The "Day That We Finally Name Some Names And Bestow Some Top Honors" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Global Element (12+-12)

It's Element. It's Bullies. Of course it's 1001. Duh. A smart man would've bet on a tie. Even in a match that wasn't necessarily our best, there were still piles of huge shots and clutch finishes, with Stevie Phillips's double-20 sealing the deal in a 43-dart tiebreaker.

"B" Division - Why So Serious? (13-9)

Things started to feel a little dicey for Serious late in the season (seriously, a flat-out forfeit?), but in the end they still complete the season/tournament double, ending Iceman's upset run in the final.

"C" Division - Show Me Your Tips (14-4)

After a season in which they lost a third of their matches, dumping both of their last two, and having to outlast another 8-4 team for the season crown, Show Me puts it all together in the tournament, thumping Sanchez in the only final that didn't reach 501 this season.

"D" Division - One Armed Bandits (14-10)

In their third nailbiter matchup of the season, the Bandits squeeze past Off Constantly in the final, after having rolled through their first two tournament matches (clinching each in the first 501 set).

"E" Division - Bad Mutha Duckas (13-11)

The two teams way ahead of the pack in E (Ducks and Hump Day) did indeed meet in the final, and things went the full distance as expected. In game 3 of the final set, Laurence Converse donned the hero hat, checking out 75 with a third-dart double-Bull for the Mug!

"F" Division - Shoot-Da-Bull (13-9)

Oh, baby, some stuff went down in F!! The 7 beat the 2, and the 6 beat the 3, and the 6 beat the 7, and the 4 beat the 1, and a quarter-final had to change venue mid-match!! And in the end, the #6 seed Shoot-Da-Bull outlasted #4 Dart Side in the only final won by a team outside the division's top pair (five #1s and a #2 won the others).

"G" Division - Rippin Darts (12+-12)

After racing through week 11 undefeated, things got all kinds of dicey for Rippin before they eventually finished on top. The G tournament went the exact same way, with Rippin coming back from an 8-4 deficit in the final on Thorbjorn Gylfason's double-5 in 1001.

SPRING 2023 RDL DIVISIONAL TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

We got a few photos a few years ago, and... it was kind of great.. So this was a little minor tradition that I certainly wanted to encourage, and I asked the teams going into the tournament finals to consider taking a team photo and sharing it with us. This is one of my favorite items here. (No player name legends for these, but I'm sure the people in the photos know who they are. Plus, it's really about 'team' happiness anyway.)

SPRING 2023 PENALTY SUMMARY

Just like last spring, I'm happy to say that I frickin' love the modern RDL. We have easy return of scoresheets via emails or texts, we sometimes don't have elections when no offices have multiple candidates (and we never have elections in the spring), and we sometimes don't even need to hold the fifth week captains' meeting. Add all that up and we can now get seasons with very few penalties. And this season is no exception. We had only 3 total penalties for a total of 41 points, with no team getting more than one penalty, and no team above F division getting any. Two F teams got late scoresheet penalties, but their 16-point losses eventually cost them nothing in the standings. The one G team though, The Rock Bottoms (who got an ineligible player penalty worth 9 points), actually lost a spot in the standings due to their penalty. And that drop put them in G's "bottom-two"... so if a bunch of new teams form and we get our H division back in the fall... well... I'm not sayin', but I'm just sayin'.

SPRING 2023 TIEBREAKER SUMMARY

Seven divisions this season, five of them with a weekly bye, so not quite as many matches as some seasons. Still, we had 33 tiebreakers (30 during the regular season, 3 in the tournament). Kind of high maybe?

The only division with more than 5 total tiebreakers was F division, which had the most with a big ol' 9! A, B and C had 5 each; D and E had 4 each; and the only 1 in G was the tournament final!!

The Neighborhood Dart Knights In F took this season's Cardiac Kids award, as the only team playing more than 3 1001s (going 3-2, with the third win being a tournament quarterfinal that will go down in history...).

The Heartbreak Award was almost taken by eight different teams who lost two 1001s, but it was Bangin The Wire in F who suffered an 0-3 run.

SOME BAR INFO FOR FUTURE SEASONS

-near intersection. of N. Harrison & Highway 54

Quick note to captains / bar reps / team members / anyone with information about your establishment. If there is anything at all noteworthy that should be considered when the Board is scheduling tournament matches, PLEASE let the Board know. Unable to open/staff by 7 pm? Closing by midnight or earlier? Closing your kitchen (or drinks, gasp!) early on Wednesdays? Let the Board know and let's save us all some headaches later.

HIT A NEWLY ADDED SUMMER BLIND DRAW?

UPPER DECK

As in many previous years, throughout the summer break the Upper Deck will be adding a weekly Wednesday blind draw for all those who just want to keep their regular dart night out rolling through the break. 8 pm start, just like normal Deck Fridays.. And they'll be adding a double shot as well, so head on over!

OR MAYBE YOU WANT TO ADD ANOTHER LEAGUE?

Looking to add a second league this coming season? It isn't entirely clear when some other local leagues will be starting up, but it is for two of them, and one of them is a great new addition/replacement for what we lost when Brown's closed. Check in on the websites listed below periodically to get the most updated registration information for the upcoming seasons.

New Brass Tap & Billiards Summer League!!

Remember the very successful (and ever-growing) summer dart league that Dave Huffman hosted at Brown's Billiards for several recent summers? Well, Dave might be in Florida, and Brown's might be in the history books, but that doesn't mean a summer offering here in the Raleigh area won't be available! Taylor Caldwell, RDL's own League Treasurer, will be hosting a summer league at Brass Tap & Billiards (3316 Capital Boulevard, in the Starmount Shopping Center). $20 per person, and the "draft" will be held May 24th with a blind draw following. Play will start May 31st and run through July 19th. There's a cap of 48 players, with 8 players per team. Email Taylor (info on page 8) to sign up and arrange payment (also send her your current RDL division).

Triangle Dart League (TDL - Chapel Hill & Durham)

You have a bit more time to jump over to the TDL. Registration for their Fall season will be held on Thursday, July 13th at 7pm, at The Tavern in downtown Durham. Play will begin in early August. The teams in TDL consist of 6-10 players per team, and dues are $20/player per season (I think). Recent seasons have used bars in both Chapel Hill and Durham, but I suspect that might vary a bit each season, based on team preferences and signups. Check www.ibiblio.org/ncdarts/tdl/ for updates.

Bull City Dart League (BCDL - Durham)

If you happen to be interested in trying out one of the very few handicapped steel-tip leagues anywhere, maybe the BCDL is in your future. The dates are not set yet for the registration for the BCDL summer 2023 season, but based on the current season I'm expecting that registration will occur probably around July 18th. Teams in the BCDL have 4-8 players, dues are $25 per player per season (some of the host establishments cover half or all of those, so maybe ask around), and the home bars are primarily in RTP and the downtown Durham area. The best information (and any updates in the coming weeks) can be found at:

www.thebcdl.org That website also includes a wealth of information about the league and its rules, so if you're just interested in seeing how the league applies a handicap system to a steel-tip league, you can find all of that there, including rules, statistics, and scoresheet examples.

OR POSSIBLY PICK UP SOME TOURNAMENT ACTION?

Alright, a little bit different summer tournament scene this time around, as the Wreck at the Deck is taking a little break. So, no tournament right here in your back yard this summer, but we still have several options in NC/SC/TN that aren't too far out of reach. Check out the Central Virginia Classic, the Firecracker Open, the Charlotte Open, or the Music City Classic. Fliers for all four of those can be found on pages 21 & 22 of this newsletter, and definitely note that the Charlotte Open (July 7th-9th) also hosts the 2023 ADO Masters Nationals starting on Friday morning!

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs "C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs

"E, F" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "G" = 2.5 or more ASPs Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:

for Divisions "A", "C", "D", "E" and "G" (except team G2)

(7 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for team G2 (due to 1 forfeit received):

min. of 15 Singles Games Played, 30 Total Games Played for Divisions "B" (except team B6) and "F"

(8 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played for team B6 (due to 1 forfeit received):

min. of 18 Singles Games Played, 35 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

Late Scoresheet (16 points): Dart Side of the Moon (F,wk.8), The Neighborhood Dart Knights (F,wk.12).

Ineligible Player (any match win, all points, all statistics): The Rock Bottoms (G,wk.2, 9 pts.)

THE FIFTY-FIRST SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF: JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!) (This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Kevin Foushee	The Bullies	Been on the verge of this slot for a while.
Pat Gibson	The Bullies	Even when he says he's "off" he's not.
Chad Massengill	The Global Elemen	nt Plays best against the best opponents.
Robbie Phillips	The Global Elemen	nt He's just a quiet assassin. So efficient.
Stevie Phillips	The Global Elemen	nt Handful of darts from fully undefeated.
Mike Seward	Liver Alliance	Classic Seward resurfaced in a big way.
Alex Spellman	The Bullies	Even just part time, he changes things.
P.J. Stewart	The Bullies	What a farewell tour at the age of 18.
	"B" Division (felt li	ike so many options here)
Andrew Borgna	Put It on Matt's Ta	b Wow, the VP is a three-set B beast now.
Mike Cole	Why So Serious?	Tore people up in cricket, got by in '01.
Mike Jones	Dart Attack	Oh, this guy's a hammer & getting better.
Shane Murray	Dysfunctional Out	la Not back to his original form, but close.

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections With two divisions playing 14-week seasons, you would expect that anybody joining this club would come from there (B or F divisions). But that's not what happened! There were two players in F with 3 double-digit sets, but there were throwers in A and E who surpassed. First, our honorable mentions (for those 3 double-digit-win sets): Rick Blake of Ton 80 Proof and Bryan Hartley of the Village Idiots in F division; but better than that werRobbie Phillips of The Global Element in A, and Dave Finney of Bad Mutha Duckas in E. Which leaves only our two real Quadruple Double Winners: Stevie Phillips of The Global Element in A, and Randy Deemer of Hump Day! in E! Both Phillips and Deemer rang up 10+ wins in every set in only 12-week seasons! So impressive. -IronMan/Woman Award: With two divisions having 14 weeks, it's prett obvious the top candidates here would be from those (B and F). And in the end, that's exactly what happened. This season's Ironmen were Matt Ridgway of Blindsided in B division, ancTerron Amos of Neighborhood Dart Knights ir F, each with 60 games. Honorable mention for the other division leaders were: Stevie Phillips of The Global Element, and Tony Horton and Randy Massengill of Darty Minds in A, with 49 each; Matt Byrne of Rif Raf and Kevin Stewart of Shooter McGavin in C, with 49 each; Dustin Jones of BullsHit and Kevin Olson of Off Constantly-Reboot in D, with 50 each: Dawn Clement of That's What She Said in E with 57 (who is maybe the real IronWoman since she had only a 12-week season); and Erik Raymond of Rippin Darts in G with 54 games -The Team Attendance Award winners: Didn't have any teams at all who eve tried a portion of the season with just six throwers, so instead we'll just note a handful that all went the whole way with seven. While there were 5 teams that sprinkled in just a few games for an 8th or 9th player, there were 6 that fully played with just one above the minimum for a full roster: Why So Serious?, Blindsided and Dysfunctional Outlaws in B division, Shooter McGavin in C, Neighborhood Dart Knights in F, and Rippin Darts in G. Kinda close, I guess.

	Angelo Azevedo	Off Constantly-Reb	Nothing amazing, but always so steady.
	Dustin Jones	BullsHit	Starts huge, slowly cools across sets.
	Scott Kirkpatrick	Red-eye Rangers	Easily the horse pulling this team up.
	Kevin Olson	Off Constantly-Reb	Ok, so he's not our 501 specialist.
	Brady Price	Menace 2 Sobriety	Cricket beast, so we'll accept the '01s.
	Shane Richardson	One Armed Bandits	Singles crusher doesn't find much 501.
	Lou Tufillaro	Off Constantly-Reb	Heyo, look at those first three sets.
	J.J. White	Menace 2 Sobriety	If DCkt was like other 3 sets, he's MVP.
		"E" 	Division_
	Pat Ball	Irish Ton	Strong singles, getting by in doubles.
	Jeremy Cominole	Irish Ton	See that comment for Ball just above?
	Randy Deemer	Hump Day!	Was a complete hammer for runners-up.
	Tim Ellis	Bad Mutha Duckas	Honestly here in spite of the doubles.
	Dave Finney	Bad Mutha Duckas	This guy is a monster. Move him up.
	Somchai Samaluk	Bad Mutha Duckas	The old Som is starting to show again.
	Rob Stuckey	Hump Day!	A good team needs the just-solid guys.
	Tolson Willis	Death Throw	Great season for the near-upset bunch.

	Terron Amos	Neighborhood Dart	Just a few more doubles wins and it's on.
	Rick Blake	Ton 80 Proof	Wow, this is a heavyweight win count.
	Andy Bowen	Bangin The Wire	Another season as Bangin's top gun.
	Sebastian Dehnel	Ton 80 Proof	Feels like he kinda lives on this page.
	Bryan Hartley	Village Idiots	Three 11-win sets to close out a match.
	Eric Haywood	Village Idiots	A big piece of the Idiots' serious depth.
	Nick Jones	Village Idiots	Really just ignore the minor DCkt lull.
	Jerrell Swepson	Neighborhood Dart	Man, what a huge leap to being top dog.
	"G"	Division (this could	have been about a dozen…)
	John Amarante	Runs with Corks	Quite a beast across all four sets.
	John Heath	Nein Mark	Kind of a slow starter, but then tough.
	Dakota Helton	Rippin Darts	Rolled in singles, still good in doubles.
	Mike Kelly	Ones are Closed	Carried the Ones through first 3 sets.
	Chase McDonald	Rippin Darts	Top shot for the double champs.
	Evan McMillan	The Rock Bottoms	Was a cricket shark the entire season.
	Chris Moody	Runs with Corks	Immediately at the top of the division.

MY PRESEASON, WEEKLY, & TOURNEY PREDICTION RESULTS

Those first three sets are just fire.

As usual, I'm left with the option of trying to bluff my way through this part, or just telling the truth. And since I know some of you squirrel away every last thing I've ever written about your team, I will again give real results... bummer. Sometimes these results can border on embarrassing...

Nein Mark

In my preseason picks (usually the toughest every season given the imminent roster changes/additions), let's note one key thing: I PICKED EVERY DIVISION WINNER. SEVEN FOR SEVEN. Beyond that, I did pretty well with most teams. Nobody in A was more than a couple matches off. My top B two in ended up as the tourney finalists, and while I oversold Boom, I undersold Uber. In C, I was pretty close to everything except not giving Sanchez enough credit. My D picks would have been almost perfect if I had just flipped Menace and the Rangers. I just about super-nailed E division. In F, I undersold both of the teams that had moved up a division into F, but got pretty much the rest. And then in G, I was just short on both Cork and Nein Mark. All in all, I think my preseason picks were mostly pretty great. Did I mention I hit every winner?

My weekly prediction results you can peruse pick-for-pick on the other side of this sheet of paper. As noted on that page, while I crushed A division (where I play), I kinda limped through the other six divisions, finishing between 54% and 70% in all of them. That's... not awesome. It was also not awesome that EIGHT teams fooled me more often than not (and three more finished at a flat 0.500). In the end, I finished with less than 65% correct overall. Better than a lot of people could do, I'm sure, but nowhere near for what I was hoping.

Last but not least were my tournament predictions... Often when we jump to best-of-3, my picks get stronger, despite the fact that I'm picking semifinals and finals that I conceivably could have wrong before the matches are even played. And this season was exactly that! I ROCKED in all but one tourney. I was 14-6 in the quarterfinals (with 3 more dumped to forfeits), then I was 11-3 in the semifinals, and then I went a monster 5-2 in the finals. 30-11 overall!! And I was 1-6 in F (horrible), so I was 29-5 in the other 6 divisions (awesome!).

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

(I introduced this page thirty-seven seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to email or text me and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the three 'o' symbols indicate the teams for which I was only 0.500, and the eight 'x' symbols indicate the teams that fooled me more often than not. [What a hot friggin' mess some of these picks were this season... I don't think this was my worst overall season (or even that close to it), but it was certainly my worst with a specific group of teams. I was 5-9 or 4-8 or 4-10 with FIVE teams... Ugh. - JK]

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS... REVISITED

I now run this column during seasons in which I've included trivia questions all season. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but it's usually not too much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week number when it ran, and the answers follow the questions. No peeking...

Week 7 question: As anyone who has read the Tons for a long time knows, I personally think the regular season title is the real achievement in RDL land, requiring months of steady play and committed attendance, etc. (as opposed to the tournament title that really only requires a couple nights of good play by as few as just 2 or 3 of your top players). In light of that, I think a week 14 heads-up battle for a division is the real marquee show in any given season. And obviously, that battle in A division would be my vote for biggest match of the year, since it crowns the league's top overall team. So, the question here is... in my 51 non-Covid seasons as the statistician, how many times did week 14 feature a winner-take-all head-to-head matchup in A (meaning the top two teams either had the same W/L record, or that the second place team was within one win but with more total season points entering that match)?

Week 8 question: Since we've gone to the divisional fast games and high in/out awards, we've faced divisional logjams at 120-In quite a few times. More impressive is when we have a logjam at 160(!). What is the greatest number of 160-Ins we've had in one season since I became statistician in 1996? [Note: before 2010, "Ins" were allowed any turn, not just the first.]

Week 9 question: We are down to two undefeated teams in any division this season. Clearly, teams undefeated in the season are among the tournament "favorites." In my time as statistician (51 non-Covid seasons with tournaments, with 377 divisions), how many undefeated teams failed to even reach their tournament final?

Week 10 question: Back in week 5 of the Spring 1996 season (my first as the RDL statistician), I offered my first match predictions column. When I started out, I just picked a handful of important matches to highlight each week. That list of picks expanded over the next few seasons, and by the start of 2000 I was picking every match every week so that nobody felt left out each week. Back in those early seasons, I didn't keep a running total of my record with each team (although at some point I could go back and create one, but I'm not doing that for this lone trivia purpose). But starting in Fall 2003 I did. Soooo... from Fall 2003 through 2022, what are the worst single-season correct pick records I've had for a team? (And yes, this question is fully inspired by the hot messes that are my current season's picks for matches involving Put It on Matt's Tab, Double In, Uber Out, Double In Stumble Out, Cheap Shots, and Menace 2 Sobriety!)

Week 12 question: I've always offered to any team that prefers it, that I would completely refrain from including their team in any writeups, predictions, columns, etc. Some teams might just not want anything written about them or including them. And in all my years here (this is the start of my 28th year as the RDL statistician, with 27 years of play due to Covid), exactly one team/captain has requested exactly that. So, who is the only team (and captain) to ever demand that I not include them in anything in the newsletter (aside from the standings and statistics, of course)?

Week 13 question: This past week, we had both a match forfeit and a late scoresheet penalty. What are the records for the lowest numbers of forfeits in a season, and the lowest number of penalties in a season (at least during my tenure as RDL statistician, 1996-present)?

Week 14 question: Robbie Phillips of The Global Element is hanging out in some pretty rarified air in terms of ASP Average (this despite how few turns per game he actually throws!). In light of that, what is the RDL ASP Average record for a season?

Week 7 answer: I admit before I researched this answer, I would have guessed there had been more than I found. Some seasons a team ran too far ahead, some seasons the top teams didn't square off in the last week, and some seasons the second place team started out behind (but within reach) and just stayed there (even if they won the week 14 pairing). In the end, I found there have been only 7 week 14 winner-take-alls at the top of A during my 51 non-Covid seasons as statistician. In Sp96, Lunatic Fringe kept the top spot over 3 In A Bed, 14-10; in Fa03, The Subversive Element passed Varina Sports Bar, 17-7; in Fall, Not Non-Element kept the #1 spot over Just A Little High, 17-7; in Fa13, Element Twenty-Won passed Bullklitz, 13-11 (with a 13-darter in the last 501!!); in Sp18, Appetite for Destruction passed Element XXX, 12-12 (in a super-fast 1001 with the teams combining for 24.6 points/dart); in Sp22, The Bullies kept first over The Uncharted Element, 12-12 (in a 34-dart 1001 with a turn average of >88.3); and in Fa22, The Convergent Element kept first over The Bullies, 13-11. So yep, it was only 5 of 49 seasons before the last year and the current historic Element-Bullies series. [Ridiculous super kudos to both Paul Jacobi and Tom Brown, who each came up with perfect guesses of 7 times while we were just standing at our match. No research, no record perusing, just separate perfect guesses (and also not hearing each other). Ummm... wow.] [Answer update for the banquet Tons: This season we added the 8th wk14 winnertake-all match in my 52 full seasons here, and it was the Element and Bullies for the 3rd straight season!! Add to the legacy of the league's best matchup ever. And for the 3rd straight season, the team in 1st kept hold of first, this time with The Global Element winning that matchup 19-5.]

Week 8 answer: Alright, sooo... the first thing to acknowledge here is that the rules for "Ins" have changed over the years. For 1996-2006, the High In was a leaguewide award, and any turn that scored your first points was considered ok (i.e., not getting in for eight turns and then hitting one big shot after your opponent has already missed two turns at the out was celebrated as a great achievement). For 2007-2009, "Ins" were still allowed after the first turn and Ins/Outs/Games were now separated into divisional awards (which changes little in terms of this question). But then starting in 2010, it was decided that only "First Turn Ins" would be award-eligible, which mathematically seems like it would change the rates of 160s, but... somehow it hasn't that much?! Let's start with the fact that 6 of the 28 seasons with "any turn Ins" sported a 170-In, while 2 of the 24 seasons with "first turn-only Ins" had 170s. Beyond that, 7 seasons had logjams of 4 160s (4 in the any turn era, 3 in the first turn era), and 4 seasons had logiams of 5 160s (3 in the any turn era, 1 in the first turn era). Which leaves two seasons (Fall 2005 in the any turn era, and Fall 2019 in the first turn era) as the biggest logiams with 6 "Ins" of 160 tying for the league best [side note for Fall 2019, one of those was a repeat by one thrower who had two, but that season also had another non-award-winning 160-In in the tournaments].

Week 9 answer: As noted in the question, we have had 377 divisions in my 51 non-Covid seasons, and 54 of those divisions (14.3% of the divisions) finished the regular season with an undefeated team. Of those 54, 41 of them went on to complete the undefeated double, while 10 more of them lost in the tournament final. Which means that we have had exactly 3 undefeated regular season teams fail to reach their tournament finals. All three lost in the semifinals (which was the first tournament match for each, as all three played in 7-team divisions). In Spring 2008, Money Shot won H division by 5 matches, then lost 12-7 to #4 seed Ale-ing Archers. In Spring 2018, Diddle Diddle won B division by 5 matches, then lost 14-10 to #5 seed Kiss My... And in Spring 2022, Darty

WANNA HEAR ONE OF THE BEST "TEAM POLICING ITSELF" STORIES EVER?

Last season I was emailing with a league member regarding something that had happened in a North Carolina City Dart League match, during which a player's team began fighting with him / turning on him, due to his behavior throughout the match. What I got in return is one of the funniest RDL team actions of which I've ever heard. Here is the story (with the main offender anonymized to save embarrassment / avoid a fight, but with another kept in by name so that he earns full bas-ass-ery points in everyone's eyes. The story as told to me: "Reminds me of when I was on Anthony Martin's team (yep, prior Board member Anthony Martin!) and "The Butthead In Question" was on our team. Butthead was being such a jerk about ASPs – he needed 1 bull to win and threw at 16s for ASPs for 6 or 7 turns and was bragging that he had more ASP than the whole other team. Anthony warned him about it and said he was being an ass and of course, being Butthead, he kept doing it. At the end of the match, several players told Anthony that they would finish the season, but were not coming back because Butthead was such an embarrassment. Anthony shared that he told him multiple times that night to stop, and this was not the first time this had come up. After a team discussion, it was decided to kick Butthead off the team, effective immediately. What is extra funny about this story is that, Anthony took a page from the TONS, flipped it over on the back and wrote something to the effect of 'Dear Butthead, the whole team is disgusted with your unsportsmanlike behavior regarding being in the game for ASPs and bragging about how you are better than the entire other team. Since you are not inclined to discontinue this behavior despite being spoken to about it multiple times, the team has unanimously voted to kick you off, effective immediately.' And we all signed it. And the next day at work, Anthony faxed him the sheet!!!!! (Keep in mind this was before mass email, but it still makes me laugh to this day that someone was kicked off a team via a fax.

Alright, I know the person that I identified as Butthead in this story, and I know Anthony, and I COMPLETELY believe every last syllable of this story. This is EXACTLY who those two people are. And this outcome is friggin' priceless. Such a champ, and such a chump. And on a related note, if this was how you were to win an award like this, would it really mean anything to you? What a weak way to go about your day. I've had teammates that we felt threw unnecessary ASPs every now and then, but it hasn't really ever mattered to any awards, mostly because there's this guy in A who is the most efficient assassin in league history (how we wins ASP awards while probably throwing less than half as many turns as most others is beyond me). Anyway... haven't seen Butthead here in RDL-land in a while now... such a bummer...

Sanchez won E division by 4 matches, then lost 13-9 to #4 seed Red-eye Rangers. [Answer update for the banquet Tons: this season's only undefeated regular season team, The Global Element in A division, did indeed add to the season/tournament double list.

Week 10 answer: In the 37 seasons contained within this question, there were 2125 teams, with 2 of them who never played (leaving 2123 teams). And my average correct pick rate is about 72% per team. But there have been 8 teams (sort of) that fooled me at such an alarming rate that I actually got at least 72% wrong for those teams. I say "sort of" because 4 of those 8 teams did not play complete seasons. One team, The Groupers from Sp19's H div., folded after one match, so I was 0-1. Then three teams from the abbreviated Sp20 Covid season (C div.'s Projectile Dysfunction, D div.'s Sharky's Machine, and D div.'s Hump Day!) fooled me in 6, 7 and 6 matches, respectively, but we all know I would've figured that trio out! Which leaves the 4 real kings of confusing me... The first 3 here all fooled me 9 of 12 weeks: Modena of Fa03's E div., Bennington Brawlers of Sp06's F div., and Sharky's Machine (again!) of Sp15's C div. And then there was the Fa13 B division version of Overtime Outlaws, who fooled me a huge 10 of 13 times (thankfully, they forfeited in wk13, after I had endured a 9-match wrong streak!). [Answer update for the banquet Tons: Nope, neither Put It on Matt's Tab nor Double In, Uber Out was able to continue fooling me enough this season to break this record. Uber Out did finish as this season's biggest problem children for me (4-10), but that level didn't reach the problem child level above.]

Week 12 answer: Arrowing Experience and captain Craig Coker in the Spring 2000 season. I had written in a prediction that preseason-me had thought they would have more wins at the midpoint, and that was a personal affront that he couldn't/wouldn't accept. So, they were withheld from all columns for the remainder of the Spring 2000 season, and then through the Fall 2000 season. After 2000, the team folded and never returned (although a couple of their players joined other teams for a season or two before disappearing).

Week 13 answers: Let's start with the forfeits... After looking up all the digits, I admit that I was a little surprised by how many forfeits we've actually had. This is my 53rd season as statistician (with one season ended after week 8, and this season not quite complete yet), and we've had 311 regular season forfeits, for an average of 5.87 forfeits per season. Some of the larger number seasons are obviously driven by a team or two that forfeits out, who then subsequently has at least a handful of automatic forfeits attributed to their records. In the end, the highest number of forfeits in a season was 18 (in Fall 2008), followed by a season with 15 (Fall 1997), and three seasons with 14 each. The lowest number of forfeits was actually 0, and that has happened only TWICE (Spring 2001, Spring 2022), followed by 5 seasons w/ 1 forfeit each.

Now for the penalties... in the first 42 seasons I was here, there were literally dozens of penalties worth hundreds of points in most seasons. But then a few factors started filtering in, including electronic submission of scoresheets, skipping the fifth week captains' meetings some seasons, not always requiring election ballots in the election years where no more than one person ran for each office, and eventually texting of scoresheet photos. We had a pretty clear decrease in penalties starting with the Spring 2005 season, and then again starting in about Spring 2013. But it was in Spring 2018 that penalties really started getting rarer!! In the past 9 seasons (which include both the 8-week Covid season and the current not-quite-complete season), we've had only a total of 35 penalties for 454 points (and a match win or two). And the lowest ever (which was actually tied with the shortened Sp20 season, but that's not the same) was the Spring 2022 season. In that season, F division's Backpfeifengesicht picked up a 16-point late scoresheet penalty in week 3, and that was the entire sum total of penalties for the season. Only full season ever with fewer than 3 penalties. [Answer update for the banquet Tons: We only had 2 forfeits during the regular season this spring, but then we tagged on 3(!) more in the tournaments (2 in B, 1 in G). And, as highlighted on pg. 6, there were only 3 penalties for a total of 41 points this spring.]

Week 14 answer: During my 53 seasons as the RDL statistician, there have been 52 times that an individual threw more than 30 games and averaged 2.000 or more ASPs (with 3 of those this season). Those 52 are spread across 12 individuals, with only 3 of them doing it more than 3 times each. And the king is clearly Robbie Phillips himself, who did it for the 25th(!!) time this spring. And while Phillips's 2.630 average this season is only the 2nd time there was an average higher than 2.6, it didn't quite catch his own 2.698 in the Fall 2013 season. (For those wondering, Phillips would have needed 3.5 more ASPs to have passed his own record.)

I LOVE WHEN COLUMNS "LAND" FOR PEOPLE

I type stuff, I email it, and maybe people read it. I hope they enjoy it, or that it brings something to their day. Every now and then I get confirmation that some item was good in some way for somebody. Here's a perfect example of one such connection from Matt Heimbach regarding a lyric quiz a while ago. I love when stuff here relates to real life for somebody, and I love when they care enough to share it. Matt wrote: "The week 7 Danzig lyric - The first one brought back some memories. My mom really liked Mother when it became popular, so I bought her the album. About a week later she said that while she liked the one song, she really didn't like the rest of the album. So I made her a "mix tape" cassette for her car that consisted only of Mother on repeat over and over and over and over and over again. On both sides. And for the next 6 months, whenever she'd drive me to whatever after-school thing I was doing, that's the song we'd listen to. Over and over and over again. Somehow I still don't hate the song.

LOOKING FOR SUMMER DARTS?

Did you happen to see the listings of summer offerings on page 7? There are leagues, blind draws, full tournaments, etc. But one of those leagues (which is made to fit in the RDL open time) is set to jump off this coming week. See page 7 for details about signing up.

I FOUND TWO MORE FROM MATT!

Heimbach also shared stories regarding two more lyrics, one funny and one just a spot-on memory: "1) Harvey Danger - Flagpole Sitta. First time I heard that song I was in a car with my friend and her double-amputee dad. When the amputee line was sung... awkward! [If you know the lyrics, yep... awkward. -JK] And 2) Men Without Hats - Safety Dance. One of the few songs at my own wedding that got me up and dancing. My wife didn't want it played but the DJ convinced her because everybody dances to it. He was right."

        [Like the last many seasons, we used three-song groups each week and also included a theme each and every week. Added a layer to the game for everybody and has been quite popular. Here are the themes for each week, including the week 14 fifteen-song set that proved to be tough again for every guesser who played except for Pete Rutten of Hump Day!, and even he got barely more than half. - JK] Week 2 theme: Well, as I noted in the week 2 issue, this set was likely very difficult, and the only real 'theme' was that all three songs were by the same band. The reality of the set is they were my three favorite songs by Doug Jeffcoat's favorite band (I would have used his favorite three, but as far as I can tell, his three favorite Volbeat songs were... all of them. So I just picked my favorite three. And then I sat alone and listened to Volbeat until nearly 4 a.m., nodding my head and acting out the best lines with Doug one more time. Shortly before 4 a.m. I decided I should probably go to bed since I had to work the next day. Was a great night.. Week 3 theme: All songs by artists from Puerto Rico. Since last week's issue was the first Tons I had ever sent you while in Puerto Rico, it just seemed appropriate. Week 4 theme: This one wasn't anything deeper than some of the biggest (and longest-lasting) pop dance tunes of the '80s. I also picked it because, after a couple weeks of tough lyrics, I thought I would toss you guys a set of softballs. The fact that it's a set that a lot of you are probably a little bashful about admitting that you know is just a (very intentional) bonus.
                                                     Week 5 theme: Nope, you're not seeing things... this set was all about hallucinogens.
 Week 6 theme: Alright, if you can't get the theme when the song titles are Come Sail Away, Drift Away, and Sailing, then I really can't help you.
 Sure, the first one is really kind of about aliens and space, but that's secondary when the song title fits this group so perfectly.
    Primary songs featured in movies developed from Saturday Night Live skits! Blues Brothers, A Night at the Roxbury, and Wayne's World.
   Two of them classics, and the other one mostly just famous for being an earworm with a stupid story. But all SNL moneymakers nonetheless.
        Week 8 theme: Well, now that you've seen the titles of the songs, it's pretty obvious that we were just fooling around with this set.
  Week 9 theme: Songs by one artist that are titled for/are about an entirely different artist.
                                                                                          Week 10 theme: I can see that... I can see you...
   You seeing the same thing as me? You know, kinda the sentiment that your opponent might be directing toward you if you choose to diddle second, don't wait for a chalker, and pull the diddles quickly without checking with the opponent. Pretty much exactly the top reminder (of things never to do) at the top of page 1 in the previous issue of the Tons.
                                                                      Week 11 theme: Yep, it's the preposterously obvious (if you got the genre-crossing songs) theme of RDL community pillar Mark Knight passing. He died far too young, I will never forget him, and I hope against hope that whatever awaits me brings me across his path again. Week 12 theme: People who go around spying on others... secret agents, spies, private investigators, etc.
                                   Week 13 theme: Clearly, this one is all about the pilot here. Which is who I should be traveling with pretty soon. Woowoo!!
                      Week 14 theme: Bands/duos with an ampersand in their name. And they were listed alphabetically (and we actually used the lead singer's first name as the sorting item in those cases, as those are more of a band name than just a singer name).

THE GREATEST "RIVALRY" IN THE 45-YEAR HISTORY OF THE RDL

I've been here for almost 60% of the existence of the RDL, and I've collected records from many years prior to my time. And I can tell you, in no uncertain terms, that the RDL has recently been experiencing the single greatest rivalry/story in its history. Since the start of 2019, Element and The Bullies have been waging the highest-performance, highest-drama, most evenly matched series of battles at the top of the RDL heap; somehow, I don't have the words to fully convey it all to you (and we all know that I am never at a loss for words). And I use the term 'rivalry' to convey an image, but the one feature associated with that word that is missing here is the animosity that some might expect - this is a group that fully respects each other and lives for these matches. It has been an honor to just be involved with them in any way. Check out these results from Sp19-Sp23 (the Sp20 season had only one regular season matchup, and no tournament)... Regular season W/L: Element 76-8, Bullies 76-8; Head-to-head regular season record: Element 8 wins, Bullies 5 wins; Head-to-head tournament records (all in finals matches): Element 2 wins, Bullies 3 wins; Regular season titles: Element 4, Bullies 3; Tournament titles: Element 2, Bullies 4; in the last 9 pairings, FIVE have gone to 1001, and two more went to final 501s in 11-11 matches; and Element is the ONLY team to defeat Bullies in that entire span (Element dropped a couple additional ones and missed a final in the season immediately post-Covid when they were struggling to not be shorthanded every week). /// I don't generally list all the people in team photos, but in honor of this ongoing awesomeness, I'm going to put a name to each of the faces above in case you come across them...

DID YOU NOTICE THAT WE HAD ANOTHER TYING OF A LEAGUE RECORD TIED IN THE TOURNAMENTS?!

We already knew Robbie Phillips of The Global Element set a new league standard in SCkt with a 10-darter. And we already knew that Alex Spellman tied the league 301 record with our 11th 7-darter (two of which are his). But in the tournament semifinals, Chad Massengill of The Global Element, became the 10th member of the 7-dart 301 club, tossing the league's 12th so-nearly-perfect effort.

As noted on page 4, we've continued our recent little tradition of encouraging tournament- winning teams to submit team photos from their victorius evening. Just pretty great to share in the moment and save that memory. (No player name legends for these, but I'm sure the people in the photos know who they are. Plus, it's about 'team' happiness anyway.)

F division tournament champions - Shoot-Da-Bull

I'm ready to see this season go. We lost so much this season. This one was painful like none before for me. I'm very ready to not lose any more friends for quite a while. Mortality kinda sucks. Damn.

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

Nowadays, it's a fact... this column has become a banquet Tons staple. I have no idea why so many are so keen on taking a peek into the oddness that is my head, but you are. So without further ado, let's open up my head again and see what falls out. Some of these observations are dart-related, and some of them clearly are not. As always, this is just about the last thing that I'm writing and this season is certainly no exception... soooo, also as always not even I know what's about to hit the page...

- -- You know what really warms my heart? When some little street racer or jacked up truck with a lift kit gets flat-out dusted from a light by a silent little electric car like a Prius. Not that I'm some huge electric car proponent or something, but I'm absolutely a non-proponent of any vehicle that has intentionally-altered exhaust systems with a goal of just making them ridiculously loud. Same goes for a big old motorcycle or dirt bike or really any vehicle at all. I just love seeing somebody sit and rev their engine to send out their redneck love call to anyone within earshot (which is a long way), and then watching them take off from a standstill while watching some simple quiet little vehicle just drive away from them. Super double bonus if the idiot with the loud vehicle stalls out or something! //// And I'll expand this one a bit to enlighten anyone with the altered tailpipes... I will speak on behalf of the rest of us with actual functioning frontal lobes: Nope, we don't think your dumbass pipes make you look cool. Or enviable. Or desirable. (Yeah, sorry to confirm that one for you, but the only ladies that will be drawn in by your stupid childish noisemakers would serve themselves much better by trying to become involved with a dentist or an oral surgeon.) So the only people really looking to check out your idiotic loud-ass ride are the people who want to know who their kids are never allowed to bring home, who want to see what inbred goober would make themselves such a stupid spectacle, or who want to know which car they are not-so-secretly hoping will veer over and clip a telephone pole.
- -- It's probably just me, but for some reason, I think this is just an odd terminology for a grocery product. Maybe I'm just juvenile, I don't know. But the term "walnut meats" immediately made me chuckle.

- -- You know how people say "have a good day" or something similar? Does it strike anybody else as odd that when we are attempting to give a nice farewell sentiment to somebody, that we are really sort of giving them an order? Hey, buddy, I'm telling you that you are now to go in that direction and make your day good! I don't know, just makes me feel funny after thinking about it, so now I try to say "I hope you have a good day" or something like that . Less demanding. :o)
- -- After the tournament semifinals, Ken Theall of Ton 80 Proof sent me this message: "Dart Side totally rag-dolled us last night. We were tossing jarts and they were throwing laser darts. A very humbling ass whipping. See you at the banquet!" Which was a huge throwback to my youth! Oh, I so miss Jarts!! Look at these bad boys! (Note: photo taken from a story titled "Remembering a dangerous game" in the Glen Falls, NY Post-Star. Ha! Perfect.)

- -- Can somebody explain to me why Jennifer Coolidge is such a popular actress?! Yeah, I know that she was Stifler's Mom in American Pie and all that, but I would argue that doesn't support any argument here. Every time I see her in anything, she just intentionally plays some ditzoid fool, often with some horrible put-on foreign accent. I'm sure that she is probably quite an intelligent and societally functional woman, so why doesn't she ever play one in a show/movie? That whole dipstick shtick is so off-putting. Ugh.
- -- You know what the fastest way to get me to NEVER ever share/repost/copy/whatever something from one of your social media posts is? Add any sort of "bet you aren't comfortable enough to share this" or "I expect any of my real friends to repost this" or "if you truly are in favor then copy and paste this to your own feed" type of comment. You beg me or challenge me to post something and the odds falls to exactly zero. Not low, actual zero. Doesn't matter the context, I'm not doing it. Try your dumb guilt manipulation somewhere else. (Or, more likely, the message that you didn't write at all, that you just went and copied from somebody else because they guilt-manipulated you, can go and try that on somebody else.)
- -- I've decided that there is a class of words that drives me nuts. It's words that just aren't sure themselves as to how they should be spelled. Is it judgment or judgement? It is acknowledgment or acknowledgement? Is it canceled or cancelled? Is it adviser or advisor? Is it ax or axe? Is it omelet or omelette? And these aren't even the words where we just debate whether it's the American version or the English version (since most of those just debate the importance of a potentially extraneous 'u' anyway). There are lots of others that are really close, but that actually have slightly different meanings or histories (inquire/enquire, specter/spectre, timbre/timber, etc.), but the ones I'm complaining about here are ones where both words mean the exact same thing and I can't find a good reason why one or the other is the better choice. Just more words for the sake of more words! (Sounds like a column I would write, no?)
- -- Man, you know you're a really big dang city when you can support businesses like a gum removal company. That is all they do, just get gum out of things. For the record, this one is in NYC. Sadly, I don't think they were there to work on the sidewalks...

-- Ever watch Young Sheldon, the prequel series to Big Bang Theory, following the childhood of Sheldon Cooper (the biggest of the nerds in Big Bang)? I, being a nerd myself, kinda love both shows, and I think the writing is pretty witty and well done. But the point of this item is season 1, episode 13, titled "A Sneeze, Detention, and Sissy Spacek." In that episode (that aired in... 2018!), Sheldon develops a germophobia, starts wearing masks and gloves, and worries about a new flu strain. Not really a super stretch in the aftermath of the bird flu and all, but still... 2018.

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK - PART II!!

-- So I sat down to try to decide what single thing is the most absolutely aggravating thing which I deal. Not the thing with which I have to deal the most often, but the thing that, when I do have to do deal with it, is the worst. Now we're not talking actual evil (people who hit their kids, people who abandon animals, people who steal, etc.), we're just talking about the absolute worst parts of regularly accepted days and tasks. And I think I have it... It's not really bad drivers (although they are freakin' close), it's not people's pets pooping on stuff or breaking stuff (although those people need to be smacked around), and it's not even people who treat service industry folks poorly (although there is also a special little place in hell for those folks too). In the end, I think for me and my personal spot in life, the most aggravating thing is... anything at all to do with Ticketmaster (and it took everything I had to not type that as TicketBastard or some other equally insulting title). It's stunning how much I hate that company. I hate the exorbitant fees they charge (seriously, how much money do they make in a day?!). I hate the dynamic pricing model. I hate the queue for tickets that is inevitably followed by clicking on pair after pair of seats marked as available that actually are not (why is it so damn expensive in fees if the system can't keep up with its own series of functions?). And now I absolutely despise that no matter which browser I use, with which level of security and privacy turned off, that their system still can't distinguish me from a bot, despite the fact that I've done nothing but push the "buy tickets" button to literally anything. They FORCE me to use their phone app, which is twice as bad as their computer site, which already sucked. It's as if their website was just terrible and expensive, and they had a meeting to decide what they could do to make it even worse. "I've got it... we'll force people to switch to a phone browser where the search filters rarely work, the page loads twice as slowly, and the patrons can't efficiently compare any seat values even in the same seating level. That'll really drive them crazy!!" It has gotten to the point that we've gone to a different venue that doesn't employ TicketMaster for the same show, or we've skipped shows entirely. And no, I'm not holding my breath that the legislators trying to put restrictions on them will have any success at all. Winless situation.

-- A few weeks ago, on my way home from my RDL match, I ended up behind this vehicle. I think it's some model of Mitsubishi, but my best game for model name might be Tippy or Tall or Slim or just High Center Of Gravity. Look at that thing, it has to be twice as tall as it is wide. Only took up half its lane. I stayed back a bit when the light changed, as it looked like it was going to flop over in the first curve. I mean, how the heck does that thing not tip over?? Is there a gyroscope in it?!

-- You know what I love in darts? The camaraderie and great sportsmanship. But you know what I don't love? The need some people have to fist bump at the end of every game and also at the start of the next game. Not really a thing in our regular season, but when tournament time hits, it is. And I spend a lot of time playing in the NC City Dart League, and best-of-three sets of four-man 701 are a standard part of every match there. I like all you guys, but I don't need to shake your hand when we arrive at the board, fist bump after the first diddle, fist bump after the first game ends, fist bump after the second game ends, and theeeeeeennn... when we go to a third game, fist bump after that diddle and that game conclusion too. At the start and finish of the set really should be sufficient, no?

-- As most of you know, I split my work between Duke and the Durham VA. At the VA, the parking saga has been a long and bumpy road, and very little about our parking decks make sense. Since I'm there many days a week, I know how it all goes. But the patients who are NOT there regularly often feel very lost. [To highlight, the visitors enter the parking deck on the 3rd level, they aren't allowed to go to 1 & 2 on most days (but not all), and the parking levels in the two decks we have do not line up with each other, or with the floors of the walkway to the hospital. Super clear.] And to "help" the guests coming in, the parking deck company (a contractor that is NOT officially part of the VA itself) posted these signs in the elevators. And yes, you're seeing that correctly - they put up signs where the "Ground" is at the top of the sign, and "Level 6" is at the bottom, despite the fact that this is NOT a deck built down into the earth. So, to help confused people, they posted a stacked sign in the opposite order of the floors themselves. At least they posted the color of each level (both in a color panel AND in a typed word, mind you!) to further help - this despite the fact that I've worked there for fifteen years and I've never seen more than maybe one post per level that has any color at all on it. I don't even know what I would say to somebody who thought this sign would somehow make things better. The only bit of helpful information at all is that the skywalk is on level 4, a fact already on the elevator door frame, the elevator wall, and the elevator button panel. Couldn't they have added where the entry is, or where the employee levels were, or.... sigh, whatever.

- -- Have you ever seen a darter reach out to catch a bounce out dart? Or even better, stick their foot under it? Exactly what gene mutation do those people have to make that a good idea?
- -- Why do people drive five miles each way to save a nickel per gallon of gas? If your car gets 20 miles per gallon, you just used up half a gallon of gas (about $1.70) to save a nickel maybe 16 times (about $0.80). If you're not heading over to a Sam's Club or a Costco or something, maybe just stop along your way, no?
- -- This past Friday, March 31st, I hopped in the car with my wife to head to Charleston (where she was running a race the next day with some friends). On the way, we stopped for gas in SC, and randomly ended up at some monstrosity named Buc-ee's. We had "thought" it was a gas station, but when we pulled up and entered through the lawn ornament department and saw the vast expanse of... everything, we realized otherwise. Ummm... yikes.
- -- Anybody else going to the Blues & Brews Festival in Durham immediately after this banquet today? If you are, look for me there or shoot me a message. Happy to hang out a bit and tip a few back. Love me an outdoor beer and music festival...

53-SEASON LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP / RESULTS / RECORDS SUMMARY

With me finally giving in and picking my Hall of Greatness this season, I thought maybe it was time to take a quick look back at the 53 seasons that comprise my time here as the league statistician. Here's all the stuff that has transpired, season by season, in some categories of stuff that I thought were interesting.
