The "For The 3rd Time In My Tenure, We Have The Same Team Number For 3 Straight Seasons" Edition

TWO IMPORTANT NOTES (STILL HERE) FOR FALL 2023

The alignment of teams into divisions this season - this time only in the lower divisions

As is relatively common (especially when the team number is changing, such as during the progression back from a pandemic-fueled lull), teams form, teams return, etc. And if an expanded number of teams that form/return have clear lower-end or clear higher-end talent, that situation necessitates pushing the team stack up or down a bit more than might have been expected by some teams. Thus, you might be in a higher division this season than you expected - rest assured that this was not an error, but rather is a response to team formation dynamics.

Do not forget the recent rule additions that apply to the use of DartConnect

Each team (and all people on the RDL email list) receive a current set of rules each season. Please do note the recent rule changes that pertain to using DartConnect devices to keep score. It is critical that everyone understand what is/isn't allowed, and what it takes to "agree" to use the device. Find them in these sections: MATCHES.F.1 [page 5 of 12 in the rules], and MATCHES.F.4.b.5 [page 6 of 12 in the rules]

A LIST OF RECENT IMPORTANT REMINDERS

FAILURE TO INCLUDE "BLOCKER" NAMES

In games with a shorthanded team (and thus, one or more "blockers"), failure to list the names of all competitors in those games will bear a consequence for BOTH teams. If the submitted scoresheet is missing names, BOTH teams will receive a 5-point penalty.

RESCHEDULING? MAKE SURE I KNOW ABOUT IT

Failure to notify the statistician of a rescheduled match in the proper timeframe is now a 16-point penalty for each team.

FORFEIT ETIQUETTE

If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us all an easy favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.

NO MORE 2ND PLACE TEAM PLAQUES

Roughly one team in the league has voiced any opposition to this change, and that was a drunken rant several years ago now. The reality is that the 2nd place team plaques had little meaning, and almost nobody still wants to take one home. Thus, the second place team plaques were discontinued several years ago.

THROWING AFTER BUSTING IS ILLEGAL PRACTICE

Continuing to throw darts after clearly busting your turn is now officially against RDL rules. Obviously, if you hit a wire and didn't realize a dart was in, etc., changes the situation. But continuing to chuck away will be deemed unsportsmanlike conduct and is subject to the ladder of warnings/penalties that can come with those issues.

WHAT SCOREKEEPERS CAN SAY DURING CRICKET

It is now official RDL policy that during cricket, the scorekeeper may only tell the thrower how many of each number has been hit during this turn, and may not report any more of the situation (whether a number is now closed, new point total, points still needed, etc.).

PLAYING THE WRONG OPPONENT

I was going to paraphrase what happens when people don't pay attention and go to the line and play the wrong person, but I think this one is just easier if I copy the rule here: "f) If a player plays a game on the wrong board (resulting in playing the incorrect opponent) regardless of when the error is discovered, if the entire match is not complete and the scoresheet signed, the game must be replayed. No statistics from the incorrectly played game are valid. If both players play on the "wrong" board but are playing the correct opponent, no action will be taken."

EARBUD/HEADPHONE USAGE AT MATCHES

This one still pops up now and then, but the ruling was made seasons ago... As of Fall 2017: players can wear earbuds/headphones during a match, while scorekeepers can not. Hilarious that the second part of that sentence even needs typing.

HANDLE BUSINESS BEFORE WEDNESDAYS...

If you want to add a player(s) to your roster, they cannot play until they are approved and their dues are paid. And those additions and/or changes cannot be done on Wednesdays (even during the day on Wed.), as the Membership Director and Treasurer both have their matches to play that day as well.

SCORESHEETS

You have 3 copies in your team packet. Clearly, you'll need to make some copies for the remainder of the season. Don't forget.

SCORESHEET RETURN DEADLINE

The weekly deadline for submission of your scoresheets is no longer the end of Saturday. The new deadline as of the Fall 2017 season is 11:59 p.m. Friday (unless you had a rescheduled match - then it's within two days of whatever day you played).

1001 PARTICIPANT LISTING IS MANDATORY

Inclusion of the player names for all 1001 participants for BOTH teams on the scoresheet is mandatory! Failure to include those names will incur a penalty equal to a late scoresheet mailing penalty. There is even a box on the front of the scoresheet for names!

ROSTER UPDATES AND SPELLING

Please note: rosters provided in this preseason packet include only players added prior to July 20th. Later additions will appear on the team statistics pages beginning in week 2. Also, please check the spellings and phone numbers from your roster listing - note any changes on your scoresheet or send me an email.

HOSTING TOURNAMENT MATCHES

It is the responsibility of the CAPTAINS (not the RDL board) to ensure their host bars are informed of the tournament schedule when it is released around weeks 12/13. A recent rule provision allows host bars to opt out of the tournament rotation, if they want to be done with darts after the regular season. However, they must notify the membership director by week 5, if that is the case.

TWO PEOPLE WITH THE SAME FIRST NAME?

Please, please, please indicate which played. EVERY set, please.

THE TREASURER WILL NOT ACCEPT CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC.! BRING A CHECK! AND DO NOT BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20!

WHO ARE THOSE GUYS?

Many teams just keep their same team name season after season (or an obvious close relative to that name), but not all. For the most part, the same teams change names each season. Anyway, what follows is a list of this season's new names (this almost HAS to be a new record for fewest new team names, doesn't it?):

- A1/ Ring of Elements . . .was. . . The Global Element
- B2/ Raging Bulls Eyes . . .was. . . Armed & Hammered
- B3/ Trips Are For Kids . . .was. . . Blindsided
- B6/ Iceman's . . .was. . . Iceman's Ear Defenders
- D5/ Reload . . .was. . . BullsHit
- F8/ Liquor Possee . . .was. . . Shoot-Da-Bull

New teams: G5/ Triple Shot, G6/ Killer Dee's, G7/ 21 Dart Salute

BEST NEW TEAM NAMES THIS SEASON

As noted above, we are VERY low on new team names this season. Might actually be a record for fewest ever. We have only 6 teams that changed names (and 1 or 2 of those are barely a change), and 3 teams that have newly formed. When picking my favorites, I can quickly dump those almost-non-changers, so the competitor list is especially short. Anyway, let's see what we've got to work with...

- ... ok, so we start with a bit of a clarification item... the Liquor Possee from this season is indeed somewhat of a return to the team of almost the same name from 2010-2014. This is NOT the group that used the same name about four years later. Either way, still not a name I really like very much. Yeah, yeah, I get the joke, I just don't think it's a particularly witty one. (But let's be clear, this is still way better than Darty Sanchez... ugh.)
- ... the one that confuses me a bit... what is the apostrophe for? Does Dee own something? Is it telling me that Dee is doing something without finishing the thought?... Killer Dee's.
- ... I don't usually tag my own team names here, but sometimes they reference something really joyous. As is the case this season... Ring of Elements.
- ... this season's pretty strong movie reference... Raging Bulls Eyes.
- ... the somewhat classy military reference, that I'm a little surprised I haven't heard prior to now... 21 Dart Salute.

And my favorite of the season, which I think is a cute play on words and a great advertising throwback for those of us who grew up in a time when both cereal was an everyday breakfast for us as kids, and when we watched actual television instead of streaming everything and thus had to sit through commercials... Trips Are For Kids.

THIS IS HILARIOUS - GOOD ON THESE GUYS FOR NOT TAKING THEMSELVES TOO SERIOUSLY

From The Rock Bottoms' roster, in the Dart Experience column, for info on their new player addition: "No League experience, but throws enough to be a starter on the reigning second to last place in the G league :)" I admit I'm now pulling for them and their new starter!

THIS SEASON'S HOME BARS Finally, a bit of a rebound in establishment number

Our post-pandemic establishment list had been dwindling a bit each season, finally bottoming out at a "record-during-my-tenure" (since the start of 1996) low last season, with only 18 home bars. But this season we picked a few back up (and lost one), and have climbed back to 20! Nice to have a couple more options for teams, I would think...

- Out from last season (1): Lonerider at Five Points
- New this season, or just returning this season: (1 new, 2 returning):
Benny's Billiards, Big Easy Oven & Tap, Brass Tap & Billiards (I guess it was a season to add places that... start with B?? Odd.)

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs

"C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs

"E, F" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "G" = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:

for Divisions "A", "C", "D", "E" and "G" (7 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played

All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for Divisions "B" and "F" (8 teams / division):

Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played

All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for years. I will list all of the penalties assessed right here, so that anyone who thinks the point math is incorrect can just check here to see who lost what when.

SEASON-LONG PREDICTIONS

JK's Standard Disclaimer : Rosters will change multiple times after I've written this, but that's out of my control. So, I go forward with some guesses every season. I could say nothing and let you wonder how ridiculously little I know about our talent levels, or I could do this, and remove all doubt. Wouldn't want to leave you wondering, right? (And yes, I get the schedules from Membership Director Heather Bohanan early enough to do separate week 1 picks nowadays, but you can probably glean most of those from this column...)

"A" Division: Kinda crazy that I think this division might be decided by... the timing of the World Cup?! Yup, it's possible. Still going to go with my own Element though, because duh. The Bullies have super-covered the college departure of P.J. Stewart by snagging Jimmie Jones from Consistently Inconsistent (super ouch for Inconsistent), and they are clearly set up to continue the amazing even rivalry with Element. Liver still rolls in third, despite Fringe slimming down and becoming even more dangerous if Dave Finney really is a full-time addition. In light of the Jimmie Jones departure, I think the door is open for both Serious and Matt's Tab (is Danny Carter really on this roster?) to slip by Inconsistent in the fight for a top-five spot.

"B" Division: Alright, I feel a little bad being negative for the rest of the B teams but the two teams that just came down from A are super talented, and I expect an immediate rebound for both. Darty will win it, but Raging is right behind them. Next, while they confuse the crap out of me, I'm thinking Trips Are For Kids as my pick for hauling in 3rd. And it's after that spot that I think things get really interesting... Show Me, Iceman's, and Dart Attack are going to wage absolute war for the #4 spot, and I will guess that Show Me jumps all the way from C to 4th in B. Uber out will make a sport of proving me wrong, regardless of which way I predict them, and I'm not fully sure what to do with the new mix that is Trippin Bulls just yet.

"C" Division: Ok, people, time to pay attention here. What might well be the story of the season is right here in C division. After more than 11 years away, some RDL royalty has returned. Phillip Eastmead has been added to Double In Stumble Out. No idea what more than a decade away does to a pure talent, but Eastmead has a resume like few others. If he is even half the player he was back then, C better look the hell out. But that's not all... Kent Butters is back too! Hey, newflash, I'm picking Stumble Out!! The Outlaws and their shiny new Lee Scott will not go down easily though. The recently-ever-so-close Sanchez will pull in third, just ahead of Rif Raf and the Niners. Then Off Constantly and the Bandits will be tough opponents up from D, but I'm thinking they will still end up on the lower end of this group.

"D" Division: D might well be heavily defined by 4 new additions and 2 departure Jeremy Limerick is back with DD-214, Jimmy Arnold is a monster pickup for Reload, and the duo of Randy Baldwin and Tim Bunn might well reshape Hump Day. But what does a Hump Day feel like without a Pete Rutten around?! And the size of the loss of Dave Finney from the Ducks is tough to even assess. In the end, I think the additions rule the day here, with DD taking the top spot, just ahead of Reload and Hump Day. McGavin will then outduel Menace and the Cheapies, leaving the newer version of the Ducks looking up at the pack a little bit.

"E" Division: If there is any division here that "should" be predictable for me, it honestly should be E. The rosters here are more static than anywhere else in the league this season, so theoretically I should have much more information available than I usually do. (Which probably means I'm about to screw this up royally, right?) In light of that, I kind of have to go with the very battle-tested (more tested than almost any team in the league history) Red-eye Rangers. The Machine and Death Throw are those uber-dangerous teams that seem to drop a couple inexplicable ones, and they'll round out the top three. I'm guessing Ton 80 Proof makes a pretty strong showing up from F, sliding in above Irish Ton, the Village Idiots, and Y.N.T.A.

"F" Division: Wow, there are some seriously big changes in F. Between She Sai and Shark Shooters, they have NINE new players on their rosters. And Liquor Possee is pretty much a mix of folks that mostly threw together nearly a decade ago. Yikes, this set is messy and tough. I feel like I'm just dropping coins in a plinko game. So let's go crazy, shall we? The newly formed team (Possee) is first! The top team up from G (Rippin) is second! The team that added back a talent (Dart Side) is third! The slimmed down roster (Bangin) is fourth! The fully half new (She Said) is fifth! The almost unchanged (Sofa) is sixth! Which I guess leaves the Sharks and Corks?

"G" Division: Seriously, how in the hell did the Dart Knights finish in the bottom two in F last season? Sorry, rest of G division, but the Knights are just taking this race and going home. I think this one might not be close. That doesn't mean Nein Mark (who didn't sign up Brian Whitley) won't try. The newly formed Triple Shot will slot in next, just ahead of The Rock Bottoms (who are certainly not bottom anymore). I guess I will put Killer Dee's next, solely on the power of Ehrmann. We Throw It will be sixth, leaving the (entirely unknown) 21 Dart Salute to round it out.

Of note, the all-time Fast Singles 301 league record was tied twice in the Fall 2022 season, and the all-time Fast Singles Cricket league record was broken. Alex Spellman (of The Bullies) tied the 301 record for the second consecutive regular season, and was joined by Chad Massengill (of the Global Element) in the A div. tournament. An Robbie Phillips (of The Global Element) became the first RDI member to ever toss a 10-dart Singles Cricket in league play.

THE PAGE OF INFORMATION THAT I RUN EVERY SEASON...

This is the place where I remind all of you of several things so that you can't say "I didn't know that" later on when you screw up. Sort of takes the blame off me if any of these bad things happen... which I sort of consider to be a good thing...

Some of these things change over the years, some don't... but please read them again.

This stuff is really important for the smooth flow of our nights out with our hobby.

COPIES OF COMPLETED SCORESHEETS

Keep a copy - it's as simple as that. I could give you all the reasons why, but I've done that a hundred times. Just keep a copy of your sheet, even if you lose, because you just never know when one of them will be lost by the postal service or your opponents. Hey, it has happened in twenty-five of the last thirty-seven season...

EMAILED TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Of course, we email the Tons of Newsletter. In fact, that's the only way we distribute the newsletter in today's modern age (aside from posting it on the league website - another convenient and cost-effective electronic avenue). And if you were already on last season's list of Tons receivers, then you are still on the list. If you would like to be removed from the list, simply email me back and let me know. If you weren't on the list and you would like to receive it, just email my address listed on page 4 and I'll add you to the list. All you need is a relatively recent version of Microsoft Excel (or Acrobat Reader) to view it (and to not be a whiner, or an ass, or just difficult to like). I generally send the Tons out in the range of Sunday to Tuesday; however, if I get delayed a bit in some week, then I apologize, but it will be coming soon.

NO MORE HARD COPY TONS

For decades, the RDL mailed hard copies of the Tons to each team each week. Then we eventually cut that back to mailing them to just the host establishments each week. Now we've finally completed the transition to the modern electronic age, and dropped the hard copies altogether (except preseason and banquet issues). If anyone has issues with these versions, let me know and we'll figure it out.

SIMPLE TRUTHS THAT YOU SHOULD NEVER FORGET

1. Any player who plays in a match without properly registering and paying dues (register with the League Membership Director, pay the League Treasurer) prior to throwing is an ineligible player. Playing an ineligible player will cost your team its win (if you did indeed win), all game points from that match, and all statistics from that match, regardless of how well or poorly that ineligible player did.
2. Any player who doesn't play in any of the four primary sets of the match, but plays in the 1001 tiebreaker is an ineligible player - see number 1 (above) for the horror of this mistake.
3. Indicate which players of both teams took part in 1001 games on the front of the scoresheet. This is now MANDATORY, and allows us to check for ineligible players, record statistics, etc.
4. If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us a favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.
5. Wednesday player additions are not allowed. It turns out that Board members have dart matches too, so all roster additions are required to be completed no later than Tuesday for any player to play in that week's match.

MANY SCORESHEET RETURN PATHS AVAILABLE - BUT NOT ENTIRELY THE SAME AS IN RECENT YEARS

We have three routes remaining for turning in your scoresheets..

First, you can use your scanner (or your phone in some cases and email me an image of the sheet (my email addresses are in the Tons every week and also on the back of the scoresheet)

Second, you can shoot me photos of your scoresheet if you want to take care of returning it immediately! Just make sure you have good lighting, you're close enough to the sheet, and it's IN FOCUS. (note: out-of-focus or overly dark photos will not be acceptable... duh). And you can send those photos by email or text (as with my email addresses, my phone number is on the scoresheet back).

Finally, you can still use the old school U.S. Postal Service. My address is also on the back of the scoresheet, but I caution you... I predict that this system will go away before too long (as I haven't received one via this route for a couple years now... plus the duration of a pandemic!).

[Quick note if you do actually decide to send me a hard copy via the snail mail side of things. Buying a ($1.55-ish?) certificate of mailing could prove to be a nice piece of evidence if your scoresheet ever gets lost in the mail. Do NOT send your scoresheet by certified mail - I do NOT want to have to go to the post office repeatedly (or at all, to be honest) to sign for your scoresheets.]

If you use any of the modern electronic methods, I'll even email or text you a quick confirmation of receipt (since I'll have your email address or phone number, of course) - thus eliminating any worry about whether the sheet got through to me :o).

NO CALL-IN REQUIREMENT FOR MATCH RESULTS

As of the Fall 2017 season, winning teams are no longer required to call in match results each week. And actually, the league is now at the point where we have discontinued the VoiceMail number. Not enough use of it to warrant the cost any longer.

TEAM NAMES ON YOUR SCORESHEETS

Every season there are several instances of teams listing the team names on opposite sides of the scoresheets (meaning that one team's name is written above the other team's players). Obviously, I will eventually figure these out when the names under a team name aren't on the roster, but it would be cool if you simply indicate the error in some way (or simply flip the names - I would rather an away team be on the home side and vice versa than have the wrong people ANI THUS BACKWARDS FINAL SCORE under each side). Thanks

CHECK BOTH SCORESHEETS

We run an item like this every season, and sometimes more than once. And here it is again because it's often needed repeatedly. When you are signing scoresheets at the end of the night, it is up to you to make sure that they match. If the other team turns in a sheet without your ASP or fast game or something, it really sort of doesn't exist... In RDL, not on the sheet = didn't happen.
