays (even during the day on Wed.), as the Membership Director and Treasurer both have their matches to play that day as well.

SCORESHEETS

You have 3 copies in your team packet. Clearly, you'll need to make some copies for the remainder of the season. Don't forget.

SCORESHEET RETURN DEADLINE

The weekly deadline for submission of your scoresheets is no longer the end of Saturday. The new deadline as of the Fall 2017 season is 11:59 p.m. Friday (unless you had a rescheduled match - then it's within two days of whatever day you played).

1001 PARTICIPANT LISTING IS MANDATORY

Inclusion of the player names for all 1001 participants for BOTH teams on the scoresheet is mandatory! Failure to include those names will incur a penalty equal to a late scoresheet mailing penalty. There is even a box on the front of the scoresheet for names!

ROSTER UPDATES AND SPELLING

Please note: rosters provided in this preseason packet include only players added prior to July 26th. Later additions will appear on the team statistics pages beginning in week 2. Also, please check the spellings and phone numbers from your roster listing - note any changes on your scoresheet or send me an email.

HOSTING TOURNAMENT MATCHES

It is the responsibility of the CAPTAINS (not the RDL board) to ensure their host bars are informed of the tournament schedule when it is released around weeks 12/13. A recent rule provision allows host bars to opt out of the tournament rotation, if they want to be done with darts after the regular season. However, they must notify the membership director by week 5, if that is the case.

TWO PEOPLE WITH THE SAME FIRST NAME?

Please, please, please indicate which played. EVERY set, please.

THE TREASURER WILL NOT ACCEPT CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC.! BRING A CHECK! AND DO NOT BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20!

WHO ARE THOSE GUYS?

Many teams just keep their same team name season after season (or an obvious close relative to that name), but not all. For the most part, the same teams change names each season. Anyway, here is a list of this season's new names:

- A2/ The Convergent Element . . .was. . . The Uncharted Element
- A3/ Liver Alliance . . .was. . . (some of) North Raleigh Alliance, and (some of) Liver Die!
- A5/ Put It on Matt's Tab . . .was. . . Brown's Terror Bulls
- B3/ Hoptimistic . . .was. . . Hump Day Hurlers
- B4/ The Procrastinators . . .was. . . Nonessentials
- C1/ Trippin Bulls . . .was. . . That! Just Happened
- C3/ Frankie & The 5 Marks . . .was. . . Frankie & The 4 Marks
- D1/ BullsHit . . .was. . . Garage Inc.
- E6/ Irish Ton . . .was. . . Backpfeifengesicht
- E7/ Web of DaFeet . . .was. . . Duck Yew
- F1/ Fayetteville Street . . .was. . . Sippin' & Trippin'
- F3/ Your Cork is Showing . . .was. . . Twisted Fork
- F6/ Y.N.T.A. . . .was. . . Yeah Yeah Coach
- F7/ Kenny & the Jets . . .was. . . No Consensus
- G3/ Who Darted . . .was. . . Ones Are Closed
- G4/ Projectile Dysfunction . . .was. . . Ones Are Closed (also)
- G7/ Village Idiots . . .was. . . Starving Dartists (back in Sp20)
- G8/ The Rock Bottoms . . .was. . . The Gutter Balls (back in Fa21)

New teams: B2/ Blindsided, C7/ Dart Attack

Returning post-Covid with same name: B6/ Shooter McGavin

BEST NEW TEAM NAMES THIS SEASON

We got 19 new team names again this season (same number three seasons in a row now!). We also had some plain returners, but those aren't really new, so we're not counting them unless they used some other name in between then and now. Anyway, on to my personal favorites of the season, with a bit explanation as to why:

- ... ok, so we start with a trio that is only some-new/some-old, but is also somehow now a trio of teams that need neither a 'g' nor an apostrophe... Trippin Bulls, Banging the Wire, and Rippin Darts
- ... the ones that might make people say "oh, hey, is that them?"... yes, BullsHit IS the reincarnation of one of the six different groups that have employed BullsHit or BullsHitters as their team name in the past couple decades... and no, Projectile Dysfunction is NOT either of the two teams that have used that one (and is very much not a version of the Dysfunctional Outlaws, who used the Projectile name for many years)
- ... the team name that is a pretty good little phrase from just flipping a single letter... Trippin Bulls
- ... the name that is really quite a good and creative one, for a team that has pulled a rather stunning string of name puns/forms that support their many-years-long identity... Web of DaFeet
- ... this season's music reference, that was a pretty good turnaround on short notice when their first (very good) name was sort of negated by not ending up in their originally expected division... Kenny & the Jets
- ... the good little beer reference that's a nice word play... Hoptimistic
- ... the nudge-nudge inappropriate one that is a pretty solid play on their pretty lengthy team name string... Your Cork is Showing
- ... the one that is honestly just a call-back of their team name from 2014-2015, but that was really good then and is still really good now (and is "new-ish" in two ways since the team itself just returned AND the name just returned)... Village Idiots

And my favorite of the season, about which I would feel bad given its obvious connotation, but hey, this is THEIR name and they obviously picked it intentionally, so I'm giving mad points for the combination of self-recognition and humor... The Rock Bottoms

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs
"E, F" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "G" = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:

for Divisions "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E" (7 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for Divisions "F" and "G" (8 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for years. I will list all of the penalties assessed right here, so that anyone who thinks the point math is incorrect can just check here to see who lost what when.

For those of you who missed the Spring Banquet, you missed the tournament results and may have even missed the final regular season results. What follows here on page 5, and also on pages 6-8, are the final Fall divisional standings, tournament results, tournament perfect throws, and the season-long individual awards. One last chance to relive the glory...

Just for kicks, I've included symbols for all the penalties "earned" last season too...
But we are doing so well lately that there was only one penalty!

SEASON-LONG PREDICTIONS

JK's Standard Disclaimer : Rosters will change multiple times after I've written this, but that's out of my control. So, I go forward with some guesses every season. I could say nothing and let you wonder how ridiculously little I know about our talent levels, or I could do this, and remove all doubt. Wouldn't want to leave you wondering, right? (And yes, I get the schedules from Membership Director Heather Bohanan early enough to do separate week 1 picks nowadays, but you can probably glean most of those from this column...)

"A" Division: Ok, the Bullies are obviously great. Element has brought back Stevie Phillips, and they're obviously great as well. But I think the real A story is the realignment and reforming at the very next level. Alliance and Liver, in the wake of a lot of player movement, came together and made a very exciting roster. And Fringe, after a season with a few other goals accomplished, has come back into one and is now also a real power. I think it's now quite a super four at the top of A again (and I have to take my own Element this time around). Boom and Armed are quite good teams up from B, and I think they will show out pretty nicely even if they don't chalk up piles of wins. And I'm not fully certain what to make of the slimmed-down Matt's Tab squad, but I think this one might be kind of a long season...

"B" Division: This one is kind of tough... Blindsided is an interesting new mix of players, with some solid high end experience. Inconsistent made a huge pickup in Jimmie Jones. McGavin is back, with some Big Bulls in tow. Darty Minds made a sneaky good pickup in Randy Massengill. And what does that leave? The three teams that would have been expected to be the best based on past season finishes. Wow. This might just be the best race around, as I can see almost anything going down. I guess I'll take Serious, fresh off a season in A (which will make things very interesting next season if they do win... sigh), followed by Inconsistent, Hoptimistic, and Darty Minds. Maybe Procrastinaors, Blindsided and McGavin after that? Ugh.

"C" Division: A bit more roster consistency here in C than in some seasons, but still some notable changes. Trippin Bulls lost quite a bit of firepower, Frankie went ahead and added a nice Mike (even though the Mark count increased), and Nine Lives just feels a bit more like they won't be perpetually shorthanded as has often been the case. In the end, I like the weekly firepower potential of Dysfunctional Outlaws, and I think they'll just outrun Frankie. DD-214 will always be competitive, but will drop a couple they shouldn't and slide into third. The Niner, Trippin Bulls and Off Constantly will all win several, but end up middle-to-low. And while I super commend Dart Attack's honesty regarding their self-assessment on their roster, I'm thinking this division might be a tall order as a first venture together.

"D" Division: BullsHit went from winless in C to a monstrous Dustin Jones pickup and poof, they're a contender again. Hump Day evidently couldn't convince Bob Terry to continue his D-time experiment, so big bummer for them. Aside from that, these teams look to be pretty static (which would generally mean I would be more confident in this set of picks, but I have this creeping feeling that it's all a smoke and mirrors deception). I'll go with Rif Raf, followed by Methodical, and then the improved BullsHit. I think Sanchez will at least reach the middle of this division, followed by Hump Day, Cheap Shots, and the Bandits.

"E" Division: Aw, dang, no Merrill Bowman for the Sharks isn't a great thing. But that doesn't hurt as badly as no Adam Schoch for the Ducks... yikes. On the other hand, you know who IS back? Dave Johnson of Menace... and now the world feels right again. It's going to be a solid race, but I think I'm seeing the Rangers slip past the Machine for the title. Menace will be right behind them, towing Irish Ton and the Sharks in the next slots, with the Ducks and She Said bringing up the rear. But now that I type that, the whole thing worries me... the teams at the end feel too good to be at the end. Maybe this division ends up being nearly as competitive as B will?

"F" Division: Some more pretty consistent rostering here in F, with the lone exception being Cork, who lost a couple pretty big weapons this season. With the roll that Death Throw has been on, there's no chance that I'm not taking them in this one. Next, I think Fayetteville Street rebounds, then Dart Side and Cork roughly maintain their slots from last season. Bangin and YNTA then each climb up past Kenny and the Dart Knights, in a mini-recreation of some of their recent divisional rivalries from prior to last season.

"G" Division: And now we come to a group that is a conglomeration of recer teams, teams that split into more than one roster, and teams that have returned after a year or two off. I feel like the top two are pretty clear (which likely means they are actually anything but), and I'm going with a finishing order of Sofa Kings ahead of Shoot to Thrill. I think the Projectile Dysfunction half of the old Ones Are Closed pulls in ahead of Village Idiots and Who Darterd (the other half of the old Ones). The quickly-improving Rippin is next, ahead of We Throw It and then The Rock Bottoms (and would it be a little hilarious if the Bottoms end as a Middle or a Top).

THIS SEASON'S HOME BARS - Still shrinking a bit...

Geez, still not regaining bars after our pandemic-linked establishment drop. We dropped a couple more and got none back. So, we now sit at 21 host establishments, our lowest number since Spring 2001. Out from last season (2): Brown's Billiards and Triple Barrel Tavern - Fuquay-Varina [one of these lost its space to a huge rent bump that seems like part of a land sale plan, and is a HUGE loss for the RDL; and the other... well... maybe not quite the same story] New this season, or even just returning this season: (none)

THE PAGE OF INFORMATION THAT I RUN EVERY SEASON...

This is the place where I remind all of you of several things so that you can't say "I didn't know that" later on when you screw up. Sort of takes the blame off me if any of these bad things happen... which I sort of consider to be a good thing...

Some of these things change over the years, some don't... but please read them again.

This stuff is really important for the smooth flow of our nights out with our hobby.

COPIES OF COMPLETED SCORESHEETS

Keep a copy - it's as simple as that. I could give you all the reasons why, but I've done that a hundred times. Just keep a copy of your sheet, even if you lose, because you just never know when one of them will be lost by the postal service or your opponents. Hey, it has happened in twenty-four of the last thirty-five season...

EMAILED TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Of course, we email the Tons of Newsletter. In fact, that's the only way we distribute the newsletter in today's modern age (aside from posting it on the league website - another convenient and cost-effective electronic avenue). And if you were already on last season's list of Tons receivers, then you are still on the list. If you would like to be removed from the list, simply email me back and let me know. If you weren't on the list and you would like to receive it, just email my address listed on page 4 and I'll add you to the list. All you need is a relatively recent version of Microsoft Excel (or Acrobat Reader) to view it (and to not be a whiner, or an ass, or just difficult to like). I generally send the Tons out in the range of Sunday to Tuesday; however, if I get delayed a bit in some week, then I apologize, but it will be coming soon.

NO MORE HARD COPY TONS

For decades, the RDL mailed hard copies of the Tons to each team each week. Then we eventually cut that back to mailing them to just the host establishments each week. Now we've finally completed the transition to the modern electronic age, and dropped the hard copies altogether (except preseason and banquet issues). If anyone has issues with these versions, let me know and we'll figure it out.

SIMPLE TRUTHS THAT YOU SHOULD NEVER FORGET

1. Any player who plays in a match without properly registering and paying dues (register with the League Membership Director, pay the League Treasurer) prior to throwing is an ineligible player. Playing an ineligible player will cost your team its win (if you did indeed win), all game points from that match, and all statistics from that match, regardless of how well or poorly that ineligible player did.
2. Any player who doesn't play in any of the four primary sets of the match, but plays in the 1001 tiebreaker is an ineligible player - see number 1 (above) for the horror of this mistake.
3. Indicate which players of both teams took part in 1001 games on the front of the scoresheet. This is now MANDATORY, and allows us to check for ineligible players, record statistics, etc.
4. If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us a favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.
5. Wednesday player additions are not allowed. It turns out that Board members have dart matches too, so all roster additions are required to be completed no later than Tuesday for any player to play in that week's match.

MANY SCORESHEET RETURN PATHS AVAILABLE - BUT NOT ENTIRELY THE SAME AS IN RECENT YEARS!

We have three routes remaining for turning in your scoresheets..

First, you can use your scanner (or your phone in some cases and email me an image of the sheet (my email addresses are in the Tons every week and also on the back of the scoresheet)

Second, you can shoot me photos of your scoresheet if you want to take care of returning it immediately! Just make sure you have good lighting, you're close enough to the sheet, and it's IN FOCUS. (note: out-of-focus or overly dark photos will not be acceptable... duh). And you can send those photos by email or text (as with my email addresses, my phone number is on the scoresheet back).

Finally, you can still use the old school U.S. Postal Service. My address is also on the back of the scoresheet, but I caution you... I predict that this system will go away before too long (as I haven't received one via this route for a couple years now... plus the duration of a pandemic!).

[Quick note if you do actually decide to send me a hard copy via the snail mail side of things. Buying a ($1.35-ish?) certificate of mailing could prove to be a nice piece of evidence if your scoresheet ever gets lost in the mail. Do NOT send your scoresheet by certified mail - I do NOT want to have to go to the post office repeatedly (or at all, to be honest) to sign for your scoresheets.]

If you use any of the modern electronic methods, I'll even email or text you a quick confirmation of receipt (since I'll have your email address or phone number, of course) - thus eliminating any worry about whether the sheet got through to me :o).

NO CALL-IN REQUIREMENT FOR MATCH RESULTS

As of the Fall 2017 season, winning teams are no longer required to call in match results each week. And actually, the league is now at the point where we have discontinued the VoiceMail number. Not enough use of it to warrant the cost any longer.

TEAM NAMES ON YOUR SCORESHEETS

Every season there are several instances of teams listing the team names on opposite sides of the scoresheets (meaning that one team's name is written above the other team's players). Obviously, I will eventually figure these out when the names under a team name aren't on the roster, but it would be cool if you simply indicate the error in some way (or simply flip the names - I would rather an away team be on the home side and vice versa than have the wrong people ANI THUS BACKWARDS FINAL SCORE under each side). Thanks

CHECK BOTH SCORESHEETS

We run an item like this every season, and sometimes more than once. And here it is again because it's often needed repeatedly. When you are signing scoresheets at the end of the night, it is up to you to make sure that they match. If the other team turns in a sheet without your ASP or fast game or something, it really sort of doesn't exist... In RDL, not on the sheet = didn't happen.
