TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (14-8)
Lunatic Fringe rides the shoulders of the Bigg Dogg's 4-0 record once again, as it becomes the only team this season to go undefeated in the season AND tournament. A surprising 5-1 loss in SCkt was the key to this match lasting as long as it did.

"B" Division - Dodge Darts (?-?)
The Dodgers came from the #5 spot to win their 2nd tournament in a row. That also makes 2 of the last 4, though they did win 3 tournaments before that. Not surprising since they ALWAYS win the tournament. Don't believe me? Just ask them (page 4).

"C" Division - Horsemen (13-11)
Nine Lives made things interesting in the semis, but other than that the Horsemen-Excalibur final seemed pre-destined, even in the fact that it went down to the final double in the final set.

"D" Division - UZMALL (13-9)
D division lives! Season after season, it is almost impossible to know what is coming from this division. Here, the #5 smoked the #1, then downed the #3 in the final. Both finalists were a whopping 6-6 in the regular season, making this the wild show of the season.

"E" Division - Sharky's Machine (14-10)
The Machine took this title, but I doubt anybody expected the route they took. They defeated the #7 in the quarters, the #6 in the semis, and the #5 in the finals. Are you kidding me? This is starting to look like a D division tournament…

"F" Division - Dynamic Darts (13-9)
Yawn. The top four advance. The top two advance. The top one wins. Boring, right? Wrong! Dynamic was down 9-3 after singles in the finals before winning 5 straight doubles for the Mugs.

"G" Division - AFLAC (11-4)
Well, the surest thing of this RDL season showed up shorthanded one too many times. And AFLAC took 'em out behind the wood-shed and swiped themselves a set of Mugs. That's just ducky…

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (12 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Industrial Strength

"B" Division - Cheap Shots (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Last Call

"C" Division - Excalibur (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Horsemen

"D" Division - Pog Mo Hon (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Bullweiser

"E" Division - Woodchucks (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Sharky's Machine

"F" Division - Dynamic Darts (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Da Bulls

"G" Division - Don't Know (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - AFLAC

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I write this bit. I'm not begging anymore. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

START PLANNING NOW…

You know, it's never too early to start planning for the Spring season. Sometimes it's hard to track down teammates after the holiday break, so start setting your roster plans now and avoid the headache later.

QUOTES FROM THE TOURNAMENT

Quotes #1, 2 & 3 of the tournament : from Steve Holland, captain of B division's Dodge Darts, and Laura (Ludwig??), who also claims to be with Dodge Darts. Quote #1 , from Steve, after the semifinals: "I can't believe you didn't pick us to win the tournament. We always win the tournament. I'll be calling you next week after we finish." Quote #2 , from Laura, the night that Dodge Darts won: " Hi Jason, this is Laura from Dodge Darts. Ah, next season when you're doing the predictions, why don't you give me a call? I'll let you know whose gonna win because you did such a GREAT job this season." Quote #3 , from Steve, the day after the final: " Hey Jason, Steve Holland with Dodge Darts, your upset special of the month. We beat Last Call, and we will appreciate next time if you give us a LITTLE bit of press. We always win the tournament." [Well, ok, let's address a few of these comments, shall we? First, you do/did get a little press. Dodge Darts was listed among my dark-horse picks for divisional tournament winners at the end of the column. Read any more than what specifically has your division letter next to it and you would have seen that. Second, if you want more recognition in my tournament predictions, maybe you shouldn't lose as often as you win ALL SEASON LONG. Third, if you guys are so dependably wonderful, I think that makes Cathy Moeschet's job (as Membership Director who sets the division) pretty easy - just put you heavily talented players in A division and be done with it. Fourth, you guys definitely win the award for most confident team in the league (no, I didn't SAY arrogant…), especially considering that you have people that aren't even on the roster calling and telling me how much more you know than I do. I can only assume that Laura is the one that played with Dodge Darts many seasons ago, and must still be hanging around with you guys. Care to put in a guest set of picks all season next season as a little competition? - JK]

Quote #4 : from Sharky's Machine, a team that really needs more to do in its spare time if it has time to plan little displays like this one: "Sharky's Machine… now that you've won the tournament, what are you going to do?… We're going to DISNEYLAND!" [Oh yikes. - JK]

Quote #5 : from Jim Markov, via email, with a little play-by-play: "Da Bulls got off to a great start by going 5-1 in singles 301, then 4-2 in singles cricket. That was 9-3 with only 6 doubles left. Dynamic needed to win 5 of the final 6 and things looked pretty bleak. DD managed to sweep doubles cricket (6-0) to square the match at 9-9...three games to go...both teams needed 2 out of the last three. DD won the first game when Kevin McFadden nailed double-1 and Barry "Bump" Jackson ended the season with a double-20 in the other game. It was a very exciting match and both teams threw great darts. Da Bulls are a great team and we look forward to playing them again in E division next spring. This season marks the first time DD managed to win a tournament in many years of competing. Yeah!!"

Tom Brown & Keith Wall	(again in same set! - for the Mugs!) Lunatic Fringe	19-dart 501

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

Fall 2001 RDL Individual Season-Long Awards

(The sets of women's awards are currently under revision. The awards may be different again next season, but for this season we are giving out divisional awards for both singles and all-stars, regardless of how many women are in each division.)

OUTGOING OFFICERS FROM 2001

Ok, so five of your RDL Board members are willing to continue their terms for another year. I doubt that most of you realize what that entails, so when you get a chance, check out who your Board is on page 8 and buy them a drink, tell them how you appreciate it, etc. But please don't forget Michelle Gaffney and Billie Churchwell, whose terms just ended. They have both served local darts for years, and deserve their thanks too.

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Last season we jumped back up to 30 regular season tiebreakers, a serious increase over the couple seasons prior. Well, we did that a pair better this season, with a total of 32 (plus at least 1 in the tournament). There were 2 in A division, 6 in B , 2 in C, 7 in D, 5 in E (1 of those was in the tourney), 6 in F, and 5 in G. 36 of the 50 RDL teams took part in at least one 1001 game, with 9 teams playing in at least 3 of the extra legs. Dirty Dogs and D. V. Needed in B division, UZMALL, Heroes In Trouble and Some Old Some New in D, BFD II and One-Armed Bandits in E, and Modena Company and Breakers Intimidators were the squads that loved getting more for their money. SOSN and Modena actually went for a 4th 1001 each! The team that made the best use of the team game was the Dirty Dogs, with their 3-0 record, while the heartbreak award has to go to Some Old Some New, which lost 3 of their 4 chances in overtime.

FALL 2001 PENALTY SUMMARY

After that penalty-laden debacle that we called the Fall 2000 season, last season's total was relatively refreshing. Luckily this season looks a great deal like last season. Our total number of penalties dropped again, from 47 to 44, and the total point loss decreased from 371 to 350 points. And the number of teams with three or more penalties stayed at 6 for the 2nd consecutive season, while the number of teams with at least one penalty increased from 22 of last season's 52 teams to 24 out of 50 this season. There was 1 Preseason Captains' Meeting Penalties (5 pts.), 6 Fifth Week Captains' Meeting Penalties (5 pts. each), 11 Election Ballot Penalties (5 pts. each), 1 Ineligible Player Penalty (3 pts.), 13 Phone-In Penalties (5 pts. each), and 12 Mail-In Penalties (16 pts. each), for a total of 350 points in penalty losses. Bullweiser led the way with 4 penalties, but they didn't actually end up costing them anything. The two most painful penalty sets go to: Wherz Baldo?, whose 3 penalties dropped them from 3rd to 5th in A division, and AFLAC, whose lone 5-point penalty wouldn't have been enough on its own to get them some plaques, but with only a 1-pt. difference at the end, some G division listing certainly may have been altered. And the only other team to lose position to penalty (Dodge Darts in B, from 3rd to 5th) didn't matter, since they won the Mugs anyway…

SPRING 2002 RDL SEASON REGISTRATION DATES

Team registration dates: ALL teams - January 9 (please note that we no longer have the dual Wednesday/Thurs. registration meetings), Champions Billiards. Preseason captains' meeting is at 7:30 p.m, January 30th (please note that this meeting is now held on a Wednesday evening as well), at Champions. Match play starts February 6th.

And yes, I realize that this information is elsewhere in the Tons a couple of times, but I really don't want to lose any teams because they forgot to register. It's one thing to lose a team because they have other things to do every Wednesday, but it sucks when we lose a team because either we or they weren't paying attention.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

SPRING DARTS ELSEWHERE IN THE TRIANGLE

Generally, right about here I include information about the registration dates of the other local leagues. The officers of those leagues are usually pounding my door down with information for registration to be included in this edition of the Tons (hey, who wouldn't want their notice in the news of a league of 400-450 dart throwers?). But this time, I've really got nothing specific. I can probably give you guys a little help though.

Bull City Dart League: Tuesdays, Durham/RTP. The BCDL was left with a bit of extra time before the end of the year, so they decided to start the league earlier than ever before. So, they're one week in already. Teams may still be looking for players though. Email President Bob Rankl for information at brankl@yahoo.com.

Tobacco Road Dart League: Mondays, Durham/RTP. The TRDL should be starting up again sometime around the first of the year. Call President Don Richards for more information at 596-2019.

Capital Area Dart Club: Raleigh/Cary. I don't know the current status of play in the CADC, but Michelle Gaffney is always a good bet for help here, at 571-1917.

Triangle Dart League: Thursdays, Chapel Hill. The TDL just used a 5-week season to get back on a 3 seasons/yr. schedule. Call me if you want info. for this one, and I'll get back to you with some contact numbers as soon as I can.

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will put it back here in the Tons of Newsletter.

Thursday	Hunter Hill Pub, Rocky Mount, 7:30 p.m. $5 (252-451-0679) (Bar matches up to $50!)
Friday	Champions Billiards, 8:00 p.m. (833-8337) (Champions matches the pot!)
Monday	Tailgaters, 8:00 p.m. (872-2827) (This draw is just starting up, so go show your support)

Champions Billiards & Darts - Blind Draw Notice!

Champions Billiards in Mission Valley Shopping Center is willing to hold a blind draw any day of the week that there are 14 or more people willing to enter. Seven days a week! Just get 14 people together, and they'll match the pot!

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more
"C" Division = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D", "E", "F" Divs. = 3.0 or more; "G" Div. = 2.5 or more

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, etc.)

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for several seasons. I will list all of the penalties assessed throughout the season right here, so that anyone who thinks that the point math in their division doesn't quite add up can just check here and see who lost what when. It should eliminate any confusion. Preseason captains' meeting (5 pts.): One-Armed Bandits (E).
Fifth week captains' meeting (5 pts.): Dirty Dogs (B), Horsemen (C), Bullweiser (D), Da Bulls (F), Hard Cheddar (F), AFLAC (G).
Election ballot (5 pts.): Dart Shadows (A), Dodge Darts (B), Hard Times (C), One-Armed Bandits (E), Sharky's Machine (E), Damn Yankees (E), Hard Cheddar (F), Point Break (F), Breakers Intimidators (F), Don't Know (G), Get Over It (G). Ineligible player (win, all pts., all stats.): Murphy's Law (G,wk.5,3 pts.). Phone-in (5 pts.): Wherz Baldo? THE TENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs
All of RDL	Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe
A Division	Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe
B Division	Lee Whitehead	D. V. Needed
C Division	Bob James	Hard Times
D Division	Kurt Kunttu	Some Old Some New
E Division	Danny Hall	BFD II
F Division	Jim Markov	Dynamic Darts
G Division	Jason Grannis	Don't Know

"A" Division
Robb Beeson	Wherz Baldo?	New guy is torching most of A div.
Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe	Simply the best in the state in 2001.
Jim Budelman	Lunatic Fringe	Season after season… still winning.
Jim Davis	Dirty Dogs	Orthodox? No. Awesome? Yes.
Dale Hyler	Overlooked	Nobody rises to a challenge better.
Robbie Phillips	Industrial Strength	Purest stroke in the division is on fire.
Wil Tan	Industrial Strength	Whips yo' ass, doesn't break a sweat.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	He's so nice you enjoy your beating.

"B" Division
David Currin	Dirty Dogs	So we sit him in singles cricket…
Paula Delp	D. V. Needed	Rolled through first three sets.
Jim Hunsberger	Get the Point!!!	Can he keep the pace & be Secretary?
Tim McNamara	Dodge Darts	Big Mac led them to another Mug.
Nate Wade	Last Call	I finally get to lose… uh, play… him.
Chip Walker	Cheap Shots	WHAT is that 301 record doing here?
Lee Whitehead	D. V. Needed	Basically just crushed everybody.
Steve Witz	Cheap Shots	He's captain AND he can play. Nice.

"C" Division
Randy Baldwin	Excalibur	Imagine if he was a full-timer…
Randy Deemer	Starving Dartists	Wins a lot of cricket, splits in -01.
Jack Gibson	Nine Lives	Strong when he's in attendance.
Bob James	Hard Times	He just keeps winning every season.
Mike Knox	Horsemen	Best shot in C just needs some time.
John Murdaugh	Home Thrown	Might need a steady doubles partner.
Britt Phillips	Horsemen	Solid across all four sets for Mugs.
Mark Slominski	Excalibur	Had outstanding season for #1 team.

"D" Division
Dave Berry	Some Old Some New	The President doesn't mess in cricket.
Fon Denton	UZMALL	10-1 in SCkt gets him on the team.
Kurt Kunttu	Some Old Some New	Former state champ rules this div.
Gerry Mondou	Bullweiser	20-3 in both cricket sets is strong.
Phil Simpson	Grateful Darts	Ok, so he's a SCkt specialist…
Bill Stasko	Heroes In Trouble	Rocks in singles, needs help in dbls.
Taylor White	Pog Mo Hon	Three big sets. We'll sit him in DCkt.
Tom Winters	Bullweiser	No Kunttu around and he's top gun.

"E" Division
Frank Allison	Sharky's Machine	25-5 in first three sets of the match.
David Arensdorf	Sharky's Machine	He just needs to show up more often.
Jim Doroshanko	Damn Yankees	Great in singles, solid in doubles.
Galen Gillett	BFD II	Did well in 301, SCkt, and 501.
Danny Hall	BFD II	Great 1-2 punch with Gillett for BFD.
Duane Sawyer	Woodchucks	The Sawyer brothers did well in
Matt Sawyer	Woodchucks	every set - we'll list them together.
Wes Wissinger	Tir na nOg	Big gun kept it interesting for nOg.

"F" Division
John Keleher	Point Break	Mr. Cricket for Fulton's crew.
Duncan Kerr	Da Bulls	12-0 in 501. Now THAT's delivering.
Tim Kissinger	Dynamic Darts	30-6 in first 3 sets is just awesome.
Jim Markov	Dynamic Darts	Great record. Great match writeup.
Kevin McFadden	Dynamic Darts	Strong record for captain of F killers.
Peter McGettigan	Rat Bar Stewards	Decent record all the way across.
Joshua Pope	Modena Company	Not completely dominant, but strong.
Sherman Pope	Modena Company	12-0 in 501. Now THAT's delivering.

"G" Division
Andrew Bacanskas	Bubba's Garage	Very good singles, great in doubles.
Stan Converse	AFLAC	0.500 in -01, but 17-3 in cricket sets.
Jason Grannis	Don't Know	A couple 501 outs and he has it all.
Shawn Leonard	Bubba's Garage	Great in singles, very good in doubles.
Keith Moats	Don't Know	Winning 75% is good at any level.
Jeff Taylor	Dead Sox	Singles cricket record got him here.
John Tighe	Don't Know	Won a lot of everything all season.
Steve Tollerton	AFLAC	Solid record for upset Mug winners.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): with the RDL having several 7-team divisions, we've been running low on quad double winners for several seasons now. We had 0 last season, so the pickings have been slim lately. Generally, we have about dozen people do well, but not reach that plateau. Well, this season one thrower broke through for complete domination… and he did it in A division! Tom Brown of Lunatic Fringe went 11-1 in each and every set! That is freakin' amazing considering the talent around nowadays. Only two other players managed to get double-digit wins in three sets: Lee Whitehead of D. V. Needed and Tim Kissinger of Dynamic Darts. Nobody else managed that many wins though one player did get three sets with 9+ wins, but he was in F division with a 14-week season.

-IronMan/Woman Award: Ok, this is NOTHING like last season, when four different members of Get Over It played from 72 to 92 games (the all-time record, I'm sure). But we still did have one thrower separate herself from the pack in fine fashion: Lynette Lindsay of Madhouse Patients III played a rather tiring 72 games in 14 matches this season, clearly making her the Wheaties IronWoman of the season. Honorable mention goes to: Brian Selby in A with 54, Randy Umstead , Lee Whitehead , Daniel Pollard and Chris Hope in B with 51, Andrew Edgecombe in C with 58, Bill Stasko , Mark Wackerman and Kurt Kunttu in D with 51, Danny Hall in E with 50, and John Branch in G with 53. I'm not positive, but I'm relatively certain that this season was out of the ordinary in one respect - rarely are so many of the top game-players among the best throwers in their division.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: remember the days when teams like Diddler's Choice would bring the exact same six guys to every single match and none of them ever missed a match. I really haven't seen a team like that in a few years. So, we're left with a bunch of teams that achieve honorable mention, but aren't really tight enough to really earn the award. This season's honorable mentionees: Pig Darts in A, who would have had the same six every set if Davis wasn't away for work; Dazed & Confused in A, who basically had two guys split the sixth spot; Murphy's Law in G, who played with only six, but more often was shorthanded; and Get Over It , which used mostly just six.

MY IN-SEASON, PRESEASON & TOURNEY PREDICTION RESULTS

If we listen to the members of Dodge Darts (and their friends that don't play), then I'm a big idiot when it comes to predicting our dart matches. Well, I picked every match this season (except week 1, when even I didn't have the match list), and I went 204-76. That's almost 73% correct for the season. I don't think that's so bad. (And just for the record, I was 8-3 in my picks of Dodge Darts' matches, with one of my three wrong being where I picked them to win and they didn't.)

As for my tournament predictions, I didn't do as well as last season, but I still nailed 31 of the 43 correctly. Considering that I lost a couple matches at a time when one of my big teams went down early, that's not too bad. On top of that, one of my dark horse picks claimed the Mugs from the #5 slot, and another of my dark horses lost in the finals. The only bracket in which I got every single match right was A division, which held form and is also the one about which I obviously would know the most.

My preseason predictions this time around were pretty damn successful. I put Fringe on top in A, being pushed by Industrial, their finals opponent; I had Cheap Shots winning B, which they did; Horsemen were my C pick, and they finished 2nd and won the tournament; Pog Mo Hon won the D season, as predicted; the Machine finished 2nd in E and then claimed the Mugs; I said that Dynamic would finish 2nd in F; and finally, Don't Know rolled all the way to the finals. Plus, I even had Excalibur as one of my dark horses. You guys are getting too easy…

RULE CHANGES FOR THE SPRING!!!

Based on the surveys that many of us returned with our oh so valuable opinions, the RDL Board has decided to make a few rather important changes, effective next season.

#1 - the preseason captains' meeting is now on Wednesday the week before play begins.

#2 - the 5th week captains' meeting will be dropped.

#3 - the last chance to add players for the Spring 2002 season will be at the Board meeting on Tuesday, March 12th.

#4 - the Thursday registration has been dropped, so all teams will register on the same day.

BOARD NEEDS VOLUNTEERS FOR BAR CHECKING

The RDL Board is hoping to go out to all of our establishments prior to next season and make any necessary recommendations to the owners/managers of each establishment. This is NOT some sort of certification system, but it may be a way to help our host establishments help us. The Board is looking for a few dependable sticklers for detail to help them check out all the conditions, measure distances, etc. If you are interested in helping out with this, please contact the Board members listed on page 8.

NEXT RDL BOARD MEETING

Need a few minutes of face-to-face time with your Board, without a whole line of people waiting to register? Then go to the next RDL Board meeting: Tues., February 5th, at Tir na nOg. I think the meetings generally start around 7:00-7:30.

SHORT RESULTS OF THE 2001 NC CITY LEAGUE AND NC LADIES' CUP TOURNAMENTS

The 2001 tournaments for the NC City Cup leagues were hosted by Durham (City League) and Raleigh (Ladies' Cup), as those two teams were the defending champions. Well, I sure hope that all the teams visiting liked the accomodations, because both teams successfully defended their titles.

In the City League, Durham advanced to the semifinals with a solid win over Boone, while Capital Area used a final set come-back to overcome Jacksonville, and Charlotte and Wilmington also advanced. Durham then downed Capital Area 20-8 in the semifinals to set up a finals rematch from the year before with Charlotte, who had defeated regular season winner Wilmington. Durham then took the final in the first set of the four-player 701s to repeat as champions. RDL members playing for Durham were: Tom Brown, Dale Hyler, Doug Jeffcoat, Jason Kilts, Todd Lemons, Robbie Phillips, Wil Tan and Keith Wall.

In the Ladies' Cup, Raleigh kept things interesting all weekend. A tough quarterfinals win over Lake Norman put them into the semis against Piedmont. Another hard fought victory put Raleigh into the Sunday finals against the upset-minded #7 seed from Jacksonville. Playing without their top player in the finals, the Raleigh ladies fell behind early but reeled them back in and kept the one constant that has been true in the Ladies' Cup since it went to division play four seasons ago - Raleigh has the Cup. RDL members playing for the Raleigh squad were: Connie Austin, Jan Austin, Britt Campbell, Billie Churchwell, Paula Delp, Michelle Gaffney and Kris Kilsdonk.

Several other teams had RDL members as well, including Lisa Shpritz, Bob Gargan, Joe Futima, Robb Beeson, Scott Butters, Kevin Coyne, Jim Davis, Joel Eason, Phillip Eastmead, Keith Gibbs, William Holland, Kurt Kunttu, Somchai Samaluk and Brian Selby.

FALL 2001 BAR RATING RESULTS

Included here are the cumulative averages of each RDL host establishment's ratings from their visiting captains. William Holland used to compile these numbers, but since he resigned I've taken over the duty. I've taken the individual ratings and averaged them. Like last season, I was going to remove the ratings from matches involving two teams from the same host establishment, but William didn't and I didn't want to change the system unless the Board said to do so. It's important to recognize our establishments that have provided the most excellent accommodations to our members, and to give those that might need some improvements some feedback. In any case, here are this season's averages for our establishments. The top 3 receive awards in recognition of their facilities/service.

FALL 2001 SEASON

The establishments were rated in six categories, with possible scores of 1 to 5 in each category. The lowest total possible then is 6, while the highest total possible is 30. Under this system then, the average score should be 18, but pretty much as always, EVERY bar averages above the theoretical average of 18. Aren't we so generous?

Establishment	Average	Times Rated
Hard Times Café	27.400	5
Montas Intl. Lounge	27.200	5
Out of the Park	26.800	5

Upper Deck (Cary)	21.737	19
Upper Deck Profile	21.636	11
Blinco's	21.545	11
Pantana's Pool Hall	21.542	24
Champions Billiards	21.167	24
Woody's	21.000	15
Tir na nOg	19.667	6
Players Retreat	18.600	5

ONE SCORESHEET IS MISSING…

For the third consecutive season, we've lost exactly one score-sheet. It was from A division for the second season in a row, but this time it was early in the season. Unlike last season, however, some of the statistics on this sheet really might have had an impact on one of the season-long singles awards.

A COUPLE LAST RANDOM THOUGHTS…

--Congratulations to Dale Hyler, Mike Seward, Doug Jeffcoat and Todd Baber (all of The Phrinj), as these four just won their third consecutive league championship in the Bull City Dart League. I would probably be even happier for them if I hadn't been on the losing team in the finals all three seasons …

--I really commend the RDL Board for their actions of late - it really appears to me that they are getting rid of whatever is unnecessary, making it more about just playing darts. Kudos.

Interested in seeing how your team has fared over the six seasons prior to this one? Check out the results here on pages 13 and 14. Tournament-winning teams in each division are marked with asterisks.
Talk about the regular season not meaning much… in these six plus the current season, here is the number of teams that won both the season and the tournament: A-4, B-2, C-2, D-3, E-2, F-2, G-3. 18 out of 49. Yikes.

The "Carolina Hurricanes and the Eastern Conference Championship… Boy-eee!" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Raleigh Lamas (14-10)
Bottom five in "A" division vs. Fringe = 0-11. The Raleigh Lamas vs. Fringe = 3-0. Another classic battle saw the Lamas pull out to a 12-6 lead, then have to survive shots in the third set of 501 that would have sent this one into the extra session.

"B" Division - Dodge Darts (14-8)
The Dodgers take their 6th Mug in 8 seasons and second in a row in B division. They were the lowest seed, the #4, to claim a tournament victory, beating the last place Horsemen(?!) in the final. If teams fold in A, will they still be a B team next season?

"C" Division - Get the Point "33" (?-?)
The Pointers claim the Simpson-Jenkins family reunion title, prompting some rather colorful phone messages. Sounds like everybody had some fun in this one anyway…

"D" Division - Woodchucks (14-4)
I'm just not going to spend too much time talking about this one. The 'Chucks didn't need any 501s in the tournament, and the higher seed won every single match. Yawn…

"E" Division - Kozmic Debris (13-11)
I'm not sure who hit the out, but (with the possible exceptions of the unreported C and F scores) this was the only final with the whole match on the line in the final set. The Debris beat the Yanks in three great matches this season, so this result is fitting.

"F" Division - One Armed Bandits (?-?)
After the quarterfinals, this bracket looked like it would be pretty textbook. Then the #3 and #4 seeds popped through, and the Bandits finally made me look smart for saying they would contend for the title this season.

"G" Division - AFLAC Attack (14-8)
The Ducks claimed their 2nd consecutive "G" Mugs, but this time they did it by completing the undefeated season. Along with the Woodchucks, they were the only #1 seeds to win the tourney.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - The Raleigh Lamas

"B" Division - D. V. Needed (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Dazed & Confused

"C" Division - Home Thrown (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Get the Point "33"

"D" Division - Woodchucks (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - UZMALL

"E" Division - Damn Yankees (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Kozmic Debris

"F" Division - Mangina (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Bubba's Garage

"G" Division - AFLAC Attack (12 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Chupacabras

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I write this bit. I'm not begging anymore. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

START PLANNING NOW…

You know, it's never too early to start planning for the Fall season. Sometimes it's hard to track down teammates after the summer break, so start setting your roster plans now and avoid the headache later.

QUOTES FROM THE TOURNAMENT

Quotes #1, 2 & 3 of the tournament (for the second season in a row): from members of B division's Dodge Darts: Quote #1 , from Jeff Dahulich: "You should be getting used to this by now brother. We decided to take those 26 penalty points and stick them in our cap and smoke 'em. Print this… next week, Dodge Darts - D. V. Needed for the championship." Quote #2 : from Jeff again… something quite a bit similar with the same point… Quote #3 : from Steve Holland, the team's captain: "If you remember, when we had a slight week 1 conversation there, when we all got our packets, and you asked me if we wanted our Mugs yet. Well, we want 'em. Gimme me my damn Mug!" [That is Dodge Darts' 6th Mug in the last 8 seasons. - JK]

Quote #4 : from Tony Keller, captain of the #7 seed B team: "Hey Jason, has anyone ever come from the last seed and won the tournament? Well, if they haven't, then… they still haven't. We got beat tonight… [Hmmm… I don't know. You can peruse pages 12-15 for at least a partial answer. The best I can remember is the Flying Aces winning D from 7th place in an 8-team D division a few years ago. And they won handily! - JK]

Quote #5 : from a member of The Raleigh Lamas, who will remain anonymous so that all of his friends on Lunatic Fringe remain as his friends: "The guys were talking… what the tally on the last ten games between Industrial Strength and the Fringe?" [Well, let's see here… counting the tournament… I'll go you a few better… Industrial/Lamas won all three this season. Fringe won all three last season. Industrial won all three two seasons ago. Industrial also won all three three seasons ago. Four seasons ago, the teams split and didn't meet in the tournament. Five seasons ago, Industrial was called So What and Fringe won all three times. So, over the past ten matches, it's 7-3 Industrial/Lamas. Over the past three years, it's 10-7 So What/Industrial/Lamas. - JK]

Quote #6 : from Duane Sawyer, captain of the Woodchucks, this season's most dominant team: "You were right. We didn't make it to 501 all tournament. So, you called that one." [Heck, that was an easy one. The 'Chucks would have won C division, and would have contended in B. They'll be there soon, I'm sure. - JK]

Quote #7 : from Patrick Todd of Chupacabras: "In a match that threatened to go to 1001 at one in the morning, Chupacabras pull it out 14-10." [I feel for ya, brother, but that's nowhere near the 3:10 a.m. record, in a match that ended in a FORFEIT of 1001. - JK]

Quote #8 : from Brian Selby, captain of The Raleigh Lamas, who accepted a forfeit phone call from a team that they weren't playing(!): "As I said before, I'm just a little bit pied off that my team almost forfeited because somebody called me and I wasn't paying attention… We didn't end up shorthanded, but I'm in deep sh with my team…]

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

Spring 2002 RDL Individual Season-Long Awards

(The sets of women's awards were revised again this season. Rather than leaguewide awards or divisional awards, the women's awards have been divided into three subsets of divisions. I believe they will be the same breakdowns next season as well.)

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

The past few seasons, we've slowly been climbing in terms of our number of tiebreakers. Well, no more. We dropped back down to 25 this season (after 30+ the last two seasons) despite having 15 more matches than we had last season. We had 3 in A division, 5 in B , 3 in C (1 of those was in the tourney), 1 in D, 3 in E, 6 in F, and 4 in G. 36 of the 51 RDL teams took part in at least one 1001 game, with only 2 teams playing in at least 3 of the extra legs. Dazed & Confused in B division, and One Armed Bandits in F were the only two getting a lot of extra play for their money. I don't know if we've ever had a season with so few teams playing multiple 1001s. Both of those two went 2-1, so I guess that makes the Modena Cartel in F division the heartbreak award winners (though I don't know if they really earned it - they were just the ONLY team in RDL to lose two tiebreakers).

SPRING 2002 PENALTY SUMMARY

Oh, baby, what a painful season for penalties! Our total number flat out freakin' plummeted this season, so kudos to you guys for that. But… a couple of them hurt… a lot. After having 44+ penalties for 350+ points in each of the past two seasons, we had only 32 penalties for 270 points this season. The number of teams with 3 or more penalties also dropped, from 6 to only 3 this season. 22 teams chalked up at least one penalty (out of 51), and that was pretty average so I guess we're just missing some repeat offenders. There was 1 Preseason Captains' Meeting Penalties (5 pts.), 12 Voting Ballot Penalties (5 pts. each), 9 Phone-In Penalties (5 pts. each), and 10 Mail-In Penalties (16 pts. each), for a total of 270 points in penalty losses. Don't Know led the penalty parade with 3 for a total of 37 points, but they were followed closely by Dodge Darts' 3 for 26, Chupacabras 3 for 26, and Modena Cartel's 2 for 32 points. Only four teams lost a spot or more in the standings, including Modena dropping one spot and Dirty Dogs dropping one spot. But the two winners of most painful are…: runner-up : Dodge Darts - their penalties cost them both 3rd and 2nd in B division (and hence a set of plaques), but they won the Mugs so they probably will get over it; and the winner : The Raleigh Lamas - their lone 5-point penalty cost them 1st place in A(!) division. Oh man… ouch. But… like the Dodgers, they soothed their aches with a nice set of Mugs.

FALL 2002 RDL SEASON REGISTRATION DATES

These dates are on page 8, as well as on page 1, but I am putting them in many locations because they might be be the most important thing for you in this newsletter.

-Fall registration: July 17, 7:30-9:00 p.m., Champions
-Fall preseason captains' meeting: Wed., August 7, 7:30 p.m., Champions Billiards
-Fall match play starts on Wednesday, August 14

And yes, I realize that this information is elsewhere in the Tons (a couple of times), but I really don't want to lose any teams because they forgot to register. It's one thing to lose a team because they have other things to do every Wednesday, but it sucks when we lose a team because either we or they weren't paying attention.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Division = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C" Division = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D", "E" and "F" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, etc.)

THE ELEVENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

All of RDL	Scott Butters	Dazed & Confused
A Division	Dale Hyler	Big J's … Crew Of Ill Repute
B Division	Scott Butters	Dazed & Confused
C Division	John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"
D Division	David Arensdorf	Sharky's Machine
E Division	Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris
F Division	Brian Smith	Diddlers on the Roof
G Division	Chris Hoyt	Tub Kids

"A" Division

Robb Beeson	Pig Darts	No worse than 8-3 in any match set.
Jim Budelman	Lunatic Fringe	Basically just won everything.
Don Butman	Lunatic Fringe	Tough luck in 301, hot elsewhere.
Phillip Eastmead	The Raleigh Lamas	Might need a new doubles partner.
Mike Hall	Dart Shadows Inc.	Top shot for the ever-shorthanded.
Dale Hyler	Crew of Ill Repute	Clearly most important to his team.
Wil Tan	The Raleigh Lamas	Got to sit 301, was obviously happy.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Still makes you enjoy your beating.

"B" Division

Randy Baldwin	Excalibur	Has become Mr. Perfect Throw.
Kent Butters	Dazed & Confused	Kind of a painful 501 record though.
Scott Butters	Dazed & Confused	22-2 in singles. Enough for me.
John Carroll	Dirty Dogs	Good singles, ASPs, if not doubles.
David Currin	D. V. Needed	Solid all the way across the four sets.
Paula Delp	D. V. Needed	8-3+ in all sets is dominating.
J.P. Evans	Dodge Darts	Great singles record for Mug winners.
Lee Whitehead	D. V. Needed	Top player in B at any given time.

"C" Division

Kenny Allen	The Socials "T3"	Won more than half of team's DCkts.
Barry Barker	Some Old Some New	Strong record until 501 set.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	Won 12 of team's 17 doubles games.
Bob Hounsell	Pog Mo Hon	15-3 in the two cricket sets is great.
John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"	Dominating despite captain duties.
Kurt Kunttu	Some Old Some New	Very strong record outside DCkt.
David Simpson	Get the Point "33"	If he played earlier, they win both.
Donnie Simpson	Home Thrown	Mr. Doubles is big in the clutch.

"D" Division

[Any three members of Woodchucks. Go ahead… you pick out which three it is. I don't care which you choose. I'm just not going to put more than three of a team that dominant on the all-star squad.]

David Arensdorf	Sharky's Machine	Back to full time and taking names…
Fon Denton	UZMALL	Got better with each set of the match.
Mark Powell	UZMALL	Nine wins in every set is impressive.
Bob Rube	UZMALL	Mr. Cricket just needs more -01s.
Marc Shown	Starving Dartists	Great singles, moderate doubles.

"E" Division

Jim Doroshanko	Damn Yankees	Tough 8-3+ in every set of the match.
Jeff Fournier	Damn Yankees	Cricket specialist needs -01 practice.
Dan Hall	NBF	Strong, just needs to play a little more.
Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris	Oh man, if only he wasn't part-time.
John Iager	Grateful Darts	Top player not on top three teams.
Anton Johnston	Kozmic Debris	Good, but slowly tapers during match.
Alex Sarantos	Damn Yankees	LOTS of SCkt and 501 victories.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Only needs more doubles wins.

"F" Division

Andrew Bacanskas	Bubba's Garage	Big in singles, decent in doubles.
Aaron Downs	Rat Bar Stewards	Singles is great, doubles needs help.
John Keleher	Mangina	Big record for winningest team.
Shawn Leonard	Bubba's Garage	WHAT is that DCkt record?
Joshua Pope	Modena Cartel	Stellar outside of DCkt results.
Tate Simmons	Mangina	Div.-winning captain won a lot.
Brian Smith	Diddlers on the Roof	Won 11(!) of team's 17 DCkts.
Jason Thomas	Point Break	Solid record, except for stinky 501s.

"G" Division

Jim Britt	Dead Sox	Just dominates when he plays.
Bill Buckley	Chupacabras	Wow, nice addition for last roster spot.
Stan Converse	AFLAC Attack	Won almost everything but 501s.
Chris Gagner	Three Legged Dog	New captain got better every set.
Nicole Hatch	Big Deck	Clear leader of a shorthanded crew.
Chris Hoyt	Tub Kids	Just powered through first three sets.
Jeff Taylor	Dead Sox	19-2 in Ckt sets covers for poor 301.
Steve Tollerton	AFLAC Attack	Balanced, good, dependable.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): with the RDL having several 7-team divisions, we've been running low on quad double winners for several seasons now. We've had a total of 1 in the last 2 seasons Generally, we have about dozen people do well, but not reach that plateau. Well, this season again nobody made it. Here are those who were close… Three 10-win sets: Fon Denton of UZMALL, Sawyer/Ray/Sawyer/Persson of Woodchucks, Joshua Pope of Modena Cartel; four 9-win sets: Mark Powell of UZMALL and Gerald Ray again; three 9-win sets: Jim Budelman of Lunatic Fringe, Robb Beeson of Pig Darts, John Jenkins of Get the Point "33", Kurt Kunttu of Some Old Some New, Alex Sarantos of Damn Yankees, Tate Simmons of Mangina, and Steve Tollerton of AFLAC Attack.

-IronMan/Woman Award: Still not approaching the Get Over It records from a year ago when four different members of Get Over It played from 72 to 92 games (the all-time record, I'm sure), but we did have some pretty impressive totals from Diddlers on the Roof. The winner? Charles Wirth played a manly 70 games, outlasting his captain Ruthie Hendrick by a single game. Honorable mention for other division leaders goes to: Barron Aldridge in A with 58 games, Steve Tomlinson in B with 55, Kris Giberson in C with 56, Tom Gross in D with 59, Anthony Martin in E with 53, and Lisa Lawley and Nicole Hatch in G with 51.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: still no teams like the old Diddler's Choice where the same six played every set all season, but we have a couple that were pretty close this season The winner is clearly Dazed & Confused, which carried only six players and finished with all six players in the 47-53 game range. Lunatic Fringe was a close second, with only six players playing until the final week of the season. And Diddlers on the Roof took a slightly different path with four players in the 62-70 game range, and two others splitting a set of 70 games. Other honorable mentions: Last Call in A, who survived with a solid 7-man rotation; D. V. Needed in B, who were 14 total games from a six-player roster; and Heroes In Trouble in D, and Modena Cartel in F.

MY IN-SEASON, PRESEASON & TOURNEY PREDICTION RESULTS

I learned this season, but not enough. I once again didn't pick Dodge Darts to win the Mugs. Of course, they did. When am I going to learn? Dangit.

Well, I went 204-94 in the regular season, for a correct pick percentage of a little under 69%, which is decent but not as good as last season. Considering the start that I had this season though, I'll take it.

My tournament prediction rate dropped as well, primarily because a couple of my picks bowed out in the semis, thereby instantly getting me two games wrong at once. I went 26-17 (+1 forfeit, which I also got right!) in the first round, and then dropped to 0.500 in the semis. Oh, well. For the first time in a while, I also didn't get any bracket completely correct, though I was only one match off in A, C and D divisions.

My preseason predictions showed a few successes along the way. In A division, I got the season and tournament winners backwards, but got them both for at least something (though admittedly A division is the easiest). In B, I called both the regular season winner AND the tournament winner (why didn't I just listen to myself when I was writing the tournament edition?). I picked the C winner correctly also, as well as the D winner (which I tabbed as the surest thing, which they certainly were). E division basically nuked me. The top two teams in F got some props from me at the start, but I only said that one of them might actually win the division. And in G, I pretty much got it exactly right. Geez, after going back and looking at that list, other than E division, I did pretty doggone well. You guys should have saved yourselves the time and just asked me what was going to happen, eh?

A FEW RANDOM THOUGHTS…

--It's Friday night as I write this page (this is pretty much always the last page that I finish), so I've just finished watching the most wonderful television program. It was called something like The Education of Patrick Roy. The plot was this complete a-kicking of the Colorado Pansy-lanche by the Detroit Red Wings. That was, in a word, beautiful. For those who missed it: a) you're a loser, and b) they chased Roy 26:25 into the game with 6 goals on 16 shots. If you don't know the magnitude of that, then ask me - I'm sure I'll still be in the mood to talk about it. Now, I just have to decide if I root for my lifelong favorites or my hometown heroes. Either way, I'm ending up with souvenirs. (The caption to a photo on Yahoo during the game read "Detroit has been celebrating virtually nonstop." That is fantastic.)

--Congratulations to the Woodchucks and AFLAC Attack. Not only were they the only two teams to go undefeated both in the regular season and tournament, but they were also the only two #1 seeds to win the Mugs (despite the fact that five of the seven top seeds had byes into the semifinals).

--There are always a few messages that make me ponder things a bit, and this season's tournaments were no exception. My favorite was the following from Joe Kunesh of UZMALL: "And Fon Denton had a nice Ton-78." A Ton-78, eh? Did he do that with the standard triple-20/triple-20/double-29, or did he go for the less common triple-19/triple-17/double-35?

--This season a D division thrower (Gerald Ray) tied for second in the league in all-star percentage. I don't have the stack of numbers from the previous decade right in front of me, but I'm pretty sure that that is the high for a non-A player in recent memory. Not that G-Ray is really a D player… but that's where his statistics can be found this season.

--You know what really kills me when I'm playing darts? Losing to somebody who throws at a STUPID shot, but they do it well enough that they hit it and win anyway. '55 left? Oh, that's bull, double-15.' Poink, poink, game. Man, I hate crap like that…

--I have to admit that I'm starting to lose a little faith in the scores that you guys give to the host establishments of our league. This season I sent a copy of every one of your comments to the Board all season long so that they could help address whatever problems were encountered. Then, at the end of the season I typed in the bar ranking scores to get the standings on the right side of this page. Well, as it turns out, those scores do not necessarily match the comments. Some of the bars that received just horrid comments all season are in the upper tier of the rankings, and vice versa. HOW can that be? Do some of you just assume that every score is a 5 unless you can find some very specific reason to lower it? Shouldn't you start with every score being a 3, since that is supposed to be the average? Does it bother anybody else that even our lowest-rated bar scores above 'average'? Come on people, not every place is perfect, and if you don't give helpful feedback, our gracious hosts won't know what really needs fixing. Thanks.

--Did I mention that the Red Wings were back in the Cup finals? Maybe next season I'll just name my team something simple… like Darren McCarty.

--Are you aware that darts is on television every week on Time Warner digital cable? Granted, it's on in the wee hours of Tues. morning, but at least it's on. Set your VCR. FoxSports network.

--Man, I've been looking forward to this summer break. Now, I have to go sit and think about what I might want to change in the Tons to change it's appearance for the Fall. I think it's time again.

SPRING 2002 BAR RATING RESULTS

Included here are the cumulative averages of each RDL host establishment's ratings from their visiting captains. William Holland used to compile these numbers, but since he resigned I've taken over the duty. I've taken the individual ratings and averaged them. Like previous seasons, I was going to remove ratings from matches involving two teams from the same host establishment, but William didn't and I didn't want to change the system unless the Board said to do so. It's important to recognize our establishments that have provided the most excellent accommodations to our members, and to give those that might need some improvements some feedback. In any case, here are this season's averages for our establishments. The top 3 receive awards in recognition of their facilities/service.

SPRING 2002 SEASON

The establishments were rated in six categories, with possible scores of 1 to 5 in each category. The lowest total possible then is 6, while the highest total possible is 30. Under this system then, the average score should be 18, but pretty much as always, EVERY bar averages above the theoretical average of 18. Aren't we so generous?

Establishment	Average	Times Rated
Hard Times Café	28.667	6

Players Retreat	18.333	6

CONGRATULATIONS to Hard Times Café and Out of the Park on their repeats as bar #1 and bar #3, respectively.

SHOT OF THE TOURNAMENT

Now, generally the shot of the tournament is a clutch double-out in 1001 to send a team to the finals. Or it's a 124-Out in the third leg of the last 501 with your opponents on 32. But not this time, baby… This time, the best shot of the tournament belongs to Jason Thomas of Point Break, during the opening set of the opening week of tournament play. In 301, Jason was having a bit of trouble getting 'in' in the second game (I think he was up one). 3 darts, 6 darts, 9 darts at a double… 12 darts, 15 darts… 117,246 darts or so… Jason just couldn't get in. Then I saw something absolutely freakin' awesome. Jason's frustration got the best of him, and he reared back and just winged his third dart! You know where it went… D-Bull…

SEVEN AND A HALF-YEAR (Fifteen-Season) TEAM PROGRESSION RECORDS

Ok, so you're probably wondering what the heck this is. Well, it's a table listing where each team has finished in each of the last 15 seasons. You can track just how your team has moved up or down over the past fifteen seasons of play, and maybe relive that one great season just one more time. What each set of information means: Division / Regular Season Finish Position / W-L Record / Tournament Result (xx = first round loss) (Whenever a team changed its composition significantly from season to season, I just did the best I could.) (This list only includes teams that played in the past nine seasons.)
(Whenever possible, I also included the different team names for those groups that change their name from season to season.)

SEVEN AND A HALF-YEAR (Fifteen-Season) TEAM PROGRESSION RECORDS

Ok, so you're probably wondering what the heck this is. Well, it's a table listing where each team has finished in each of the last 15 seasons. You can track just how your team has moved up or down over the past fifteen seasons of play, and maybe relive that one great season just one more time. What each set of information means: Division / Regular Season Finish Position / W-L Record / Tournament Result (xx = first round loss) (Whenever a team changed its composition significantly from season to season, I just did the best I could.) (This list only includes teams that played in the past nine seasons.) (Whenever possible, I also included the different team names for those groups that change their name from season to season.)

The "Night The Lights Went Out In Carolina" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (13-9)

The monster matchup round three was everything it was billed to be. After grabbing a 4-2 lead, Fringe dropped 5 SCkts, before re-asserting themselves in doubles. Brown/Wall highlighted the doubles sets with another quick pair in 501 to set up the win.

"B" Division - Wild Geese (13-8)

The Geese became the ONLY non-#1 seed to claim a set of Mugs this season, as they made it seven-for-seven in Mug winnings by the teams with the highest point totals in the divisions.

"C" Division - WIEBLS (?-?)

Winning isn't everything, but clearly Mugs don't suck. The WIEBLS took on the only team to crack the #1 vs #2 pairings in the Starving Dartists, and the Dartists were no slouch, as they were the #3 seed.

"D" Division - Damn Yankees (13-11)

In true D division fashion, the winner had to struggle to win both their matches. Sure, they were the #1 seed, but both of their matches went to the final set of 501.

"E" Division - Dynamic Darts (13-12)

The league's only perfect record this season was in serious jeopardy when the Gratefuls jumped out to a 6-0 lead in 301. But Dynamic reeled them in, tied it up, and then won their second 1001 in their 17-match run this season.

"F" Division - Tub Kids (13-12)

Amazing. Tub Kids vs. Replacements. Maybe the best race all season. Maybe the most exciting finish to the regular season. Then this… a tournament final for the ages. The Tubbies fell behind 12-4 after the first pair of DCkts sets, then they won the final DCkt, swept the 501s, then took the 1001 & the Mugs. Wow!

"G" Division - Big Deck (?-?)

After a whooping and a forfeit win, the Deckers outlasted the Pigs in the final to secure their season/tournament double-win.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Hall of Justice

"B" Division - Varina Sports Bar (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Wild Geese

"C" Division - WIEBLS (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Them Again

"D" Division - Damn Yankees (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Been There Done That

"E" Division - Dynamic Darts (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Grateful Darts

"F" Division - Tub Kids (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - The Replacements

"G" Division - Big Deck (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Sneaky Pigs

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I write this bit. I'm not begging anymore. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

START PLANNING NOW…

You know, you should start planning now for the Spring season. Sometimes it's hard to track down teammates over the holiday break, so start setting your roster plans now and avoid the headache later.

NEW SECRETARY FOR 2003

Congratulations to Jennifer Jolly of Happy Hours. Jennifer won the recent run-off election for the position of Secretary for 2003.

OUTGOING OFFICER FROM 2002

Amazingly, six of your RDL Board members are willing to continue their terms for another year, and all successfully won the elections for their offices. I doubt that most of you realize what that entails, so when you get a chance, check out who your Board is on page 8 and buy them a drink, tell them how you appreciate it, etc. But please don't forget Jim Hunsberger, your outgoing Secretary. Despite a schedule so busy that he often doesn't even get the pleasure of actually throwing darts, Jim willingly gave up quite a bit of his time (I would say 'free time', but Jim has none) to help maintain the hobby/sport that all of you enjoy so much. So, next time you run into him, make sure that you let him know that you haven't forgotten how much he gave for you even if he isn't in office anymore.

RERUN OF NOTE FROM RDL BOARD / R&G DIRECTOR

Here is another statement from the RDL Board. They know, I know, and you know who you are. How about growing up, eh?

"It has come to our attention that there was a recent incident during a RDL match. This incident involved an honest mistake by the server, who then did everything possible to make the situation right. The RDL member affected was very rude & confrontational with the server. The management of the establishment then stepped in and was very generous in their solution to the problem. Despite this, on his way out the RDL member used profanity to the server and called her something very unkind.

This type of behavior at our host establishments is UNACCEPTABLE! Please note that one of the rules in the RDL is sportsmanlike conduct. This includes not only being courteous to the other darters but also being courteous to the employees and other patrons of host establishments. Failure to follow this rule may result in suspension for partial or complete seasons of darts! In addition, please note that host bars have the right to ban offensive persons from their bars, which means that the team with an offending member may have to play short there the next season! If you are old enough to play darts in a bar you are old enough to act like the adult you are supposed to be."

RETURN OF THE RALEIGH CITY TEAM!!!

Tryouts ongoing now?

The official tryout dates have passed, but there may still be time to try out for the newly re-forming Raleigh City Team. Interested? Call Ext. Org. Officer Kevin Coyne at 876-8636 right about… now.

OTHER TOURNAMENT HOT DARTS

(Sorry, no award for these, but they're still good shots)

Wayne Taylor	One Armed Bandits	160-In
Jason Kilts	Yahtzee Blossoms	12- & 13-dart 301s
Steve Witz	Dazed & Confused	12-dart 301

Tom Brown & Keith Wall, of Lunatic Fringe

18- & 17-dart DCkts (in same set)

18- & 19-dart 501s (in same set)

… and no, Tom & Keith didn't throw both of those sets in the same match - they like to spread the pain around…

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

Fall 2002 RDL Individual Season-Long Awards

(The sets of women's awards were kept the same this season as last, divided into three divisional subsets. At this point, I believe they will be the same breakdowns next season as well.)

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Wow! Kudos to Cathy Moeschet for setting divisions with incredibly close competition levels! We soared up to 43 tiebreakers this season,with two of those even coming in the tournament finals! That total is nearly double last season's paltry number. We had 7 in A division, 8 in B, 4 in C, 9 in D (with one in the tournament), 4 in E (including the final), 6 in F (including the final), and 5 in G. A whopping 11 teams went into the extra league at least three times, with 5 of those playing 1001 for a FOURTH time. The absolute kings of overtime this season were the members of D. V. Needed, who went an astonishing 4-0(!) in 1001. For them, a tie score was as good as a win. Honorable mention goes to Home Thrown and Damn Yankees, who both went 3-1. The heartbreak award clearly goes to the Horsemen, who unfortunately dropped 3 of their 4 tiebreakers.

FALL 2002 PENALTY SUMMARY

It's just a fact of life - you start tossing a couple of mandatory ballot returns into the mix and you're going to generate some penalties. And generate some penalties we did. We amassed the huge total of 56 penalties for a grand sum of 401 points! And almost 60% of those 56 were ballot or run-off ballot penalties. 30 of the 54 teams rang up at least one penalty, with 16 of those 30 going back for seconds… or more. There was once again 1 Preseason Captains' Meeting Penalty (5 pts.), 11 Election Ballot Penalties (5 pts. each), 22 Run-Off Election Ballot Penalties (5 pts. each), 11 Phone-In Penalties (5 pts. each), and 11 Mail-In Penalties (16 pts. each). Add it all up and it comes out to more than half a point per week for every team in the league. Six teams were found guilty of at least three offenses during the season, but amazingly only two teams lost so much as a spot in the standings for their offenses. Chupacabras and Dynamic Darts each chalked up 3 penalties for totals of 26 points, and FAH-Que got 4 penalties for 20 points. The penalty kings though were the Young Guns, who totaled half a dozen penalties for a colossal 63 pts., earning themselves the Fulton Crowley award. The real losses, though, were: runners-up: Irishmen, whose 3 penalties for 15 pts. cost them a spot in the G standings, and the winners: Darts'R'Us, who got 3 penalties for 26 points, and finished out of 2nd in G by… 25 points. Doh!

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs; "D/E/F" Divs. = 3.0+ ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, etc.)

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point %-age and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season:

for "C" and "D" Divisions:

All-star pt. %-age: min. of 32 Total Games Played
Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played for "A", "B", "E", "F" and "G" Divisions:

All-star pt. %-age: min. of 37 Total Games Played
Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for several seasons. I will list all penalties assessed throughout the season right here, so that anyone who thinks that the point math in their division doesn't quite add up can just check here and see who lost what when. It should eliminate any confusion. Preseason captains' meeting (5 pts.): Dartaholics (F). Election ballot (5 pts.): Sharky's Machine (C), Starving Dartists (C), 5 Drunks, 1 Driver (D), Dynamic Darts (E), Travelin' Beer Bellies (E), One Armed Bandits (E), FAH-Que (E), 3 Legged Dog (G), Irishmen (G), Young Guns (G), Darts'R'Us (G). Run-off Election Ballots (5 pts.): Hall of Justice (A), Pig Darts (A), Dodge Darts (A), Nine Lives (B), Horsemen (B), Pog Mo Hon (C), Sharky's Machine (C), Wireless (D), 5 Drunks, 1 Driver (D), Dynamic Darts (E), One Armed Bandits (E), FAH-Que (E), Web'O'D'Feet (F), Chupacabras (F), Coral Reefers (F), Bogarts (F), The Posse (F), 3 Legged Dog (G), Get Over It (G), Irishmen (G), The Gruesome Severed Hands (G), Young Guns (G). Phone-in (5 pts.): Excalibur (B,wk.11), Happy Hours (C,wk.6), Starving Dartists (C,wk.12), FAH-Que (E,wk.1,wk.10), Chupacabras (F,wk.11), Bogarts (F,wk.6), Irishmen (G,wk.11), Gruesome Severed Hands (G,wk.14), Young Guns (G,wk.6), Darts'R'Us (G,wk.4). Mail-in (16 pts.): Nine Lives (B,wk.10), Pog Mo Hon (C,wk.2), C.O.W.A. (D,wk.9), Been There Done That (D,wk.5), Dynamic Darts (E,wk.6), Chupacabras (F,wk.9), Dartaholics (F,wk.9), Young Guns (G,wk.2,wk.4,wk.7), Darts'R'Us (G,wk.8).

THE TWELFTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

All of RDL	J.D. Dixon	Varina Sports Bar
A Division	Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe
B Division	J.D. Dixon	Varina Sports Bar
C Division	Kurt Kunttu	Them Again
D Division	Pat Crowley	Wireless
E Division	Joshua Pope	FAH-Que
F Division	Stan Converse	Web'O'D'Feet
G Division	Mustafa Keitany	Young Guns

"A" Division

Neal Bedworth	Hall of Justice	Nice addition to already strong roster.
Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe	Intimidation Incarnate.
Don Butman	Lunatic Fringe	Mr. Singles Cricket makes the team.
Phillip Eastmead	Hall of Justice	One of the best when he's 'on'.
Dale Hyler	Yahtzee Blossoms	Keeps ripping every set every season.
Robbie Phillips	Yahtzee Blossoms	Best doubles partner outside 'Big 2'.
Wil Tan	Hall of Justice	What if he loved 301 and the 18s?
Keith Wall	Lunatic Fringe	Hammer was hammering this season.

"B" Division

Paul Beaudoin	Wild Geese	I think he needs a new 501 partner.
J.D. Dixon	Varina Sports Bar	Imagine if he practiced…
John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"	The captain will just sit out in 501.
Duane Sawyer	Wild Geese	Solid all the way across the sets.
Matt Sawyer	Wild Geese	Must run in the family, eh?
Donnie Simpson	Home Thrown	Fantastic singles, hurtin' doubles ckt.
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	Key player for upset-minded team.
Wes Vaux	Varina Sports Bar	Got stronger as matches went on.

"C" Division

Dave Arensdorf	Sharky's Machine	He showed up. Winning was a bonus.
Barry Barker	Them Again	Solid in singles, decent in doubles.
Randy Deemer	Starving Dartists	Evidently, he's a cricket specialist.
Ron Hendricks	Starving Dartists	Strong record season after season.
Bob James	WIEBLS	One of the hottest in RDL at times.
Kurt Kunttu	Them Again	Won lots of sngls, half of team's dbls.
Mark Powell	UZMALL	Will never see the line in 501…
Somchai Samaluk	WIEBLS	Yes, this is C division…

"D" Division

Phil Brown	Been There Done Tha	Went There, Almost Did That.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	Winningest lifetime RDL record?
Jim Doroshanko	Damn Yankees	Needs some serious doubles help.
David Simpson	5 Drunks, 1 Driver	Drunk in DCkt, Driving the other sets.
Bill Stasko	Heroes In Trouble	Just killing it, especially in SCkt.
Barry Thompson	5 Drunks, 1 Driver	Only needs some clutch 501 wins.
Jason Walters	Been There Done Tha	Ok, so he's not a big fan of 301…
Jeff Wenhart	Kozmic Debris	Too bad he couldn't play more often.

"E" Division

Galen Gillett	NBF	No clearer team leader around here.
Duncan Kerr	Da Bulls	-01 = 0.500. Cricket = slammin'!
Tim Kissinger	Dynamic Darts	Slow starter picks it up in a hurry.
Kevin McFadden	Dynamic Darts	Makes the team as the singles champ.
Joshua Pope	FAH-Que	Who the hell picked him in 301?
Bill White	Da Bulls	Another good season with lots of Ws.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	"Tiny" Tom has been huge for a year.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellies	Team captain leads by example.

"F" Division

Tony Alcon	Chupacabras	Great in cricket, still good in -01.
Chris Carter	Tub Kids	Just seems to win in any of the sets.
Stan Converse	Web'O'D'Feet	Why was this guy sat in four ckt sets?
Aaron Downs	Tub Kids	Like Alcon, great cricket, good -01.
Tim King	The Replacements	Top winner for the heartbreak kids.
George Martin	Tub Kids	Dependable, and wins all the time.
Jeff Taylor	The Posse	Won almost half of his team's points.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	Mr. singles needs more dbls. wins.

"G" Division

Lynn Chavis	Big Deck	Most balanced winner for Mug team.
Brad Hamilton	Sneaky Pigs	Newcomer was solid from beginning.
Nicole Hatch	Big Deck	SCkt just doesn't match with DCkt.
Bret Heater	Irishmen	Best record for the Harp&Fiddle crew.
Mustafa Keitany	Young Guns	Late addition rolled through the div.
Tom Kubel	Big Deck	Q-Ball quietly added up nice numbers.
Tim Moore	Get Over It	The GOI gun needs a few 501 wins.
Chris Skelton	Darts'R'Us	Likes -01, but apparently loves Ckt.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): They're back. After having only 1 person achieve this in the 3 previous seasons, we have three this time around. And we also have several others that were quite close. Four 10-win sets: Tom Brown of Lunatic Fringe, J.D. Dixon of Varina Sports Bar, and Joshua Pope of FAH-Que. Congrats to all three on a VERY difficult feat. Others who were close include the following… three 10-win sets + a 9-win set: Keith Wall of Lunatic Fringe, Stan Converse of Web'O'D'Feet, and George Martin of Tub Kids. Four 9-win sets: Kurt Kunttu of Them Again (playing in a 12-week schedule). We also had 5 players achieve ten+ wins in three sets, including Pat Crowley of Wireless, who did it in a 12-match season. And there were 13 more people with three 9-win sets.

-IronMan/Woman Award: Nobody even close to approaching the recent Get Over It records from a year ago that included a player with 92 games (the all-time record, I'm sure), but we had a few moderately impressive totals in A and B. We have a three-way tie for first: Nate Wade in A division, and Al Wight and Tim Caldwell in B division all had 64 games played. Decent, but nothing shocking. Honorable mention for other division leaders goes to: Larry Blackburn/David Robertson/Kenny Browndorf in C with 57 games (with only 12 matches in C!), Jill Simpson in D with 54 games, Don Sautter in E with 61 games, George Martin in F with 56 games, and Steve Bristow in G with 59.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: the days of the old Diddler's Choice where the same six played every set all season are evidently gone, and none of the current teams really even come all that close. I've picked out seven teams that maybe deserve some honorable mention, but none of them is really being declared the winner of this award by me this season. The honorable mentions include: Dazed & Confused in A division, Get the Point "33", Dogs of War, and Wild Geese in B division, Happy Hours in C division, 5 Drunks, 1 Driver in D division, and Darts'R'Us in G division. Each of those seven teams had a relatively consistent crew that showed and played relatively equal amounts of games. Just nothing all that alarming from any of them either.

MY IN-SEASON, PRESEASON & TOURNEY PREDICTION RESULTS

I pumped up my averages a bit this season. I really seemed to know most of you guys right from the beginning. Maybe you guys are just getting easier…

I went 334-100 in the regular season, for a correct pick percentage of just under 77%, which is a full 8% higher than last season. That's not too bad, if you ask me. Plus, I hit lots of scores dead on the nose this season - even some that were shorthanded or tiebreakers.

My tournament picks absolutely rocked (yeah, ok, so there weren't as many upsets this time around). I went 38-6 in the tournament matches, and that's with half of the match picks being dependent on getting the previous match correct. I perfectly nailed both A and B divisions (and B was the lone bracket that didn't end up with the #1 seed winning!). Plus, I was but one pick off from getting my entire D, F, and G brackets correct, too.

My preseason picks, for the most part, look as if I wrote them last week. Maybe I should open up my own Miss Cleo line… My paragraph about A division was dead on. My paragraph about B was dead on, if you consider the Geese's tournament win as the top prize. I was close in most cases in C, but my pick was runner-up to the hardware in both the season and tourney. My paragraph about D division makes me look like a friggin' Nostrodamus. In E, I gave Bubba too much credit, Grateful not enough, and the rest was pretty much correct. In F division, I overestimated the Ducks, but got all the rest pretty nicely. And in G I went no farther than to say that Big Deck would win, which they did. I even called the winless team in F (that win was a forfeit…), though I didn't think anyone would go undefeated - kudos to DD.

SPRING DARTS ELSEWHERE IN THE TRIANGLE

In the past, I have included registration information for the other local leagues in an issue such as this one for the banquet. The officers of those leagues used to pound my door down with information for registration to be included in this our newsletters (hey, who wouldn't want their notice in the news of a league of about 450 dart throwers?). But for the past few seasons, I've really got nothing specific. I can probably give you guys a little help though, in case you're interested.

Bull City Dart League : Tuesdays, Durham/RTP. The BCDL went a bit unorthodox this season, and wrapped its schedule right through the holidays. So, they'll be playing this season into February. If nothing else, that gives you a little extra time to make plans to play there. Contact President John Strobel (382-7433) as that time draws closer for information.

Tobacco Road Dart League : Mondays, Durham/RTP. The TRDL should be starting up again sometime around the first of the year. Call President Kurt Kunttu for more information at 468-9138.

Capital Area Dart Club : Raleigh/Cary. The CADC is currently sponsoring singles (and doubles?) leagues, though I'm not sure when the current season ends. For more info., contact Michelle Gaffney at 571-1917.

Triangle Dart League : Thursdays, Chapel Hill. The TDL just hasn't been on a really regular schedule in a while, so I'm not really sure where their season stands. But I could find out. Call me if you want info. for this one, and I'll get back to you with some contact numbers as soon as I can.

SHORT RESULTS OF THE 2002 NC CITY LEAGUE AND NC LADIES' CUP SEASONS/TOURNAMENTS

Well, the 2001 seasons had ended just as the 2000 seasons had: with Durham holding the City League Cup and Raleigh holding the Ladies' Cup. That left all the same teams chasing all the same people. And a couple pretty good races ensued.

In the City League, Wilmington and Durham waged a point race early in the year, until Jacksonville upended Durham. Then Wilmington took one off Durham too, and Wilmington coasted to the regular season title.

Over in the Ladies' Cup, things weren't so clear cut. The Raleigh ladies took an early loss and hovered in the 3rd and 4th spots for a while, sort of cruising under the radar as Durham, Capital Area, and Wilmington led the way. The Raleigh ladies never fell far behind though, and a solid streak with only one loss toward the end put the Raleigh ladies in second for the year, behind only Durham.

But then it was tournament time. And if you have ever paid ANY attention to the NC Ladies' Cup over the past half decade, then you know that the Raleigh ladies own this tournament. Quite literally. Going into this season's tournament, they had NEVER lost a match. Sure, the tournament is only a handful of years old, but nobody else has been able to knock them down yet. This year though, they were underdogs. But as you'll see on page 11, that mattered little to the Raleigh ladies. They kept the Cup yet again , and all the other teams will just have to trek back to Champions again next year for another try. And an extra loud congratulations should go to the Raleigh ladies this year, as they qualified the almost bare minimum of six ladies to play in the tournament: Billie Churchwell, Paula Delp, Michelle Gaffney, Nicole Hatch, Kris Kilsdonk, and Carol Whitehurst.

And, oh yeah, Wilmington won the City League Cup. Dangit.

Well, now you didn't think that I was going to go without power (or heat!) for an entire week immediately prior to the season-ending banquet and not have something that didn't get done, now did you? Well, this is that one thing. I just didn't have time to generate the bar ratings this time around. So, I'll crank 'em up and include them in the first (well, actually, probably the second) issue of the Tons next season. Sorry for the delay, but to be honest, I have to admit that even I'm a little surprised that I was able to get together as much of this issue as I was, in the time span that I had…

A COUPLE LAST QUOTES & NOTES

Quote #1 : from Phil Brown, of Been There Done That, and previously of Diddler's Choice: "According to Keith's trivia question, weren't old Diddler's Choice in there with the four divisions thing. I might be wrong, I might be right, I might be off a little, but I'm just calling for clarification…" [Phil, my man, you are correct! Diddler's Choice actually won plaques FIVE seasons in a row - three firsts and two seconds. Not too shabby, eh? Sorry that I overlooked you guys. - JK]

Quote #2 : from J.J. Yoneoka, of Travelin' Beer Bellies, who asked a question that maybe more than one of you have thought to yourself before: "But I was just wondering about the prediction you made in the Tons about us winning 13-12. I was just wondering how we get 25 points out of a match. Awww, I'm just giving you a hard time. Later." [Alas, J.J., you can get 25 points. The RDL magically creates an extra point when a match goes into 1001! - JK]

Quote #3 : from Jerry Rice, of the Oakland Raiders, in a pre-game sideline interview, when asked how the Raiders would handle the hostile Denver crowd: "We just need to come out balls out, juices flowing…" [Holy crap! What kind of show is Monday night football becoming?! I couldn't believe that he said that. And Al Michaels noticed and made a pretty funny comment about it on the way to commercial. - JK]

A FEW LAST RANDOM THOUGHTS…

--Sometimes it takes a bad thing to make you grateful for all the good things. I was without power and heat because of the ice storm for a full week. I had friends that I met through darts offer me their heating equipment from their job sites, invite me into their homes, bring me a generator even though I didn't ask just because they thought I might be able to use it, etc. What a great life I have sometimes. Everybody… be happy.

--Did the team name Sneaky Pigs really grow on you like it did me? I now think that is really just a great name.

--And has a team with multiple players with the same name ever made it clearer who was who all season than the Sneaky Pigs did this season? They will never know how much I appreciate that type of effort and care.

--Hey, what do you think Chuck Spears' real name is?

--No, I don't have the results yet from the state championships in Boone. I guess they'll have to wait until next season.

--So, did anybody else notice that Tom Brown was using the trophy darts section as a sort of 'to-do' list this season? Geez.

--Everybody have a safe and happy holiday. See you in 2003.

Interested in seeing how your team has fared over the nine seasons prior to this one? Check out the results here on pages 13, 14, and 15. Tournament-winning teams in each division are marked with asterisks. Talk about the regular season not meaning much… in these nine + the current season, here is the # of teams that won both the season and the tournament: A-5, B-3, C-4, D-5, E-4, F-3, G-5. 29 out of 70, even with 6 of 7 this season. Yikes.

Interested in seeing how your team has fared over the nine seasons prior to this one? Check out the results here on pages 13, 14, and 15. Tournament-winning teams in each division are marked with asterisks. Talk about the regular season not meaning much… in these nine + the current season, here is the # of teams that won both the season and the tournament: A-5, B-3, C-4, D-5, E-4, F-3, G-5. 29 out of 70, even with 6 of 7 this season. Yikes.

The "Is A Change To The RDL Landscape Imminent?" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (13-7)
Fringe finishes the most dominating season in recent memory with a 6-0 start and a cruise to the win. I would go into more detail, but is there really any more to say about their success this season?

"B" Division - Dodge Darts (14-4)
The captain goes off and gets married (the nerve!), so the rest of my surest bet of the season completes their season double, then serves notice to next season's A division teams (see page 10).

"C" Division - Sharky's Machine (13-9)
It took the Machine until the tournament final to actually get all six team members together (seriously!), but when they did, the gears were all hummin'. They took out the #3, #2, and #1 teams in succession, then made a VoiceMail plea to stay in C next season.

"D" Division - Dynamic Darts (13-5)
Through the quarterfinals, this wildest of all divisions was boring, with the top four teams in the semis. Then D division acted like D division, the #3 and #4 advanced, and Dynamic took the Mugs by taking 11 of the 12 cricket points in the match.

"E" Division - Tub Kids (13-11)
The Tubbies were one of only three teams (along with Fringe and Dynamic) to win both the season and the tournament. In the longest-odds final (the #5 vs. the #3), the Tub Kids escape in the final set when Chris Carter delivers the double and the Mugs.

"F" Division - Mangina Douche (13-5)
Mangina didn't need points to win their season title, & they didn't need 501 to win their Mugs. The 13-5 final was the closest anyone got to them, as F tied A division for the most basic tourney results.

"G" Division - Orange Crush (13-9)
Maybe it was the ineligible player that cost them two spots in the standings, or maybe they were just getting geared up at the right time… I don't know. Regardless, the Oranges Crushed the #3, #2, and #1 teams in succession to win out of the #6 spot.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Varina Sports Bar

"B" Division - Dodge Darts (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Them Again

"C" Division - Starving Dartists (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - UZMALL

"D" Division - Grateful Darts (8 wins, 4 losses)
2nd place - 5 Drunks, 1 Driver

"E" Division - Travelin' Beer Bellies (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Bubba's Garage

"F" Division - Mangina Douche (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Big Deck

"G" Division - Brain Dead (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - The Potato Heads

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

START PLANNING NOW…

You know, you should start planning now for the Fall season. Sometimes it's hard to track down teammates over the summer, so start setting your roster plans now and avoid the headache later.

QUOTES FROM THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS

… Quotes from before week 14 …

Quote #1 : from a captain who shall remain anonymous, but whose team took exception to a bar rating earlier this season based on the toilet paper in the women's rest room: "And we got the wonderful feedback on toilet paper in the men's bathroom. But I also offered to wipe anybody's ass that needed wiping if there was none in there. And please note that the waitstaff was excellent (she's cute and she's got a nice a according to the other guys, I don't know what to say)."

Quote #2 : from Steve Holland, captain of Dodge Darts, busting on me for not getting his team's score exactly right for only the 2nd or 3rd time all season, and also giving me a little more information than I wanted: "Dude, you were TOTALLY wrong this week. 13-11 was WAY off. We actually won 13-12. Heh, just a little joke there… … And Jeff Dahulich wants to give you a little woowoo!" [Ok, I've seen Jeff and he's cute and all, but he's just not my type… Plus, if I was going to swing that way, I imagine that I would probably prefer a big woowoo. … … … Ok, ok, relax, they meant a big WOOWOO scream, which ensued shortly after Steve stopped speaking. My ear rang for thirty seconds… - JK]

Quotes #3, 4, 5, and 6 : all based off of my predictions… #3 : from Felipe Wilkie of Dogs of War II: "If you want to improve your average, maybe you better leave our games off." [I said that months ago when you guys started varying how many players you brought each week. Still managed 6-6 with you guys. - JK] #4 : from Rick DeMattos of the Chupacabras: "It's getting near tournament time, so beware the Chupacabra…" [Well, I know that hindsight is 20/20, but with that in mind, I still ask 'Why?' Doh! - JK] #5 : from J.J. Yoneoka of Travelin' Beer Bellies: "I was just trying to figure out which you preferred, as far as your predictions, because you predicted us to win the division at the beginning of the year, and then you went against us when we played the first place team that was holding us back…" [Yeah, yeah, I had you guys pegged in week 1 and then lost faith in week 13. But since you tanked it in your only playoff match, I guess I just should have held faith a little longer and then lost it, eh? - JK] #6 : from Lisa Lawley, of Get Over It, whose team fooled me pretty much all season, win or lose: "It's real hard to keep pulling st out of you're a when you're continually picked to win… I mean lose… no, win… no, no, lose, that's what I meant, yeah… I've had a bit to drink." [Hmmm… maybe I should have picked you guys to dump a few more of those matches decided at the end of the night… - JK]

… Quote from after week 14 …

Quote #7 : from Barry Thompson, captain of 5 Drunks, 1 Driver: "I Jill Simpson in my first call. She hit three all-stars tonight, and I was sorry to forget her… and she reminded me real quick too… though I think actually David might have…" [Oh, my brother… miss all the guys' all-stars that you want… but the ladies'? - JK]

… Quote from after the semifinals …

Quote #8 : from Ken Browndorf of Sharky's Machine: "The Machine won last night. We're going to the Big Show." [The Big Show, eh? So was it Fringe or Industrial whose spot you took? Man, I'll bet those guys were mad… - JK]

… Quote from after the finals …

Quote #9 : from Josh Pope of FYL&EMS, exhibiting why there are people in the RDL that I'm really glad that I've had the chance to meet:

OTHER TOURNAMENT HOT DARTS

(Sorry, no award for these, but they're still good shots)

Jason Thomas	The Replacements	160-In
Mark Wackerman	Heroes In Trouble	140-Out
Ronnie Lee	Brain Dead	130-Out
Josh Zemlo	Orange Crush	11-dart 301

Keith Gibbs & Luis Martinez, of Industrial Extra Strength — 21- & 22-dart 501s (in same set)

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

"I was checking on the RDL webpage and I didn't see the Ton-60-In that Jason Thomas threw in the first week of the tournament and I just wanted to make sure that he got credit for what he did." [Unfortunately for Jason, tournament Ins & Outs are just for show. But good for Jason, he now knows that he's a nice enough guy that others on other teams are looking out for him. - JK]

Quote #10 : from Dave Arensdorf of Sharky's Machine, whose team has quite a little tradition going: "We're the champs, baby! The highlights of the match? We're outside of Pure Gold lookin' at titties! Nothin' better than that, buddy…" [Outside!? - JK]

Quote #11 : from Jim Markov of Dynamic Darts, finally giving props where props are due: " You picked us wrong most of the season, but I'll give you credit. You did pick Heroes & Dynamic as the teams to beat in week one. While we didn't finish 1st and 2nd in the season, we did finish 1st and 2nd in the tournament."

Quote #12 : from Jeff Dahulich of Dodge Darts: "Calling in for Steve Holland, who thought it was more important to take his new bride on their honeymoon instead of throwing with his teammates in the championship."

Spring 2003 RDL Individual Season-Long Awards

(The sets of women's awards were kept the same this season as last, divided into three divisional subsets. At this point, I believe they will be the same breakdowns next season as well.)

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Not a record-setting tiebreaker season, but we certainly had a decent sum this time around. It was an especially enjoyable set for three teams, as I'll detail in just a minute. We had 32 regular season tiebreakers, and 3 more in the tournaments. There were 7 in A division, 3 in B, 3 in C (one of them in the tournament), 5 in D, 7 in E (including a tournament semi), 6 in F (one of them being a tournament semi), and 4 in G. Eight teams played 1001 at least three times, with 3 of those playing 1001 for a FOURTH time (one of them even in a 12-week division). This season's 1001 kings were DA Bulls who rolled to a 4-0 record in 1001, including their tournament semifinal. Honorable mention goes to Evicted and the Travelin' Beer Bellies, who both went 3-1. Excalibur claims this season's heartbreak award, losing all 3 of their tiebreakers, including a season-ending quarterfinals loss.

SPRING 2003 PENALTY SUMMARY

Flo returns!!!! A few seasons ago, I renamed the top penalty-getter title the Fulton Crowley Award in honor of the man who had reigned supreme in terms of penalties. Well, Fulton ("Flo") returned this season, and how appropriate that his new team, Mangina Douche, shattered even his rather astonishing penalty records. EIGHT penalties, including SIX mail-in violations, for a total of 106(!) lost points. I'm pretty sure that most of the current captains won't amass that in a lifetime. But you know what? They don't give a crap, because they won the regular season AND tournament anyway. "Points?! We don't need no stinking points!!" Anyway, on the whole, we had 0(!) captains' meeting penalties, 1 ineligible player (13 pts., and a match win… ouch), 13 special election ballot penalties (5 pts. each), 10 phone-in penalties (5 pts. each), and 9 mail-in penalties (16 pts. each). That makes a total of 33 penalties for 272 points, far less than the totals from last season, especially since Mangina accounted for 39% of all lost points. Only 17 of the 51 teams were penalized, and every division had at least one team penalized and at least two penalties total doled out. The team that paid the biggest price was G division's Orange Crush, whose ineligible 1001 player cost them two spots in the standings. The other two teams that each lost one spot in the standings due to penalties were Cheap Shots in A, and The Replacements in E. But nobody lost plaques…

FALL 2003 RDL SEASON REGISTRATION DATES

These dates are on page 8, as well as on page 1, but I am putting them in many locations because they might be the most important thing for you in this newsletter.

-Fall registration: Wednesday, July 17, 7:30-9:00 p.m., Champions
-Fall preseason captains' meeting: Wed., August 6, 7:30 p.m., Champions Billiards
-Fall match play starts on Wednesday, August 13

And yes, I realize that this information is elsewhere in the Tons (a couple of times), but I really don't want to lose any teams because they forgot to register. It's one thing to lose a team because they have other things to do every Wednesday, but it sucks when we lose a team because either we or they weren't paying attention.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

Can't wait until the Fall RDL Season? Then look here…

RECENT VICTORS IN ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE

A few recent congratulations to give out to RDL members that won the Spring 2003 Leaguewide Championship of the Tobacco Road Dart League: Adam Harriss, Tom Kubel, Kurt Kunttu, Wade Moricle, Lisa Shpritz, and Randy Umstead.

That's a pretty good team, don't you think? You're right, it is. But do you know what it also is? It's pretty good competition (as are several of the other Tobacco Road teams), and it's waiting for the Summer season to start… See the next item.

SUMMER DARTS IN THE TRIANGLE

Tobacco Road Dart League

This league is starting this coming week!! Sign up now for Summer Darts!!! - 4-6 players per team - all sets are 2-out-of-3 - league is based out of RTP and Durham - Registration is RIGHT FRIGGIN' NOW!! I've run a version of this notice before for their regular registration dates, but the league decided to very politely hold registration open through TODAY for any RDL members that wanted to pick up some summer darting at the last minute. Obviously, no non-negotiable promises can be made about the schedule, but the Board will certainly be considering the Fall RDL Season starting point if there is a considerable number of RDL members signed up for play. Interested? Then call talk to Kurt Kunttu right now. No, no… I mean right now. He's here at the banquet. Find him and ask him what you need to get in for the Summer season. Don't know what he looks like? Then either ask me, or call him at 244-6170 (he has his cell phone on) and he'll come find you wherever you are here at Tir na nOg.

Can't wait until the Fall RDL Season? Then look here…

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs; "C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D", "E" and "F" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Champions Billiards, 8:00 p.m. (833-8337) (Champions matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Ask for Mike Kralic for info.) (U.D. matches the pot!)
Monday	Tailgaters, 8:00 p.m. (872-2827) (Bar matches the pot!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Bar matches the pot plus $150!)

Champions Billiards & Darts - Blind Draw Notice!

Champions Billiards in Mission Valley Shopping Center is willing to hold a blind draw any day of the week that there are 14 or more people willing to enter. Seven days a week! Just get 14 people together, and they'll match the pot!

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

THE THIRTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs
All of RDL	Nick Stewart	UZMALL
A Division	Wil Tan	Industrial Extra Strength
B Division	Barry Barker	Them Again
C Division	Nick Stewart	UZMALL
D Division	David Simpson	5 Drunks, 1 Driver
E Division	J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellies
F Division	Jerry Oakley	Big Deck
G Division	Jeff Taylor	The Posse

"A" Division
Tom Brown	Lunatic Fringe	All I know is: I don't want to play him.
J.D. Dixon	Varina Sports Bar	Back in A, and not missing a beat.
Keith Gibbs	Ind. Extra Strength	If only he had played more matches.
Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar	Winningest player for reg. season #2.
Wil Tan	Ind. Extra Strength	Without him, runner-up falls apart.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Sole RDL member w/10 W's every set.
Keith Wall	Lunatic Fringe	RDL's best overall record... In A div.
Steve Wilcenski	Swine Flew Too	Best season outside top three teams.

"B" Division
Barry Barker	Them Again	Website is great, his darts are better.
Jim Hunsberger	Get the Point "33"	Mr. singles slipped a bit in doubles.
Paul Jacobi	Nine Lives	Got stronger as season progressed.
Bob James	Dodge Darts	Best record in B for division winners.
Kurt Kunttu	Them Again	Finally back to A where he belongs.
Tim McNamara	Dodge Darts	Big Mac wins a lot in every set.
John Murdaugh	Home Thrown	We can list him only in singles, right?
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	Will be the B team doubles specialist.

"C" Division
Frank Allison	Sharky's Machine	Got better as the match went on.
John Carroll	Dogs of War II	Big horse needs teammates… literally.
Greg Crumpler	BeenThereDoneThat	With a DCkt partner, one of C's best.
Mike Dwight	UZMALL	One of league's best in final 3 sets.
Ron Hendricks	Starving Dartists	Brilliant singles, decent doubles.
Mark Powell	UZMALL	Superb record every set every season.
Marc Shown	Starving Dartists	Div. Winner captain owned cricket.
Nick Stewart	UZMALL	Defend my country? Make my team.

"D" Division
Pat Crowley	Wireless	Win upon win, season upon season.
Tommy Gelhar	Kozmic Debris	Definitely wins a lot of games.
William Holland	Grateful Darts	Lots of wins, with lots of all-star pts.
Jim Markov	Dynamic Darts	Big singles winner needs dbls wins.
Ben McCommons	Happy Hours	Surprisingly good record for last team.
David Simpson	5 Drunks, 1 Driver	Top gun in D rules the cricket roost.
Sarge Smith	Heroes In Trouble	New Hero came with a bit of a cape.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Obviously Markov's teammate, eh?

"E" Division
Aaron Downs	Tub Kids	10-1 SCkt & 3-8 DCkt? Uh, what?
Brian Howard	Bubba's Garage	Being solid across the board is great.
Jeff Hunter	FYL&EMS	Strong once 301 was finished.
George Martin	Tub Kids	Mr. DCkt for losing doubles team.
Darryl Nutter	Tub Kids	Downs' partner? Almost identical…
Josh Pope	FYL&EMS	One of division's best, despite 501s.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	No quicksand for top Replacement.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellies	Captain carried team to season title.

"F" Division
Tony Alcon	Chupacabras	Ten SCkts and ten DCkts isn't shabby.
Galen Gillett	IBF	Perennial all-star needs 501 help.
John Keleher	Mangina Douche	Wins everything; very, very solid.
Jerry Oakley	Big Deck	Pretty intimidating for an F thrower.
Ron Penny	Mangina Douche	301 stunk, then BOOM in the rest.
Nicholas Smith	IBF	Any argument with rookie of the year?
Mark Terrell	Darts'R'Us	SCkt star was just solid elsewhere.
Bill White	DA Bulls	Solid record basically every season.

"G" Division
Dan Ewald	Orange Crush	So we just play him in singles…
Brett Heater	The Potato Heads	Played well, and held team together.
Billy Mitchell	3 Legged Dog	Just needs some clutch 501 wins.
Shannon Parker	Brain Dead	It's clear why he played every set.
George Sutphen	Bogarts	Late addition, but won a lot anyway.
Jeff Taylor	The Posse	This one requires no explanation.
John Wells	Orange Crush	Top winner for tourney upset runners.
Brett Yates	Brain Dead	301 is passable, rest is really strong.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): Poof! After a season with three players with four 10-win sets, eight more with three 10-win sets, and thirteen more with three 9-win sets, slipping back to only 2 eight-team division erased almost all of those types of numbers. Only one person achieved four 10-win sets this season, two more achieved three 11-win sets, two more achieved three 10-win sets, and eight more achieved three 9-win sets. The big winner was Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe with 10+ wins in every set. The others… Three 11-win sets: Keith Wall of Lunatic Fringe, and Jerry Oakley of Big Deck. Three 10-win sets: Tom Brown and Jim Budelman of Lunatic Fringe. And of the eight with three 9-win sets, only one came from a 7-team (12-week) division: Tommy Gelhar of Kozmic Debris.

-IronMan/Woman Award: The all-time record of 92 games wasn't approached this season, but we might just have a new record for a 7-team (12-week) division. That possible new record belongs to none other than Al Wight of Dogs of War II, who tied for most the most games last season as well (Al is clearly getting more darts for his dollar than the rest of us). Al pitched a very iron-worthy 78 games, with no 1001 games! That's 6.5 games/match! I suppose that is what happens when a team is seriously shorthanded. Honorable mentions: Duane Sawyer and Randy Warren in A with 61 games, John Murdaugh in B with 50 games, Felipe Wilkie in C with 67 (who didn't even play the most on his team, but played the second most leaguewide), Eric Hines/David Simpson/ Barry Thompson in D with 51 games each, Jeff Dopko in E with 52 games, Leigh Highfill in F with 59 games, and Shannon Parker in G with 49 games.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: Well, Sharky's Machine had visions of six guys showing up and playing every set, but that failed pretty miserably. So, we're left with a handful of honorable mentions, as no teams play the same group the same amount anymore. The mentions: Wild Geese in A and 5 Drunks, 1 Driver in D, both of whom started mainly five with two others splitting the final spot; also Get the Point "33" in B, Darts'R'Us in F, One Armed Bandits in E, and Brain Dead in G, all of whom had a fairly constant lineup all season.

MY IN-SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

After a simply superb season of predictions in the Fall season, I went back to about my average this season. And my success level varied little based on whether it was my season-long picks, my weekly picks, or my tourney picks…

During the season in my weekly picks, I put up a final record of 216-99 for a correct pick rate of about 69% (with several more potential wins erased by forfeited matches!). But you guys could follow that progress as the season went on, so let's move on to check out the other sets of picks.

My tournament picks went along within 1% of the rate of my regular season weekly picks. I went 30-14 in the tournament, with quite a few of my losses coming at the hands of the seemingly countless upset teams in the finals. The only bracket that I nailed perfectly was A division (gee, don't think that I've seen those teams a few teams in the past, do ya?), though I came within a single pick of getting both B and G divisions exactly right. As a bonus, two of my four dark horse picks were finalists (with one winning), and another that I just tossed into the D paragraph as a dark horse won it all. Woowoo!

As for my preseason predictions, those were pretty damn good, so maybe I should have just listened to myself. A division went pretty much exactly as I said it would. As did B division with the lone exception of Them Again coming up a bit higher than I thought. In C, my pick finished 3rd behind the two teams that I had put right behind my pick. While my D division picks didn't rule the regular season, they did meet in the tournament final, saving me a bit. My E pick won the regular season, and another team that I put in the race for 2nd was in the final. My top two F picks finished pretty much exactly like I said they would. And my pick in G won the regular season while my 3rd place pick finished 2nd. All in all, not too bad if I do say so myself…

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

==This is generally the very last item that I write (and it is again this season) so even I'm curious what might fall out of my head…
--I don't EVER want to hear anybody complain about their arm being tired again. The other night I watched the final of the women's College World Series, which was won by UCLA. In the tournament, UCLA pitchers threw over 700 pitches, which was not all that remarkable until you realized that they only used ONE pitcher! Her name is Keira Goerl, and she ended their title run with a 9-inning (softball games are only 7 innings) no-hitter in the championship! Sure, the throwing motion of a softball is different and supposedly easier on the arm/shoulder, but we're talking 700+ pitches, most in the 60-65 mph range. Woah.
--And one more note on women doing amazing physical things… Have you seen the ad with Debbie Rice in it yet? She roller blades and has reached 61 mph on a level surface. 61 MPH?! Holy crap! I'm not sure I could reach 61 mph if I just jumped out of a window! (Yeah, yeah, you science nerds… I know that I actually could… I said that to make a point.)
--Anybody else watch American Idol? I do, but I only like about half of it. Which half you ask? The singing half. The filler crap is annoying, and I'm not sure I've seen a show that stretches a very little bit of worthy programming into an hour like the "Idol results" shows do. Thank heavens they are on Wednesdays so I tape them during matches and can just skim through them. But man I do love the singing/critiquing part…
--Did you happen to catch that game in the NCAA basketball tournament where the referee threw out a school's mascot AND radio announcer? I've heard of a mascot getting pitched, but the radio guy?! (I forget which school it was.)
--At some point in my life I want to be as smooth as Roland Scholten at the line. Absolutely nothing elicits emotion from him. Did you see his quarterfinal match on Fox Sports World? Right about the time they were pronouncing him dead for the day, he was on 302. First dart triple-20 leaving him 242, which as any good darter knows means that you should switch to the 18s in case you go single/triple. Yeah, right!! But that's exactly what he did, leaving 170. Which, of course, he took out. Good lord!! I suppose if your game is at the level where you switch numbers at 242 to set up an out, you're supposed to hit the 170. And this guy didn't even make it out of the quarterfinals. Geez.
--Ok, last comment on Fringe for the season: Did you realize that not once all season did they step to the line with the other team playing to win the match? The closest they came was winning in the first two 501 games in week 14, and that was the only time they even came that close. Scary.
--A license plate that I saw the other day said BECHBUM, and it was a Kansas plate. Which friggin' beach are we talking about? Down at the reservoir!? [Well, I guess I will give them credit for being in North Carolina though.]
--Just realized that I reminded all of you to thank Barry Barker for volunteering his time and efforts for the website (page 11), but I didn't remind you to thank your Board members. They also are unpaid volunteers, and without them, you wouldn't be sitting here enjoying this banquet, much less playing darts all season.
--Finally, I would like to thank the following teams for being good to me and my picks all season: Fringe, Cheapies, Varina, Geese, Dodgers, Dartists, UZMALL, Heroes, C.O.W.A., Bandits, Ducks, Reefers, and Mangina. I was anywhere from 10-2 to 14-0 in picks of their matches. No thanks to Dynamic (4-8) and Grateful (5-7) though, the only two for whom I got more wrong than right.

SPRING 2003 BAR RATING RESULTS

Every season, I write about the same thing here: all ratings for all bars are included in these totals, even if both teams play out of the same host establishment. Any comments that you may have put on your scoresheet rating form have already been passed on to the Board, and I'm sure that any horrible situations will be addressed to the bar in a polite manner. Anyway, congratulations to the top-rated bars! Their efforts to give us the best darting experiences possible are not recognized nearly often enough.

SPRING 2003 SEASON

The establishments were rated in six categories, with possible scores of 1 to 5 in each category. The lowest total possible then is 6, while the highest total possible is 30.
Under this system then, the average score should be 18, but pretty much as always, almost every bar averages above the theoretical average of 18. Aren't we so generous?

A LITTLE NOTICE FOR NEXT SEASON, EH?

Upon calling in Dodge Darts' B division tournament victory, interim captain Jeff Dahulich had this to say to the rest of A div.: "I've got four names for you… Lee Whitehead, Doug Jeffcoat, Keith Gibbs, and Billy West. HELLOOOO, A Division!" [Now I like a little trash talk as much as the next guy, and I'm looking forward to playing against what looks to be a good team, but talk about putting the pressure on the four new recruits… - JK]

JUST FOR THE RECORD

If you are looking at the G division statistics, or if you happened to have played The Potato Heads in the tournament, you likely noticed that their roster had been changed. Due to some rather problematic situations that caused the team to lose several of its players late in the season, The Potato Heads took advantage of a seldom-used RDL rule that allows teams to declare "lost" players as off the team and replace them, provided that the loss of those players drops the roster below six. Interesting, eh?

THE FIRST GOLDEN CHALKER AWARD

Every now and then I try to start up a new column, or ask the captains for input about a new topic. And sometimes I start up a new "award" that I give out whenever I deem somebody to be worthy of it. Well, today is one of those times. This is not an award that I will be taking lightly, as only the true crème de la crème of this category will be receiving this highest honor. Therefore, I may not give another one of these awards for seasons or even years. But rest assured, if you do something worthy of this honor, I'll immortalize you in print in a similar fashion. So without any further ado, I present to you the first ever recipient of JK's Golden Chalker award: Wade Moricle of Evicted.

Now for what wonderful feat could Wade be bestowed with this title you are now wondering. Well, it all happened April 16th at the Upper Deck Profile when we were playing D V Needed. Wade was chalking a game of 301 for Mike Reynolds and Deb Parker, and both throwers proceeded to just miss their double-out for several turns. At some point, Wade likely lost count of how many darts they threw at the double, primarily because HE FELL ASLEEP!!!! To be fair, it was only for a few moments, but by his own admission, he remembers that one of the throwers had walked away with his/her darts, and the next thing he remembers is the other thrower walking away from the board. Sure, not a full nap, but it's several seconds at least. Geez, imagine if the game shot had been thrown that turn…

ANYBODY NEED A CADDY?

Ever have an idea for a product/service that you just know that darters would love? Well, Paula Delp and I have decided that we have one. Who wouldn't like their own personal DART CADDY? No, not one of those big cases used to carry your darts - your own personal aid like a golfer has! Think about it. Wouldn't that be cool? We'll carry your darts to the line for you, retrieve them after you throw them, chalk your score, and even offer strategic advice if you would like. Who cares if you're good enough to warrant actually having a servant help you during your games? You would certainly be the talk of the match at the very least. (And yes, we would likely be willing to make trips to the bar for you. The jury is still out on whether we would want to sign up as your designated driver week after week though…) So, who is going to make the first bid, eh?

ONE FINAL SET OF WEBSITE KUDOS

Congratulations and thanks to Barry Barker one last time for devoting his time and efforts to producing the new RDL website this season. If you haven't checked it out yet, then you're missing out. The web address is on page 8 of this banquet Tons, and is on page 4 of every weekly Tons each season. Barry isn't a Board member, and he isn't paid. And he likely doesn't hear "thank you" nearly enough. Find him today and thank him, eh?

EIGHT AND A HALF-YEAR (17-Season) TEAM PROGRESSION RECORDS

Ok, those of you who didn't see this a few seasons ago are probably wondering what the heck this is. Well, it's a table listing where each team has finished in each of the last 17 seasons. You can track just how your team has moved up or down over the past seventeen seasons of play, and maybe relive that one great season just one more time. What each set of information means: Division / Regular Season Finish Position / W-L Record / Tournament Result (xx = first round loss) (Whenever a team changed its composition significantly from season to season, I just did the best I could.) (This list only includes teams that played in the past eleven seasons.) (Whenever possible, I also included the different team names for those groups that change their name from season to season.)

EIGHT AND A HALF-YEAR (17-Season) TEAM PROGRESSION RECORDS

Ok, those of you who didn't see this a few seasons ago are probably wondering what the heck this is. Well, it's a table listing where each team has finished in each of the last 17 seasons. You can track just how your team has moved up or down over the past seventeen seasons of play, and maybe relive that one great season just one more time. What each set of information means: Division / Regular Season Finish Position / W-L Record / Tournament Result (xx = first round loss) (Whenever a team changed its composition significantly from season to season, I just did the best I could.) (This list only includes teams that played in the past eleven seasons.) (Whenever possible, I also included the different team names for those groups that change their name from season to season.)

The "Hey, I Haven't Had One Of These In Almost Eight Years" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Subversive Element (14-10)

One of the best tournament finals in recent memory, with neither team more than two points ahead at any time until the final dart. A 9m, a 6-Bull, two 180s, a 132-Out to tie the match at 10s, etc., combined to keep the crowd on the edge of its seats (see page 11).

"B" Division - Home Thrown (13-9)

A couple nice upsets in the quarterfinals seemed to signal big stories in B, but in the end, the only story was that the Cheap Shots were able to force the Homers into 501 in the final.

"C" Division - Back Here Doing That (14-10)

Back Here took care of business in the final, but their regular season/tournament double was sort of expected. What wasn't expected was the winless Dogs of War III beating the #2 seed, crushing the #3 seed, and pushing the #1 to the last 501 set!!

"D" Division - Wireless (13-3)

This season's big upset pullers squeezed through the first two rounds 13-11 and 12-10, but then lowered the boom in the final. In typical D division fashion, the lower seed won 4 of the 6 matches, with the #5 and #6 seeds combining for a 4-1 record.

"E" Division - Modena (13-9)

Modena took a rather improbable route to their Mugs, beating the #7, #6, and #4 seeds, with every match going into 501. Upon winning, they declared themselves the big dogs, and challenged the A division runners-up (see quotes on page 4).

"F" Division - Tres Equis (13-11)

The 'Cabras finally decided to tap some of their deep talent pool, rolling to the finals. However, waiting for them in the finals was a XXX show that built to a crescendo on the final shot of the night.

"G" Division - 3 Legged Dog (13-7)

Ho, hum. G division was ultra-boring this time around. The higher seed won every match, and only one match was even as close as 14-10. The Dog did at least complete their perfect season.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - The Subversive Element (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Varina Sports Bar

"B" Division - Home Thrown (12 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Cheap Shots

"C" Division - Back Here Doing That (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Nothing But Darts

"D" Division - Heroes In Trouble (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Bubba's Garage

"E" Division - No Fear (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Modena

"F" Division - Brain Dead (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Tres Equis

"G" Division - 3 Legged Dog (12 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Orange Crush

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I include an item like this one. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

START PLANNING NOW…

You know, you should start planning now for the Spring season. Sometimes it's hard to track down teammates over the holiday break, so start setting your roster plans now and avoid the headache later.

UPCOMING ADO TOURNAMENTS

I don't really have room for all of them on the calendar page at this time, but I thought I might pass on a list of some of the closer ADO (and larger soft tip) tournaments in the coming months for those of you that might like to try your luck, or even try to 'join the circuit'…

Jan. 2-4 - Getaway for the New Year, Charlotte, NC (see page 33)
Jan. 16-18 - Foothills Fling, Greenville, SC (864-246-5346)
Feb. 27-29 - Aim for Eastern NC, Newport, NC (252-240-2014)
Mar. 26-29 - GA Bullshooter Regional, Norcross, GA (800-435-8319)
June 25-27 - Bull City Classic, Durham, NC - that's right… we have an ADO tournament back here right in the Triangle!

And other events that I suspect will be held, but don't have full confirmation of yet:

Jacksonville tournament at Crazy Jerry's? - February?
St. Patrick's Day weekend - St. Pat's Day tourney, Greensboro
2nd weekend in April? - Charlotte Open, Charlotte, NC
3rd weekend in May? - Central VA Dart Classic, Richmond, VA

QUOTES FROM THE TOURNAMENTS

… Quote from after the semifinals …

Quote #1 : from Rick DeMattos, captain of the Chupacabras, after they took down the #1-seeded Brain Dead: "Hey, come on, how about having a little faith in the Chupacabras? Always beware the Chupacabra! One more win to go!" [Well, evidently, Tres Equis either respected the 'Cabras, or maybe just disrespected them. Either way, the Mugs have XXX on them. And… I've had faith in the Chupacabras many time in my past weekly predictions. Let's just say that I've 'learned'. - JK]

… Quote from during the finals …

Quote #2 : from Mike Seward of Varina Sports Bar: "Hey, if yours won't stay in, you can stick them in my potato." [You know, it took me a bit to decide what to say here, so I think maybe I'll just let this one go on without any comment… - JK]

… Quote from after the finals …

Quote #3 : from an unidentified member of Modena, who I think might have eyes that are a little bigger than his stomach, or… arm, or… whatever: "As predicted, Modena brings home the Cup. The Mug, the Cup, the Plaque, you name it. We're going up to A league, and Fruchitina, Froockarena, whatever the heck they are, Latina… they're dead meat if they ever meet up with Modena. Mark my words, Modena is here to stay! We're the big dogs!" [Ok, let's address this gem one bit at a team. First, it's Varina (Vuh'-ree-nuh), out of Fuquay-Varina. Second, if you really want to jump up to A, I'll see what I can do to pull a couple strings for you. Third, it might not be Varina that you have to look out for when you get there. - JK]

Quote #4 : from Jon Randolph, captain of the completely undefeated Home Thrown squad, who evidently has a little different bend to his motivation of his players: "You wouldn't believe it. Rocky, Andre Boudrias, threw a fin' nine-mark!" [Uh, Jon, I'm not sure that you're supposed to report that with THAT much surprise and shock in your voice… - JK]

Quote #5 : from April Hall, captain of Tres Equis, who is threatening to take the John Elway approach to her darting career: " As long as I've been playing with Tres Equis and Galen and Danny and Bob, this is the first time we've won a Mug, and you know what? I'm retiring. Buh-bye!" [For some reason, I believe her not. - JK]

OTHER TOURNAMENT HOT DARTS

(Sorry, no award for these, but they're still good shots)

[Didn't get too many 'extras' reported during the tournaments this time around. Anything included here isn't an award, but it's still good. In the future, if you think you might warrant a little extra tournament ink, just leave any really good turns or games on the VoiceMail along with your tournament match scores and tournament perfect throws.]

Tom Brown	The Subversive Element	Ton-71
Paul Beaudoin	UZMALL	142-In
Donnie Simpson	Varina Sports Bar	132-Out
James Wilson	Lunatic Fringe	9-dart 301

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Either all the close matches just happened to be 7-5 coming out of singles this season, or parity went out the window. Sure, we had a couple more byes each week this season (relative to last), but we dropped to a lowly total of only 24 tiebreakers all season! There was 1 in A (which ultimately decided the division), 3 in B, 5 in C, 4 in D (one of those being the only tournament 1001), 2 in E, 6 in F, and 3 in G. Only three teams leaguewide played in as many as three 1001s, with the Chupacabras wearing the cardiac kids (I'm allowed to write that…) crown. The 'Cabras went 2-2, thereby playing in 17% of the RDL's extra legs. Honorable mention also goes to Dynamic Darts (2-1, including the lone tournament 1001) and Grateful Darts (1-2). At least most everybody got home early all season…

FALL 2003 PENALTY SUMMARY

Fulton Crowley has moved on yet again, but we still maintain our newly dubbed Fulton Crowley Award in honor of the man who broke all the standards in terms of penalties. This season, we didn't have a clear cut winner in terms of penalties (three different teams had four penalties each), but I'm going to go with Mayberry as this season's big "winner". Both Modena and No Fear matched their penalty number, and surpassed their point loss total, but neither of those ended up dropping because of the penalties. Mayberry, on the other hand, dropped 31 points on their four penalties, dropping them from 5th to 6th in F, thus sending them to G next season! Bummer. Anyway, as a whole, we had 0(!) captains' meeting or ineligible player penalties, 13 election ballot penalties (5 pts. each), 9 phone-in penalties (5 pts. each), and 12 mail-in penalties (16 pts. each). That makes a total of 34 penalties for 302 points, both totals being moderate increases over last season. A whopping 22 of the 49 teams were penalized, and every division had at least two teams penalized. Of those 22 teams, 18 teams did not lose anything in terms of final standing spots (although nobody quantifies the effect penalties have on team happiness). The four teams that did drop due to penalties paid pretty big: Nine Lives (who fell from 4th to 6th in B, and is thus headed to C div.), Wireless (who fell from 4th to 5th in D), Mayberry (whose penalties dropped them to G, as described above), and The Posse (who dropped from 5th to 6th in G).

SPRING 2004 RDL SEASON IMPORTANT DATES

These dates (or at least some of them) are on page 8, as well as on pages 1 and 24, but I am putting them in many locations because they might be the most important thing for you in this newsletter.

-Spring registration: Wed., January 7, 7:30-9:00 p.m., Upper Deck Profile
-RDL-sponsored blind draw, Wed., January 14, Upper Deck Profile
-Spring preseason captains' meeting: Wed., January 21, 7:30 p.m., Upper Deck Profile
-Spring match play starts on Wednesday, January 28
-All roster additions must be completed by Monday, March 1
-Divisional Tournaments - May 5/12/19
-Spring banquet: Sat., May 22

And yes, I realize that this information is elsewhere in the Tons (a couple of times), but I really don't want to lose any teams because they forgot to register. It's one thing to lose a team because they have other things to do every Wednesday, but it sucks when we lose a team because either we or they weren't paying attention.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

RECENT HONORS IN ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE

Today marks the end of another fantastic season of RDL competition, but we all know that ours is not the only darting show in the area. The Bull City Dart League (possibly the only handicapped steel-tip dart league in existence, and the home of the newly crowned NC Ladies' Cup champion team) has recently finished its Fall season, and some more RDL members reigned supreme. Congratulations to Dale Hyler and Doug Jeffcoat, who combined with Ed Grubb (ex-RDL member), Wesley Winston, John Carpenter (ex-RDL member), and David Page, to win roughly their three-millionth league title in the last three million and two seasons. The final was never really all that close against their top rivals, the regular season champions who featured RDL member Mark Knight. Knight collected no less than TEN individual awards during the season (fast games in FOUR different sets, a few perfect throws, A div. singles title, league high point-per-dart average, team season title, sole Survivor, Pulitzer Prize, Durham City Council humanitarian service award, MTV lifetime achievement award, etc.).

Normally, this item would be included on the calendar page (flip this page over), but that page was getting a little crowded…

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point %-age and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season: for ALL Divisions -

All-star pt. %-age: min. of 32 Total Games Played
Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D", "E" and "F" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977 - ask for Jeff Dahulich for info.) (U.D. matches the pot!)
Saturday	Snooker's, Ridgewood Shopping Center, 8:00 p.m. (828-7665) (Snooker's matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977 - ask for Jeff Dahulich for info.) (U.D. matches the pot!)
Monday??	Tailgaters, 8:00 p.m. (872-2827) (bar matches!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Bar matches the pot plus $150!)

PENALTY LOG

THE FOURTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

All of RDL	Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar
A Division	Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar
B Division	John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"
C Division	William Holland	Grateful Darts
D Division	Pat Crowley	Wireless
E Division	Tommy Gelhar	Kozmic Debris
F Division	John Detmers	Mayberry
G Division	Jeff Taylor	The Posse

"A" Division

Tom Brown	Subversive Element	Big winner in cricket all season.
Jim Budelman	Lunatic Fringe	21-2 in the two cricket sets.
J.D. Dixon	Varina Sports Bar	Winningest player in A is a terminator.
Doug Jeffcoat	Dodge Darts	Solid all season for title contender.
Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar	Delivered the most, the most often.
Wil Tan	Subversive Element	"Mr. I Hate -01" was 9-0 in 301.
Keith Wall	Subversive Element	Hammer delivered, incl. Mug winner.
Lee Whitehead	Dodge Darts	Three 10-win sets in 12-week A div.

"B" Division

Jimmy Davis	Home Thrown	Superb, but missed 1/3 of the matches.
Mikey Hindle	WIEBLS	Had over half his team's doubles wins.
John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"	Just an amazing doubles record.
Luis Martinez	Home Thrown	If only he could have played more.
Tim Mills	Home Thrown	8-3 in 301 was his bad set…
Kenny Persson	UZMALL	Solid addition led new team in points.
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	Strong record for shorthanded team.
Steve Witz	Cheap Shots	Needs a new doubles cricket partner.

"C" Division

Rick Bradshaw	Dogs of War III	Mr. Tournament Perfect Throw.
Gary Burney	Excalibur	Very good in ckt, pretty good in -01.
Greg Crumpler	BackHereDoingThat	Singles cricket makes up for the rest.
Chris Goodknecht	Grateful Darts	Maybe we'll just sit him in 301…
William Holland	Grateful Darts	He's like the Energizer bunny lately.
Andre Reaume	All Over It!	Great SCkt record for a newcomer.
David Simpson	Nothing But Darts	Clearly the big stick on a decent team.
Phil Simpson	Grateful Darts	Overshadowed only by Holland.

"D" Division

David Arensdorf	Sharky's Machine	As many W's as most w/only part-time.
Kevin Barton	Heroes In Trouble	Ok, so he's not a 301 specialist.
Ken Browndorf	Sharky's Machine	Captain Kenny leads good team in Ckt.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	A D div. opponent's freakin' nightmare.
Jeremy Kring	Travelin' Beer Bellie	That 0.500 SCkt record worries a bit.
Steve Motley	Bubba's Garage	Top winner for all-around runners-up.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Tiny just rolled for struggling team.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellie	Probably 2nd best in the division.

"E" Division

Kevin Carter	Red Bull	Got stronger after 301 was over.
Tommy Gelhar	Kozmic Debris	Just crushed people up until 501.
Tim King	No Fear	Amazing how balanced his team is.
Sid Mitchell	The Replacements	A lot of wins in the first three sets.
Somchai Samaluk	Red Bull	Great in SCkt, decent in the rest.
Kyle Teeter	Modena	Nothing spectacular, but I like solid.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	I guess we'll just list him in singles.
Matt Varnadoe	The UDR's	Just needs to play a little more often.

"F" Division

Tony Alcon	Chupacabras	Just look at those singles numbers.
Bill Buckley	Chupacabras	Nice complement to Alcon for 'Cabras.
John Detmers	Mayberry	Finished way, way above team ave.
Galen Gillett	Tres Equis	Many solid seasons, finally a Mug.
Paul McSorley	DA Bulls	Absolutely thumpin' in first three sets.
Shannon Parker	Brain Dead	Well, I know I'll list him in SCkt&501.
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Sort of a big fish in a small pond.
Brett Yates	Brain Dead	Got better throughout the match.

"G" Division

Alex Chapman	3 Legged Dog	Chapman, Collins, Matz… wow.
Scott Collins	3 Legged Dog	Chapman, Collins, Matz… wow.
Dan Ewald	Orange Crush	9+ wins in every set. In only 12 weeks.
Charlie Lawley	She Hate Me	Had a huge season in singles wins.
Mike Matz	3 Legged Dog	Chapman, Collins, Matz… wow.
Jeff Taylor	The Posse	This one is becoming a perennial.
John Wells	Orange Crush	Amazing that he might be team's #3.
Josh Zemlo	Orange Crush	Great singles, even better doubles.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): With no eight-team divisions this season (meaning nobody could play more than twelve matches), we had exactly ZERO players achieve four 10-win sets this season. The best we had was Dan Ewald of Orange Crush, who had an 11-win set, two 10-win sets, and a 9-win set. That is pretty damn strong. One other player achieved 9+ wins in all four sets, so we would be remiss not to point out William Holland of Grateful Darts. Honorable mentions to those with three 10-win sets: Lee Whitehead of Dodge Darts, Tommy Gelhar of Kozmic Debris, and Josh Zemlo of Orange Crush. Additional honorable mentions to the six others with three 9-win sets: Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe, J.D. Dixon and Mike Seward of Varina Sports Bar, Brett Yates of Brain Dead, and Alex Chapman and Scott Collins of 3 Legged Dog.

-IronMan/Woman Award: With all seven divisions having the same number of teams, the race for having played the most games was as close as it has ever been. Prevailing by a single game was David Romanchek of B division's Nine Lives, with a stout 61 games played (with no 1001s, meaning he averaged more than five games per night for his shorthanded squad). Honorable mentions go to: Brian Selby of Lunatic Fringe (as if the League President wasn't busy enough already) in A with 59 games, Britt Phillips of Horsemen in C with 54, Tom Gross of Sharky's Machine in D with 54, Jeff Dopko of One Armed Bandits in E with 58, Bill Buckley and Tony Alcon of Chupacabras in F with 50 each, and Christi Henry of Phantoms of the Dartboard in G with 60 games.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: Only three teams even came close to a nice balance of games played among all of its team members this season. The closest was Get the Point "33" in B division, with six of the seven team members playing between 44 and 49 games each. The next closest would be Heroes In Trouble in D division, with six of the eight team members playing from 41-48 games. And the final mention is for UZMALL in B division, with all seven players chipping in with 35-49 games each. All decent efforts.

MY IN-SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

I had a decent season last season, but I pumped it up a bit this season, increasing my regular season and tournament success rates, and not doing all that poorly on my preseason picks either.

During the season in my weekly picks, I put up a final record of 216-75 for a correct pick rate of over 74%. You could follow that all season, so I won't go into deep detail here, especially considering the week-by-week table that I've provided on the following page.

Aside from D division (imagine that), my tournament picks were pretty decent. I finished with a total tournament record of 29-13, but I lost a few of those because some of the early upsets cost me more than one match for the losing team. I did pick all of the A and G brackets, but those were easy ones. Better than that, I picked several of the first round upsets, and I got a win from my lowest-seeded dark horse to boot. And it's comforting to note that all of my "Surest Things" came true, which is at least a little comforting (because if my Sure Things didn't happen, then I shouldn't be so sure, eh?).

As for my preseason predictions, I didn't nail them perfectly, but I got many of them, and was pretty close on some others. My A division pick won both the season and tournament, and I got the rest pretty accurately too. In B, my conditional picks (because another team didn't get a specific player) finished #2 and #1. In C, the only thing I got right was saying that "this is one of the toughest picks". In D, I predicted good things for the Mug winners, but that was about it. In E, I pretty much nailed it as far as the regular season race goes. In F, I just moved Brain Dead down a notch or two, but the rest was right on. And in G, I was certain that the Crush would finish ahead of the Dog and the Ducks - close, but my top two were reversed. Not too bad, I say.

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the four 'o' symbols indicate a team for which I was only 0.500 (all in C and D divisions), and the two 'x' symbols indicate the only two teams (both in E division) that fooled me more often than not.

GUEST POET SWITCHES GEARS

Keith Gibbs of Dodge Darts provided us with a couple pretty impressive poems this season (did you figure out the hidden messages?). Then he gave us a philosophical column that many of you didn't understand but the rest of you loved. Well, he sent me one last column during the season, but due to the number of additional information items that have to be included in the last few issues each season, I never had room to include it. Well, now I do, so I am. Keith wrote this after Mike Seward and the Varina Sports Bar crew played a truly inspired match against Keith's team in the second half of the season (the match of which he speaks eventually decided 2nd place in A division). So, without further delay, here is Keith's last offering…

"So we lost last night, or to be slightly more honest, our win streak was ended by a whole lot of unholy darting. I am calling for an exorcist because those boys were possessed. Especially Mike Seward. I have to give Mike credit. I used to own this guy, not lease to own, I actually held the papers on him, free and clear. So either I have gotten worse, or he has gotten a whole lot better. And I know, or at least will only admit to, that I am still good. Therefore, I take my hat off to Mike (last night a T60 In opening 301 and a nine-mark opener to boot with T20, T19, T18 in Doubles Cricket). And while my hat is off, I will give it to Mike. He needs one, as his haircut is not, how do I put it gently, flattering. I have seen better hair on a Troll Doll. So that being said, let's switch gears. I am calling for an RDL boycott of Outback Steakhouse. There is a menu item there called the Ayers Rock Strip Steak. A good piece of meat, named after the largest exposed monolith on the face of the planet, and the most recognizable geologic feature in the world. However, in the late 1980's the Australian government returned Ayer's Rock to Aboriginal control, and the Aboriginal Council immediately renamed it their culturally correct designation of Uluru. So after a confrontation with the local management, I decided to contact customer service at 1-800-OUTBACK to discuss how they were contributing to the cultural ignorance of the American population. I explained to the women that they needed to be more politically correct in regards to the overlooked culture that occupied the continent eons prior to Cook's sailing into Botany Bay. She hemmed and hawed, until I told her that I represented the NCAA. "You represent the National Collegiate Athletic Association?" she asked. "No," I replied, "I represent the North Carolina Aboriginal Alliance, and, if our demands are unheard, I will organize a mass boycott of your stores." This got her startled enough to request that I speak to her manager. "Can I have your name please?" she requested. "Well" I replied, "My aboriginal name given me when I lived in Perth is (make appropriate sounds) Whistle, Whistle, Tongue Click, Tongue Click, Whistle." "How do you spell that?" she asked dryly. "K-E-I-T-H," I replied. She then hung up on me. So, join me in this boycott. If you need help there is a Bloomin' Onion Detox program available."

[In case it wasn't already obvious, the views of Keith Gibbs do not necessarily reflect the views of the Raleigh Dart League. Except for the stuff about Mike's hair. In that regard, his views exactly reflect the views of the RDL. - JK]

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE TONS

This page is a pretty good example of items contributed to the Tons from league members. Have a good photo? Want to write a column? Make 'em at least a little relevant and send 'em in!

THE GREATEST MATCH IN THE HISTORY OF RDL

The RDL A division final this season was absolutely a war between two teams that were extremely strong from the top of the roster all the way to the bottom. Onlookers agreed that the excitement was almost too much to take. For example, here is a staff photo snapped of Varina Sports Bar reserve team member Bill "Chicken Hawk" Chaney…

Ok, so maybe Bill wasn't exactly knocked out with excitement, but at least he was knocked out. (And just for the record, this photo of Chicken Hawk was snapped during… singles cricket. Yes, that's right, singles cricket.) Bill perked up a little bit later to toss in some in-depth commentary during the critical 501 matches that decided the Mug outcomes - Jim Nantz had better look out, as the competition for his job is already here.

Quick quiz question: What is required to wrestle the NC Ladies' Cup away from the Raleigh team at the end of a full season and tournament? Well, until this past weekend, nobody could have answered that question, as nobody could have possibly known for certain, since it had never happened. Well, now after more than half a decade, the Raleigh ladies finished a tournament all the way down in the lowly position of… 2nd. That's right - the RDL ladies now boast a record of Forever and 1. Anyway, back to the answer to the question. The answer is: these ladies right here…

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

Ok, I've expanded this column this season, because it appears that this is one of the columns that has generated the most interest/discussion over the past few seasons. So… some of these observations are dart-related, and some of them clearly are not. As always, this is the last thing that I'm writing and it's late, so let's see what falls out of my head.

--I've decided that Mark Knight and Randy Umstead have spine. By this, I mean that nothing phases them, regardless of how bad things might appear to be. In the A division final, Wil Tan hit a little nine-mark against Randy to go way up in the game. Most people would start mentally preparing for leg #2. What did Randy do? Throw 6-Bulls. I repeat, s-i-x b-u-l-l-s. Later in the match, Mike Seward pushed his team nearly 300 points ahead in the first leg of 501 by tossing a 180, against Mark. Six darts later, what did Mark do? That's right, hit a 180 right back on him. Sure, both Randy and Mark ended up losing those sets, but that is really intimidating when you toss in something perfect and your opponent matches it instead of packing it in.

--I wonder if I'm alone in that my indifference to baseball is slowly to turning to anger? Could there be any more overpaid athletes? And now fans reach out into the games and affect outcomes, players are testifying before grand juries, radio DJs are trying to entice players to sign with their teams with Hummers (the vehicles!… sheesh). And to top it off, baseball has come up with the most laughable anti-steroid policy in the history of anybody policing anything anywhere. That policy is insulting, and I will NOT be giving up one dollar to them until they change it.

--Speaking of ridiculous policies, it's overkill on the topic, but I think I have a bit more of a unique perspective. The topic? The BCS, of course. My uniqueness in the story. Well, I am, for the first time ever, torn as to whether I want my beloved alma mater to win a football game. Michigan is the only thing in America that can save the BCS from itself. If Michigan wins, the Sugar Bowl winner is the only 1-loss team and everything is smoothed over. But if Michigan loses, the BCS is exposed as the fraud that it is (again). Hmmm. Tough call for me.

--Is it a coincidence that Jeffrey Allen of Wireless signed up for the email version of the Tons of Newsletter merely hours after his team won the D division Mugs out of the #5 slot? No interest shown in the Tons all season while Wireless was going 6-6 and trailing four teams, but a Mug later, and Jeffrey is signing up for some ink. Not to worry Jeffrey, as I'm sure your change in perspective is not unique to you.

--Do any of you go by your first name anymore? Over the past 12 months, I have slowly found out that a disproportionately large percentage of my friends go by their middle name. Is that a geographic preference in this area or something?

--Could there have been a better story in RDL this season than if the Dogs of War III could have finished off their Mug run? 0-12 in the regular season, then 2-1 in the tournament with one of those being a whoopin'. And tourney matches are best-2-of-3!

--I've found three things out about darts. 1) Winning is great. 2) Playing with your friends is better. And 3) Winning with your friends really doesn't suck either.

--Anybody else notice how many restaurants in the style of Japan Express takeout hibachi there are all of a sudden? It seems like they just all sprouted up. Which is great for me, because I love them. Still… they seem to have all opened at once.

--Alright, it's time to pick on some horrible television ads:

Smirnoff Ice: have you seen the one where the guy slashes his own tires so that he won't drive drunk after the party? How many Smirnoffs had he had when THAT became a good idea!? Good lord is that stupid.

Check Into Cash: I've never used one of these "services", but there is a line on the screen during these ads that just cracks me up - "In many cases, checks will be issued in lieu of cash." Well, doesn't that make it Check Into Check? I know that the thought is that their check is good and yours isn't right now, but that is just friggin' misleading.

EPT: This one is almost as insulting as the baseball policy on steroids (see left column). The woman is looking flustered and she says "I can't concentrate. Could I be pregnant?" I'm not kidding, that's what she says. By this logic, every time I'm sitting next to a cute girl, I must be pregnant. And my 9-year-old has been pregnant for years. Who the hell wrote that?! And more to the point, who the hell approved it for production?!

McDonald's: Ok, I'm so not "lovin' it"! That new catch phrase evidently is targeted at the absolutely stupidest people on the planet. My favorite is the one where the guy is trying to scrape together enough change from his couch to get lunch. Once he has it, he says that now all he needs is a Swedish Bikini Masseuse. Seriously. I couldn't make this stuff up. The best part? At the end of the ad, after the announcer has finished his part, you hear "Ello? My name is Inga", and the guy just says "Awwwriggghhhht." Ouch, my brain hurts.

Movie ad: I can't remember which military thriller the ad was for, but it hailed itself as the "best military thriller since Black Hawk Down". That's big praise. Or at least it would have been if this movie hadn't been out about 4 months after Black Hawk. If that is the best review you have to quote/twist, why bother?

Old Navy: Lil' Kim is the new spokesperson. That just doesn't need any further comment.

--Ok, to be fair there are a couple of really, really great ads out there too. Including:

Volkswagen: The handle-licker ad is beautiful.

Viagra: The ad with the older woman greeting her husband at the door with the big goofy grin when he gets home from work makes me laugh EVERY time that I see it.

--I get so tired of sports announcers that try to impress upon me how wonderfully intelligent some college athletes are. Whenever there is a football player that doesn't major in sports training or communication, they beat it to death. When NCSU played Ohio State, the announcers pointed out four times in fifteen minutes that Craig Krenzel majored in molecular biogenetics. That sounds really big and great, doesn't it? The only problem is that you can't major in something as specialized as molecular biogenetics. Plus, some of that title is redundant. Just exactly how much non-bio genetics is going on around here anyway? I hate it when they basically exaggerate just to make a guy sound even better. It diminishes the truth. I'm impressed that Krenzel is majoring in genetics (I'm assuming her), but to just add a bunch of prefixes and adjectives makes the announcers sound painfully stupid and awed to anybody in the know.

--Today has been a pretty strange day, but a great day at the same time. If only I could tell you what I've been thinking all day. But I can't. So, I'll just revel in my own little dream world. [And no, it's nothing bad or evil. Geez. It's really good.]

2003 North Carolina City Dart League &
2003 North Carolina Ladies' Cup

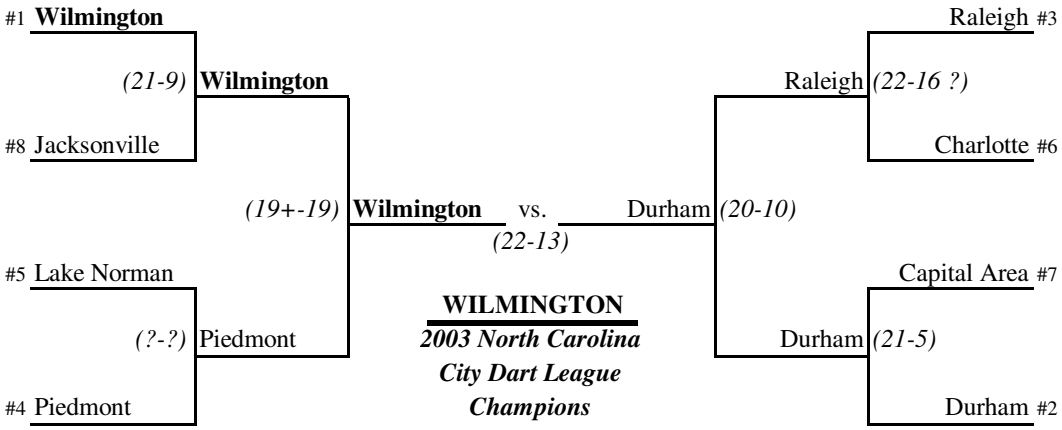
CITY LEAGUE TOURNAMENT SUMMARIES

While some things change, some things stay the same…

The change…: Since the inception of the Ladies' Cup season format, the Cup itself has known only one home - Champions Billiards in Raleigh. The Raleigh ladies had won every tournament ever held… until now. Raleigh made the final once again, but this time the Durham ladies prevailed, taking the Cup all of 20 miles down the road (see, the Triangle is still the home of NC ladies' darts). The RDL was still pretty successful, however, as league members Jamie Henton , Amy Page , Deb Parker , and Lisa Shpritz are all members of the Durham squad. Congratulations, ladies! The same…: For the fifth year in a row the City League Cup will reside in either Wilmington or Durham. For the second year in a row, Wilmington downed Durham in the final, making the Cup count 3-to-2 Wilmington over Durham in the past five years. Considering the number of RDL members on the Durham City Team, our league is looking pretty successful in that setting as well.

TOURNAMENT PERFECT THROWS (RDL members in bold)

(This list may be woefully incomplete - these are just the perfect throws that I, the editor, witnessed…)



NCCDL Perfect Throws

Tom Brown (2) - Dur. - (9m,T80,12/7) Keith Gibbs - Ral. - (9m,12/7) Lee Whitehead - Ral. - (T80,12/7)

And while these aren't considered 'perfect throws', these seem pretty perfect to me:

Bob Gargan - Wilm. - (160-In,12/7) Jerry Oakley - Wilm. - (160-Out,12/7)

2003 North Carolina City Dart League Post-Season Tournament (December 7 & 8 - Reggie's, Wilmington)

The "My Single Favorite Day Of The Darting Year" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Elusive Element (13-9)

For the second season in a row, I write here that an Element-Varina final is one of the best ever (see page 12). Varina held an early lead, but the Element took control in doubles, in a match highlighted by five 9m's, an 8m, and a Ton-77. In the end, the Element repeated its A division season/tournament double.

"B" Division - Swift Recovery (14-10)

Hello, dark horse! Had the Pointers not taken penalties this season, the members of Swift would be going from B, to the stage to pick up their Mugs, on then onward to C division. As it is, they are the only team below a #3 seed to claim Mugs this season, and they were only pushed to 501 once (in the final).

"C" Division - Excalibur (14-6)

What had been a wild and crazy division produced a relatively boring tournament result. Excalibur, fresh off their regular season title, rolled to the Mug victory in methodical fashion, winning each of its three tournament matches in the first pairing in 501.

"D" Division - Wireless (13-9)

All seven matches of the D tournament were won by the higher seeded team, so this was definitely the least newsworthy of the six divisions. Or so it would seem… In actuality, at least five of those matches were taken into 501, and champion Wireless was pushed to the limit a couple times (especially against Modena).

"E" Division - Tres Equis (13-11)

E division was rough to predict all season, and the tournament held that form nicely. Every match played (one was a forfeit) went into 501, and the favorite (Junior) went to the final pair in both of its matches. And in the end, XXX joined Wireless and The Element as the teams that won Mugs each of the last 2 seasons.

"F" Division - Coral Reefers (13-11)

The Reefers started their run in a close quarterfinal, and things just got tighter as they went. Maybe the biggest news of the final was that the pairing of Reefers-Get Over It didn't go to 1001 for the first time this season (they had split the first two).

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - The Elusive Element (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Well Hungarians

"B" Division - Here for the Beer (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Shak'n Not Stirred

"C" Division - Excalibur (10 wins, 4 losses)
2nd place - Bubba's Garage

"D" Division - Wireless (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - No Fear

"E" Division - Varina Sports Bar II (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - 3 Legged Dog

"F" Division - Get Over It (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Mayberry

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

QUOTES FROM THE TOURNAMENTS

… Leftover quotes from after week 14 …

Quote #1 : from an unknown caller, in a dramatic, spooky, low voice: "Jason, it's the ghost of Christmas past…" [I have a guess at whose voice this was, but for the life of me, I have no idea why my guess or anyone else would leave this message. Odd, but interesting. - JK] [And yes, that was the entire message. - JK]

Quotes #2 & #3 : from Joe Stevens of Here for the Beer, who didn't get to play in the final week and subsequently clinched the B singles title: "If my math is good, the B division singles champion did not play yesterday. And I just want to set the record straight that I really do have four stitches on my thumb. ... I showed up, and my team wouldn't let me play, but they came through and kept us undefeated other than a damn forfeit. You take care, and we'll see you next fin' season, ok, pal?" [Oh yes, we will, my new A division compadre. - JK] Then Joe called back again, evidently a little worried how we might view a singles titleist that skipped the final week: "Ya know, even though I tried to throw last night, and I did - I showed up, took off my flexible splint there, unwrapped all my shit, and tried to throw darts. I may just have to take a picture and send it you to put it in the Tons letter. Would that gross people out? Maybe? I'll do it for proof…" [Uh, no, but thanks, Joe. I do like when people submit their photos for the newsletter, but this isn't really what I generally have in mind. - JK]

Quote #4 : from John Jenkins, captain of Get the Point "33", mastering the understatement as he noticed that he hadn't called or mailed me when the Tons arrived with no result listed: "Uh-oh, Jason. I've made a boo-boo…" [How refreshing was that?!?! Just about every other time somebody calls after realizing they forgot to call in their call starts with some cussing. Nice guy, that John. - JK]

Quote #5 : from Karsh Fourhman of the Chupacabras, getting into the swing of my doubles pairings name recognition: "Going into doubles, we had Tony/Stuart in the pole position. However, it ended up being Rick/Stuart, Tony's less known brother with the win in the last match of -01."

Quote #6 : from Kurt Kunttu, captain of Here for the Beer, and maybe the most prolific VoiceMail caller of the past few years: "I have been told by my teammates that I to take this number off my SpeedDial. I don't know what that means, but… And I will make sure that I do NOT call in again, to-night…" [Two funny things here - first, I can only imagine that they're erasing the number from SpeedDial because they are heading to A next season; and second, when Joe Stevens called back later, he engaged Kurt in the call, and Kurt finished by saying 'oh, dangit, now I'm on tape as having called in again - I thought I was going to make it'. - JK]

… Quotes from after the semifinals …

Quote #7 : from John Tighe, captain of Varina Sports Bar II, a team that I have affectionately dubbed Junior due to their name similarity to Varina Sports Bar in A division: "If we win the Mugs, we decided that we don't care what name you put on 'em. As long as they have our names, the team name can be Junior, or Lucky, or whatever you want to write. We don't care as long as we have 'em." [Well, I'm sorry that it won't be an issue, John. But XXX clearly came to play. - JK]

Quote #8 : from Keith Moats, of Varina Sports Bar (Sr.), whose team used a 104-Out in the 3rd leg of the final 501 set to force 1001, then used another 104-Out to win the 1001 and move on to the A division final: "Unbelievable." [He said that word so many times in his message that he didn't even call in the perfect throws from the match. I was almost to the point where I expected to see the Hungarians the next Wednesday because it was too unbelievable that VSB won. - JK]

… Quotes from after the finals …

You know, you should start planning now for the Fall season. It can be hard to track down teammates over the summer break, so start setting your roster plans now to avoid the headache later.

Quotes #9, 10 & 11 : from Mikey Hindle, captain of the victorious #6 seed Swift Recovery: "152-In AND a 12-dart cricket for Paul Jacobi. I know those don't count, but if you want to play with it, he's gonna love it." [Well… I'm sure that he would, but I'm still not playing with it. - JK] #10 : "By the way, somebody wants to yell 'Dark Horse rules.' " (followed by a yell of something like "Dark Holes Rules!") [Uh, Kris? Was that Kris? Holes? - JK] #11 : "And Kurt Kunttu hit Kris in the nuts. I don't know if he meant to, but we won right after that, so it was cool. Maybe we're gonna start doing that every game with Kris." [Holy cow! Talk about taking one for the team… - JK]

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

We added 14% more matches this season over last, and we added just over that percentage in 1001 games. We had 24 last season, and climbed a bit to 28 this season. That's a pretty low total considering there were 378 matches this season. There were 4 in A division (including the only one in a tournament), 7 in B, 8 in C, 2 in D, 4 in E, and 3 in F. Five of the 48 teams leaguewide played in as many as three 1001s, with only Heroes In Trouble taking part in as many as four. The Heroes don't get the title of Heartbreakers for the season, however, despite the fact that they lost 3 of the 4 that they played. At least the Heroes won one, right? Neither the Hammer Heads nor Shak'n Not Stirred had a win to go along with their 3 tiebreaker losses. And who are this season's kings of the extra legs? Well, maybe we should crown a queen instead… This season's winners are definitely Christi Henry and her 3-0 PB's. 3-for-3… clutch.

SPRING 2004 PENALTY SUMMARY

First off, please allow me to congratulate this season's captains. Not a single one of you had a week off all season, and our penalty total went down, down, down!!! We had a grand total of 21 penalties for 215 points, down from 34 for 302 the previous season. That's a decrease of 38% in number of penalties, and a decrease of 29% in points lost. That is really a very good thing in my opinion. Kudos to you guys.

But… some of you were indeed penalized, so let's summarize, shall we? This season's penalty kings, with twice as many penalties for twice as many points as any other team in the league, is Damage, Inc. In the Damage's defense, however, all four of their penalties came late in the season and cost them nothing in the standings. Lazy? Maybe. But a huge problem for them? Not really. Anyway, here are the leaguewide totals - 0 ineligible player penalties, 1 captains' meeting penalty (5 pts.), 10 phone penalties (5 pts. each), and 10 mail penalties (16 pts. each). Of the 48 teams, only 14 chalked up a penalty, and exactly ZERO of those were C division teams. And while we're on those lines, F division had the most teams penalized, with 4. (3 teams each in A, B, and D, 1 in E)

And Damage was the penalty king, but did anybody actually pay a bigger price for their transgressions? Yup. Get the Point "33" only slipped one week, but they forgot to both call and mail, and thus lost 21 points. And finished 20 pts. out of 6th, and will now head to C. Ouch.

FALL 2004 RDL SEASON IMPORTANT DATES

These dates (or at least some of them) are on page 8, as well as on pages 1 and 34, but I am putting them in many locations because they might be the most important thing for you in this newsletter.

Wednesday, July 14th - Fall season registration, Snooker's
Monday, July 19th - Preseason RDL Board meeting
Wed., July 21st & July 28th - RDL-sponsored blind draws
Wed., August 4th - Preseason capts.' mtg./packet pickup, Snooker's
Wednesday, August 11th - Start of Fall season match play
Monday, September 13th - Fifth week captains' meeting, Snooker's
Wed., Nov. 17 & Dec. 1/8 - Fall season divisional tournaments
Saturday, December 11 - Fall season banquet

And yes, I realize that this information is elsewhere in the Tons (a couple of times), but I really don't want to lose any teams because they forgot to register. It's one thing to lose a team because they have other things to do every Wednesday, but it sucks when we lose a team because either we or they weren't paying attention.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

NEW WEDNESDAY COUPLES LEAGUE!!

Felipe Wilkie of Dogs of War has decided to fill his summer Wednesday evenings by running a league for couples! It will be played at Mojo's, near the intersection of NC-55/US-64 in Apex. The season will be fit into the opening between the end of the Spring RDL season and the start of the Fall RDL season. If you and your partner are interested, call Felipe (906-4186) for details.

SUMMER DARTS IN DURHAM/RTP!!

Interested in picking up another night of team play during the summer break? Well, luckily for you, the Tobacco Road Dart League is starting up almost exactly when the RDL ends! How perfect, right? Well, registration ends this Monday, May 24th, at Arnie's Place (806-1441) (registration starts at roughly 7:30 p.m.). The league operates with teams of 4-6 players, and dues are $20 per player. Interestingly, there are reportedly a few bars that are interested in sponsoring a couple teams. For more info., call Wade Moricle (599-7502). And, oh yeah… the season will start on Monday, May 31st or maybe June 7th.

CONGRATS TO WINNERS OF ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE

While we're discussing Durham dart stuff… congratulations to the members of Wall of Voodoo, champions of the recent Bull City Dart League season. The champion squad included RDL members Tom Brown, Joe Gaglione, Jason Kilts, Mark Knight, and Keith Wall, as well as former RDL member Allen Smith. Nice, guys, very nice.

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs; "C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D" and "E" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"F" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point %-age and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season - for ALL Divisions:

All-star pt. %-age: min. of 37 Total Games Played
Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977 - ask for Jeff Dahulich for info.) (U.D. matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977 - ask for Jeff Dahulich for info.) (U.D. matches the pot!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Bar matches the pot plus $100!)

THE FIFTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

A Division	Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar	D Division	Mike McDonald	Wireless
B Division	Ron Hendricks	Starving Dartists	E Division	Nicholas Smith	Tres Equis
C Division	Eugene Foushee	Excalibur	F Division	Jeff Taylor	The Posse

All of RDL -- Eugene Foushee -- Excalibur

"A" Division

Tom Brown	Elusive Element	Was biggest when it mattered most.
Keith Gibbs	Well Hungarians	Doubles cricket record is impeccable.
Mark Knight	Elusive Element	Just to complete the "best week ever".
Mike Seward	Varina Sports Bar	Best RDL thrower right from week 1.
Wil Tan	Elusive Element	Wins, all-stars… simply a terminator.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Was the rock for shorthanded squad.
Keith Wall	Elusive Element	Clutch in the biggest matches.
Lee Whitehead	Well Hungarians	Top shot for the runners up.

"B" Division

Ron Hendricks	Starving Dartists	Way above his team's average.
Jim Hunsberger	Get the Point "33"	We'll need to find him a DCkt partner.
Paul Jacobi	Here for the Beer	12-dart SCkt in finals was just icing.
Kurt Kunttu	Here for the Beer	If anything, too diplomatic as captain.
Kenny Persson	Swift Recovery	So we just list him in the cricket sets…
David Romanchek	Nine Lives	Carried sub-0.500 team to 3rd place.
David Simpson	Nothing But Darts	Absolutely huge… uh, until 501.
Joseph Stevens	Here for the Beer	Hand injury aside, impressive season.

"C" Division

Gary Burney	Excalibur	Slow start in 301, but picks up quickly.
John Carroll	Dogs of War	Yet another powerful season.
Eugene Foushee	Excalibur	Strong in -01, HUGE in cricket. Nice.
William Holland	Grateful Darts	Not his usual domination, but strong.
Tony Horton	Excalibur	The comeback is coming along nicely.
John Iager	Grateful Darts	He'll just sit out the SCkt rounds.
Tony Keller	Horsemen	Mr. Singles Cricket for C division.
Shawn Leonard	Bubba's Garage	Tops for Excalibur's real competition.

"D" Division

Brian Coleman	The Replacements	When 9-3 is your worst set… wow.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	Big winner season after season.
Mike Johnson	Wireless	Just look at that doubles record.
Tim King	No Fear	Starts strong, gets better every set.
Mike McDonald	Wireless	Top winner on underrated team.
Joshua Pope	Modena Cartel	If only he could play every week.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	Not bad for alleged 3rd best on team.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Talk about raising a team's average…

"E" Division

Alex Chapman	3 Legged Dog	A couple more 501s and he leads E.
Dan Ewald	Varina Jr.	Best in RDL over the first three sets.
Galen Gillett	Tres Equis	Just the one blip (DCkt) to be raised.
Duncan Kerr	Da Bulls	75% or better in all four sets is tough.
Nicholas Smith	Tres Equis	11 wins in three sets, and now a Mug.
Billy West	Bogarts	Most out-of-place player in RDL.
Bill White	Da Bulls	Strong across all four match sets.
Josh Zemlo	Varina Jr.	That is a slammin' singles record.

"F" Division

John Antoniak	Mayberry	Fantastic record over the final 3 sets.
Joe Clark	Somebody'sMother	Peak in SCkt, but solid everywhere.
Brett Heater	Mayberry	Tails off toward end, but still good.
Lyman Kiser	One Armed Bandits	Why the heck do they sit him in 301?
Mike Reynolds	Tailgaters	What a friggin' find for 5-player team.
Jeff Taylor	The Posse	Can he really win that often?
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Big winner for F Mug champions.
Jeff Young	Get Over It	Top shot for very balanced F winners.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): One season after we had zero divisions with eight teams (and thus had zero teams with more than twelve matches), everybody had fourteen matches. So… we had a truckload of people chalk up lots of wins in lots of sets. Thus, we have to re-raise our bar back to previous seasons' standards. No longer does three 9-win sets get your name here. Not even four 9-win sets, or even three 10-win sets get you here. Anyway, let's get to those that surpassed all those plateaus. The top winner, with FOUR 11-win sets is… Jeff Taylor of The Posse. Close behind with four 10-win sets were Mike Seward of Varina Sports Bar, and Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe (who admittedly benefited from being picked a few times). Honorable mentions: Tom Winters of Dynamic Darts (with three 12(!)-win sets), and Dan Ewald of Varina Jr. (with three 11-win sets).

-IronMan/Woman Award: After a season with no eight-team divisions and very few teams playing shorthanded very often, we have come back to the long season and we have come back to a team that played short week after week. So what does that yield for us? Well, it yields Laura Jarasczewicz of course! Laura went for the marathon, chalking up 80 games this season! Honorable mentions go to: Steve Hoffmann of the oft-shorthanded Lunatic Fringe in A with 71 games, Greg Crumpler of Shak'n Not Stirred and John Mays of Nine Lives in B with 59 each, Tim Caldwell of Dogs of War in C with 61, Tom Gross of Sharky's Machine and Travis Rowe of Dynamic Darts in D with 59 each, Anthony Martin of Kozmic Debris and Warwick Charlton of Da Bulls in E with 60 each, and Paul Conway (Laura's teammate) with 75 games (second in the league, but also second on his team).

-The Team Attendance Award winners: Also returning this season are a handful of teams that relied on the same group of the same people week after week. Who are these tight groups you ask? Well, let's see… There's Damage, Inc. in A, with only six players, and with all six of them 12 of 14 times. There's also Dogs of War in C, with almost the exact same totals as Damage had. Then there's No Fear in D, also with only six guys and a similar attendance record, but they forfeited a match so they don't rank as highly. And finally, there's PB's in E, with all seven throwers having played 47-53 games each. (Oh, and there's also the five-player Tailgaters squad in F…)

MY IN-SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

After a really strong season last time (over 74%), I dropped back a bit this season. However, my preseason picks were pretty good, and my tournament picks were positively wonderful. Let's break those down a bit…

During the season in my weekly picks, I put up a final record of 228-105 for a correct pick rate under 69%. You could follow that all season, and you can analyze the picks to your heart's content on page 10, so I won't go into deep detail here.

We lost a tournament match to a forfeit (and I would have had that one in a nice 1vs8 pairing!), so there were 41 tourney matches. I only got 2 matches wrong in the first round (both in B, and no I didn't get Swift wrong), and then followed that up with a 9-3 semifinals record. Sort of a lull in the final week at only 3-3, but I still finished the tournament with a 33-8 final record (and that's without knowing exactly who will be playing after week one!). Plus, my "sure things" were, and my "dark horses" advanced nicely (including a #6 seed that went all the way to a Mug victory in B!).

As for my preseason predictions, a couple of them were conditional, but for the most part, my column looked like I wrote it last week. I overcredited Fringe in A a bit, but got the rest almost perfectly. In B, I wrote that Here for the Beer would win and that Swift Recovery would make a nice run (sound familiar?). My pick in C finished 3rd, and my 3rd pick finished 1st, so I was close, sort of. In D, I wrote that Wireless would finish ahead of No Fear - no discussion needed there, I assume. In E, I overcredited the 'Cabras, but then picked Junior and XXX (the regular season and tournament winners), and even picked the number of losses the Dog would accumulate! And in F, I picked the top 3 in order… I just picked them to be #2/3/4 instead of #1/2/3. Decent.

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

(I introduced this page last season, and it was quite a hit, so I brought it back. Unfortunately, I didn't pick as well as I did last season.)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the four 'o' symbols indicate a team for which I was only 0.500 (all in E & F divisions), and the six(!!) 'x' symbols indicate the six teams (all in C & E divisions) that fooled me more often than not. [Conclusion? You C & E divisions suck!]

THE VERY BEST SEASONS IN RECENT RDL HISTORY

I had a request for a listing of the players with the best cumulative records over the past five years or so, and I thought that was an interesting idea. Unfortunately, I didn't have time to write the spreadsheet calculations to combine my seasonal results and sort them out for that yet, but I did manage to pull out a couple of pretty interesting single-season lists. Here are the best single seasons thrown in any division in the last 8½ years.

30+ Best Seasons (Leaguewide, by Singles Win Percentage) in the Most Recent 17 Seasons

(Minimum required for this listing: 16 games)

APOLOGIES TO KEVIN FOLSOM

Kevin, a member of The Posse, had a postseason name correction for me (he had been listed as Folson). I got it corrected on his award and on the trophy darts page, but I missed the update on several of the statistics pages and they have already been copied for this edition of the Tons. Sorry, Kevin.

ADO REGIONAL QUALIFIER

There will be a 501 regional qualifier this coming Wednesday night (May 26) at 7:00 p.m. at Arnie's in Durham (806-1441). Winners of each men's and women's qualifier will have their expenses paid to attend the East-West All-Stars regional held in Richmond, VA, on June 5. The format is a three-game round-robin of 501 against everyone in your bracket. Entry fee is based on how many people show up, but is usually around $10. Call Wade Moricle at 599-7502 with any questions.

UPCOMING ADO TOURNAMENTS

Sometimes some of these events that wouldn't be considered really local are only of interest to the most hardcore of us, so I just include a list like this every now and then (instead of putting all of them in the weekly calendar). Anyway, here are the nearest upcoming summer ADO events:

May 28-30 - Savannah Open (savannahopen@aol.com)
June 4-6 - 3rd Annual Shootout, Winston-Salem (see page 32)
June 18-20 - Washington Area Open (703-430-6247)
June 25-27 - Bull City Classic, Durham (see page 33)
The Tavern, 493-5957; for info., call Wade Moricle, 599-7502
Aug. 6-8 - Peachtree Open, Atlanta, GA (770-279-8537)
Aug. 13-15 - Music City Classic, Nashville, TN (615-405-3031)

LONG ODDS ON THAT ONE

Anybody else notice that all three Ton-80s thrown in the divisional tournaments were thrown by the same team? And that the team was in D division? Tim King tossed one in the quarter-finals, and Sal Reitano, Sr. tossed one in both the semifinals and the finals. No Fear of -01 for them it appears…

WHAT THE HL?!?!?

Anybody else watch the first tape of the World Championships two Sundays ago on FoxSports? Anybody else try to watch the second one? Where the heck did it go?! College softball was on!

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I include an item like this one. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE TONS

This season a few teams contributed photos to the Tons, and guys like Keith Gibbs have submitted columns in the past. Got a photo that might be good? Or maybe have a column you think we might enjoy? Make 'em at least a little relevant and send 'em in!

GREATEST RDL MATCH EVER… AGAIN

Last season I wrote that the RDL A division final was one of the greatest matches in RDL history. Of course, I was writing that as a joke setup for a funny photo taken at the match, but I did write it. Well, I have to write that again this season. The only difference is that this time I think I'm serious. I will have a hard time impressing upon you just exactly how high the level of play was in that match. Everyone from the tops of the rosters to the bottoms was on fire at some point during the match (and many were on fire the entire time!). I thought about it for a bit and I think that it is safe to say that the all-star point total was significantly beyond 100 in the match. Considering that our teams routinely throw 60-70 in a good regular season match (with only one game for each point) against each other, and that most of the biggest pairings went three games Wednesday, I think that 150+ is not just possible, but actually likely. That seems like a ridiculous number, but let's not forget that there were five 9m's, an 8m, and a T-77, along with a seemingly endless parade of 5m's, 6m's, and 7m's. I would have been glad just to be a bystander at the match. (Of course, I suppose I'll manage accepting the Mug that came from it… but it's still true that I would have been happy to watch that match even if my team hadn't been involved.)

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

This column is still generally one that generates some of the most interest/discussion, but I don't have as much room as I have in some other seasons. Like always, some of these observations are dart-related, and some of them clearly are not. As always, this is the last thing that I'm writing and it's getting late, so let's see what falls out of my head.

--The best news I heard all season: Jason Thomas and Jill Swald of The Replacements are getting married (and she even gave me permission to tell people!). He asked, she said yes, and there was joy! As teammate Tim Mozzetti, put it - "So Falco and Annabel are getting together…" Congratulations.

--You know what drives me crazy at dart matches? When throwers who are better than me at 'throwing' darts waste shots by using poor mathematics in their strategy. That drives me nuts. It just seems like such a waste for the highly talented to not take advantage of their own abilities.

--So I'm watching the Detroit Pistons dismantle the Nets in the seventh game of their conference semifinal series, and the announcer tells us what Ben Wallace did when he was younger to help raise money for his family. Ben Wallace… gave haircuts! Have you seen Ben Wallace?! Haircuts?

--Does anybody else find more than just a bit of humor in the fact that the upcoming tour of the American Idol finalists is actually titled Pop-Tarts Presents The American Idols? Pop? Tarts? Pop-Tarts? You just can't make up stuff that perfect.

--Have you looked at Dale Hyler's High Out on the trophy darts page? Ton-70. Yup, Ton-70. Now you're probably thinking something along the lines of "wow, how often could that possibly happen?" Well, I was warming up next to Dale the following Tuesday and he was playing a pickup game of 301, and he DID IT AGAIN! So, I guess the answer to your wonder is: roughly every six days, I guess. If you're Dale, that is…

--Anybody else here ever watch Around The Horn on ESPN? If so, what do you think: is it just me, or does Woody Paige make far too many really good points to warrant the abuse he takes?

I wrote this bit for the tourney tons. It generated more discussion than most columns, so I'm re-running it here for those who missed it.

Sometimes I wonder if we don't need to adopt a Major League Baseball-style rule about our minimum games played requirement for individual awards. Several years ago, Baseball adopted the "George Brett" rule when it was determined that he wasn't going to win the batting title because of a lack of at-bats, even though he would have won if every missing at-bat up to the minimum required was an out. -- This season, Renee Reynolds (and her 13-5 singles record in B div.) will not win the A/B award (see above), due to her being one game short of the minimum. Even if she lost her next TWELVE games, she would have the best %-age in A/B. -- And Billy West and his 1.153 ASP %-age won't win the E award, because he was 1 game short of the 37-game min. This despite the fact that he could have hit exactly zero all-star points in his next THIRTEEN games and still had the best %-age in his division. -- Is this type of rule good for the game? Not sure. I clearly see the necessity to actually show up and play to claim the awards. But then there are clear cases like this that make you wonder now and then.

POSSIBLE NEW THROWING SPOT FOR YOU?

Anybody not too pleased with their host establishment? Well, you could always go to your bar's manager and voice your concerns - most are very receptive to constructive criticisms of their setups (just make sure that the criticism is indeed "constructive"). If that doesn't work for you, maybe you just need a new place to play. Along those lines, here are the specifics of a new establishment interested in adding a team or two. Maybe you might want to give them a call…

Overtime Sports Pub
on North Rogers Lane on the north side of Raleigh
255-9556

Membership Director Cathy Moeschet has spoken with the owners, and they already have one team for the Fall and are looking for more (if more than one more wants to play there, they are willing to hang more boards). If you are interested, give them a call, and ask for Tommy or for Dan (the owner).

EVIDENTLY NICE GUYS DO FINISH LAST SOMETIMES

So we all know that Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe is one of the nicest guys anywhere in the RDL. Doesn't it seem like guys would go out of their way to not be mean to Bob on the board? Evidently not. In Bob's singles pairings in the A division semifinals, Bob drew two of the top dozen or so players in the entire league… and they played like it. In singles 301, Wil Tan (he of the current RDL all-star percentage title) tossed 11-dart and 14-dart games against Bob (with a turn of no score to start the 14-darter). Then, in cricket, Joe Gaglione outlasted Bob (who was hitting a triple just about every turn) by throwing TWO nine-marks, then ending the set with a turn of bull, triple-15, single-19 to take the point lead and close out. The room was full of guys on both teams that were just smokin', but Bob probably would have / could have beaten just about anybody in the room that wasn't named Wil or Joe at the time. Isn't that always the way it goes?

Is it just me, or is Tir na nOg's the best RDL banquet food ever?

THE START OF A LITTLE TRADITION HERE…

Well, earlier in the season we had a photo of Here for the Beer. Then, we had one of The Elusive Element. Now, we bring you the motley crew more commonly known as Excalibur. Wouldn't want to meet these guys in a dark alley, would you? (Anybody else notice the trend that only teams that win their division seem to bother sending me a team photo? Makes sense because they want to the successful season, but I'm sure somebody else took a photo… Send 'em in!)

The "I Can't Believe I'm Finally Missing A Banquet (After A Decade)" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Intrusive Element (14-8)
The final with Dodge Darts was tied at 2-2, 3-3, 4-4, 5-5, 6-6, and 8-8 before The Element began closing it out. But in the end, Oakley and Wall hit third-game doubles about 20 seconds apart to give The Element their third consecutive regular season/ tournament victory double in A division.

"B" Division - Cheap Shots (14-2)
It seems like years ago that the Cheapies were 0-2 and staring at last place in B division. A 15-match win streak later, and the Cheapies will now be drinking from a brand new set of Mugs, with only having been really pushed once in that whole streak.

"C" Division - Wireless (13-7)
Wireless has now won 24 matches in a row in C and D divisions, a fact evidently not lost on at least one of their team members who asked me what the recent record was. These guys were out of place in C - convenient since they'll now be in B (or A??).

"D" Division - Modena Cartel (13-7)
After 'scaring' one opponent into just phoning in a forfeit, Modena rolled right through Dynamic and then handled The Replacements in the final. Just to add the exclamation point to what was already quite a dominant season, Mike Hall popped a cool 170-Out in the 501 set of the Mug match.

"E" Division - Kozmic Debris (14-8)
Evidently one of the league's most shorthanded teams found just enough players at just the right time. The Debris is the only tournament winner that didn't also win that division's regular season as well. It wasn't easy, as they had to go through both the #1 and #2 teams, but Kozmic gladly carried the underdog flag.

"F" Division - Deadstroke (12+-12)
Perfect! The best regular season race in RDL this season led to the best tournament final. Neither team ever led by more than 2 points throughout the match, then 1001 went back and forth as well. In the end, Deadstroke had to withstand a shot at the out by the 'Gaters top gun before Som Samaluk checked out from 32.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - The Intrusive Element (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Lunatic Fringe

"B" Division - Cheap Shots (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Varina Sports Bar III

"C" Division - Wireless (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Get the Point "33"

"D" Division - Modena Cartel (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - The Replacements

"E" Division - Chupacabras (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Da Bulls

"F" Division - Deadstroke (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Tailgaters

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS… REVISITED

I've had a couple of requests from league members for me to re-run some of the trivia questions from this past season. So, I figured what the heck and I'm running the entire set here. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but I don't think it will be much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week # when it ran, and the answers are at the end. No peeking…

Week 7 question(s): In which division have the most byes been placed since the start of 1996 (my first season as editor, and thus the first season about which I have definitive statistics)? How many byes has that division had in those 18 seasons?

Week 8 question: What is the greatest number of points that a team has scored in a 14-week season since the start of 1996? How about in a 12-week season (due to byes)?

Week 9 question: What is the one thing that the two teams in the previous answer had in common (other than the obvious facts that they won their division, and went undefeated)?

Week 10 question(s): What was included in the first issue of the newsletter that I ever wrote (for the matches of January 31, 1996)? How many pages was it?

Week 11 question: It's coming down to crunch time and we are approaching season's end. When we hit that last week of the season, six different teams will be sitting in 1st place in their various divisions, hoping to hold onto their lead and claim the regular season title. How many times in the past nine years has the team in first in a division entering the final week not held on to that position? [Answer below updated to include this season's results.]

Week 12 question(s): What is the greatest number of games that a player has played in one season in the past 9 years (my tenure as statistician) in a 14-week season? In a 12-week season? Who played that many?

Week 13 question: If you were to throw a dart into each individual scoring bed on the dartboard (each single bed, each double bed, and each triple bed), what would the average score of your darts be?

Week 7 answer: B division (11 times). Others were: E-10 times, D-9 times, A-8 times, C-8 times, G-7 times, and F-5 times. … … And a few other notes that might interest you: no byes in Sp97 and Sp04; a bye in every division in Sp00 and Fa03; G division existed in all of those seasons until 2004; and finally, four times in that span of years, there has been a bye in only one division, and it has never been the same division twice (A, B, C, E).

Week 8 answer: For a 12-week season, the top point total since 1996 is 211 points, for an average of 17.58 points per week. That total was achieved by Top Dead Center (of B division) in the Fall '96 season, and they actually blocked 8 more points throughout the season (so their win percentage in all games was 0.760). :::: For a 14-week season, the top point total was 259 by Lunatic Fringe (amazingly enough in A division) in the Spring '03 season, for an average of 18.50 points per week. That Fringe team also won more than 3/4 of the total player slots (0.771 win percentage).

Week 9 answer: Joe Gaglione! Joe was a member of both the Fall 96 Top Dead Center team that scored 211 points in 12 weeks and the Spring '03 Lunatic Fringe team that scored 259 points in 14 weeks.

Week 10 answer: Team listings by division, a bar listing, and a set of directions for mailing to the new statistician (me). That's it. It took two pages, one sheet front and back. Can anybody here imagine getting something that paltry nowadays?

Week 11 answer: In this and the 17 prior seasons, there have been 124 divisions contended (16 seasons with 7 divisions, and 2 seasons with 6 divisions). Of those 124, only 12 times has the team in first place heading into the final week not finished in that spot (and two of those probably shouldn't count because the first place team had a week 14 bye and it was completely expected that they would be passed in the final week). That means that only about 9.7% of the time is the first place team passed. No teams were passed for first place in the final week of the Fa96, Sp97, Sp98, Fa98, Sp99, Sp00, Fa02, or Sp04 seasons.

Week 12 answer(s): Holy cow, the answers to these questions are just astonishing to me. The greatest number of games in a 14-week season is 92, by Dave Wilser of Get Over It, in the Spring '01 season. That's 6.57 games per night for 14 nights! As 3 of those 92 games were 1001 legs, that's an average of 6.36 non-tiebreaker legs per match. (The second highest total in the past 9 years went to his teammate, Lisa Lawley, with 87 games that season.) The greatest number of games in a 12-week season is 78, by Al Wight of Dogs of War, in the Spring '03 season. Al's average games per match was 6.50, and that includes zero tiebreakers! So, you can decide which is the true IronMan, but both totals are pretty dang impressive to me…

Week 13 answer: 18.841.

You know, you should start planning now for the Spring season. It can be hard to track down teammates over the holiday break, so start setting your roster plans now to avoid the headache later.

in cricket: Chris Goodknecht (wk.1), Felipe Wilkie (wk.2), Carl Hiller (wk.6), Joe Kunesh (wk.11), Jon Stites (wk.12).

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Last season we had 8 full divisions and had 28 tiebreakers. This season we had one bye every week and had 27 tiebreakers. Makes sense… There were 4 1001 games in A division, 5 in B (including one in a tourney match), 3 in C (including one tourney match), 2 in D , 6 in E, and 7 in F (including one tournament match). The absolute kings/queen of playing extra games for free were the Wirecutters, who got themselves into FIVE extra legs (winning only two of them, unfortunately). The most clutch team was Swift Recovery in B division, which won all three of its 1001 efforts. And this season's heartbreak award winners? Well, you could make a case for the Wirecutters, but I'm going with Tailgaters in F division. The 'Gaters went a solid 2-1 in 1001, but their one loss? It was for the Mugs…

FALL 2004 PENALTY SUMMARY

Oh yikes! It was an election season AND we re-instated the fifth week captains' meeting. And what happened? The number of penalties almost doubled! After a very calm season in the Spring (21 penalties totaling 215 points), we jumped all the way up to 40 penalties for a total of 317 points! Oh, ouch… There were 2 preseason captains' meeting penalties (5 pts. each), 13 fifth week captains' meeting penalties (5 pts.), 8 election ballot penalties (5 pts.), 6 phone penalties (5 pts.), 10 mail penalties (16 pts.), and 1 ineligible player penalty (12 pts., plus all team statistics).

'"A" division was the cleanest, with only 3 penalties for 26 points, and "C" division was the least responsible, with 12 penalties for 93 points.

The biggest transgressors? Well, both the Hammer Heads and Horsemen drew 4 penalties each. But the point loss leader was Dynamic Darts and their 37 points lost on their three penalties.

But who did penalties cost the most?? Absolutely it's Grateful Darts, who lost a set of second place plaques due to their 32 penalty points.

Saturday, May 21 - Spring season banquet

ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE FOR THE SPRING?

Is one weekly night of darts just not enough for you? Wanna try something a little bit different? Then maybe you want to try the Bull City Dart League. The BCDL is a handicapped steeltip league based in RTP/Durham, and plays on Tuesday nights. The league uses a 4-players-per-set list style, but the rosters may be as large as 8 team members. Dues are $22/player, and the season generally runs about 4 months (January to approximately the end of April).

Registration for the Spring 2005 season will be held at Arnie's Place (at the intersection of Carpenter Fletcher Rd and Alston Avenue, near exit 278 off of I-40; 806-1441) on Tuesday, January 4th, 7-9 p.m. For more information, call Jason Kilts at 477-0684.

CONGRATS TO THE RECENT BCDL WINNERS

While we're talking about BCDL… congratulations to the many RDL members that were part of Finger Lickin' Good, the Fall 2004 BCDL winning team: Kurt Kunttu, Amy Newman, & Deb Parker (of Here for the Beer II), as well as John Riner (of The Intrusive Element).

Normally, this item would be included on the calendar page (flip this page over), but that page was getting a little crowded…

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs; "C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D" and "E" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"F" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Bar matches the pot plus $100!)

PENALTY LOG

THE SIXTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

A Division	Wil Tan	The Intrusive Element	D Division	Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts
B Division	Steve Witz	Cheap Shots	E Division	Anton Johnston	Kozmic Debris
C Division	Jon Stites	Hammer Heads	F Division	Chris Pilo	Stunners

All of RDL -- Tom Winters -- Dynamic Darts

"A" Division

Tom Brown	Intrusive Element	Is he ever outside the league's top 8?
J.D. Dixon	Lunatic Fringe	Only 1 of the 8 different from Sp04.
Mark Knight	Intrusive Element	Top record, top div., top league in NC.
Mike Seward	Lunatic Fringe	Tailed off in doubles, but still tough.
Wil Tan	Intrusive Element	Always gets the big win in the clutch.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Does he ever not hit the big out?
Keith Wall	Intrusive Element	A couple 501s short of top A record.
Lee Whitehead	Dodge Darts	Best non-Element/Fringe RDL player.

"B" Division

Matthew Copple	Nine Lives	Team slid, but Copple kept rolling.
Jason Grannis	Varina III	SCkt was decent, but rest was great.
Steve Grogan	Cheap Shots	Greensboro import owned B division.
Josh Hall	Cheap Shots	With more games, could've been best.
Eric Hines	Varina III	SCkt specialist needs a Dbls partner.
Shawn Leonard	Bubba's Garage	Best in DCkt, but decent all around.
Wes Vaux	Cheap Shots	Short a few games, but strong record.
Steve Witz	Cheap Shots	I can't believe he sat out wk14 singles.

"C" Division

Pat Crowley	Wireless	Another season, another pile of wins.
John Dunlevy	Wireless	Umm… why doesn't he play 301?
John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"	After 301, just an amazing record.
David Johnson	Wireless	Are the Johnsons really two guys?…
Mike Johnson	Wireless	…because their stats are eerily similar.
Shannon Lougher	Grateful Darts	The newest Grateful is the winningest.
David Simpson	Get the Point "33"	Drilling people in the first three sets.
Jon Stites	Hammer Heads	Captain Hammer had a great season.

"D" Division

Brian Coleman	The Replacements	Cricket sledge, -01 rubber mallet.
Tommy Gelhar	Modena Cartel	Record tails off, but still impressive.
Mike Hall	Modena Cartel	170-Out in 501 in the final?! Yikes!
Timmy King	The Replacements	What a great addition this guy was.
Kyle Teeter	Modena Cartel	Could he be the best in the Cartel?
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	See Coleman comment above…
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	So he sits 501. The rest is awesome.
Josh Zemlo	Got Pepsi?	Needs DCkt help, but nowhere else.

"E" Division

Tony Alcon	Chupacabras	Top shot for regular season winners.
Mark Harrison	Tres Equis	Might need to find a doubles partner.
Nicole Hatch	Meet the Fockers!	Simply wins a lot in every set.
Anton Johnston	Kozmic Debris	Played really well AND showed up.
Duncan Kerr	Da Bulls	Late for 301, but then pounded people.
Paul McSorley	Da Bulls	Some more clutch 501s would be nice.
Matt Sawyer	Damn Yankees!	Might be the best in the division.
Bill White	Da Bulls	WHY was this guy picked so often?!

"F" Division

Lyman Kiser	One Armed Bandits	Holy cow, WHAT is that 301 stuff?
Chris Pilo	Stunners	Saved team from 1st moment on roster.
Mike Reynolds	Tailgaters	Biggest shot on up-and-coming team.
Somchai Samaluk	Deadstroke	I still can't believe he's in F division.
Darrell Schwartz	Deadstroke	Chapel Hill import held his own easily.
Jeff Taylor	Fujimo	Missed a few weeks, but still the man.
Steve Tollerton	Somebody'sMother	Won one of best wk14 pairings ever.
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Season after season, more wins.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all four sections): This season, every division but A had fourteen matches, so quite a few people got close to a quadruple double. But in the end, only one guy, Bill White of Da Bulls could make the four double-digit win totals. However… Bill was on a shorthanded team all the time and played 15-17 games in each set. So that isn't a pure quadruple double. And that leaves our six most impressive finishes with four players with three 11-win sets (John Jenkins and David Simpson of Get the Point "33", Timmy King of The Replacements, and Tom Winters of Dynamic Darts), and two players with four 9-win sets (Pat Crowley and Mike Johnson of Wireless). Honorable mentions: a bunch of players achieved three 10-win sets, and several more achieved three 9-win sets, but only Tom Brown , Mark Knight , Wil Tan , and Keith Wall of The Intrusive Element did it in a seven-team division.

-IronMan/Woman Award: I thought that it would be a while before anybody approached Laura Jarasczewicz's 80-game effort from last season, but I was wrong. This season's Iron Man is Brian Lewis of Da Bulls, who put in a tough 79 games this season (which is nowhere near the recent league record of 92, by Get Over It's Dave Wilser). This season's honorable mentions go to: Eric Bonar of The Suey Side and Kenny Persson of Suze's Crew in A with 50 games, Kris Giberson and Daniel Pollard of Swift Recovery in B with 59 games, Todd Lewis of Get the Point "33" in C with 62 games, Cliff Barley of Back in the Saddle in D with 71 games (whose team even forfeited a match!!), and Hope Hamlett of Fujimo in F with 62 games.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: Seemingly long gone are the days of teams with six guys that played every set all season. But… we've got a few teams that are decently close. The most closely knit attendees appear to be Swift Recovery in B division (6 of their 7 played 53-59 games each) and the Chupacabras in E division (all 8 members in the 38-46 game range). Some honorable mentions would include: Varina Sports Bar III (6 of their players with 50-58 each), Horsemen (all 8 players with 36 games or more each), Mojo Dogs (6 of their players in the 45-57 game range), Modena Cartel (all but 5 of the season's games going to 6 of their 9 players), and Back in the Saddle (which only had five players all season, so they played all the games).

MY IN-SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

Last season I have to admit was pretty poor (under 69%). But THIS season is another story! I pumped it all the way up to 77.7% this season. Any time I'm getting more than three-fourths of the match predictions correct, I think that's pretty good. In addition, my preseason picks kicked some serious butt, and my tournament picks weren't too bad either. Let's examine each set a bit further, shall we?

In the regular season weekly predictions, I was over 0.500 with all but two teams (see page 10). And of those two 'problem' teams, I was right at 0.500 with one, and the other one kept switching which and how many players it was going to bring (dang Board members). E division proved to be the most difficult (only 67% right), while A division was the easiest (95% right).

My preseason set of predictions included four of the six division winners, and several picks of the next few (2nd, 3rd, etc.). The two preseason picks I got wrong were Lunatic Fringe (tied for best A record, 2nd by points) and Got Pepsi? (tied for 2nd best record in D, 3rd by points). All of the other division winners I tabbed correctly, including perennial heartbreakers Chupacabras and newcomers Deadstroke. On top of that, both teams that defeated my incorrect season-long picks were teams that I had put at 2nd (so I wasn't far off with those guys at all). Pretty pleased with that showing…

As for the tournament picks, I didn't do quite as well as with my previous sets, but at least my "Surest Things" all proved true. I picked 3 of the 6 tournament winners (A,B,C), and was 26-15 overall in the tournament (16-7 in the quarterfinals, 7-5 in the semifinals, and obviously 3-3 in the finals). If I picked each week individually once the pairings were known I would certainly increase my correct pick rate in the tournaments, but where would the fun be in that?

(I introduced this page two seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the one 'o' symbol indicates the team for which I was only 0.500 (stupid Bubba...), and the one 'x' symbol indicates the only team (dang shorthanded Debris) that fooled me more often than not. [A lot better than last season, eh?]

2005 RDL BOARD

Five of the seven RDL Board members from 2004 will again be Board members in 2005. So, when you're thinking about offering a few thanks to all those that give up their time to make your hobby run so smoothly, here are the people for whom you should be looking:

The five that ARE officers and WILL BE officers: Secretary Julie Payne , Treasurer Mark Wackerman , Membership Director Cathy Moeschet , Rules and Grievances Director Heather Thomas , and External Orgs. Contact Kevin Coyne .

The two that aren't officers yet but WILL BE soon: President Barry Barker and Vice President Rick DeMattos .

The two that ARE officers now but won't be for long: Brian Selby (outgoing President) and Anthony Martin (outgoing Vice President).

QUOTE OF THE TOURNAMENTS

From an anonymous member of Modena Cartel (that I think was probably Kyle Teeter, but I'm not certain): "The men outplayed the boys tonight. Modena 13, Replacements 7. The real men stepped up and beat the boys. We are for real, and we're taking anybody down that wants a piece of us." [Hmmm… where exactly would the sign up list for that honor be? Because I'm pretty certain that I could talk a few of my guys into an extra night out. Or was that quote more intended for somebody else specifically? Either way... - JK]

FINAL UPDATE ON CONNOLLY'S CRICKET SERIES

Here were the specifics of the three-month singles cricket series hosted by Connolly's Irish Pub:

== www.connollysirish.com, 465-4458, pub@bellsouth.net

== Registration closed each Monday at 8:30 p.m. No entry fee, weekly winners received a $50 gift certificate.

== The event continued each Monday for eight weeks, then led to a 2-week tournament for the leaders (for $500!).

Here are the final top eight that qualified for the post-series tournament final:

Frank Goodrich, Wil Tan, Jim Davis, Hogan Stigall, Randy Umstead, Brian Barlow, Jeff Eskew, Jimmy W.

These eight throwers started the finals this past Monday and will complete the finals tomorrow night!

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I include an item like this one. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

IT'S NOT NEWS ANYMORE. WE DON'T TAKE CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC. DON'T SHOW UP WITH CASH AT NEXT SEASON'S REGISTRATION, OR YOU ARE OUT OF LUCK.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

RDL TROPHY MAKER

Several of you in the past year have asked me who makes the RDL awards. A few of you wanted to have a damaged award re-made, one wanted to order some awards for something else, and a couple others didn't share a reason and I didn't ask. Anyway, our trophy makers are Rhonda and Matt Everett, and they can be most easily reached via email at:

rhondaeverett@nc.rr.com
matteverett@nc.rr.com

DART SUPPLIES

He was going to get some more specifics to me for this newsletter, but it seems that he got busy so I'll just pass on what I know. It appears that Lee Whitehead of Dodge Darts has taken over the dart supplies business at The Upper Deck in Cary. So, if you need anything in particular, find Lee to place your specific order/request.

CONGRATS TO SOME RDL TOURNAMENT GUNS

The final 2004 results are not in, but up through mid-November three RDL members are ranked in the top 25 (for their respective genders) in ADO points nationwide. Wil Tan of The Intrusive Element is 25th in the men's standings, while Amy Newman and Deb Parker of Here for the Beer II are 15th and 16th in the women's standings, respectively. Pretty impressive…

RECENT BANQUET BLIND DRAW WINNERS

So as you're signing up for today's blind draw, some of you are probably wondering just how this "seeded draw" has been working out. Well, I'm going to list the pairs that have placed in the Top 8 in each of the past few banquet blind draws and you can judge for yourself.

SPRING '04 (33 pairs)
1st - Randy Umstead & Karsh Fourhman
2nd - Bob James & Tim Mozzetti
Top 4 - Scott Butters & Martin Peers
Kris Giberson & Anthony Martin
Top 8 - Nicholas Smith & Brian Howard
Nate Wade & Travis Rowe
Steve Witz & Tom Flood
Jason Thomas & Jeff Parsons

FALL '03 (34 pairs)
1st - Randy Umstead & Chris Gagner
2nd - Donnie Simpson & Mark Harrison
Top 4 - Mark Knight & Kevin Coyne
Lee Whitehead & Julie Payne
Top 8 - Pete Rutten & John Wells
Tom Winters & Anthony Martin
Sean Edgecombe & David Johnson
Daniel Pollard & Mike Fjelstad

SPRING '03 (32 pairs)
1st - J.D. Dixon & Chris Gagner
2nd - Lee Whitehead & Dave Gernon
Top 4 - Mike Seward & Billy Mitchell
Brian Selby & Alex Chapman
Top 8 - Keith Gibbs & Laura Long
Kenny Persson & Jon Harvison
Steve Hoffmann & Jon Randolph
Duane Sawyer & Chris Welch

Clearly, this draw format has agreed with Randy Umstead, Chris Gagner, and Anthony Martin. If they pair up (again)…

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

This column has recently been the one generating the most reader response, so who am I to get rid of it?

--Ok, so I haven't been the biggest baseball fan since the last work stoppage. But even I could have told you which of these guys was on steroids. All of this is not news, and the guys acting like they didn't know (read: Bonds) are merely insulting our intelligence. The most ridiculous thing? That steroids weren't even banned in baseball until pretty recently. Ugh…

--If Wireless is in B next season and they manage to go through the season undefeated, would it be wrong of me to ask for my team to play them first in the Fall '05 A division season?

--Have you ever heard about the guy in Canada who named his software company Mike Rowe Soft? No matter how many times I hear that it makes me chuckle. How can you file suit against a guy naming his company after himself?

--So there's this guy driving around in front of me with a bumper sticker that says "The first word in my country's name is United!" Which got me to thinking… Wouldn't the first word be "The"?

--At a game in Oakland earlier this season they had JoDee Messina (did I spell that correctly?) sing the national anthem. They introduced her as the singer of "over eight #1 hits". So… that would be… what, nine? Then why don't they just friggin' say nine?!

--I'll bet some of you had questions in the back of your head about the legality of the match in which Kozmic Debris played with four players in 301, then with three players in the other sets, and won. Well, to put your mind at ease: that is completely legal under RDL rules. As long as a team starts with four players, that team is actually required by RDL rules to finish the match even if one or more players leaves.

--A few weeks ago a team went for two (after a TD) in some Texas college football game (Texas-Baylor, TCU-Tech, something, I don't remember…). Going for one would have tied the score in the last minute, but they went for two and won instead. The game commentators all lauded the move as brilliant. If they had failed, those same commentators would have called that coach the bonehead of the week. Weak.

--How great is it that the F division singles title came down to one game between the leaders in the final set of the season? And I found out later that one team was hoping for it to happen, but it was NOT set up by mutual agreement.

--Did you guys see that I got every prediction for the entire season correct for four different teams this season? Ok, so the Wireless picks weren't monumental, but the other three were pretty decent.

--Have you seen those HP digital photography ads where the live action melds with the white frames? The one of the guy at his desk is the coolest damn ad in years.

--My prediction for team with the least sleep on Wednesday nights: Wirecutters. FIVE tiebreakers?! Ouch. That's pulling down some extra duty there…

--Playing at some of the neutral-site establishments during the tournament gives me what I will generously describe only as a "new perspective" on some of the bars in which our teams play. Makes me wonder how much in awe some of those bars' teams must be when they come to the bars my teams generally use.

--I wonder which Board member cusses me and my absence first at this party: the one who has to call out the awards? The one who has to separate the blind draw participants? Another?

JK'S FIRST DECADE MEMORIES

This is the first time that I've ever missed the banquet in my ten years in RDL (nine of those as the statistician/newsletter editor), and I thought that I might chronicle just a few of the almost countless amazing things that I've seen here in my years in the RDL. So… here are some of them…

In my ten years here, I have seen…

… no less than four captains move, and then complain to me that I'm no longer sending them the Tons.

… one player play doubles on his own, throwing both slots instead of playing 3-darts-to-6.

… a guy stick his darts in a potato to make them stick in the board (because they kept slowly falling out of what originally appeared to a wonderful new board… in the finals… in A division…). And yes, it worked. I mean it REALLY worked. Try it out. I'm not kidding.

… a guy introduce himself to me at my A division tournament semifinal. And he was my teammate.

… a Board member blatantly ignore important RDL rules, and then defend the actions repeatedly as if nothing was wrong with it. (Obviously, we disagreed a bit…)

… a flight flip up on top of the board when one dart struck another. And then a turn just minutes later have another flight flip up and over the backboard and just disappear. (Was it just warming up the first time?)

… a guy with half-inch long rubber sleeves on his barrels (for grip) stick one dart in another… and then win five bucks from a friend when he stuck the third dart in the sleeve of the second. [Yes, Kyle did pay me the five bucks. And yes, I still consider that the greatest throw I've ever had. If only you could have seen the angle I had to use on the third dart…]

… a team quit the league because they torched B division and did not want to play in A division. And one of the team members was a Board member who simply resigned.

… a guy hit a 170-Out in 501 of a match between the top two teams in the league, with the match score tied.

… a bar leave the league because it burned to the ground.

… a team leave the league because it got busted playing a guy under somebody else's name. (An opponent played them, and then seven weeks later played them again - and the guy named "X" was not the guy that was named "X" the first time.)

… at least three dart couple marriages.

… a guy sit and read Ivanhoe while watching the A div. finals.

… a guy play 92 games in a single season.

… another guy not play a single game for many seasons while picking up the tab for others.

… too many people stop playing in RDL for one reason or another without coming back.

… at least 150 league members that know me by face and name that I do not know in return.

… a guy form a team of new players, and then get kicked off that team only five weeks into the season.

… a guy anger so many people at a dart match that both his opponents AND spectators were heckling him while he threw, which prompted him to flip them all off. After every turn.

… someone who was such a Trekkie nerd that he brought a TV and sat in the doorway of the bar to watch an episode. In the middle of January…

…enough good stuff that I genuinely hope that I'm around to see another ten years of RDL.

HOLY COW!!!

It's almost the holidays, and do you know what that means?!

It means that there isn't any league play on Wednesday nights!! What are you addicts going to do with your Wednesday nights throughout the break?!

Well… I've got a couple of ideas…

PRESENTING…

Snooker's Holiday Season Wednesday Blind Draws

Each Wednesday throughout the holiday season, the first being on December 15th and the last being on December 29th

Draws start at 7:30 p.m.
Snooker's matches the pot!!

Snooker's-Ridgewood
3520 Wade Avenue
in Ridgewood Shopping Center
828-7665

Upper Deck's Holiday Season Wednesday Blind Draws

Each Wednesday throughout the holiday season, the first being on December 15th and the last being on December 29th

Draws start at 8:00 p.m.
Upper Deck matches the pot!!

The Upper Deck (Cary)
329 N. Harrison Avenue near intersection. of N. Harrison & Hwy. 54
460-9977

That's right, you have two choices every Wednesday this holiday season!! It's a veritable plethora of darting opportunities!

Just today (this past Thursday) somebody told me that going to the weekly blind draws was the best thing he could have ever done for his dart game, and also for his team (for meeting players). Here is your chance to get a taste of the weekly blind draws without having to forfeit a night of the week other than your regular Wednesdays. (And yes, as far as I know the Upper Deck will still be holding it's normal Friday and Sunday draws as well. Although you might want to call ahead just to make sure.)

The "Why Did My Clutch Cable Pick This Last Wednesday Night To Break?!" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Elements of Style (14-6)

The Element locked up its 4th straight "A" Mug with a pounding in singles (5-1 in each set), much different than their semifinal match when they trailed Last Minute by a 7-5 score before sweeping doubles. In the end, Randy Umstead backed up Wil Tan's Ton-80 with a cool double-10 in the first pairing in 501.

"B" Division - Wireless (13-7)

Bubba took Wireless to the final pairs in 501 in the semis, but that was as close as Wireless came to failing to be this season's only undefeated RDL team. Wireless' win streak now stands at 41 as they head to "A" next season (No Fear was the last team to beat them, in Sp04 wk10 - and that was the 2nd of 2 L's in a row!).

"C" Division - The Replacements (14-8)

After a 1-3 start to the season (with the one win being in 1001), McGinty's crew found some fire. A 13-match win streak has brought them a second place regular season finish, and now a set of Mugs. And in the finals, Jason Thomas claimed the perfect throw title for Spring '05, as he hit his 3rd 9-mark of the season.

"D" Division - Dynamic Darts (13-7)

The Beer Bellies and Dog both upset an opponent in the "D" tournament, but Dynamic was not only never upset, but wasn't really even pressed. Following up a two-match win in the regular season, Dynamic only saw 501 in the final (and then only briefly).

"E" Division - Deadstroke (14-10)

Maybe the most notable thing in Deadstroke's path to their title was that they faced Tailgaters and didn't go to a tiebreaker. Their opponent in the final (Kozmic Debris) had rolled into the finals, but Deadstroke took their 2nd Mug in the team's 2 seasons.

"F" Division - Mojo's Jerksquad (14-10)

Well, almost all of the fireworks in this season's tournaments were here in F! A #1 or a #2 won the title in A-E divisions, but in F the final was a matchup of #3 vs. #4. Mojo's didn't put any of their three opponents away quickly, but that was the norm in this division. The biggest blowout in F this season was 13-9!

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - The Elements of Style

"B" Division - Wireless (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Get the Point "33"

"C" Division - Modena Cartel (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - The Replacements

"D" Division - Dynamic Darts (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Da Bulls

"E" Division - Kozmic Debris (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Deadstroke

"F" Division - One Armed Bandits (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Quackers & Beer

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS… REVISITED

Last season I re-ran the season's trivia questions in the banquet Tons and it met with a surprisingly positive response. So, I'm doing it again this season. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but I don't think it will be much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week # when it ran, and the answers are at the end. No peeking…

Week 7 question: How many dart matches are played in a 48-team season (like this one) and in a 49-team season (what we would've had with just ONE more team added) in RDL?

Week 9 question: What percentage of the league members this season in RDL are female (rounded to a full %-age point)?

Week 10 question: How many teams have played in A division in the past 19 seasons? And I mean, different squads, not 19 seasons x 8 teams. And yes, this one is a little subjective, but I'm just going to use my best judgment as to what constitutes being the same team again, and so should you.

Week 11 question: What is the greatest number of perfect throws by one person in one league match (in the past 19 seasons, as that is all the full records that I have)? Who threw them?

Week 12 question(s): How many teams in the previous 18 seasons (all the seasons for which I have full records) both had a "bottom-two" finish in the division regular season AND won the divisional tournament Mugs? Who were they?

Week 13 question: How many teams in the most recent 19 seasons have been removed from the schedule due to the three-forfeit rule?

Week 7 answers: 48-team season = 336 regular season matches, 49-teams season = 294 regular season matches. There are 42 tournament matches in both cases. So, the bottom line is that that 49th team sure could cost us all some playing time…

Week 9 answer: 13%. 53 of the 415 RDL members. By division: 3 of 68 in A division = 4.4% (and 2 of those 3 have been removed because their team kept forfeiting); 3 of 65 in B = 4.6%; 4 of 66 in C = 6.1%; 6 of 70 in D = 8.6%; 23 of 73 in E = 31.5%; and 14 of 73 in F = 19.2%.

Week 10 answer: 26. Many of these we all recognize as long-standing A division teams, but others may not be so obvious. The 26 team identities, listed by what I'm guessing we would most easily remember them as: Element, Fringe, Dodge Darts, Last Minute, Pigs, Here for the Beer, Dazed & Confused, Cheap Shots, Varina Sports Bar, Industrial Strength, D V Needed, Evicted, Home Thrown, Wild Geese, Them Again, Horsemen, Dogs of War, Dart Shadows, Last Call, Diddler's Choice, No Clue, Top Dead Center, Top to Bottom, Black and Tans, Damage, Inc., and Kozmic Debris (distant descendent of the X-Men!).

Week 11 answer: 2. It has been done 11 times in the past nine and a half years (plus 4 more times if you include divisional tournaments, although a player can get a LOT more throws in tournaments). The 11 times have been done by 9 different throwers, with the clear king of the multi-perfect-throw being Tom Brown. Brown has pitched a pair of perfects in one night three times! Others that have tossed two in one night are: Allen Smith , Stephen Margets , David Murray , Gibb Allen , Jerry Johnston , Joe Kipping , Lee Whitehead , and Steve Wilcenski . For the record, the only one of that list to include a 6-Bull as one of the two throws was David Murray, on 10/23/96, when he was a Dart Shadow. [Side note: David's 6-Bull and 9m that night were in the same game! Don't believe me? Just ask Mike Seward, his victim that night…]

Week 12 answer: 3. Spring '99 - Flying Aces - 7th of 8 in D, 4-10 in regular season. Spring '03 - Sharky's Machine - 6th of 7 in C, 3-9 in regular season. Spring '03 - Orange Crush - 6th of 7 in G, 5-7 in regular season. So, it appears that wild stuff only happens in the spring, and that you had better not be dead last if you want Mugs.

Week 13 answer: Since the 3-forfeit rule was instituted in 1996, there have been 7 teams removed from the schedule for forfeiting. They are: Wholy Funk (Fa97 - 8th in C - 1-13), Bent Shafts (Fa97 - 8th in F - 2-12), Darting Eyes (Sp99 - 8th in C - 0-14), Neighbors (Fa99 - 7th(of7) in C - 0-12), Dartaholics (Fa02 - 6th(of8) in F - 4-10), Here for the Beer (Sp05 - 8th in A - 2-12) and It Ain't A Thing (Sp05 - 8th in D - 3-11).

Ton-80s

Keith Shearin	Excalibur	5/4
Wil Tan	The Elements of Style	5/18

(this one was in the clinching 501 set of the "A" division final - doesn't get much more clutch than that…)

6-Bulls, Ton-70-Ins, Ton-70-Outs

(none reported)

Interesting comment overheard by… me!

Immediately after the 301 set that my teammate Robbie Phillips threw that is listed in the box immediately below this one, a teammate of Robbie's opponent had this to say to the quickly vanquished darter: "Oh man, that was close. They got lucky that you gave him that one."

Oh, come on! Gave him that one?! He threw 27 darts in the entire set… counting the flippin' diddles! Gave it to him…

OTHER TOURNAMENT HOT DARTS

(Sorry, no award for these, but they're still good shots)

Mike Seward	Lunatic Fringe	130-In

Wil Tan	The Elements of Style	107-Out
Jason Kilts	The Elements of Style	12-dart 301
Robbie Phillips	The Elements of Style	12-dart 301 & 13-dart 301 (same set)

(…and no, I don't include an all-star list for the tournament because any fool can throw a bunch of all-stars when he or she is playing two-out-of-three singles cricket sets…)

Who beat Mike Hall of Modena Cartel? in 301: Eric Hines (wk.2), Brian Coleman (wk.8), Jim Hunsberger (wk.9).
in cricket: (none).

Who beat Tony Alcon of Chupacabras?
in 301: Kevin Scott (wk.1), Jim Lewis (wk.2), Billy Mitchell (wk.4), Ed Gibson (wk.6). [Sort of a rough 301 start to the season…]
in cricket: (none).

Who beat Mike Reynolds of Tailgaters?
in 301: (none). in cricket: (none). That's right… nobody!!

Who beat Lyman Kiser of One Armed Bandits?
in 301: Jeff Eskew (wk.3), Lauralee Johnson (wk.14).
in cricket: (none).

[Only listing the 'defeaters' of the top couple women's award winners…]

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

Well, I would have to say that this might be the fewest number of 1001 legs we've had in a single season in at least a decade. Six divisions, no byes, and we had only 19 total tiebreakers leaguewide (and NONE in the divisional tournaments!). There were 2 tiebreakers in A, 2 in B (the same two teams each time), 5 in C, only 1 in D, 5 in E, and 4 in F division. 10 teams played two tiebreakers each, but only ONE team played as many as three extra legs. So, sort of by default, that makes the Coral Reefers the cardiac kids for this season. The Reefers were the only team to win two tiebreakers (they went 2-1), and three teams each went 0-2 (Got Pepsi?, Armed and Dangerous, Damn Yankees!). Sort of uneventful in the 1001 department, for the most part. Ho hum…

SPRING 2005 PENALTY SUMMARY

I'm going to start this item by doing exactly one thing: congratulating this season's captains! This might be a new league record low in terms of penalty number and penalty points assessed. Coming on the heels of seasons with 21 penalties for 215 points and then 40 penalties for 317 points, we only had 16 penalties for a grand total of 124 points this season!! Granted, we had no election ballots and no preseason meeting (not an election season, and then bad weather), but those totals are still flippin' awesome. We had 4 mail penalties (for 64 total points), 5 phone penalties (for 25 total points), and 7 fifth week meeting penalties (for 35 totals points). [In addition, we had two teams forfeit themselves into disqualification. While those aren't technically 'penalties', those surely are some of the harshest consequences for a team in a while.]

Only F division had more than two penalties or lost more than 16 points as a group. Plus, F division had the only team that lost any spots in the standings due to a penalty: Stunn 'Em, whose 5 points cost them 7th.

Wed., Nov. 16/30, Dec. 7 - Fall season divisional tournaments
Saturday, December 10 - Fall season banquet

ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE FOR THE SUMMER?

Well, it's time for a handful of Wednesdays off from league play. If you simply need some Wednesday darts, then you may want to check out the new summer blind draws at The Upper Deck (see pg. 35). But if you just need a little more structure in your darting endeavors, then maybe you need to add a different league over the summer. Well, if that's the case, then lucky you! The Tobacco Road Dart League has its registration just one week from now (see page 35 again)! The TRDL uses a 4-person list, with a roster size of 4-6 people. Dues is $20/player, and is due at registration (a week from Monday). For more information, see page 35. For even more information, call me (Jason Kilts) at 477-0684, and I'll get you in touch with somebody of importance with the TRDL. Come on over and sign up, and we'll toss a few together (and maybe toss back a few too) - I always slap together a team for the summer.

CONGRATS TO THE RECENT TRDL WINNERS

While we're talking about TRDL… congratulations to the RDL's own Deborah Blackwelder (of Dazed & Confused here in RDL), who teamed up with former RDL members Nicole Hatch and Ed Grubb (and also David Page and Wesley Winston) to claim the recent Spring season championship. Very nice…

Normally, this item would be included on the calendar page (flip this page over), but that page was getting a little crowded…

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Varina Sports Bar matches the pot!)

PENALTY LOG

Here are all the penalties assessed this season. Think the point math in your division doesn't quite add up? Check here to see who lost what when. Fifth week captains' meeting (5 pts.): Here for the Beer (A), Grateful Darts (B), It Ain't A Thing (D), Stunn 'Em (F), Coral Reefers (F), Overtime Outlaws (F), Money Shot (F). Phone (5 pts.): Last Minute Again (A,wk.14), Get the Point "33" (B,wk.5), Hammer Heads (C,wk.10), Dynamic Darts (D,wk.1), Money Shot (F,wk.5).

THE SEVENTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

A Division	Tom Brown	The Elements of Style	D Division	J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellies
B Division	David Simpson	Get the Point "33"	E Division	Mike Reynolds	Tailgaters
C Division	Mike Hall	Modena Cartel	F Division	Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad

All of RDL -- Mike Reynolds -- Tailgaters

"A" Division

Tom Brown	Elements of Style	Top A winner is perennial all-star.
Don Butman	Lunatic Fringe	Absence in wk14 certainly hurt Fringe.
Jim Davis	Lunatic Fringe	New addition was clearly a great fit.
Doug Jeffcoat	Dodge Darts	Was dependable AND won a bunch.
Mark Knight	Elements of Style	Took down top opponents all season.
Mike Seward	Lunatic Fringe	Best in RDL this season… after 301…
Wil Tan	Elements of Style	Unorthodox. Successful. Lovin' it.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Season after season, more great darts.

"B" Division

Matthew Copple	Nine Lives	Needs dbls help, we'll list him in sngls.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	Different division, same pile of wins.
J.P. Evans	Wireless	Drop from A division was short-lived.
John Jenkins	Get the Point "33"	"A" thrower finally headed back up.
Mike McDonald	Wireless	Top shot for only undefeated team.
Luey Santas	Get the Point "33"	Doubles moderate, but singles great.
David Simpson	Get the Point "33"	Got HALF of his team's doubles wins.
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	Evidently sort of a SnglsCkt specialist.

"C" Division

Paul Beaudoin	Armed & Dangerou	Week 14 singles stumble was tough.
Brian Coleman	The Replacements	So we sit him out of 301… big whoop.
Tommy Gelhar	Modena Cartel	Four sets w/ double-digit wins. Yikes.
Mike Hall	Modena Cartel	Won, delivered in clutch, etc., etc.
Jim Hunsberger	Got Pepsi?	Booming singles covers 0.500 doubles.
Timmy King	The Replacements	25-1 in 301 and DCkt is awesome.
Kenny Persson	Armed & Dangerou	Killer in singles needs a dbls partner.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	Now Mr. Perfect Throw and Mr. Mug.

"D" Division

Tony Alcon	Chupacabras	Look at that Singles Cricket record…
Barry Jackson	Dynamic Darts	Jackson/Winters simply dominated.
Duncan Kerr	Da Bulls	Top winner for division runners-up.
Jim Lewis	Dynamic Darts	This team was just deep. All good.
Billy Mitchell	3 Legged Dog	10+ wins in first three sets. Strong.
Bill White	Da Bulls	Not his best season, but still decent.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Winters/Jackson simply dominated.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Belli	Nobody means more to his team in D.

"E" Division

Tom Bleakley	Tres Equis	Not crushing. Just solid all the way.
Russell Bowen	Kozmic Debris	Division Iron Man won a whole bunch.
Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris	If only he could be there every week.
William McEwen	The Misfits	Good captain was 12-1 in 501. Clutch.
Chris Pilo	Deadstroke	Slipped across sets, but hit the big out.
Mike Reynolds	Tailgaters	Maybe the definition of a "gimme".
J.J. Tant	Tailgaters	Top support for the Reynolds-ator.
Jeff Wenhart	Kozmic Debris	Great re-addition for division winners.

"F" Division

Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad	Rookie kicked some serious a.
Dan Clark	Overtime Outlaws	How is he 20-8 in sngls, 12-17 in dbls?
Jeff Dopko	One Armed Bandits	Solid record across the boards.
Jody Jordan	Stunn 'Em	Big stick led serious hot streak at end.
Lyman Kiser	One Armed Bandits	Winningest player on winningest team.
David Martin	Quackers & Beer	501 stinks, but the rest is just super.
Walter Taylor	One Armed Bandits	33-6 in final three sets is impressive.
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Annual all-star… but 1-6 in 301?!

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections): Holy cow, after a relative dearth of winners in this category, this season we had THREE players chalk up the quadruple double. This season's big winners were: Tommy Gelhar of Modena Cartel in C division, Russell Bowen of Kozmic Debris in E division, and Mike Reynolds of Tailgaters in E division. Amazingly, all three of these guys had at least three sections with 11+ wins, and Reynolds actually had three sections with 12+ wins! Close behind these guys were 4 players that achieved 9+ wins in all 4 sets, and 9 more players that achieved 10+ wins in 3 of the 4 sets. Probably the most impressive of these honorable mentions were Mike Seward and Doug Jeffcoat in A division, and Mike Hall in C division, all of whom achieved not only three sets of 10 wins, but rather three sets of 11+ wins.

-IronMan/Woman Award: After a handful of seasons in a row with at least one player tossing 70 or 80 games, this season we toned it back. A lot. I guess no teams really showed up shorthanded week after week (well, other than those who forfeited their way out of the season, that is). So, our Iron Man this season is Eric Emerton of Have Darts, Will Travel in D division, with a modest 62 games played. Decent, but nothing monumental. Other division leaders were: Jeff Dahulich of Dodge Darts in A with 57 games, Tony Keller of Horsemen in B with 59 games, Kenny Persson of Armed and Dangerous in C with 58 games, Russell Bowen of Kozmic Debris and Pete Cullis of The Misfits in E with 60 games, and Bob Carawon of Quackers & Beer in F with 61 games.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: This award isn't dead, but it's not all that lively either. Teams just don't show up with the same people week after week like they used to… Anyway, we had several teams that were pretty close to being all Joe Dependables. The best would have to be The Misfits in E division (6 of their players played 54-60 games each). Next would be the Chupacabras in D division (all 8 players with 33-44 games each). Honorable mentions go to: Lunatic Fringe in A (7 players with 41-52 games), Get the Point "33" in B (7 of their players with 42-56 games), Got Pepsi? in C (8 of their players with 34-47 games), and Overtime Outlaws in F (with 6 of their 7 players with 47-59 games each).

MY SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

Oh man, I'm getting to be pretty decent at this! I've been over 77% for two seasons in a row now. Not too bad if you ask me. Anytime I'm getting more than three-fourths of the match predictions correct, I think that's good. I said that last season, and I still think it's true. And if you look at my sets of preseason picks, I absolutely OWNED you guys. And my tournament set of picks didn't really suck either…

In the regular season weekly predictions, I was over 0.500 with all but two teams (see page 10). And for both of those 'problem' teams, I was right at 0.500, getting the week 14 pick wrong for each of them (dangit, I could have so easily had a winning record with everybody!). As for the divisions, F was by far the most difficult (only 66% right), an A division was again the easiest (89% right) although not as good as last season.

In my preseason set of predictions, if the multi-forfeits and the Element's lone shorthanded match hadn't occurred, I would have hit EVERY one of the six division winners. And I would have had just about every team in every division slotted in nearly the EXACT spot where they finished. My few downfalls came by having too much confidence in We Need All These, The Fockers, and Get Over It. That might have been the best set of preseason picks that I've ever had. I'm very pleased with those…

As for the tournament picks, I batted 0.800 again, hitting 32 of the 40 picks. I picked 4 of the 6 tournament winners (A,B,D,E), and went 19-3 in the quarterfinals and 9-3 in the semifinals. And 2 of my 8 incorrect picks were ones where I had lost the team in the previous round, so if I picked each week individually once the pairings were known I once again could have increased my correct pick rate in the tournaments. Like I've said before though, where would the fun be in that?

(I introduced this page three seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the two 'o' symbols indicates the teams for which I was only 0.500 (stupid Yanks and Money Shot...), and exactly zero teams fooled me more often than not. [Even better than last season, which was a good one.]

You know, you should start planning now for the Fall season. It can be hard to track down teammates over the summer break, so start setting your roster plans now to avoid the headache later.

RESOLUTION OF TIED "F" STANDING

[Here is what I wrote in the week 15 / tournament Tons…]

When I took over the Tons, I asked the Board to clarify several Rules for the league. One of those was tiebreakers if teams have the same match record and point totals. In response to that, the Board included head-to-head matches and head-to-head points as the next tiebreakers. In the nine years since those rules were instituted, we had never had a tie for a position. Until now… Get Over It and Stunn 'Em finished with the same record and same point total, and beat each other by identical 14-10 scores. Under RDL Rules, they are now required to play a tiebreaker match prior to the tournament. Due to the short time available and to the fact that they aren't exactly fighting for a season title, they've been told they can decide it any way to which they both agree (play a match, flip a coin, go bowling, play Texas Hold 'Em, whatever). Just decide it in some fashion, then tell us who won.

[And now here was the resolution of the situation…]

After several phone calls to members of each of their teams, the two captains came to the realization that they would just not be able to get together to settle this tie in any competitive setting. So, they asked me to pick a criterion. It only made sense to me that we use team win percentage (singles+doubles). Based on that criterion, Get Over It was placed in 7th place with their 0.443 percentage and Stunn 'Em was placed in 8th with their 0.438 percentage. (And then BOTH of them nearly pulled off the big upsets in the quarterfinals - see page 3.)

RDL TROPHY MAKER

Several of you in the past couple years have asked me who makes the RDL awards. A few of you wanted to have a damaged award re-made, one wanted to order some awards for something else, and a couple others didn't share a reason and I didn't ask. Anyway, our trophy makers are Rhonda and Matt Everett, and they can be most easily reached via email at:

rhondaeverett@nc.rr.com
matteverett@nc.rr.com

VOLUNTEERS? ANYONE?

Every season I include an item like this one. Here is what the RDL Board can use help with almost every season:

Stanchion transport/setup at the banquet (they pay this person!)
Breakdown of the stanchions at the banquet
People to serve on the Rules Committee … and a bunch of
People to help plan/organize the banquet other little crap…

Ever really helped out before? No? Then it's probably your turn to get off your butt for a change… Find a Board member and volunteer now. They'll appreciate it, and your leaguemates will appreciate it.

DON'T FORGET - RDL PAYMENT INFORMATION

It's not news anymore. We don't take cash for registration, newsletter, etc. Don't show up with case at next season's registraion, or you are out of luck.

AND REMEMBER: DON'T BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20 FEE!

2005 RDL BOARD

Just so that everybody is up-to-date… Cathy Moeschet's recall as Membership Director was upheld. Julie Payne has switched over to the Membership position, and Barbara Cotton has graciously agreed to fill in as Secretary for now (see page 8).

KEITH GIBBS' RESPONSE TO TAMI BROWN ET AL.

[Remember when Tami Brown and others were picking on Keith Gibbs, because he was picking on people who were, basically… shorter than him. Well, it appears that Keith certainly does. His "corporation's" response:]

Announcement: Growth Clinic offered by The Raleigh Llama Health Spa! (a division of Dodge Darts Industries)

Attention: For years, growth enhancement experts have quietly helped others discover a newly found confidence and increased self-esteem with these little-known height increase secrets. Now you can use this information yourself. You will grow taller!

You will discover new, proven-to-be effective, heart-pounding techniques currently being applied by thousands of men, women, teenagers, and children all over the world! These techniques have the potential to make you grow taller which will change and improve your life!

This clinic will present physical, physiological, and psychological techniques and procedures that will allow you to grow taller, promote human growth as well as these other benefits:

== longer, stronger, flexible, and more supple spine
== thin and sculpted stomach and back
== enhanced ability to perform skilled movements
== increased mental and physical relaxation
== enhanced development of body awareness
== reduced risk of injury to joints, muscles, and tendons
== why tall people make more money
== enhanced physical fitness and sexual energy
== increased suppleness due to stimulation of the production of chemicals which lubricate connective tissues
== enhanced ability to learn and perform skilled movements
== reduced severity of painful menstruation (dysmenorrhea) in females

To put it clearly; You will grow taller; You will think clearly: You will be physically fit; You will have lots of energy; You will reduce the effects of aging; Your organs will function better; You will be able to enjoy your life!

Tallness is a subjective term, what one person might consider as tall may be considered short by someone else. Nevertheless the advantages that you will have by being taller are beneficial, in fact, they're ecstatic!

== Discover the five psychological advantages you will immediately have by being taller.
== Why being taller will get you more respect and how to benefit from this.
== The role of dominance and its relationship to height.
== Why you will receive so much more attention by being taller and how this contributes to better life opportunities. In fact, many clichés indirectly describe tallness, height, or stature as something that you should thrive for.
== How strength and height correlate and the benefits that this promotes.
== What 'survival of the fittest' really means today and how you can attract the opposite sex just by knowing this.

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

For several seasons now, this column has generated the most reader response, so here it is one more time…

--Kudos to Deadstroke and Tailgaters. They have found what is important in your nights out at a dart match. They aren't always the best throwers in the bar, and neither team even won their division's regular season title. But they have found such a fun and competitive balance between their teams that they have developed an enjoyable rivalry topped by no others in the league. It is to the point that both teams have left messages requesting that they not be split next season, regardless of whether that means they both go up or they both go down. They simply want to compete with each other again. And again. Commendable.

--Do you watch pro basketball at all? I don't watch a lot during the season, but I catch a bunch of the playoffs. And I think that I've found the two main reasons that I don't watch more than I do. Too much one-on-one play? Nope. Lack of defense? Nope. Maybe no desire to watch a bunch of complaining millionaires? Not even that. It's… Bill Walton and Steven A. Smith! Those guys are supposed to be experts/analysts/whatever, and the more I watch them, the more I think "they just talk louder and longer all the time in hopes that nobody refutes the crap they're talking". What a couple of morons those guys are. They are annoying, they speak their opinions as facts, and they are mostly illogical. And they're probably being paid ten times more than I'll ever make. Turns my stomach…

--Anybody here bank with BB&T? Ever use one of the "older" ATMs they have around? You know the ones - the ones that don't have the video screen with the woman pulling the cash from the machine, but rather have the basic two-color screen. If you look closely, you'll see that the computer programmers for BB&T slipped one past the higher-ups! On the image of the card on the screen showing you in which orientation you should have your ATM card for proper insertion, the name of the cardholder is Dick Mazzarella. Yes, that's right, the name is basically DickCheese!! They toyed with the spelling and all, but I'm still surprised that nobody caught that one when they were first set up. Beautiful.

--Time for me to toss in my two cents about using the "George Brett rule" for our game minimum requirements again. Decades ago, baseball adopted the "George Brett" rule when it was determined that he wasn't going to win the batting title because of a lack of at-bats, even though he would have won if every missing at-bat up to the minimum required was an out. == If we used that type of logic here in the RDL, awards might change hands and certainly people who don't show up on the leaders' lists all of a sudden would. == For example, let's look at the singles standings in E division. Paul Hansen is listed in 3rd at 16-3. His teammate Anton Johnston, however, does not appear on the list despite the fact that Anton was 16-2 (one game short of the minimum). If Anton had played up to the minimum (one more game), he would have been no worse than Paul's 16-3. But, he didn't have 19 games so he is unlisted, and Paul is listed because he played (and lost!) a 19th game. == Does anybody else see the lack of logic in that? Given ten minutes, I could show you a dozen more examples just like that in almost every division in almost every season. Anyway, there's my two cents… Well, actually after looking back up the column, that's more like my nine cents or so. But you've probably come to expect that, eh?

--Note to Julie, the new Membership Director: I was only half-kidding earlier this season when I was hinting about being the first A team to play Wireless next season. Test 'em early, I say… :o)

WHO DIDN'T PLAY?!

I didn't have room to run this in the tournament Tons this season, so I saved it for the banquet Tons. Here it is…

This has long been one of my favorite items - the one where I report which individual leaders sat out sets in the final week. Although we can never be certain of the reason that somebody sits out, I'm sure we all have our guesses, and knowing who to guess about is a lot of fun. Last season, we were even so lucky as to have a guy not only sit out, but he even called the Voice Mail and pre-warned me that he had done it. It's going to be tough to top that one (thanks, Steve…).

The only possible candidate this season was Tony Alcon of the Chupacabras. Tony sat out 301 for the first time since week 8. That didn't clinch the title for Tony, but it did leave him with only cricket to deal with, and Tony didn't lose a cricket all season (he was 4-4 in 301).

QUOTES THAT I SAVED

From Kevin Carter of Deadstroke (who seemingly has made it a habit of saying things that find their way into the Tons): "We may need to implement a performance-enhancing drug policy. No, not for steroids like Major League Baseball and the NFL, but for JaegerBombs and beer. The reason? PiloVick was blistered last night, and basically he was the one who won our match for us. He was sitting on an 80, the first dart he shot a double-20, the second dart he went at it again, and flew it just a little bit high. And then what ensued to the shock of both teams was something that I call the PiloVick Concentration Dance, where he was jumping about, spinning, throwing his arms, for about 30 seconds or so. And then he calmly stepped up to the line, composed himself, and sank another double-20 to win the match." [Well… ok, then… congratulations to Chris… I think… - JK]

From President Barry Barker of Rif-Raf, who clearly knows on which side his bread is buttered: "Jane decided to join us tonight as a spectator, so that's obviously why we won." [For those who don't know, Jane is Barry's better half… - JK]

From the back of a Misfits' scoresheet: "Pete & Karyn Cullis - undefeated in 501 when playing together" [This is wholly unconfirmed, primarily because I was too lazy to look it up, but that's pretty cool and impressive if it's true. Unless, of course, they've only played together once or twice… - JK]

From Deborah Blackwelder of Dazed & Confused: "Peanut butter and a vibrator!?!?" [Now why would anybody have ever said that? Because she misheard Tom Brown of The Elements of Style who was saying that two things were going together like "peanut butter and rye bread". Personally, I think Deb just heard what she wanted to hear, don't ya think? I suppose maybe congratulations to Bill might be in order… - JK]

RDL IN THE ADO

A couple of early-season congratulations to RDL members that are ranked in the most recent ADO national standings (as of April 6). Amy Newman and Deb Parker of (Not) Here for the Beer are 4th and 6th, respectively, in the country. Obviously, it's early in the year, but even only three months in, those are some right lofty rankings…

NOT TOO SHABBY…

In week 14, my team ended Fringe's undefeated season, in 1001. In a 41-dart game. I think that's pretty good. That's 73.2/turn!

THE HISTORY OF JK'S SEASONAL ALL-STAR TEAMS - 17 SEASONS - PART I

(On this and the following page is some summary information from the divisional all-star teams that I have selected in this and the previous 16 seasons. See yourself in here anywhere?)

Each season I select my own personal 8-player all-star team for each division, as well as a lone divisional MVP, and a lone leaguewide MVP (except for one season when I named a pair of leaguewide co-MVPs). In general, it's obvious that players who win more often will be more likely to be selected for my all-star teams, but I admit that I take into account pretty much anything that I think is important (percentage of team's success, dependability, good captainship, buying me a beer, whatever…). While being picked by me doesn't really carry any real honor with it, I imagine that it is still pretty cool to be recognized in the season-ending issue of the Tons as being among the best in your division. That being said, here are some historical records of the teams that I have selected over the past 17 seasons. I hope you enjoy…

Listed below on this page are the 36 people that have been selected to one of my divisional all-star teams in 6 or more of the 17 seasons. Obviously, players in lower divisions are not competing against the same competition as those in higher divisions. But these teams aren't necessarily all about who the best 48-56 players in the entire league are - rather, they're just to recognize the players that excelled at whichever level their teams were.

[Key: letter represents the division for that player for that season, underline = div. MVP, italic/underline = leaguewide MVP]

THE HISTORY OF JK'S SEASONAL ALL-STAR TEAMS - 17 SEASONS - PART II

(On this and the previous page is some summary information from the divisional all-star teams that I have selected in this and the previous 16 seasons. See yourself in here anywhere?)

So the previous page gave you a list of the players that have made the team the most often… This page will give a few of the more noteworthy things I've noticed, as well as a list of every player that ever put on one of my teams more than once…

17 seasons (14 with 7 divisions, 3 with 6 divisions) = 116 divisions = 928 all-star team spots
That means that there have been 116 division MVPs, as well as 18 league MVPs (one season had co-MVPs).

358 different people have been named to an all-star team
1 person has made 14 teams, 1 has made 13 teams, and the rest are: 11 teams = 3 people, 10 = 2 people, 9 = 3 people, 8 = 4 people, 7 = 13 people, 6 = 9 people, 5 = 24 people, 4 = 27 people, 3 = 40 people, 2 = 65 people, and 1 = 166 people

82 people have been named the division MVP, with 24 of them earning that distinction more than once
Pat Crowley is the king of the divisional MVP title, having earned that title FIVE times

17 people have been named the leaguewide MVP, with J.D. Dixon being the only two-time leaguewide MVP

Longest streak in terms of seasons on an all-star team = 9, Wil Tan
Coincidentally, this streak is also the longest streak in A division AND the longest current streak in any division

39 people have secured a spot at least once in RDL's "A" Division, a pretty impressive feat if you ask me…
Those people, with the number of times on the A division team: 14 times - Tom Brown, 11 times - Wil Tan, Jim Budelman, 7 times - Bob Terry, Keith Wall, J.D. Dixon, 6 times - Allen Smith, 5 times - Don Butman, Phillip Eastmead, Dale Hyler, Mike Seward, 3 times - Jim Davis, Keith Gibbs, Steve Hoffmann, Doug Jeffcoat, Mark Knight, Tim Lane, Jerry Oakley, Billy West, Lee Whitehead, 2 times - Robb Beeson, Stef Bogaerts, Mike Hall, Joe Kipping, Kurt Kunttu, Robbie Phillips, Brian Selby, 1 time - Kevin Barton, Neal Bedworth, Todd Camplin, Joel Eason, Joe Gaglione, Bob Gargan, Chuck Greer, John Jenkins, Todd Lemons, Frank Telesz, Chris Wandscher, Steve Wilcenski

All 192 players that have been named to an all-star team at least two times (with number of teams)

Today is the banquet. That means… summer is coming!
Whatever will you and your darts do?

No Wednesday night league play for May/June/July! You're going to need another plan for a few months. Might I offer a few ideas?

☞ Looking for league play? ☜

Then how about…

Tobacco Road Dart League

Monday nights, RTP and Durham primarily, matches begin at 7:30 p.m.
Teams consist of 4-6 players (4 players listed per set), $20/player
Registration is at Arnie's Place (806-1441, 1725 Carpenter Fletcher Rd.)
Registration will take place on Monday, May 30th, at 7-9 p.m.

☞ Looking for a weekly blind draw instead? ☜

Then you have five (that's right, FIV'E) options…

Upper Deck Summer Blind Draws - 3 Nights!! -

In addition to their year-round weekly Friday and Sunday night blind draws, the Deck is adding one each Wednesday throughout the summer, the first being on May 25th and the last being on July 13th

Draws start at 8:00 p.m.
Upper Deck matches the pot!!

The Upper Deck

Connolly's No-Cost Summer Monday Blind Draws

Each Monday throughout the summer (and maybe beyond), Connolly's will be holding weekly blind draws that only pays the winners… but has no entry fee at all!
-- This blind draw series is already under way, so head over as early as this week!

Draws start at 9:00 p.m.
No entry fee at all! $100 to winning pair!

Connolly's Irish Pub
1979 High House Rd., Cary
Cornerstone Spg. Ctr., @ Davis Dr. & High House
465-4458, www.connollysirish.com

Varina Sports Bar's Weekly Monday Blind Draws

Varina Sports Bar will continue their weekly Monday blind draws throughout the summer (and likely beyond) - same time, same place, same payout as during RDL seasons

Draws start at 8:00 p.m. sharp!
Varina matches the pot (plus extra)!

Varina Sports Bar
213 Fayetteville St., Fuquay-Varina across from Stevens Hardware
552-0081

So, there you have it. You can play darts almost all week long. Your game should be better than ever when we start up in the Fall, right?

TONS OF NEWSLETTER

Home to the Fall Session of the Raleigh Dart League for the Banquet, Saturday, December 10, 2005
The "Geez, What Kind Of A Loser Would Write A Dart League Newsletter For A Whole Decade?" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Lunatic Fringe (14-10)
Fringe jumped out to a 7-1 lead, let it get back to 8-8, then inched ahead when Phil Taylor donned his Bob Terry costume for a night. The Doctor delivered the final double to end the Element's A division Mug run at four in a row.

"B" Division - Bad News Pigs (12+-12)
In what was clearly the best final of this season (and that's saying a lot given the end of the A final), the Pigs had to use the extra leg to outlast the regular season division winners. Captain Pete called in the score and perfect throws twice, but neither time did he report who hit the out. Whoever it was, congrats to the hero.

"C" Division - HammerHeads (13-7)
The Hammers were hardly pressed at any time during the entire C tournament, although they did have to play a little 501 in the final. I wonder if Taylor came back from the beach to join in the Mug-winning fun this past week…

"D" Division - Kozmic Debris (14-8)
After an amazing three-team race all season (between No Names, Kozmic, and the Beer Bellies), the tournament final contained only one of those three teams. Shark Shooters had downed the No Names to crash the party, but ran out of upsets when faced a Kozmic team playing in its third tournament final in a row.

"E" Division - One Armed Bandits (13-9)
The Bandits had, on paper, the easiest road to their set of Mugs, facing the #8, #5, and #3 teams in the division. And they took advantage, becoming one of only two teams this season to pull the season/tournament double (HammerHeads in C is the other).

"F" Division - Rif Raf (?-?)
This crazy division tournament began with a rare #8 over #1 result when Menace To Sobriety took down Mojo's. Menace then bowed to #5 seed Money Shot to complete a crazy side of the bracket. On the other side, the top seeds won each match, although not one of the scores with those teams was reported.

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - The Fifth Element (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Lunatic Fringe

"B" Division - The Replacements (11 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Bad News Pigs

"C" Division - HammerHeads (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Dynamic Darts

"D" Division - No Names (10 wins, 4 losses)
2nd place - Kozmic Debris

"E" Division - One Armed Bandits (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - The Hostile Amish

"F" Division - Mojo's Jerksquad (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Rif Raf

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS… REVISITED

This has become a season-ending staple here in the Tons. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but it's usually not too much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week # when it ran, and the answers are at the end. No peeking…

Week 6 question(s): How many league members have been RDL President in the past decade? Who are they?

Week 7 question(s): How many league members are there in the RDL this season? How many were there last season? And how many in each of those seasons were females?

Week 8 question(s): What is the greatest number of the 9 trophy dart categories (high in/out, 4 fast games, and 3 perfect throw types) for which one player has been a given an award in one season in the past decade? Who did it?

Week 9 question: How many legitimately different teams have played in A division in the past decade (meaning not the same groups of players reforming over and over again)?

Week 10 question: This season there are several ties for fast games and high ins/outs so far. How many times in the past decade have we had ZERO ties for any of the six In/Out/Game awards for a season?

Week 11 question(s): In how many establishments has the RDL played in the last decade? How many can you name?

Week 12 question(s): How many people have thrown a 6-Bull in the past decade in RDL? How many can you name?

Week 6 answer: 7. Joe Wilson, William Holland, and Dave Berry, of course, as they were all pretty long-term and publicly visible for the most part. We also have Barry Barker (who just recently had to resign after a short stint), Rick DeMattos (who is the current acting President since Barry left), and Cathy Moeschet (who acted as President when several Board members resigned at the same time several years ago).

Week 7 answer: We have 414 paid roster spots (one less than last last season), but if you count the two players that were approved for replacement, then we actually had 416 people involved (one more than last season). Pretty consistent, eh? What is NOT consistent, however, is the number of female RDL members we have. That number dropped from 53 last season to 43 this season (a loss of 19% from last season).

Week 8 answer: 4 sections, achieved 4 times. The winners, with their seasons and awards are: Phillip Maxwell (Sp96 - In, 9m, T80, 6B); Tom Brown (Fa97 - Out, 501, 9m twice, T80); Brown again (Sp03 - In, 301, 9m twice, T80); Mike Seward (Fa03 - In, 301, 9m, T80 twice). [Note added for banquet Tons: Check out Tom Brown THIS season!]

Week 9 answer: 28, although a few of these could be argued as to whether they are really just different versions of another of these teams. Anyway, here are the teams (listed under what is likely the most recognizable of their team names): Arrowing Experience, Black & Tans, Cheap Shots, D V Needed, Dart Shadows, Dazed & Confused, Diddler's Choice, Dilligaffs, Dodge Darts, Dogs of War, The Element, Evicted, Here for the Beer, Home Thrown, Horsemen, Industrial Strength, Last Call, Last Minute/Modena, Lunatic Fringe, No Clue, Old School, Pigs, Top Dead Center, Top to Bottom, Varina Sports Bar, Wild Geese, Wireless, and X-Men.

Week 10 answer: Once! Last season was the first time in (at least) a decade without any ties. With a High In of 164, a High Out of 158, a Fast 301 of 9 darts, a Fast SCkt of 15 darts, and a Fast 501 of 14 darts, that seems pretty understandable. But… a 20-dart Doubles Cricket was the best we could do?! And only once all season?!

Week 11 answer: 66!! And this answer does NOT include name changes for establishments as separate places (e.g., Rams Head and Clarky's are the same place). We currently play at 24 establishments and there are 29 more around that still have space and/or equipment to host matches. But there are also 13 more places RDL has frequented in the past decade. Remember any of these?: Banana's, Cellar at the Warehouse, Champs Sports Bar, Double Deuce at the Ramada Inn, Mix-A-Lot Sports Bar, One More Time, PJ's Sports Bar/Montas Lounge, Players Club, The Roadhouse, Scores Sports Bar, Scramble Dog, Tapps, and West End.

Week 12 answer: 31. The list of Bull-masters is in the week 13 Tons, but the Mac Daddy bull machine of them all is Steve Hoffmann of Lunatic Fringe, the only person in RDL to hit TWO 6-Bulls in the past decade (Fa97, and the only 6-Bull of this season).

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

After what was maybe a record low in tiebreakers last season (19), we're back up to a grand total of 30 tiebreakers this season. Those 30 include 27 in the regular season and 3 in the postseason tournaments. There were 3 1001 legs in A division, only 1 in B, 7 in C, 7 in D, 3 in E, and 6 in F. Of those, the tournament tiebreakers were 2 in B (including the final!) and 1 in E. As for teams that find themselves in overtime more often than most, five different teams played 3+ tiebreakers. The kings of the clutch finishes would be D division's Dive Bombers (3-0 in 1001), and F division's Coral Reefers (3-1 in 1001). The race for the heartbreak award was anything but, as only one team lost more than two: Dead Stroke of D division, who went a rather deflating 0-4 in the extra legs.

FALL 2005 PENALTY SUMMARY

Oh well, not every season can be like last season (when we had a near record low number of penalties). This season, we racked up a total of 39 penalties for a grand total of 316 points, far more than either of the last two seasons, and almost the exact same as the season before that. We had 2 preseason captains' meeting penalties (for 10 total points), 9 fifth week captains' meeting penalties (for 45 total points), 11 election ballot penalties (for 55 total points), 6 phone penalties (for 30 total points), and 11 mail penalties (for 176 total points).

F division led the way (by a lot!) with 18 of the 39 penalties, for 156 of the 316 total points. No other division had more than 5 penalties or a total of 58 points, and E div. was the low with only three 5-pt penalties.

Who were the big losers? Well, Money Shot lost the greatest number of points (47, on 5 penalties), and Overtime Outlaws matched their 5 penalties (but only for 36 points). But the real losers were the three teams that dropped in the standings due to their penalties: Menace to Sobriety, Coral Reefers, and the biggest losers of all, the Damn Yankees!! (whose 10 point loss dropped them a spot AND a division!).

I MISCALCULATED!!

I had several text items that I was going to include on a full page (or even two), but I miscalculated how much space stuff was going to take in the newsletter when I started copying the initial pages many days ago. Thus, I suppose I'll have to save some for the Spring…

BENEFIT TOURNAMENT

The benefit blind draw for Chris Fournier has been rescheduled to this coming Friday at the Upper Deck. Details in the calendar on page 8.

NEED ANOTHER LEAGUE? TWO OPTIONS…

Looking for another night of team play? Well, the Bull City Dart League is registering teams for its next season of play on Tuesday, January 3rd at Arnie's Place in Durham. The BCDL uses 4-8 player rosters, dues are $20/player, and the entire league is handicapped. For more information, call Jason Kilts at 477-0684.

Or maybe you want to play more often, but don't want to have to put a team together? Well, maybe the brand spankin' new Cary Dart League is for you. As I understand it, the CDL will be a cash award singles league, with singles play on either Tues. or Thurs. night, based out of the Upper Deck in Cary. Signups will be taken starting today, and running through January 15th. For more info., contact Randy Umstead (633-7433 or randusoleis@gmail.com).

HOLIDAY SEASON BLIND DRAWS

During the holiday break between the Fall '05 & Spring '06 seasons, The Upper Deck will be hosting blind draws each Wednesday. The first Upper Deck draw will be held Dec. 14th, and they will host one every week until registration for the Spring season (January 4th). The blind draws will be held at 8:00 p.m. just like the regular weekly Upper Deck Friday and Sunday blind draws. However, there is one difference - the mystery out pot for the Friday/Sunday blind draws will be kept separate from the Wednesday blind draws' - instead the out on each Wed. will be pulled until someone hits it that night.

NEW CONNOLLY'S SPRING BLIND DRAW SERIES

Starting Jan. 2nd, Connolly's Irish Pub (1979 High House Rd., Cary, Cornerstone Spg. Ctr., @ Davis Dr. & High House, 465-4458, www.connollysirish.com) will be hosting a weekly doubles blind draw every Monday at 8:30 p.m. It will be double elimination, have a $5 entry fee, and will be set up just like those at the Upper Deck Friday and Sunday draws.

RDL REPRESENTED ON STATE CHAMPION TEAM

The 2006 NC State title was claimed last weekend by the Durham City team, but the RDL was well represented. Congratulations to my teammates Tom Brown, Dale Hyler, Paul Jacobi, Mark Knight, Robbie Phillips, John Riner, Wil Tan, and Keith Wall. Additionally, Don Butman served as the Durham team's emergency sub throughout the season. That makes 10 of us RDL members on the Durham state champion team. Not too shabby…

THE WHOLE TRUTH…

So, yes, there is evidence on page 5 that even blind squirrels find acorns… I closed my eyes and took out a 170 in our tournament semifinal. But the part that you don't see in that printed line is that it took me and my opponent several turns to get 'in' that game. Nothing quite like taking out a 170 to complete a 21-dart, or 24-dart, or 27-dart game or whatever it was… Aaah well, still a decent turn…

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs; "C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D" and "E" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"F" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point average and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season:

for all teams except D1 (due to match forfeit win):

All-star pt. Average: min.=37 Total Games Played (D1 = 35)
Singles win %-age: min.=19 Sngls Games Played (D1 = 18)

Weekly Blind Draws

Over the past few years, weekly blind draws have come and weekly blind draws have gone. If any of these folds or if any others start up, please let me know and I will make the change to the list here in the Tons of Newsletter.

In all cases, I recommend calling ahead to the bar just to make sure that you aren't making a pointless trip…

Friday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Sunday	Upper Deck, 8:00 p.m. (460-9977) (Upper Deck matches the pot!)
Monday	Varina Sports Bar, 8:00 p.m. sharp! (552-0081) (Bar matches the pot plus $100!)
Monday	Connolly's Irish Pub, 9:00 p.m. (465-4458) (No entry fee! $100 to the winning pair)

THE EIGHTEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs

A Division	Tom Brown	The Fifth Element	D Division	Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris
B Division	Timmy King	The Replacements	E Division	John Stepp	The Hostile Amish
C Division	Kenny Persson	Armed and Dangerous	F Division	Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad

All of RDL -- Kenny Persson -- Armed and Dangerous

"A" Division

Tom Brown	The Fifth Element	What didn't he do this season?
Jim Budelman	Lunatic Fringe	Nice to see him back in form again.
Mark Knight	Dodge Darts	Nationals would've been enough…
Robbie Phillips	The Fifth Element	Mr. State Singles is A doubles king.
Mike Seward	The Fifth Element	Seems to almost never miss. Ever.
Donnie Simpson	Old School	Surprisingly, best player we faced.
Wil Tan	The Fifth Element	Seems to basically live on this page.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	Always on fire when he needs it most.

"B" Division

Brian Coleman	The Replacements	Starts matches well, then gets better.
Joel Eason	Bad News Pigs	Biggest gun for the Mug winners.
Ron Hendricks	Starving Dartists	Quiet… unassuming… deadly…
Timmy King	The Replacements	501 is good, the rest is just awesome.
Tim Lane	Bad News Pigs	Strong wins in the first three sets.
Shawn Leonard	Bubba's Garage	Was a hammer in the singles sections.
Sid Mitchell	The Replacements	We'll sit him out in 301, then roll.
Jason Thomas	The Replacements	26-2 in the cricket sets is scary good.

"C" Division

David Alvord	HammerHeads	Last season was good, this one's great.
Kevin McFadden	Dynamic Darts	Further proof that ASPs are just icing.
Billy Mitchell	3 Legged Dog	Mr. Steady for an up-and-down team.
Kenny Persson	Armed & Dangerou	One of the best seasons in memory.
Mike Reynolds	Fired Up	He's becoming a win machine.
Jon Stites	HammerHeads	Winning captain is a top player too.
J.J. Tant	Fired Up	Just smoked people in singles all Fall.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Top thrower for strong runners-up.

"D" Division

Tommy Beaird	Shark Shooters	Didn't play a lot, but he played well.
Russell Bowen	Kozmic Debris	Quite a welcome return from Europe…
John Carroll	No Names	Played a full season, won all season.
Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris	Hammer back to playing full time.
Eric Taylor	Shark Shooters	We'll just send him home before 501.
Mark Wackerman	You Made Me Miss	Set records get better as he goes.
Felipe Wilkie	No Names	What a great season for the ol' captain.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Belli	Not his best season, but he's clutch.

"E" Division

Jeff Dopko	One Armed Bandits	Don't love his SCkt, but I do his DCkt.
Thomas Flood	Bulls on Parade	If only he wasn't a part-timer…
Galen Gillett	Tres Equis	Lack of full-time status was a bummer.
Lyman Kiser	One Armed Bandits	Not much for -01, but look at that Ckt.
Sal Reitano	Bulls on Parade	Evidently, sort of a singles specialist?
Shane Richardson	One Armed Bandits	Generally, I prefer better SCkt, but…
John Stepp	The Hostile Amish	Might be the flat out -01 king of RDL.
Robert Yang	Boondock Saints	Evidently NOT the -01 king of RDL.

"F" Division

Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad	'A' player masquerading as 'F' player.
Jeremy Clark	Rif Raf	Yikes, 501 is bad. But the rest is great.
Ben Jackson	Money Shot	Quite a strong record up until 501.
Jeff Jones	Mojo's Jerksquad	Top shot overshadowed by Berstler.
Dale Lego	Panthers	Captain of new team is no newcomer.
Keith Ohrberg	Panthers	Awesome record in all four sets.
Johnny Phelan	Rif Raf	Slows down set to set, but not a lot.
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Perennial hammer needs some 'outs'.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections): Wow, 2005 was quite a year for throwers putting up big numbers for this category. We had three winners in the Spring, and now we have three again in the Fall: Bob Terry and Jim Budelman of Lunatic Fringe in A division (who were helped a bit by being shorthanded a lot), and Kenny Persson of Armed and Dangerous in C division. Amazingly, both Terry and Persson actually had 11 or more wins in all four sets! In addition, 16 more throwers nearly reached the quadruple double plateau, with all 9+-win sets, or 3 sets with 10 or 11 wins, etc. Probably the most impressive honorable mentions would be: Tom Brown and Mike Seward of The Fifth Element in A, and Joel Eason of Bad News Pigs in B, each with four sets of 9+ wins. Also, 3 players achieved 3 sets of 11+ wins (w/a 4th set of 9 wins or fewer): Brown again, The Replacements' Timmy King , and HammerHeads' David Alvord .

-IronMan/Woman Award: Only one team showed up shorthanded week after week this season, so this award wasn't a big surprise. Thus, this season's Iron Man is Jim Budelman of Lunatic Fringe with 67 games played. That total includes only one tiebreaker, leaving 66 games in the 56 sets of our 14-week season. Now that's the kind of workload that can test a sore elbow, eh? Other division leaders were: David Romanchek of Nine Lives, and Kris Giberson and Brian Howard of Bubba's Garage in B division with 61 games each; John Wells of Got Pepsi? in C with 60 games; Laurie Rhea of Dead Stroke in D with 59 games; Bam Lupien of Damn Yankees!! in E with 63 games; and Dale Lego of the Panthers in F with 59 games.

-The Team Attendance Award winners: A minor resurgence this season in teams with players that attend at a mostly consistent rate. The two best were both in E division: Boondock Saints , who had 8 players on the roster, all of whom played 37-44 games each; and Meet the Fockers! , who had 6 of their 7 members play 50-59 games each. Honorable mentions also go to: Old School in A, who had 6 of their 7 players in the 45-57 game range; Excalibur in B, who had all 7 of their players play at least 36 games, with 6 of the 7 in the 46-52 game range; Bad News Pigs in B, who had 6 of their 7 active throwers in the range of 45-52 games; and Got Pepsi? in C, with 6 of their 7 players all in the range of 47-60 games played.

MY SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

Crap! I dropped back over 2% relative to the past couple years, in terms of my weekly picks. I still hit over 74%, but I finished with an awful week of only 14-10 to fall below the three-fourths line for the season. Not a single team could fool me more often than not -- not even The Hostile Amish, with whom I started the season 0-6!! Unfortunately, five teams did hold me to only a 0.500 record, including four that each proved me wrong in 3 of the last 4 weeks.

As far as the divisions go, A division was my easiest (50-6 for the season, for >89% correct), and that stupid E division was my worst (36-20, <65%).

My preseason set of predictions was better than even I expected them to be (except for that E division mess). Flip Fringe and Dodge Darts and I had A division down cold. My B division pick isn't really valid because the RDL Board moved my pick to a different division after the schedules were out, but the team that I picked next finished 2nd and won the Mugs. My picks in C were so dead on that you would have thought that I had a copy of the final standings when I wrote it. My D picks were all spot on except for one thing - a little over-faith in YMMM. And E division… well… we're not going to talk about E division (other than recognizing that I did say the Bandits would make a good run at the title). And F was a lot like I said would be, with my one mistake being a lack of recognition of Rif Raf. Not too bad…

In the postseason tournament predictions, I was pretty close on all but two things: I once again had way too much faith in the President's team in D division, and I never saw that #8 over #1 upset in F coming! I had a total record of 18-4 in the quarterfinals (two others were forfeited), 9-3 in the semis, and 3-3 in the finals. That gives me a final tournament pick record of 30-10, with several of my late round picks wrong because of a bad early pick.

(I introduced this page four seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the five 'o' symbols indicate the teams for which I was only 0.500 (cold string at the end for four of those), and exactly zero teams fooled me more often than not. [Not as good as last season, but still decent.]

A DECADE OF WINNERS...

Believe it or not, this issue of the Tons of Newsletter completes one full decade with me (JK) at the helm. Twenty seasons have come and gone, and a lot of teams and individuals have come and gone with them. On this page and the following two, I thought I might take us back just a bit and recount the lists of every team that finished in the top two in the regular season and/or postseason tournament in every division in that decade. Maybe you'll see a team or two of yours in there... Probably some pretty decent memories there...

The "It Really Is About The Fun And Hanging Out, At Least For Many Of Us" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Elementary School Bullies (14-8)

Element completes the season/tournament double at the scene of last season's finals loss to the Fringe. But immediately after the match, Fringe became next season's favorites as a newly formed team took players from Fringe's top two competitors.

"B" Division - Who Needs One (12+-12)

For the second season in a row, the B final is decided in the extra leg. The Hammers only lost to one team all season, but it was unfortunately the same team three times. Captain Butters delivered the out after the Hammers had missed two shots at their double.

"C" Division - Fired Up (14-10)

#3 Fired Up faced the #5 No Names is one of this season's two wacky finals pairings involving two teams at or below 0.500. FU and the No Names had split during the season, and this one came down to the wire too.

"D" Division - Get the Point "33" (13-9)

The Fuquay Invitational ends up with another Mug for the Austin sisters. The road wasn't easy for Get the Point, as this match decided in the second 501 was their easiest win in the tournament.

"E" Division - Mojo's Jerksquad (14-4)

In what appeared on paper to be one of the marquee finals pairings, Mojo's came out and just slapped around the Shark Shooters. I guess maybe they owed them one for that week 6 shellacking.

"F" Division - Hostile Amish (13-5)

Much like Mojo's in E, the Amish took what looked to be a good matchup and stomped it into the ground. After trading wins in the regular season and being so close in points, I think most of us would have at least expected this one to reach 501. But, no...

"G" Division - Bad News Beers (?-?)

This is not a typo! The last place Beers matches their season total of 3 wins with 3 more in the tournament! And now they taking home the Mugs!! (And no mail-in penalties in the tournament...)

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Elementary School Bullies (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Lunatic Fringe

"B" Division - HammerHeads (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Who Needs One

"C" Division - Old School (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Excalibur

"D" Division - Get the Point "33" (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Got Pepsi?

"E" Division - Mojo's Jerksquad (10 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - Shark Shooters

"F" Division - Hostile Amish (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Boondock Saints

"G" Division - Menace to Sobriety (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - H5N1

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

Did you notice this item in the tournament Tons? No? Well, take note: HE PULLED THE TRIPLE CROWN!!

Richard Oakley of the Shadows has pulled off a rare feat indeed - he has a 9m, a T80, and a 6-Bull this season. Wow. Nice.

A COUPLE STORIES SUBMITTED BY RDL MEMBERS AND LOYAL TONS READERS

I received a couple of pretty good re-tellings of matches this season that I just didn't have the room to include in the newsletter at the time. Well, now I do, so let's share, shall we?

From Brian Barlow, captain of Mojo's Jerksquad, recounting the epic battle his team had with Shark Shooters in week 13, with the E division regular season title on the line :

"I do not carry the gene for retelling but the whole night seemed to be scripted. A little preamble - it was a well known fact that Jon from the Sharks had been gunning for Kevin and/or Justin and the fact remains that Kevin boast more of his 01 skill than Cricket but is excellent at both. First round Kevin loses to Rob in 01, a small little addition to the drama. Rob is a great player himself but I feel Kevin the better. So, the two teams finish tied.

Ding!!! Second Round (observing the scantly clad ring girl parading around the ring)! Jon draws Kevin for the first game! Kevin blasts a 9m! Next, closes another number with three darts. Jon's face is pretty sheepish at this point and the match dwindles to a given win. After the game, Kevin congratulates Jon and walks off in his congenial manner while teammates calculate the number of darts thrown. We advise the Holy Bible (Tons for week #13) and note that his 14 is the best game. Round deux, part deux: Jose and Rob are in the heated battle. The score is rising 250 to 240, then 300s are quickly shot through. The 400s only lasted a short while, with Rob hitting 18s left and right, then Jose hitting 15s to match. First to have a breath of air was Jose. He was pointing on bulls. He hit two bulls, with one dart remaining and two 18s to finish, he looks around and every one on our teams tells him to go for the win! He barrels it to the board and as close as one can, he misses the trip 18 and it falls into the trip 4 with but a wire of separation. He had yet another chance to win this extended match with two darts left and two 18 yet again. Jose is very good with 18, mind you, but could not put it away and Rob finishes the match. I believe the combined score was in the 1500s, but may have been more.

Round three (1st game): Justin and I are keeping up with Jon and Eric and at some point are leading. Jon hits a 9m and boom, we could never recover. Jon has his revenge and we are left with a pit in the stomach as we're down 9-5. Kevin and Eric finish off a grueling match Tommy and Mike. Eric came over and looked like he had gotten off the red eye from LA. Jose and Jeff J finish with a win against the Hillers and the steam is starting to rise with the score 9-9. We have a pressure cooker!

Carl and I exchanged scoresheets and immediately knew what each other had done (score tied with 9). We had put two of our best at each other but left some for the last game. Kevin and Jose matched against Tommy and Jon with Mojo's prevailing. The second game was the second addition to the drama as Mike and Liz took out the two Jeffs. Wow! The score is tied yet again. I had put Justin last just in case this was to happen and selected Linda because she hates the pressure and or spotlight (and her refusal to score). Back and forth it went, Eric with the Tons and each with 26s, 30s, 70s and 11s. Came down to some outs. Justin had something that was do-able, he hit a 10 and something like a 5. Crickets chirped and the room fell into a silent 'Huh???'. I did not ask what he was going for and do not want to know. Rob and Eric were at double 1's and Linda and Justin at double 20's. Linda hits a millimeter above the double 20's on each of the three darts. I believe Rob and Eric went a couple of rounds with the double 1's by hitting a single 1 several throws. Finally, Justin steps up to the double 20's and misses the first only to make the second! It seemed like an hour had passed for the last game. Picture the sideline of a Super Bowl with teammates hand in hand and praying at the same time. Yvonne (Justin's finance) would turn around away from looking at the dartboard each time Justin went to the line but always glanced back as he was throwing. Jeff Jones (Linda's fiancé) was doing the same as she went to the line. What a great group of people, the Sharks, and very professional in their mannerisms and sportsmanship."

CONGRATS TO SOME OTHER LOCAL WINNERS!

Bull City Dart League

Congratulations to the members of Touch My Monkey?, on their recent championship over in Durham, their second consecutive. RDL members playing for the Monkey include: Tom Brown , Wil Tan , Jason Kilts , Robbie Phillips , and Dale Hyler of the Elementary School Bullies, along with Paul Jacobi of Lunatic Fringe, and Mark Knight of Dodge Darts.

Cary Dart League

And as if the BCDL title wasn't enough, Wil Tan of Elementary School Bullies also claimed both the regular season title and the tournament championship of the CDL. Jerry Oakley of Shadows was the tournament runner-up, while Kenny Persson of Armed & Dangerous was 2nd during the season. On the ladies' side, Barbara Cotton of Meet the Fockers! claimed the season race, while ex-teammate Leigh Highfill won the banquet tournament.

For those who are new or simply were not aware of it: fast games, high ins and high outs in the tournament do not win awards unless they are perfect shots (170s) or games.

THE PLAYERS WHO BEAT THE SINGLES %-AGE WINNERS

Who beat Mark Knight of Dodge Darts in A division?
in 301: (none). in cricket: Sean O'Brien (wk.1), Wil Tan (wk.5).

Who beat Mike Seward of Elementary School Bullies in A division?
in 301: Joe Stevens (wk.8). in cricket: Lee Whitehead (wk.12).
[And yes, Mike's 301 loss is the game in which he threw 170-In 1st turn.]

Who beat Steve Witz of Cheap Shots in B division?
in 301: John Howell (wk.2), Mikey Hindle (wk.4).
in cricket: Ron Hendricks (wk.2), Chris Hopkins (wk.8).
[Steve might want to skip the Dartists matches next time…]

Who beat Tony Keller of Fired Up in C division?
in 301: Tony McGrail (wk.6). in cricket: (none).

Who beat Chris Fournier of Travelin' Beer Bellies in D division?
in 301: Deb Blackwelder (wk.11). in cricket: Ron Penny (wk.13).

Who beat Kevin Kendall of Mojo's Jerksquad in E division?
in 301: Rob Yang (wk.13). in cricket: (none).

Who beat Danny Hall of Tres Equis in F division?
in 301: Julie Payne (wk.3).
in cricket: Bill Buckley (wk.7), Drew Mandaluk (wk.12).

Who beat Nate Wade of Coral Reefers in G division?
in 301: Kevin Folsom (wk.1), Dan Clark (wk.13).
in cricket: Hope Folsom (wk.1).
[I'm thinking Nate shouldn't play the Folsoms for $$ after the match…]

[Only listing the 'defeaters' of the top couple women's award winners…]

Who beat Deb Blackwelder of Got Pepsi? in D division?
in 301: Russell Bowen (wk.1), Mark Powell (wk.2), Mike Hill (wk.3), Chris Rickard (wk.4), Aaron Johnson (wk.7), Mark Fulghum (wk.9).
in ckt: Mark Powell (wk.2), Jeff Wenhart (wk.8).

Who beat Aimee Gevedon of Meet the Fockers! in F division?
in 301: Jeremy Clark (wk.2), Ed Park (wk.5), Jed Smallwood (wk.12).
in ckt: Travis Harrilchak (wk.5), Bill Buckley (wk.12), Jon Kenney (wk.14).
["If you can't beat 'em, join 'em"? Maybe Aimee should Boondock it…]

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

It was partly due to the fact that every division had a bye every week (thus decreasing our total number of matches played), but we dropped down in the tiebreaker category again. We had only 23 (there were 30 last season), with 2 of those coming in the tournament. A division had only one extra game all season, while B had 5 (1 coming in the tournament final!), C had 4, D had 3 (1 of those in the tournament), E had 2, F had 2, and G had 6(!). B, C, and G division led the way with 6 of the 7 teams in each of those divisions going into overtime at least once. As for the individual teams, this category is all about two teams, and only two teams. First are this season's Cardiac Kids, the Coral Reefers of G division, who played an astonishing FIVE games of 1001 during the season (winning four of them!). And this season's Heartbreakers are without a doubt the No Names of C division, who played three 1001s… and lost them all.

SPRING 2006 PENALTY SUMMARY

Congratulations, captains! This was about as close to a penalty-free season as we've ever had. Now that's not to say that there weren't any penalties, just that there were fewer than normal (of course, with no ballots to mail this season, that number will immediately be lower than last season. We had 17 of the 49 teams take a penalty this season, with a grand total of 23 penalties for a loss of 214 points. There were 10 fifth week captains' meeting penalties (for 50 total points), 4 phone penalties (for 20 total points), and 9 mail penalties (for 144 total points).

G division led the way in both total penalties (only 6) and total points lost (74). All the other divisions had between 2 and 4 penalties, except A division (which had ZERO penalties, probably partly due to the fact that many of them played in my bar and could just hand me their sheets).

The biggest losers? Well, the Bad News Beers lost the most points (37), and could've passed Board to Death without the penalties and their forfeit to them. But the real losers are Overtime Outlaws, who dropped a spot due to penalties, and Bulls on Parade, who drop to F due to penalties!!

From Connie Austin, of Get the Point "33", recounting her team's week 13 battle with Travelin' Beer Bellies, as her team was both trying to win the match and clinch the division title:

"Wow, we had fun last night. Beer Bellies are a great team to play. I don't know which team wanted the win more, them or us. For a while there I thought we were jinxed with the (8) point thing. That's all I heard out of everyone on the team, 'all we have to have is (8) points, just (8) points and we take first place.' WRONG!!! We split 01, 3-3. Then they are up 2 points after singles cricket. Ok, I'm getting concerned. We need to sweep doubles cricket. I thought we would come out with at least 4 points. WRONG!!! The only team to pull out a win was Mike & Mike. Me I'm still worried about the (8) point thing, because at the end of doubles cricket we only have (7). Poor Mike Hill. He had all nine players show up for our last game of the season, and faced with the question of 'Who do I play?'… Of course at least six of us players all said 'Hey, no problem you can sit me.' Suurrre… that's what they say, but later you always hear different.

Ok, time to live up to our name 'GET THE POINT'. First up Jacky & John, second up Ron & Bob, and last but not least Connie & Jan. Actually Ron & Bob win first to clinch the title of first place, then Jacky & John win. No pressure, Jan & I can have fun. WRONG!!! Just so happens, two sisters are playing two brothers (Chris & Jeff). I look at Jan and say they are going to kill us. Well it starts good for them and slow for us, next thing you know we're in the game 247-246. A few more throws and its 105-96. Jan goes for trip-20, miss single-5, step back, it's ok, just throw trip-17, double-top, you can do it, I say. Miss single 2, no problem, give me a trip-19, miss trip-3, 16 thrown. Way too much discussion! 80 left. Ok, they throw, leave 40. A few feet from the line all I hear is a conversation from one of our players with the opponent about how they would have thrown a 96-out and not the way Jan was advised. WRONG!!! So to everyone's amazement I hit trip-20, double-10 to win. Sorry brothers, it was fun, but the old Awesome Austin Sisters pulled one out!!!! Boom Baby Boom"

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use when deciding what you should use as your minimum number of all-star points for reporting when you call in your scores.

"A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
"C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs; "D/E/F" Divs. = 3.0+ ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs

Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point %-age and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season: for all Divisions:

Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. %-age: min. of 32 Total Games Played for teams D4 & G6, (due to fft. received): 15 sngls, 30 total

THE NINETEENTH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs
All of RDL	Donnie Simpson	Old School
A Division	Mark Knight	Dodge Darts
B Division	Jon Stites	HammerHeads
C Division	Donnie Simpson	Old School
D Division	Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris
E Division	Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad
F Division	John Stepp	Hostile Amish
G Division	Eric McCartney	Menace to Sobriety

"A" Division
Tom Brown	Elem. Sch. Bullies	Another season of domination.
Jim Davis	Lunatic Fringe	Won some big sets for runners-up.
Dale Hyler	Elem. Sch. Bullies	Played best in the biggest matches.
Mark Knight	Dodge Darts	Won singles. Won doubles. Just won.
Robbie Phillips	Elem. Sch. Bullies	Great season, unstoppable in finals.
Mike Seward	Elem. Sch. Bullies	2nd best win pct. in RDL. In A div.
Bob Terry	Lunatic Fringe	When he's on, he's almost unbeatable.
Lee Whitehead	Dodge Darts	Although he lists himself out at times.

"B" Division
Dave Buckman	Cheap Shots	Team's most important dbls thrower.
Mikey Hindle	Wallbangers	Evidently needs a new 501 partner.
Tim Mills	Who Needs One	Great Crkt counters weak -01 record.
John Murdaugh	Who Needs One	Season's top gun for Mug winners.
Charles Parker	HammerHeads	0.500 SCkt is a bit of a surprise.
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	Makes Niners dangerous upset team.
Jon Stites	HammerHeads	Carried Hammers to A. Then bolted.
Steve Witz	Cheap Shots	Carried Shots (not to A). Then bolted.

"C" Division
Tony Alcon	3 Legged Dog	Records slowly slipped set to set.
John Carroll	No Names	Quietly dangerous all the time.
Tony Keller	Fired Up	What a freakin' season. Except for 501.
Kenny Persson	Armed & Dangerous	Carried A&D (not to B). Then bolted.
Mike Reynolds	Fired Up	Becoming a perennial all-star name…
Donnie Simpson	Old School	One of RDL's best regardless of div.
J.J. Tant	Fired Up	0.500 in 301, then turned up the juice.
Tim Vann	Excalibur	Superb singles, passable doubles.

"D" Division
Jacky Buckner	Get the Point "33"	What a great addition for D winners.
Jeff Dopko	One Armed Bandits	Fantastic Ckt record, especially dbls.
Chris Fournier	Travelin' Beer Bellie	Not a bad return! At least in singles.
Bob Hansen	Get the Point "33"	If only Mr. -01 could play more often.
Paul Hansen	Kozmic Debris	21-1 in ckt means 11-11 in -01 is ok.
Dave Krasnow	Kozmic Debris	Looks almost the same as P. Hansen.
John Wells	Got Pepsi?	8-3 in each of the 4 sets is awesome.
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellie	Won a ton of doubles for the Bellies.

"E" Division
Tommy Beaird	Shark Shooters	Shark Shooter #1 is just awesome.
Justin Berstler	Mojo's Jerksquad	Mojo Jerk #1 is just awesome.
Jon Hardison	Shark Shooters	Shark Shooter #2 is just awesome.
Carl Hiller	Shark Shooters	Shark Shooter #3 is just awesome.
Galen Johnson	Have Darts, Will Tra	Best of the "next best" (3rd pl.) team.
Kevin Kendall	Mojo's Jerksquad	Mojo Jerk #2 is just awesome.
Chris Montesi	Mojo's Jerksquad	Mojo Jerk #3 is just awesome.
Sal Reitano	Bulls on Parade	Ok, so I just won't list him in 501…

"F" Division
Travis Harrilchak	Boondock Saints	Very solid for 3 sets for runners-up.
Jess Jur	Damn Yankees!	Great singles & ASPs. Um, doubles?
Jon Kenney	Bennington Brawlers	10-1 in DCkt, 2-5 in 501. Seriously?
Zak Mayhew	Boondock Saints	Over 75% wins in Ckt says something.
Robert Morrill	Hostile Amish	I just want to know… why "Tyke"?
Keith Ohrberg	Rif Raf	Holy cow. Sngls 46% better than dbls.
Deb Parker	Damn Yankees!	Huge in SCkt & 501 is decent enough.
John Stepp	Hostile Amish	Has his hair, a plaque, AND a Mug.

"G" Division
Dan Clark	Overtime Outlaws	Was 20% above the team's average.
Kevin Folsom	Money Shot	Just a great season, with lots of wins.
Geoffrey Gilbert	Bad News Beers	Decent record in all four sets.
Ronnie Lee	H5N1	So he doesn't specialize in DCkt…
David Martin	H5N1	19-3 in Ckt is among league's best.
Eric McCartney	Menace to Sobriety	FNG is simply the F'N Man!!
Worth Pearsall	Bad News Beers	Strong captain engineered Mug upset.
Nate Wade	Coral Reefers	Consistently strong every season.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections): This category definitely is tougher to join when all of the teams have only 12 matches. Thus, we have only one true member this season: Donnie Simpson of Old School in C division. Very impressive 43-5 record for Donnie, with no worse than 10-2 in any set. Wow. There were several other records that warrant a little honorable mention as well, including: Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe in A (9 wins in all 4 sets, 10 wins in 3 sets), Tom Brown of Elementary School Bullies in A (10 wins in 3 sets, 8 wins in 4 sets), Mike Seward of Elementary School Bullies in A (9 wins in 3 sets, 8 wins in 4 sets), Dave Buckman of Cheap Shots in B (9 wins in 3 sets), Jon Stites of Hammer Heads in B (10 wins in 3 sets, 8 wins in 4 sets), Tony Keller of Fired Up in C (9 wins in 3 sets), and John Wells of Got Pepsi? in D (8 wins in 4 sets). again, The Replacements' Timmy King , and HammerHeads' David Alvord .
-IronMan/Woman Award: With all of the teams having the same number of matches, and no teams playing shorthanded regularly, the race for this title was very close. And the winners are… Charlie Wilkinson of Endeavor to Persevere in D, and Bam Lupien of Damn Yankees! in F, with 54 games each. Bam used two 1001s to reach those totals, so maybe Charlie is the real leader, eh? Other division leaders were: Bob Terry of Lunatic Fringe (what morons picked BOB!?!?) in A with 51 games; Bill Chaney of Who Needs One in B division with 52 games; Tim Vann of Excalibur and Felipe Wilkie of No Names in C with 50 games each; Frank Balena of Bulls on Parade in E with 50 games; and Dan Clark of the Overtime Outlaws in G with 50 games.
-The Team Attendance Award winners: This category was invented due to a Fuquay team that played every week, every season with the same 6 players. This season, another Fuquay team claims this title: Who Needs One of B division, which had 6 players on the roster, and all of them in attendance at all but one match. Excellent. Like a family… Some honorable mentions: Got Pepsi? in D, with almost the same closeness as Who Needs One (they simply had a sub for a week); Damn Yankees! in F, with six players, all with 46-52 games each; Overtime Outlaws in G, with 42-50 games for 6 of their 7.

MY SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

Oh man, I had my worst match-predicting season in a couple years. 2% worse than last season, 4% worse than the season before that. And on top of that, I set a new record for futility, picking EIGHT consecutive Brawlers matches incorrectly. Eight. That's a 1-in-256 chance. How in the hl… Anyway, the only other team that proved me wrong more than half the time was Rif Raf (also in F, beating my picks 7 of 12 times). And both the No Names (in C) and H5N1 (in G) were 0.500 teams for me. (Details on pg10.)

As for my preseason predictions, you would have thought I knew what I was talking about. I got A division almost exactly correct, just shorting the Replacements a win or two. The same was true for B, with the only error being my prediction of the Hammers behind WNO and the Cheapies. In C, I picked Old School, called Mug-winners Fired Up the dark horse, and got it almost all correct (picked 4th place A&D for 2nd). My D division trio of leading team picks was two-thirds correct (I had Kozmic instead of Pepsi), and I even put the Bandits as the fourth place onlooker. E division… we'll get back to that one. In F division, my only error was moving the Brawlers to the forefront (instead of their actual 3rd place spot), with the rest almost dead-on. And in G, I didn't do so well, not recognizing either H5N1 or the Menace as top threats. … … And now back to E… and one of my worst picks ever… I had six of the seven teams in a great order. Problem was that I put You Made Me Miss above them all, instead of below. Uh, whoops.

Tournament picks? Decent. 14-7 in the first round, 10-4 in the semis, and 3-4 in the finals (with three of those four losing before the finals match). But did you see my Bad News Beers dark horse pick in G? How about picking them to knock off the #2? I only wish that I had gone with my hunch and actually picked them to win it all. I really honestly saw that coming…

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

(I introduced this page five seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the two 'o' symbols indicate the teams for which I was only 0.500, and the two 'x' symbols indicate the teams that fooled me more often than not. [8 wrong in a row with the Brawlers?!?! Yikes. New record…]

THE LEFTOVER QUOTES...

Sometimes I just don't have enough space to include everything in the Tons that I would like. So some of it I save. Like these:

From the week 13 matches

Quote #1 : from John Guerriero of Menace to Sobriety, in one of the MANY messages their team left me after clinching the G regular season title: "I'm sorry, we got kind of toned down by the local authorities. But I gotta say that Harley Dave, Dave Wagner… I don't know anybody that drove further to be at dart matches. I'd bet he has probably got close to 10,000 miles on a Wednesday, leaving Atlanta at 8, 9, 10 o'clock to be up at Scooter to get the wings and then come down to wherever the match was. But man, that's the kind of fun we've had this year. Harley Dave… gotta have the mileage for comin' in on a first place team." [Woah... - JK]

Quote #2 : from Phil Brown of Got Pepsi?, whose team was fond of leaving goofy messages about the #1 D league team all season, both before it was them, and then when it was them, and now... After they dropped the big match to fall to second: "Well, how 'bout that second place D league team? Heh, they ain't nuthin' but the first loser…"

Quote #3 : from Mike Seward of Elementary School Bullies, uttered about 90 seconds before he walked up and stuck a 180: "I haven't hit a perfect throw all season…" [I, of course, immediately began saying things like 'I haven't found a hundred dollar bill all season', but evidently only Mike had the magic going for the wishes. - JK]

From the quarterfinals matches (or at least that day...)

Quote #4 : from Kevin Carter of Deadstroke, finally responding to the comments from John Howley of Fired Up (formerly Tailgaters): " And I'm not quite sure what John Howley said about our Tailgaters-Deadstroke rivalry, but I'll tell you this… we had six people show up, they had two. So therefore my spin on the whole thing is they are tired of getting their a kicked and were kind of scared, so therefore they all hung out. I believe that he said that he was gonna spin it that they were in C division and they didn't feel like showing up because we were just E division people. But I would like it to be duly noted that we did win, by forfeit, because I had enough players to play. As always, we always kick their a. Anyway, we're actually going to get together and do it this summer, so we'll report the results of that then."

Quote #5 : from Heather Thomas of Kozmic Debris, who also happens to be the Rules & Grievances Director: "Lyman Kiser has a Ton-80-In for his 501…" [A Ton-80-In in 501?! Argh. I suppose I'll have to stop yelling at all the captains now if the R&G Director is calling in 'Ins' for 501... - JK]

From the finals matches

Quote #6 : from Worth Pearsall, of the regular season last-place G team, who also now happen to be the G tournament champions: "Cinderella did not forget her slippers tonight! The Cinderella story is complete. Bad News Beers, G league champs. And oh, it feels so good…"

HEY, GO RECRUIT SOME OF YOUR FRIENDS...

Not that many years ago, the RDL had as many as 56 teams in it. Yes, 7 full divisions of 8 teams each. For some reason, that number shrank a few years ago and hasn't come back up. Go invite your friends, co-workers, family members, whoever... This is a great game and we have a great time, and it would be even better with more of us. Word of mouth is a powerful tool.

RANDOM RAMBLINGS FROM JK

Every now and then, I just sit down and start typing the random things that I notice. This happens to be one of those times...

--So I'm listening to the radio last week and they refer to a story about pregnant women all over the world that are worried that they will give birth on June 6 and their child will be evil due to its birthday being on 6/6/06. Seriously. I guess they choose to ignore the fact that there is a 0 stuck in the middle. Or that it should be a 200 stuck in the middle. Or that people all over follow religions with different calendars. Or that the start of every calendar's numbering system is in question because they are primarily estimates. Or that we've introduced leap year due to the 365-day calendar not being exact. Or that it isn't the same date all around the globe at the same time. Or that... any of a hundred other reasons that their fears are silly. Some people...

--A couple weeks ago I was at Wal-Mart and there was a fishing magazine on the rack called Crappie World. And 'World' was written really small, inside the E of Crappie. So, it looked like the name was just CRAPPIE. Can you imagine discussing your job with people? "What do you do?" "I'm a crappie editor." "No kidding, I'm a crappie writer!"

--One of our host establishments is clearly owned and/or run by a huge Pittsburgh Steelers fan. If you figure out which one it is, go visit and take a look in the men's bathroom (sorry, ladies, this item's not for you). They have adorned the upper walls with mini-painted jerseys of the team's Hall of Famers in sort of a Ring of Honor style (I think you should ignore the fact that the "Honor" circles a bunch of urinals). At the end of the ring of names, they have added (Jerome) Bettis, (Hines) Ward, and (Ben) Roethlisberger. Sort of jumping the gun on those, but at least Bettis is a sure Hall pick, and the other two did just engineer a Super Bowl victory. Kind of a nice tribute, I suppose. Or at least it would be if they hadn't misspelled Roethlisberger. Oops.

--I don't know if any of you watch Survivor, and it doesn't really matter for the point of this item (and yes, I do watch). At the end of each season, the winner between the last two people is decided by a vote of the seven contestants that were eliminated immediately prior to the end (so it's important to not screw everybody over or they won't vote for you). Well, at the end of this season, one of the voters didn't like either of the last two, so he told them to guess a number between 1 and 1,000,000. That's right, a million possible guesses, with the assumption that the closest gets his vote. What would you guess if you were first? Of course, 500,000 or 500,001, so that you got half the number line. What did the Tool guess on the show?! FOUR!! The other woman looked at him, and then said "uh, ten". Why not five, I don't know? But she got that vote because the number was 999,000 or something like that. He guessed friggin' FOUR! What a moron... (In a painful twist, the moron won the million bucks anyway.)

--By now many of you (at least those in A, B, or C divs) have heard about the new team forming, taking the best players off of several other teams. Mercenary teams come, and mercenary teams go, but you know what would be really really funny? If exactly 49 teams signed up again next season, leaving 7 teams per division. If none of the A teams folded over the summer, the new team would be forced to play in a lower division unless the Membership Director is inclined to ignore the RDL rules of teams moving up and down in top/bottom twos when they've earned it (not likely). I will laugh so hard...

Today is the banquet. That means… summer is coming! Whatever will you and your darts do?

No Wednesday night league play for May/June/July! You're going to need another plan for a few months. Might I offer a few ideas?

☞ Looking for a weekly blind draw? ☜

The "Three Finals Matches In Four Days Is Almost Too Much To Really Be Enthused About" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - Tossn Heads (13-7)
Maybe not the prettiest A final ever, but it worked just fine for the Heads, completing their season double. A 5-1 lead after 301 was reeled back to 9-7 before a couple more doubles clinched it. A huge 501 set by Tan/Redick over Phillips/Hyler provided the final winner.

"B" Division - Old School (13-11)
Old School took the most unlikely of paths to their Mugs, beating the bottom three teams (#7, #6, #5, in order) in the division to take the title. A win in the final 501 set ended the Cinderella hopes of the Wallbangers, and sent Old School to A division in style.

"C" Division - Starving Dartists (14-10)
The Dartists took the fizz out of Pepsi to become the only team this season to win Mugs without being a 'top-two' team during the regular season, winning in the final 501 over the C leaders.

"D" Division - Travelin' Beer Bellies (?-?)
The Bellies didn't report any of their scores from the tournament, but I'm guessing they rolled. They were one of the earliest teams to call in both the semis and the finals (they had a quarterfinal bye).

"E" Division - The Hostile Amish (14-10)
The Amish squeeze through in the E final, otherwise known as the battle for Upper Deck boards 9&10 supremacy. Of course, it took place at Oh'Mulligans, so that's sort of odd, eh? Anyway, by his own admission, the Amish won in spite of the captain's cold night.

"F" Division - Rif Raf (12+-12)
The most dominant team in the RDL this season (Rif Raf won the season by FIVE matches), had to go all the way to the extra leg to outlast XXX (a team that clearly wasn't intimidated, scoring 11, 10, and 12 against Rif Raf this season).

"G" Division - Off Constantly (13-5)
The OC had to work to sneak past the 2-12 Reefers and 10-4 Board 2 Death, but then they didn't even need to play 501 to snag the Mugs from the one-loss Designated Divers. Nice time to peak!

REGULAR SEASON WINNERS

"A" Division - Tossn Heads (12 wins, 2 losses)
2nd place - The Essential Elements

"B" Division - Cheap Shots (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - Old School

"C" Division - Got Pepsi? (9 wins, 3 losses)
2nd place - No Names

"D" Division - Travelin' Beer Bellies (11 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Sharkshooters

"E" Division - Team America (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - The Hostile Amish

"F" Division - Rif Raf (14 wins, 0 losses)
2nd place - Tres Equis

"G" Division - Designated Divers (13 wins, 1 loss)
2nd place - Off Constantly

(Rosters of all tournament-winning and regular season first place teams can be found on page 4.)

FALL 2006 RDL DIVISIONAL TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS… REVISITED

I now run this column during season in which I've included trivia questions all season. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but it's usually not too much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week # when it ran, and the answers are at the end. No peeking…

Week 4 question(s): What is the greatest number of 1001 tiebreakers the RDL has had in any of the past 21 seasons (the length of time that I have been editor of the Tons and for which I have full statistics)? What season was it?

Week 5 question(s): How many times in the past 21 seasons has a division gone with zero tiebreakers played? What is the highest number of tiebreakers in any one division in one season?

Week 6 question(s): What is the greatest number of points lost to penalty by a single team in the past 21 seasons? How many penalties did it take to achieve that total? And who was the team, and who was the captain?

Week 7 question(s): [I can't honestly say that this answer is absolutely, unequivocally the accurate answer, but the person in the answer is certain enough for both of us.] What is the highest individual all-star point average in RDL history? Who had it?

Week 8 question(s): Who has won the most postseason divisional tournament Mugs in the past eleven and a half years (the length of time for which I have complete records)? How many Mugs in those 23 seasons is the record?

Week 9 question(s): Which current RDL team has gone by its exact current name for the longest time? How many seasons is the current streak? (Of course, I haven't researched this answer yet, and it's possible that it will go back beyond the reach of my official records. Not sure, but I can see that possibility.)

Week 11 question: How many 24-0 match results has the RDL had since the start of 1996 (the length of time for which I have complete match records)?

Week 12 question: (This question is a reader-submitted question, and is one that made me chuckle.) How many times since Menace to Sobriety formed (in Fall '05) has captain John Guerriero been included in the Quotes of the Week column?

Week 4 answers: The tiebreaker highwater mark was 43 (40 during the season, 3 during the tournaments) in the Fall, 2002 season. That season we had 54 teams, so we had only one fewer bye than we have this season. For the first three weeks of this season, we were on pace for more than 65 tiebreakers during the regular season, but I think this trivia question might have jinxed that pace (as we had no tiebreakers this past week).

Week 5 answers: Only once!! In the Fall of 1998, D division didn't have a single tiebreaker. Every other division every season in the past decade has had at least one. == And the highest number? 14!! In C division in the Spring 1996 season - 13 in the season and 1 in the tournament. That is a lot of overtime to be paid…

Week 6 answers: In the Spring 2003 season, Fulton Crowley (for whom I have named the penalty award in each season's banquet Tons) and his Mangina Douche squad chalked up EIGHT penalties for a total of 106(!) lost points!!! Unlike the season in which he had set his previous record, these penalties didn't cost his team the division. (Possibly the most painful penalty, however, was Spring 2002's lone penalty for The Raleigh Llamas… which cost them the A division title! Not the only team to have lost a division due to penalty, but the only time that it decided A division this decade.)

Week 7 answers: Mike Hall, sometime around 1992 or 1993. Mike's average (when he was 16 years old!) was 2.714 ASPs/game. By his own admission, "yes, he was point whore!" [Anyway, if anyone has any actual proof of a higher average (as Mike still has his award), please let me know. Thanks. - JK]

Week 8 answers: Tom Brown, of The Essential Elements, and formerly of Lunatic Fringe and Pig Tour. And how many Mugs has Tom corralled in the past 23 seasons? SEVENTEEN!!! And every last one of them came from A division! That is just freakin' sick… And on top of that, his team was in the finals match in 4 of

THIS SEASON'S TIEBREAKERS

The 1001 tiebreaker was back en vogue this season, with a whopping 38 of them (2 of those coming in the tournaments). F division led the way with 9 (1 of those in the tournament final), followed by C division with 8 (and the other tournament tiebreaker). A division had 5, B had 3, D had 2 (which were both between the same pair of teams!), E had 5, and G had 6. Eleven different teams played in at least three tiebreakers, but only two of those played in more than three. The first, Menace to Sobriety, played in an astonishing FIVE 1001 games (winning three). The other, 3 Legged Dog, is our Heartbreaker team this season, losing three 1001s during the season, and then dumping another in the tournament. Ugh. And who likes 1001 the most? Maybe the Dartists or Rif Raf (3-0 each).

FALL 2006 PENALTY SUMMARY

Holy cow! After a near penalty-free season, the league exploded with problems this time around. The total of 37 penalties was no big record or anything, but we had SIX teams lose at least one place in the standings due to their lost points and/or matches. 19 of the 53 teams took at least one penalty, with 7 of the 8 G teams leading the way (A division did not take a single penalty, for the second consecutive season!). The 37 total penalties included 1 preseason captains' meeting (for 5 points), 6 fifth week captains' meeting (for 30 points), 14 election ballots (for 70 points), 4 phone penalties (for 20 points), and 12 mail penalties (for 192 points, AND three match wins, due to one team receiving a third, fourth, and fifth mail offense).

The biggest losers? Well, No Maam lost the most points (85!!), and had three match wins taken away, but they only dropped from 4th to 5th in G because of them. The real losers were the Bennington Brawlers, who lost a set of team plaques due to their penalties, and Rebels Without A Cause, who dropped two spots in the B standings due to their penalties, but also fell into a 'bottom-two' finish and likely a spot in C division next season.

Saturday, May 19th - Spring season banquet, site TBD

HOLIDAY BLIND DRAWS @ UPPER DECK

During the holiday break between the Fall '06 & Spring '07 seasons, The Upper Deck will be hosting blind draws each Wednesday. The first Upper Deck draw will be held December 13th, and they will host one every week until registration for the Spring season (January 3rd). The blind draws will be held at 8:00 p.m. just like the regular weekly Upper Deck Friday and Sunday blind draws. Additionally, the Deck is going to re-start their mystery out pot for the Friday/Sunday blind draws, and because the mystery out is just re-starting up now, the Wednesday draws will be included in the mystery out rotation for this holiday season. So, now you know where to find holiday darting…

QUOTES FROM THE FINALS

Quote #1: from Paddy Diamond of Rif Raf, who clearly had been "celebrating" after his match: "Rif Raf won in 1001 over Tres Equis. I just want to say that it was not a fun match, and that Tres Equis was awesome opponents. … I'll see ya on Saturday. Get my Mug ready!"

Quote #2: from Sara Williams of Off Constantly: "Off Constantly defeated Designated Divers 13-5 tonight. And that's after we trailed 5-1 after 301." [Did you get that? Check out those numbers. Off Constantly SWEPT cricket. Both singles AND doubles. And that was against a team that was 61-23 in singles cricket and 27-15 in doubles cricket during the regular season. That is just an awesome nine-game run for the Mugs… - JK]

ANSWERS TO THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS

the other 6 seasons. (Personally, I'm sort of hoping that Tom makes it 18-of-24 this season… - JK)

Week 9 answer: Well, only 8 teams have had the exact same team name for at least the last 11 seasons: Lunatic Fringe, Nine Lives, Excalibur, Dynamic Darts, Starving Dartists, Travelin' Beer Bellies, Grateful Darts, and Kozmic Debris. Debris has been the same for the last 16 seasons, the Bellies for 18, Dynamic for 20, Nine Lives for 21, and Excalibur for 22. That leaves three teams that have had the exact same name for more than 11 years: Lunatic Fringe, Starving Dartists, and Grateful Darts. From a few guesses at the answer that I received, it appears that Lunatic Fringe may be the longest-lasting, starting with that team name roughly 37 seasons ago.

Week 11 answer: Four. Spring '99, C division, One & Done over Darting Eyes; Fall '02, A division, Lunatic Fringe over Dazed & Confused; Fall '04, A division, The Intrusive Element over The Suey Side; Spring '06, A division, Elementary School Bullies over Tir na hOg.

Week 12 answer: 11. Geez, it sure seems like more, doesn't it? Fa05: weeks 8 and 9; Sp06: weeks 6, 7, 10, 13, and banquet; Fa06: weeks 2 (printed a week later), 3, 10, and 11. [My guess (at least a dozen) was about as close as that of John's teammate Mark Oglesby (who guessed 9, but wanted to guess "every time we won"). - JK]

"HOT DARTS" CALL-IN GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines you should use for the minimum number of all-star points to report when calling in your scores.
"A" Division = 4.5 or more ASPs
"B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs; "C" Div. = 3.5 or more ASPs
"D", "E", and "F" Divisions = 3.0 or more ASPs
"G" Division = 2.5 or more ASPs
Also, call in any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for all-star point %-age and singles win %-age awards, you must play in at least 66% of the total projected games this season:
for Divisions "B", "C", and "D":
Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. %-age: min. of 32 Total Games Played for Divisions "A", "E", "F", and "G":
Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. %-age: min. of 37 Total Games Played for teams F6, G4, G8 (due to fft. rcvd.): 18 singles, 35 total

THE TWENTIETH SEMI-ANNUAL EDITION OF : JK'S DIVISIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM PICKS

(Players within each division are listed alphabetically) (Players are chosen any way I damn well please - not purely by the numbers!)
(This is not purely my own guesses at who is simply the best thrower, but also who is important to their team, who is good in the clutch, etc.)

Divisional MVPs
All of RDL	Mike Raquet	Screamin' Meanies
A Division	Brian Blake	The Shadows
B Division	Donnie Simpson	Old School
C Division	John Carroll	No Names
D Division	Russell Bowen	Kozmic Debris
E Division	Mike Raquet	Screamin' Meanies
F Division	Steve Tollerton	The Real DeCoys
G Division	Geoffrey Gilbert	No Maam

"A" Division
Brian Blake	The Shadows	Maybe the easiest pick on this page.
Tom Brown	Essential Elements	Hurt knee, works a ton... whoops you.
Jim Budelman	Lunatic Fringe	Played like the Jimbo of old this Fall.
Kevin Kendall	The Boob Squad	Nice newcomer to A raised eyebrows.
Mark Knight	Dodge Darts	Would have made it on SCkt alone.
Robbie Phillips	Essential Elements	Plays best at the biggest times.
Mike Seward	Tossn Heads	Made a team, and then led it to Mugs.
Wil Tan	Tossn Heads	Almost went undefeated in doubles!

"B" Division
Dave Buckman	Cheap Shots	Top shot on a balanced div. winner.
Pat Crowley	Wireless	The drop to B clearly agreed with him.
Mikey Hindle	Wallbangers	Played in 56% of team's DCkt wins.
John Jenkins	Old School	Will be good to see him back in A.
John Murdaugh	Rebels w/out Cause	Quietly had a big year for 6th placers.
Chris Pilo	Wireless	Great record in the first three sets.
Donnie Simpson	Old School	A div. hammer in B division clothes…
Bo Sosa	Nine Lives	10-2 in three sets. Pretty good, eh?

"C" Division
Barry Brown	No Names	10-0 in singles cricket says enough.
John Carroll	No Names	Greatest part-timer ever is clutch.
Jason Grannis	Got Pepsi?	29-7 in first three sets for C winners.
Billy Mitchell	3 Legged Dog	Head of the Dog had a good season.
Ron Penny	Get the Point "33"	Not huge, but important to his team.
Mike Reynolds	Fired Up	The top reason I picked FU so high.
John Wells	Got Pepsi?	Not flashy, just solid, especially Ckt.
Tom Winters	Dynamic Darts	Not his best season, but still decent.

"D" Division
Russell Bowen	Kozmic Debris	Had 2/3 of team's doubles wins!!
George Bubanic	Sharkshooters	Great season dominated the division.
Chris Goodknecht	Grateful Darts	One of D's best records in last 3 sets.
Donald Grubb	Armed/Dangerous	Durham import was a singles champ.
Lyman Kiser	One-Armed Bandits	Strong cricket makes up for -01.
Bob McCredie	Travelin' Beer Bellie	The Bellies' roster is full of strong…
Eric Side	Travelin' Beer Bellie	… shots, so I just picked the three…
J.J. Yoneoka	Travelin' Beer Bellie	… that "seemed" the strongest…

"E" Division
Carl Lee	The DIVE Bombers	Phenomenal record in 3 sets - 32-10.
Mike Miller	The DIVE Bombers	Great record across all four sets.
Robert Morrill	The Hostile Amish	When 9-4 is your bad set… nice.
Rob Radcliff	Team America	Sleeps in 301, then goes on fire.
Mike Raquet	Screamin' Meanies	Most valuable to his team of anyone.
Kevin Scott	Team America	Played full season, won all season.
Bill White	Da Bulls	Ok, so we sit him only in DCkt…
Randy Wilcox	Team America	League's best non-G div. record.

"F" Division
Rob Barwick	Rif Raf	Just a solid winner for undefeateds.
Jess Jur	Damn Yankees!	Team's best in singles, decent in dbls.
Ronnie Lee	The Real DeCoys	Great at start, then decent… then 501.
Keith Ohrberg	Rif Raf	Big singles winner needs Dbls partner.
Johnny Phelan	Rif Raf	Mr. Doubles Cricket of whole league.
Brady Price	Menace to Sobriety	This season's new hero for Menace.
Alex Sarantos	Damn Yankees!!!	If only he could play more often…
Steve Tollerton	The Real DeCoys	Tolly really showed up in all 4 sets.

"G" Division
Sean Ackley	Designated Divers	12-1 or 13-1 in 3 sets is just awesome.
Robb Beeson	Off Constantly	Ex-state champ had best RDL record.
Jim Dunham	Where's the Bullseye	Not super, but decent for newcomers.
Hope Folsom	Money Shot	Dynamite singles, but meh in doubles.
Geoffrey Gilbert	No Maam	21-1 in cricket. I repeat: 21 and 1.
Jim Gotlibowski	Designated Divers	Gives Divers strong 1-2-3 punch.
Zak Mayhew	Off Constantly	Consistency carried team some weeks.
Jack McAlpin	Designated Divers	Overshadowed only by Ackley…

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections): With the return to eight-team schedules in four of our seven divisions this season, we had a revival of this category over several recent seasons. This season's top gun was clearly Brian Blake of The Shadows, compiling at least 11 wins in all four sets, and doing it in A division! Very impressive. Right behind Blake comes Sean Ackley of Designated Divers, who only rang up double digits in three sets, but did so with at least TWELVE wins in each of those sets (who needs 301 anyway?). Two more joined the club of quadruple-doubles to give us quite a top four: Wil Tan of Tossn Heads in A division, and Mike Raquet of Screamin' Meanies in E division. And seven honorable mentions (for three ten-win sets): Tom Brown of The Essential Elements in A, Mike Seward and Joey Gaglione of Tossn Heads in A, Bo Sosa of Nine Lives in B (in a 12-week season!), Randy Wilcox and Rob Radcliff of Team America in E, & Robert Morrill of The Hostile Amish in E.
-IronMan/Woman Award: Tough for a B, C, or D division player to win this one this season, with only twelve matches… Anyway, this season's Iron Woman Award goes to Laurie Rhea of Whompas in E division, with her relatively astonishing 66 games played this season. Honorable mentions go out to the Iron Men of the other seven divisions: Steve Witz of Tossn Heads in A with 60, David Romanchek of Nine Lives in B with 54, Brett Thompson of 3 Legged Dog in C with 51, Anthony Martin of Kozmic Debris in D with 52, Eric McCartney of Menace to Sobriety in F with 61, and Ronnie Knott of Board 2 Death in G with 58 games.
-The Team Attendance Award winners: This category was invented years ago when a team had six players that all played all the sets all the time. Sort of like they were a bunch of losers that NEVER had anything better to do on a Wednesday night… Well, with that in mind, this season's winning team is… MY TEAM!!! Yay! The Essential Elements had seven players, with the main six playing 50-59 games each, and the sub coming only occasionally.

MY SEASON, TOURNEY & PRESEASON PREDICTION RESULTS

Ok, so what we learned this season… #1 - I shouldn't have complained about getting only 71% right last season, as I got only 70.6% this season. Ugh. #2 - I should never even try to pick a Bennington Brawlers match. Seemingly pointless exercise for me. And #3 - It is always easier to get match predictions right in your own division. Three teams were able to fool me more often than not - of course, the Brawlers, but also Old School and the Starving Dartists. Another four let me hover at 0.500. The rest of you I own.

Now let's talk about those preseason predictions that I had back before the season. Or better yet, let's not… Those were pretty bad this time around. I told you that the Beer Bellies and Team America would roll in their divisions, and I told you about a lot of teams that would be contenders and were. But I didn't get any other division winner picks right, and I flat missed on the Cheap Shots and Got Pepsi? (I also missed on the Designated Divers, but new teams are almost impossible to call). And my best pick? Fired Up as the #2 C team. Oh yeah, that was a nice one. Thanks to John's bunch for making me look so "smart" (Reynolds is toast…).

And in the tournament? Pretty much the same pace as during the season, ending up at 34-12 (21-4 in the quarters, 11-3 in the semis, and a brutal 2-5 in the finals, although those are the toughest because the teams have to actually 'get' to the final match to win it). My Dark Horses fared ok, with three of the four losing in the semis; but my Sure Things were pretty strong, getting all of them on the money except for America's loss in the E final.

A few honorable mentions: Tossn Heads in A (probably the winners if they didn't split the season between two guys as the #6), The Replacements in A (who tailed off at the end, as they sort of, shall we say, lost interest…), Excalibur and Wallbangers in B, Got Pepsi? in C (who had sort of a similar path to the Element's), and Screamin' Meanies in E division.

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

(I introduced this page six seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...)

For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to call the RDL VoiceMail and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the four 'o' symbols indicate the teams for which I was only 0.500, and the three 'x' symbols indicate the teams that fooled me more often than not. [And for the 2nd season in a row, the Brawlers confused me the most...]

AWARD CHANGES FOR THE SPRING 2007 SEASON MORE HARDWARE TO BE HAD!!!

RDL members, the Board has spent some time recently examining ways to generate a little more excitement within the league, and also to recognize a few more people for their accomplishments. After some math based on the league's finances, the Board has decided to make two changes, effective with the coming season.

Change #1 - Fast Games and High Ins/Outs

Starting next season, there will be fast games and high ins and outs recognized in EVERY division. If we have seven divisions, we have seven different fast 301s, seven different High Outs, etc. (Ok, some of the awards may not end up "different" from each other, but they will at least be recognized within each division.) This means that many of you that are not accustomed to reporting fast games that are only "sort of" fast may need to get accustomed to it quickly.

Change #2 - Separation of Cricket and -01 All-Star Points

Starting next season, there will be separate awards for ASP average in cricket and -01. Each of these will be a Mug-winning category, and there will no longer be an "overall ASP average winner". I did not think to ask if one person actually gets two Mugs if they win both, but that can be one more thing the Board can work on, as the specifics of this change (do 1001 games count? what is the game minimum? etc.) are still being hammered out. The bottom line is that the only thing required of you is very minor - there will be -01 ASP Total and Ckt ASP Total columns on the back of the scoresheets.

For those that are curious what the statistical outcomes of this type of change will be, I have included to the right a column that I ran in the banquet Tons of the Spring, 1996 season (my first with the Tons). It easily illuminates the -01 vs. Ckt all-star point differences that most of us already readily acknowledge.

CONGRATS TO THE NEW (and old) STATE CHAMPS!

Full state league results on pages 14 and 15

For the second year in a row, the North Carolina City Dart League state championship has landed in Durham!! (I'm sort of partial to that team, I admit…) The Durham team is chock full of RDL members, with 11 of the 13 throwers included on RDL rosters. Check out this motley crew… (which won all 11 of its matches this year!)

ANOTHER LOCAL LEAGUE SEASON READY TO START

The Bull City Dart League in Durham concluded its Fall season this past Tuesday (congrats to my teammates and fellow RDL members Robbie Phillips, Mark Knight, Tom Brown, Paul Jacobi, and Dale Hyler on the victory!), and another is right around the corner. The BCDL uses rosters of 4-8 players, costs $20/player, and is a handicapped steel-tip league. Registration: Tue., Jan. 2, 7-9 p.m., Charlie's on Ninth St., Dur.

This analysis was included in the banquet edition of the Tons during my first season as statistician/editor. Guess I was a bit ahead of the curve, eh?

Sp96 - ANALYSIS OF TOP PLAYERS' ASP AVERAGES

Are most all-stars really thrown in cricket? What does the ASP award really reflect? Let's take a little closer look with the top 20 (above 1.000) all-star average throwers in the RDL season:

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

I've run this page in a few recent banquet Tons, and it seems to generate about the most interest/discussion. So, I've decided to open up my head again and see what falls out. Some of these observations are dart-related, and some of them clearly are not. As always, this is the last thing that I'm writing and it's late, so not even I know what's about to hit the page…

--Ok, so who saw that story recently about the guy who recited the number pi to 100,000 decimal places. He didn't read it… he recited it from memory. It took him all day, something like 16 hours or some stupid time. Never mind the amount of time that it took to actually recite the number; what I want to know is how much time was spent MEMORIZING it. One hundred thousand decimal places! Did I read it wrong? Did he not memorize it? Whatever, it makes no difference… I think I'm nominating this rather amazing feat for two honors: #1 - the biggest waste of time in the history of man, and #2 - the nerdiest feat in the history of man. Rarely do I use such stupid "guy" phrases as 'that guy needs a woman', but hey, if the shoe fits…

--Have you ever seen the movie Jason X? It is, I suppose, the tenth installment in the Jason slasher flick series. Well, I caught a short bit of it a couple weeks ago. The plot is something like 300 years in the future, and Jason has been cryogenically frozen, launched/lost/something, then found and, of course, thawed. He kills everything, but the part that struck me wasn't that he killed everybody, but that there isn't even any musical prelude or suspenseful soundtrack anymore. He just walks in the room, whack, blood. It takes, like, five seconds. What in the hl is the point? It's not scary, it's not well-written (rather obviously), and it's not even interesting in a how-bad-can-it-get way. Who paid for that garbage to be made? I give it negative four stars out of five…

--Turn to the G division stats (page 32). No, really, go ahead… I'll wait while you get that page and this one all lined up. Now go down to player G84, Jim Dunham of Where's the Bullseye. Jim was a so-so 14-18 in the final three sets of the match, but check out that 301 record. TWELVE and oh, baby! That boy has got doubles falling out of his pockets…

--On the outside of the building next to the one where I work at Duke is this sign: Smoking Absolutely Prohibited In This Area. Oh! It's "absolutely" prohibited?! Oh, well, I guess I won't smoke then. I was going to, because I thought it was just 'prohibited'. But since it's 'absolutely prohibited', I guess I won't.

--Ok, without perusing the rosters on pages 26-32, how many teams do you think have players that have listed a nickname? What are those nicknames? (Answer at bottom of this column.)

--I'm a Michigan fan (alumnus also), so all of the Buckeye fans out there are probably expecting something from me somewhere in this issue. So, here it is. First of all, my only real heartfelt opinion is that the B(owl) C(hampionship) S(eries) is just too frigging dumb. A playoff, please. But with that said, I think that Ohio State should just be given the trophy and be done with it. Michigan is the second best team, but I'm not a real big fan of a "rematch" scenario. If it had happened and Michigan won, I think the only right thing would have been for Carr to walk over to Tressel and offer a tiebreaker in Ann Arbor…

--Answer to nickname question: 11 teams. And the nicknames: Mo'Tea, Hooch, Jay T, Tex, Daddio, Bump, Tiny, Pepsi, Boy (yes, Boy), Tyke, Duck, Tolly, Mavis, Doc, Tex (yes, another one), and Jimmay. How many of those people do you know?

--How's this for accurate ad slogan writing? I'm listening to the radio the other day and an advertisement comes on for a local plastic surgery clinic. They're hyping BoTox gift certificates for the holidays. And the ad slogan? "Give a gift like no other!" Well, I've got to give it to them on that one… I really have found no gift quite like a needle full of poison in the face…

--I also heard an ad for a radio contest recently with a "prize like no other" if you ask me. It was a contest sponsored by Dixie Crystals sugar. The grand prize? A year's supply of Dixie Crystals sugar!!! WOW! That's gotta be worth, what, maybe six bucks or so?!

--One of my favorite things about the RDL VoiceMail system is the impersonal nature of it. Because captains know that they are just talking to a digital recording machine, they don't feel the same need to hold back that they might if they were talking to a person. They celebrate their teams, their victories, their jokes, etc. And some of them really get arrogant with their comments and guarantees. What, you ask, would I love about that? The part where two-thirds of those making the comments immediately go right in the tank and don't call back in for weeks. Makes me chuckle how certain some are of their own success, and when it doesn't happen, their memories get reeeeally short.

--I flew up to Michigan not all that long ago, and when I went I encountered the latest Homeland Security measures in place. I understand why I had to take off my coat and shoes and have them scanned, and I understand why they were checking inside every third or fourth bag when the scanner showed an object they couldn't recognize immediately. I even understand why I couldn't bring any liquids/gels/pastes larger than 3 ounces in my carry-on bag. But for the LIFE of me, I can NOT figure out the last rule: that all liquids/gels/pastes 3 ounces or smaller have to be in a ziplock bag. One person guessed that it was just to keep them together for quick scanning - not a bad guess, but why does it HAVE to be a zipped bag instead of a folded-over bag? Nope, gotta be a ziplock. Absolutely must be, or you have to throw it away. And the best part? Once you're through the scan/checkpoint, you can put your stuff wherever you want, ziplock or not. One of the employees even told me that at another airport where her friend works, they have ziplocks out for use, passengers use one, go through the line, take their stuff back out of the bag, and give it back. What the heck? That little bag feature added at least 10 minutes to the check-in line.

--So I'm sitting at the stoplight near my parking lot at Duke, and the woman in front of me is on her cell phone as we sit at the red light. The light turns green, and the woman on the phone (who is second in line) begins honking at the car in front of her to move! How dare that car not move, right? Well, maybe the AMBULANCE with lights and sirens blaring that was racing through the intersection had something to do with it. Woman on the phone? Too engrossed in her conversation to hear OR see it. That's it, people… Hang up the phone and drive. Do NOT try to tell me that it is just like talking to somebody in the car - it is not, plain and simple. They require very different types and amounts of attention, and if you are talking while you drive, you're putting me and my family at risk. Cut it the hell out!

--If you've seriously read all the way to here, please allow me to say 'thanks'. Writing the Tons can be a pain in the butt, but it can also be a lot of fun. And thanks again to John Guerriero and his message… He knows which one. Happy holidays, everyone.

The "I Never Like Playing Poorly, But I Don't Mind Playing Decently And Simply Being Beaten" Edition

TOURNAMENT WINNERS

"A" Division - The Shadows (13-7)

The Shadows add a Mug to their season title, in a match featuring five perfect throws, two outs from over 100, six 301 games of 15 or fewer darts, two singles cricket games of 21 or fewer darts, and two 501 games of 18 or fewer darts (out of the only three played).

"B" Division - Rebels Without A Cause (12+-12)

Fifth-week addition Scott Butters delivers the finish in 1001 in one of this season's most exciting finals. The Replacements only lost four times all season, but three of them were to the Rebels, who completed the regular season/tournament double.

"C" Division - Bag O' Nuts (14-10)

The Nuts end AADA's upset run amid an ever-present throng of adoring fans and onlookers (ok, so maybe those were the waiters and the waitresses on their way to and from the kitchen…).

"D" Division - Effects of the Influence (14-2)

I'm wondering if Jason Grannis came back from Wilmington for this final, the season's only true Mug match white-washing. The Effects beat their opponents by more each week of the tourney (?).

"E" Division - Rif Raf (13-5)

Once Rif Raf got past that weird funky stretch in weeks 8-10, they re-established their dominance quickly. They complete the season/ tournament double here without seeing 501 in the tournament.

"F" Division - Off Constantly (13-11)

After outlasting the Ducks by matching 15-9 scores during the season, Off Constantly had to do it one more time, this time coming down to the final set. They completed the season/tournament double in a match featuring a 14-dart SCkt game by Robb Beeson.

"G" Division - The Bogarts (12+-12)
