SPRING 2024 RDL DIVISIONAL TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

WINNING TEAM PHOTO GALLERY! ALL THE REASONS WE COME PLAY, RIGHT HERE... (photos continued on pg. 16) We got a few photos a couple years ago, and... it was kind of great.. So this was a little minor tradition that I certainly wanted to encourage, and I asked the teams going into the tournament finals to consider taking a team photo and sharing it with us. This is one of my favorite items here. (No player name legends for these, but I'm sure the people in the photos know who they are. Plus, it's really about 'team' happiness anyway.)

SPRING 2024 PENALTY SUMMARY

Another season will almost no penalties! To be fair, we had no election ballots and no fifth week captains' meeting, so two of the most global sources were off the table this time around, but this is still a tiny penalty list even in light of that. Leaguewide, we had only THREE penalties for the entire season, and they were garnered by only two teams. All of A, B, C, D and F divisions were penalty-free, and the three penalties we did have were all for late scoresheets (for a total loss of 48 points). Dart Side in E got one, with no effect on the E standings, so it's Killer Dee's in G who were this season's biggest penalty losers. The Dee's got two penalties for a total of 32 points, and dropped from 3rd to 4th. The Dee's actually would have been only 4 points out of 2nd, which they could've erased with just one more doubles against Bottoms Up in week 12. Eek.

SPRING 2024 TIEBREAKER SUMMARY

A lot more tiebreaker drama this season! 42 (40 during the season, 2 in in the tournaments)! B, C and E were particularly extra leg drama heavy. B and E each had 10, C had 9 (with 1 in the postseason), D had 6 (with 1 in the postseason), G had 4, F had only 2, and A had only 1 (which was, of course, between Element and The Bullies, yet again).

While 6 teams played three tiebreakers, there were also 6 that had four each, all in B, C and E divisions (Inconsistently Consistent, Trips Are For Kids, Double In Stumble Out, Hump Day!, Shooter McGavin, and Bangin The Wire). So they can all share the Cardiac Kids award, I guess. The Heartbreak Award certainly goes to Hump Day!, as not only were they the only team to lose three, but one of those was a tourney loss.

HIT A NEWLY ADDED SUMMER BLIND DRAW? UPPER DECK

As in many previous years, throughout the summer break the Upper Deck will be adding a weekly Wednesday blind draw for all those who just want to keep their regular dart night out rolling through the break. 8 pm start, just like normal Deck Fridays.. And they'll be adding a double shot as well, so head on over!

OR MAYBE YOU WANT TO ADD ANOTHER LEAGUE?

Looking to add a second league this coming season? Not all of them are perfectly aligned for immediate signups, but some are! And they're all pretty cool, so give them a look. Check in on the websites listed below periodically to get the most updated information for this and other upcoming seasons.

Brass Tap & Billiards Summer League!!

Taylor Caldwell, RDL's own League Treasurer, will once again be hosting a summer league at Brass Tap & Billiards (3316 Capital Boulevard, in the Starmount Shopping Center). $20 per person, and the "draft" will be held May 22nd (probably with a blind draw following). Play will start May 29th and run through July 24th. There's a cap of 48 regular players, with 8 players per team, but they've now added a "substitute player" system as well. Email Taylor (info on page 8) to sign up and arrange payment (also send her your current RDL division).

Triangle Dart League (TDL - Chapel Hill & Durham) You have a bit more time to jump over to the TDL. Registration for their Fall season will be held on Thursday, July 18th at 7pm, at The Tavern in downtown Durham. Play will begin on August 1st. The teams in TDL consist of 6-10 players per team, and dues are $20/player per season (I think). Recent seasons have used bars in both Chapel Hill and Durham, but I suspect that might vary a bit each season, based on team preferences and signups. Check www.ibiblio.org/ncdarts/tdl/ for updates.

Bull City Dart League (BCDL - Durham)

You also have quite a bit of time if you happen to be interested in trying out one of the very few handicapped steel-tip leagues anywhere, maybe the BCDL is in your future. The next season will not register until August, but that just means you have lots of time to set up your new roster. Teams in the BCDL have 4-8 players, dues are $25 per player per season (some of the host establishments cover half or all of those, so maybe ask around), and the home bars are primarily in RTP and the downtown Durham area. The best information (and any updates in the coming weeks) can be found at:

www.thebcdl.org That website also includes a wealth of information about the league and its rules, so if you're just interested in seeing how the league applies a handicap system to a steel-tip league, you can find all of that there, including rules, statistics, and scoresheet examples.

American Dart League (ADL - many area locations) The ADL is actually a compilation of many singles and team leagues, hosted on Mondays, Tuesday, Thursdays, and/or Sundays. Leagues are smaller (4-12 individuals or teams per league), and are run at Bud's Tavern, Benny's Billiards, Back Then Bar and Grill, Big Daddy's, both Cleveland Draft Houses, among others (each league is housed fully within its particular host establishment). Full listings of where and when each league is being played can be found in their multiple posts in the RDL Facebook group, and you can send them a Facebook direct message if you are interested in signing up.

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page. "A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs

"C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs

"E, F" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "G" = 2.5 or more ASPs Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).

Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

QUICK STAT TIDBITS

-The Quadruple Double Award winners (double-digit wins in all 4 sections): With only three divisions playing with a bye, I thought we might get a handful with 10+ wins in every set in any of B, E, F or G divisions. But nope, this was still a pretty dang exclusive club this season. In the end, there were five players earning Honorable Mention with not just 9+ wins in every set, but also 10+ in three of them. Will Bennett of Trips Are For Kids did it in B division, Chad Clark and Guy Howes of Zero Dart Ton 80 did it in F division, and Mike Raquet of That's What She Said did it in G division. And outdoing those four and taking the top Honorable Mention spot is Pat Gibson of The Bullies, who did it in A division in only a 12-match season. Which brings us to our lone true member of the Quadruple Double Club this season: Rob Ehrmann of Killer Dee's in G division! And while Ehrmann's team did have 14 matches, he himself missed week 13 (and then sat a set in week 14), so he only had 12-13 shots in each set! -IronMan/Woman Award: Three divisions (A, C, D) only played 12 matches, so obviously they're going to lag behind in this category unless something crazy happens. And things held to form... This season's IronMan is Donald Marler of The Dartifacts in F division with 66 games played. The honorable mentions for other division leaders included: Pat Gibson of The Bullies in A, with 49; Will Bennett of Trips Are For Kids in B, with 59; Ronnie Knott of Shooter McGavin in C, with 52; Dustin Jones of Reload in D, with 49; Garv Burney of Cheap Shots in E, with a stout 63; and Mark Boudreaux of 21 Dart Salute in G, with 57. Dang, some pretty top end throwers in that group - pretty often "guys playing every set" are passed by "guys on shorthanded teams." -The Team Attendance Award winners: Alright, really nobody came close tc the six-thrower ironman standard this season. The closest we had was four teams who relied solely on seven throwers throughout the season. There were two in C (The Outlaws, Shooter McGavin) and two in F (Rippin Darts, Nein Mark). All four teams used everyone pretty extensively (or dropped to shorthanded sometimes), so these are all just kinda Honorable Mentions this time.

MY PRESEASON, WEEKLY, & TOURNEY PREDICTION RESULTS

As usual, I'm left with the option of trying to bluff my way through this part, or just telling the truth. And since I know some of you squirrel away every last thing I've ever written about your team, I will again give real results... bummer. Sometimes these results can border on embarrassing...

In my preseason picks (usually the toughest every season given imminent roster changes/additions), I had quite a bit of success. Almost nailed A fully, with just the bottom two flipped. Also almost nailed B, but I had Consistent on top of the heap instead of in 3rd. In C division, I overestimated Sanchez, and I had McGavin down in 3rd. As for D, I definitely had the Village Idiots and Red-eye Rangers too low. Then E was one of my worst divisions, as I had Possee down in 3rd, I oversold the Cheapies, and I undersold the Corkers. In F, I was close with all but two teams - I way oversold Triple Shot, and I didn't know the new Zero Dart team had such good shots. And then G was decent, with Vader being better than I expected and the Knights being quite a bit worse.

My weekly prediction results you can peruse pick-for-pick on the other side of this sheet of paper. As noted on that page, I owned most of you again this season!! Only three teams fooled me more often than not (and not by much), and only C and E fell down toward the 60% correct rate (while I rocked a 70-90% win rate in all the others). In the end, I posted a 255-93 final record for over a 73% correct hit rate. Been living beyond that 70% line for a while now...

Last but not least were my tournament predictions... Often when we jump to best-of-3, my picks get stronger, despite the fact that I'm picking semifinals and finals that I conceivably could have wrong before the matches are even played. This season, I started out strong, but kinda limped to the finish. After starting 21-4 in the quarterfinals (with the other three semifinalists advancing via byes), I posted a decent 9-5 record in the semifinals. But then I only got 2 of the 7 Mug winners correct. Ugh! That still leaves me at 32-14 (which is about 70% correct, even with having to pick rounds in advance), but I've done better in several recent seasons. Decent, just not super crushing here.

JK'S TEAM-BY-TEAM, WEEK-BY-WEEK MATCH PREDICTION RESULTS

(I introduced this page thirty-nine seasons ago, and it has become almost expected as a newsletter staple. Feast your eyes on the success...) For several years, many of you have taken no greater pleasure in your weekly darting endeavors than to email or text me and point out to me just how wrong I was in my prediction of your match result. On a related note, I have noticed that many of you seem to have relatively selective memories saving only the weeks when I was wrong. Further, many others of you regularly embellish your statistics of how often you fool me. It's not so easy to get away with those rambles anymore, however, as you can see below. Each W is a week when I picked your match correctly, and each L is one I picked incorrectly. Division totals are to the right of the team totals, weekly totals are at the bottom, and in the space between the 14 weeks and the team totals, the one 'o' symbol indicate the team for which I was only 0.500, and the three 'x' symbols indicate the teams that fooled me more often than not. [Ok, nobody really got away from me by the end of the season. I started out pretty badly with a couple, but I fought back to nearly respectable with those. And I owned a bunch of teams. So very nearly more, as I lost soooo many 12-12 and 13-11 outcomes. - JK]

THIS SEASON'S TRIVIA QUESTIONS... REVISITED

I now run this column during seasons in which I've included trivia questions all season. Each question is listed exactly as it was during the season, so there is potential for a question to now be out of date, but it's usually not too much of a problem. Each question is listed under the week number when it ran, and the answers follow the questions. No peeking...

Week 7 question(s): This is our 6th season since the league play resumed after the Covid-19 pandemic. And not everything is the same in terms of teams that are here, or the consistency that some teams have. In light of that, how many teams have played all six post-Covid seasons with their same team name? How many of those continued as the same from before the pandemic break?

Week 8 question(s): Let's keep with the Covid break for one more here... In the 12 months before Covid kicked us to the curb in March 2020, 31 different establishments hosted RDL matches. How many of those 31 were not used in our return season of Fall 2021? How many of those missing in Fall 2021 have returned in the time since? And how many others are completely new to the league since Fall 2021? Can you name any in each category?

Week 9 question(s): Let's build on the home establishment front... In my 55 seasons as the statistician, how many different establishments have hosted RDL matches? What is the average number of seasons each has been part of the league? [I will run a page listing the most recent season of participation for each in next week's issue. I think most of you will be a little amazed...]

Week 10 question: (This is one requested by league member Robbie Phillips a handful of seasons ago, and I just never used it until now) What is the fewest number of darts that you can throw in a game of 501, with every turn totaling a prime number, and without hitting any single target (e.g., single-19) more than once? (and both single beds for any number count as just one target) [Yes, Robbie is a math nerd like me. He's just cooler about it.]

Week 11 question: In light of the stunning NCAA tournament run by the ACC champion North Carolina State Wolfpack (and I mean the men here, because the women reaching the same point has been way less "stunning"... and also, they weren't actually the ACC champs)... In my 54 seasons as the RDL statistician [Spring 1996 through Fall 2023], what team was the lowest seed to win a divisional tournament, and in what division? (And by "low seed," I of course mean lower-ranked team, not the lower seed number.)

Week 12 question: (Even though we have run versions of this one in Sp2023, and before that in Sp2011, I had a reader request for this one again) What is the worst single-season correct pick record I've had for a team (since Fa2003, the first season when we started keeping full team-by-team week-by-week pick records)?

Week 13 question: (another one by request, this time from Kevin Scott, who is one of our big fans of the math-style or puzzle-style trivia questions) How many distinct ways are there to take out 50, including one-dart, two-dart, and three-dart options? (and changed dart order does not count as different - e.g., s10/s8/d16 is the same as s8/s10/d16)

Week 14 question: (Let's update a question that we have run a few times over the years... well, decades now... that we last ran in the Fall 2016 season, I think) What is the greatest number of 1001s a team has played in a season (plus tournament)? (And as per usual, I can only answer this from Spring 1996 forward, as that is the amount of time I have been the statistician. League records before that point in time were, shall we say, a bit less granular.)

Week 7 answers : Of our 53 current teams, only 21 have played with the same team name in all six post-Covid seasons (The Bullies, Lunatic Fringe, and Why So Serious? in A division; One Armed Bandits and Nine Lives in B division; Darty Sanchez, Hump Day!, Off Constantly-Reboot, Menace 2 Sobriety, and Rif Raf in C div.; DD-214, Sharky's Machine, and Red-eye Rangers in D division; Cheap Shots, Death Throw, Dart Side of the Moon, and Bangin(g) the Wire in E division; Sofa Kings and Shark Shooters in F division; and The Neighborhood Dart Knights and We're Sexy & We Throw It in G division). All but three of those (The Bullies, Off ConstantlyReboot, and Dart Side of the Moon) also played under the same name before the Covid-19 pandemic as well.

Week 8 answers: Oops, first thing... there were 33 establishments in the prior 12 months, not 31. 21 were in all of Sp19, Fa19, and Sp20; 5 were in two of those three seasons; 7 were in only one of the three. And the actual answers... only 21 of those 33 were used in Fa21, with only 2 of the lost 12 returning at all since (The Big Easy; and Triple Barrel Tavern Fuquay, which came back for only one season). And we've had five brand new ones since: Benny's Billiards, D's Bottle Shop, London Bridge, Lonerider, & Oaklyn Springs Brewery.

Week 9 answers : Alright, you ready for this crazy answer? And before you ask, yes, I've already combined the data for bars that were a progression of places (e.g., Playtime Billiards / Harrison's / Train Station / Neighborhood), treating progressions like that as a single establishment (doing that for 13 different places). And even with those all collapsed into single entries, in my 55 seasons, there have been... ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-FOUR host establishments! Yes, 134. That is an astonishing number, no? And the average for those 134 is 10.2 seasons in the league. Only four have been in the league in all my 55 seasons: High Park Bar & Grille, Sharky's Place, Snooker's-Ridgewood, and The Upper Deck. [On page 6 of the week 10 Tons during this Spring 2024 season, I included a table of all 134 establishments, indicating the most recent season of participation for each, listed most recent to oldest. Due to its size, we will not recreate that here in the banquet issue, so look back to that issue if you are interested in seeing it.]

Week 10 answer: Well, we all know that it isn't possible to throw 501 in fewer than 9 darts, without restrictions. But 9 requires multiple hits of the high-value targets. Beyond that, we also know that the answer can't be 10, because a one-dart finish turn would mean that you didn't throw a prime value for that turn (for that same reason, the answer could never be 13 darts, 16 darts, or any number that ends with a one-dart turn). We also know that the answer can't be any value in an even-numbered turn, as an odd number of prime number turns will always leave an even number (and taking out an even number would mean that turn wasn't a prime number, so it could never be 10/11/12 or 16/17/18 darts, etc.). So at this point we are already left with only 14, 15, 20, 21 as candidates. And it turns out the answer is... 14 darts. There are several ways to do it, but one example would be: t20/t19/d25 = 167 leaving 334; t17/t16/d20 = 139 leaving 195; t18/t15/d16 = 131 leaving 64; t13/s7/s1 = 47 leaving 17; s13/d2 = 17 leaving 0 (so, turns of 167, 139, 131, 47, 17). [Congrats to Matt Heimbach & Gerald Updyke on nailing this one!]

Week 11 answer: Of the 391 divisional tournaments in that span (which of course does not include 7 Sp20 divisions that were cut off before reaching the tournaments), 362 were won by teams that were #1 to #4 seeds. Which means that 29 teams came through as pretty big upset winners. 14 times a #5 seed brought home Mugs, 11 times a #6 seed brought home Mugs, and FOUR times a #7 seed was the tournament champ. (A #8 seed has not won during my tenure, but 168 of those 391 divisions didn't even have an 8th team.) The four #7 seed tournament champions were: Excalibur of Fa13's B division, Dublin Dublout of Sp13's C division, Flying Aces of Sp99's D division, and the Mac Daddy upsetter of all time, the Bad News Beers of Sp06's G division (the only #7 seed champ from a 7-team division, meaning they are the only last-place regular season team to claim Mugs - but to be fair, they had "forfeited & penaltied" themselves from 6th place down to 7th; so, only kinda "last-ish"). Sidebar extra answer tidbit: Of those 29 #5-to-#7-seed winners,

7 were in B division, 6 were in C, 5 were in D, 1 was in E, 4 were in F, Trivia answer portion continued on page 14...

YET ANOTHER AMAZING ACHIEVEMENT BY ONE OF OUR OWN

Nope, he's not an active member this season, but that's only because he has decided to devote even MORE time to top-end dart competition... but we still absolutely claim Alex Spellman (most recently of The Bullies just last season) among our RDL family. And he just went up to the Championship Darts Circuit "Cross Border Challenge" and friggin' went off!! The Challenge is an annual event pitting eight of the top American throwers (this year featuring Doug Boehm, Jason Brandon, Stowe Buntz, Larry Butler, Leonard Gates, Danny Lauby, Alex Spellman, and Jules Van Dongen) against eight of the top Canadian throwers (this year featuring Sylvain Bourdeau, David Cameron, Jim Long, Jake MacMillan, John Part, Jacob Taylor, Steve Warnock, and Keith Way). The event was held on April 12th and 13th in Indiana, and very quickly became a bit of a Spellman Invitational this year. Spellman played in what I believe was the very first match of the event against Sylvain Bourdeau, and after building a modest 3-legs-to-2 lead, Spellman added his name to a very illustrious list. Spellman led off the sixth leg with a pretty little 180. Then he followed that with... another 180. And then... triple-20... triple-19... double-12!!! A live broadcast 9-darter in one of the CDC's showcase events!! (see top right photo for the moment he buried it; and look how interested Bourdeau was... he celebrated more than Alex did!) The crowd went absolutely nuts, as would be expected (see lower right photo, including a running round of high fives). Want to watch it yourself? Well, you're in luck. Here are two links to it (the first is the more "official" angle, and the second is one featuring fan/crowd cheering/footage): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wuJScD9mYaY https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sDMgWP07Yb4

And how did the rest of the tournament go, you ask? Well, Spellman completed the 5-2 win over Bourdeau, then he took out Keith Way with another 5-2 score in the quarterfinals, followed by a 6-5 win over Jake MacMillan in the semifinals. And in the finals, Spellman just kept on rolling, eking out a 7-6 win over David Cameron for the title!! Spellman posted a 93.44 scoring average for the event that was at least 2.78 higher than all other players except one who dropped his match in the opening round. A win for the US side, a win for Spellman, and another little step into the American darting history books.

4 were in G, and 2 were in H. None were in A division. Actually, in A, there have only been three #3s and one #4 during my tenure.

Week 12 answer: (much of which was pulled from the Sp2023 answer because it is still accurate) In the 39 seasons contained within this question, there were 2227 teams, with 2 of them having never played (leaving 2225 teams). And my average correct pick rate is about 72% per team. But there have been 9 teams (sort of) that fooled me at such an alarming rate that I actually got at least 72% wrong for those teams (Double In, Uber Out almost became the 10th last season). I say "sort of" because 4 of those 9 teams did not play complete seasons. One team, The Groupers from Sp19's H div., folded after one match, so I was 0-1. Then three teams from the abbreviated Sp20 Covid season (C div.'s Projectile Dysfunction, D div.'s Sharky's Machine, and D div.'s Hump Day!) fooled me in 6, 7 and 6 matches, respectively, but we all know I would've figured that trio out! Which leaves the 4 real kings of confusing me... The first 3 here all fooled me 9 of 12 weeks: Modena of Fa03's E div., Bennington Brawlers of Sp06's F div., and Sharky's Machine (again!) of Sp15's C div. And then there was the Fa13 B division version of Overtime Outlaws, who fooled me a huge 10 of 13 times (thankfully, they forfeited in wk13, after I had endured a 9-match wrong streak!). [Answer update for the banquet Tons: Nobody this season even came close to making this list... Shooter McGavin's 5-7 record was alone as the season's lowest.]

Week 13 answer: When Kevin asked me for this question, I knew the answer would be kind of a lot, but I had NO idea how big the answer actually was. Once I figured out how to solve it well, and then did the calculations, I was flat-out stunned by how many ways there actually are to take out 50. In the end, there are... (are you ready for this?)... 468 ways to take out 50. That's FOUR HUNDRED SIXTY-EIGHT! Not a typo. (For those who don't believe me, or who just want to see, I created a full one-page table of the answers. Just email me if you're a nerd like me and you want a copy.)

Week 14 answer: In the nearly eight years since we last visited this category, we have had five teams (only one of them since the Sp19 season) find themselves in five 1001s during a single season+ tournament span. And those five join the prior thirteen teams over the years that played five tiebreakers, with all eighteen of them tied for second place. That one team sitting above them is Constantly Corked from Spring 2012's B division, who lived through a stunning SIX tiebreaker legs (going 3-3, including a 1001 loss in the B tourn. semifinal). Related side note... that same team also posted one of the eighteen 2nd place totals just 4 seasons later. Drama city with those guys. [Answer update for the banquet Tons : Inconsistently Consistent could have joined this record if they had won one more doubles in the B final. But in the end, they finished with the same four-tiebreaker total as five other teams this season.]

THANK YOU, MARK MILLIUS OF DART SIDE OF THE MOON

Sometimes it's the little things that are what I notice as awesome. Entering week 14, the E division Fast 301 lead was shared by SIX people (Adam Barnes, Olivia Mathews, Chris Moody, Ryan Bathurst, Steve Witz and Sean Bosier) with 15 darters. Then Millius waltzes in with a slick little 14-darter. You know how much money Millius saved the league in award costs by not missing for just one more dart?! Gotta love that.

SOME BAR INFO FOR FUTURE SEASONS

Quick note to captains / bar reps / team members / anyone with information about your establishment. If there is anything at all noteworthy that should be considered when the Board is scheduling tournament matches, PLEASE let the Board know. Unable to open/ staff by 7 pm? Closing by midnight or earlier? Closing your kitchen (or drinks, gasp!) early on Wednesdays? Let the Board know and let's save us all some headaches later. // We actually received a couple helpful notes from captains this season during the tourneys. Please know the Board takes those very seriously, and your input might help shape future match assignments. [Please also note that "we don't like driving over there" or "that's too far from where I live" does not carry the same weight as actual commentaries on the dart area, etc. Only fully eligible establishments are considered, and that includes the ones that don't happen to be near you personally.]

LOOKING FOR SUMMER DARTS?

Did you happen to see the listings of summer offerings on page 7? There are leagues and blind draws there (and also in the page 8 calendar listings), but there are also a lot of tournaments within driving distance. Most importantly, the Wreck at the Deck returns this year, right here in Cary! But there are also several additional options in NC/SC/TN that aren't too far out of reach. Check out the Central Virginia Classic, the Firecracker Open, the Charlotte Open, the Music City Classic, or the Semper Fi Classic. Fliers for all six of those can be found on pages 20-22 of this newsletter, and definitely note that the Charlotte Open (July 7th-9th) also hosts the 2024 ADO Masters Nationals starting on Friday morning! Also note that one of the summer dart leagues is registering pretty imminently, so you should act quickly if you are interested in joining them this time around (see "Brass Tap" on page 7).

[Like the last many seasons, we used three-song groups each week and also included a theme each and every week. Added a layer to the game for everybody and has been quite popular. Here are the themes for each week, including the week 14 fifteen-song set that actually brought in three nearly complete (Pete Rutten, Matt Heimbach) to fully complete (Jerry Shengulette) answer sets! - JK] Week 2 theme: The entire week 2 update/reminder/story about what a scorekeeper can and can not say when asked a question by the thrower. Week 3 theme: This one was all about Reload moving from Good Times Arcade, which is closing, to... roughly the same bar, with the same owners, just across the street in their brand new establishment. Week 4 theme: That week's matches fell on February 14th. You know... Valentine's Day. So some silly, sappy love songs were obviously the order of the day. Week 5 theme: What was supposed to be my day as a pirate with my post-cataract surgery eye patch last Wednesday (turned out to be a little less pirate-y, sigh). Week 6 theme: Clearly, this set is about therapists (doctors) interpreting dreams. Right? Right? Of course it was actually my cataract surgery... Duh. Week 7 theme: Doing nothing, having nothing, emptiness... this set is about... nothing. Yep, this week nothing is everything. Week 8 theme: On the surface, it's obviously boy bands from the (mostly) '90s. But really, this is a set of bands that people think are somewhat silly, but are popular anyway. And the most remarkable part? I've included 1181 lyric quiz entries over the years [at this point in time], with 36 of them being used a second time, so there had been 1145 unique songs. And not one of them had ever been from any of these bands. Week 9 theme: It's all about this being the time. They basically gave me two new eyes, and it feels like the time that is on my side has certainly come today, and I am even more committed to having the time of my life than I was before now. And I was already pretty committed. Week 10 theme: This one was a tribute to the trivia question about the history of our league's home bars. That question was all bars, and thus, so was this lyric set. Week 11 theme: The NC State Wolfpack's extended basketball tournament run. They just kept staying alive, lingering around as one of the Week 12 theme: This was all about those feline artists. Yeah, yeah, Leppard is their own special spelling. teams still in, continuing that climb. Week 13 theme: After a week with artists named in some fashion for cats, I kinda just HAD to go with this set so I didn't offend the other half of the pet folks, didn't I? Week 14 theme: Songs with celestial bodies or things in space in them (ordered loosely from the Sun outward).

WHAT DOES YOUR TEAM THINK OF YOU?

Is it something kind of awesome, or do they just kind of accept you? In the case of Evan McMillan of Bottoms Up, I guess it turns out they think he's something kind of awesome. Awesome enough that I had a direct request to include an item here to let him know how much they appreciate him. From the sounds of it, real life has been a bit of a rough go lately for McMillan and his family, and despite that it appears it was his own personal dedication to the team and their night out that kept everything together. And after seasons of sort of floundering around in G, they are now looking at a climb to F to go with their recently earned Mugs! So, Mr. McMillan... just know that your team appreciates whatever the heck you have been doing for them. (Or maybe they're just enjoying the team's new leadership style?! Might not be quite as cute, but I'm guessing it has been a little more organized and possibly a touch less goofy...)

ONE OF MY PERSONAL DARTCONNECT CONCERNS...

... came to life in the A div. final. The technology of DartConnect and its utility are undeniable, but there are little differences between it and regular scoreboard chalking that just necessitate a different type of attention at times. And one of those for me personally is the lack of names at the top of the board unless you stop and enter them individually. You just have to kinda 'know' which side you're on (because the switch of the white background behind the current thrower's running total is a bit subtle at times). And quick confusion on that had one of my teammates thinking he was down 502-500 instead of ahead, with game shot in hand. Worked out ok, but that brief little lack of recognition (which likely wouldn't have happened on a board with team names jotted at the top) is still a hurdle with the tech for me (and seemingly for others too - even if they use it often.)

As noted on page 4, we've continued our recent little tradition of encouraging tournament-winning teams to submit team photos from their victorious evening. Great to share in the moment and save that memory. (No player name legends for these, but I'm sure the people in the photos know who they are. Plus, it's about 'team' happiness anyway.)

A division regular season and tournament champions -Element XL!! (complete with Dart Duck)

D division tournament champions - DD-214!!

Yes, pg. 7 is correct. The Neighborhood is no more. Contentious battle with the city over land. Sad for the dart league, for sure.

DOES YOUR TEAM HAVE A MASCOT?

And no, I don't mean your buddy who you like to make fun of... (and is likely the same guy that you report to me at the preseason captains' meeting every season when I ask if you have females on your roster). I mean a non-team member (be it live, or stuffed... or some dorky guy who follows you guys around like a groupie). Well, before this season, Element has never had one in its 21-year existence. But now we do!! On the day of one of my eye cataract surgeries

(when I obviously wasn't at our match), some of the Element guys found their way over to a claw game machine. A few minutes and just a few bucks later, Allen Smith had reeled in what immediately became the Element Dart Duck! Then Kenny Persson took him home and decked him out in a time-marking shirt and an eye patch to match my post-surgery pirate look! Persson even tagged the eye patch with an XL for this season's Element name. The Dart Duck has been joining us at matches ever since (see team tourney photo below). And just now it hit me... aside from "Dart Duck" our guy doesn't have a true name yet. Hmmm....

PEOPLE ASK ME WHAT IT'S LIKE...

... to be part of the fantastic (and historic) Element-Bullies matchup. And this past Wednesday one of my teammates inadvertently summed it up pretty perfectly. He said "dang, I didn't play badly at all, man... I just didn't win." Yep, that's how it is, over and over and over for 'somebody from either team' in most sets, and with that line coming from multi-time state (or even national) champions.

> C division tournament champions - The Outlaws!! (complete with the Incredible Missing Murray...)

F division tournament champions - Rippin Darts!!

THE HISTORY OF "ELEMENT", THE RDL'S LONGEST-STANDING DOMINANT TEAM

Ok, so... people ask me pretty often about my team, how we ended up together, how we stay together, how many wins we have... just whatever. Because the simple fact is that my team's success has made us very visible in the newsletter for a very long time. It's weird to write about my own team, but if this was anybody else's team that had put together this history, I would have written about it a long time ago.

Also, it has been very interesting over the years to hear people tell me things about my own team, how we do things, what we have and haven't done, etc. A lot of times they are either passing on an ever-less-accurate story that has come down the grapevine, or they are purely fabricating for their own reasons. Either way, the stories make me chuckle, and I often just nod and smile.

This being Element's 40th season (covering 21 years due to the loss of a year to the Covid-19 pandemic), it seemed like a decent time to tell the full story (and also set the record straight in some cases, I bet). So here's the story, from before Element even came together, to today.

At the start of 1995, Tom Brown and I were recruited to our first season in RDL with Pig Tour 95. Keith Wall played his first season with Pigs that spring as well, and things went great (an A divison season/tournament double in our first season here, with really only six of us on the team!). Then in the second season of 1995, we added a few people and that went 'mostly' well. We won more Mugs, but there was a guy (I'm not opposed to calling him out, Dan Bass) who our captain refused to get rid of before the Sp96 season. I fully admit that I've called him Basshole for nearly three decades now, and Brown and I decided to leave Pig Tour solely because of him being there.

Brown, being an absolute dart monster, was welcomed to Lunatic Fringe with open arms, where he was one of the primary forces behind a 15-season run that included 13 regular season and 10 tournament titles. I, meanwhile, quickly put together a team of very nice people from Durham that could fairly be described as a wild hodgepodge of old and young, talented and terrible, dedicated and slack, all at the same time. They put us in D division, and... we rolled. They moved us to C, we lost one of our two best players when he moved away, and... we still rolled. So we moved up to B in the spring of '97, and at that time several of our lesser players decided they wanted no more part of it. We didn't win B, but we still moved up as the 2nd place team, and thus the only three-season foray outside of A in my RDL career was over.

My lovable band of misfits was then able to keep our spot in A with, wait for it... yep, still me as the best player. No, really. Turns out I used to be pretty decent at this when I played a lot more. The very next season in Sp98 was the first move toward what would eventually become Element, as we added Dale Hyler and Wil Tan, and we finished 2nd(!) in A, ahead of the historic Dart Shadows and So What (often playing as Industrial Strength). The additions of Hyler and Tan had made us relevant! Tan played one more season with us before flipping over to Industrial Strength, but Dale Hyler and I employed a rotating cast of buddies to keep ourselves in the middle of A for many seasons, even adding Mike Seward for quite a while starting in Fall 2000.

Lisa Shpritz (many-time state champion now living in Charlotte) joined Hyler and me in Sp2001, and then in Fa2002, Allen Smith, Robb Beeson, and a very young Robbie Phillips signed on with us for a season each (Smith and Phillips didn't play at all the next season, and Beeson played with Industrial and Wil Tan in Sp2003). We were, however, able to replace them with Mark Knight and Wade Moricle for that Sp2003 season though.

Then, in the summer of 2003 is when everything changed... Hyler, Knight, Shpritz, Moricle and I knew that we were sticking together. But that was only five of us. In conversations with some others who had been playing with us on the Durham City Cup team, we all sorta decided that it would be great to just make a league team that mirrored our City team in a pretty heavy fashion. My old Pig Tour 95 teammates Tom Brown and Keith Wall, along with Joe Gaglione, all decided that they wanted something different after playing with Fringe together. Wil Tan decided to return to us from Industrial's roster, and Robbie Phillips decided to rejoin us after a season away from RDL. And since we were picking up players off two other top teams, we called ourselves The Subversive Element. We thought it would be fun and we would be pretty decent. Turns out, it went WAY better than even we expected! Regular season and tournament champions in A! Holy crap, how did that happen? The next season, Phillips went away to school and Hyler had to start a year off for work, and all we added was John Riner as a pure sub. And... it somehow still worked!! What the heck was going on? Were we really on to something?

So the roster slowly evolves from here forward, and I'm not going through the very boring season-by-season detailing of each separate change. But I will highlight who did join and how they came to us, because one of my favorite comments from division opponents is when another player gets good and they say "well, you guys will just pick him up anyway." Which is... mostly has been a group of our friends, who often do lots of other stuff together outside of darts, and I've made a pointed effort to not recruit from our opposition. This despite the fact that for years I've watched and heard many opposing captains recruit our players, at our matches, right in front of us. Ha! 29 total people have ever thrown a dart for Element - the original 10, and 19 who joined us somewhere over the next 39 seasons. The first 10 you already saw above... John Riner joined us for 7 seasons, as he was our teammate in Durham. Jerry Oakley and Randy Umstead each were out of the league and had a friend on the team, playing 4 and 3 seasons, respectively. Our old teammate Mike Seward came back for 2 seasons when he wanted a break from Fringe. Jeremiah Millar was on the team for 3 seasons after playing one season with Brian Blake's team that left him unhappy with the other teams' impressions of him and his teammates. Jeremy Dziczkowski played one season in E when he joined the RDL, but he immediately wanted a jump to A and he was playing with us in Durham at the time. Jon Kenney's team was falling back to B after one season in A, and he really didn't want to go down, at exactly the time that Dale Hyler was finally really moving away for work, so Kenney played with us for 10 seasons before moving away himself. Allen Smith came back to us as a part-time sub for three years before really joining us in a fuller capacity. Robb Beeson came back to my teams after being out of RDL for a while, and has played two couple-year-long stints with us. Chad Massengill joined us when a 'super-team' that invited him to play fell apart the day of registration leaving him with no team at a time when we needed a player. John Kramer joined when a Brian Blake-led team of which he was supposed to be a part never materialized (without notice, and giving us our 3rd post-Blake-issue player, which is kinda nuts). Paul Jacobi wanted to stop being a captain and he was our teammate in two other leagues, so he was an obvious add. Alberto Sandoval was another guy who joined because his team was falling out of A and he wanted to stay. Joe Work was on a team in C and B but wanted to test himself in A, so he asked if we had a spot, and we did (although he did leave after 1 season). John Carroll was the closest thing we've ever had to a guy we recruited off another team, as some conversations just led to him switching over to our team. Randy Massengill is Chad's dad, so, duh. Stevie Phillips is Robbie's brother, so, duh again. Kenny Persson is our longtime teammate in other leagues, golfing and football buddy, and his team didn't list him much for some reason, so he was super stoked to join a team that would. And then our most recent addition, Ross Minty, is Stevie's best darting friend, and they both needed a home when Brown's closed. And... that's all of us. Geez, that's a lot of nefarious and dirty recruiting, right? :o)

exactly NOT what we have done for any part of Element's history. Our roster

In the end, Tom Brown and I have played all 40 seasons. Wil Tan has played 39, Robbie Phillips has played 38, Allen Smith has played 35, Chad Massengill is up to 17, Paul Jacobi is up to 12, Kenny Persson and Stevie Phillips are up to 6, and Ross Minty is up to 4. Among past teammates, Mark Knight and Keith Wall played 27 and 23 before health issues got in the way.

The most amazing part of Element's history? That in the team's 40 seasons, we have finished 1st or 2nd in both the A season and the A tournament in every season except the one straight after Covid (when we had a mad pile of player losses/attendance issues, finishing 3rd in the season and losing in the tournament semifinals).

Element's total records after 40 seasons (all of them obviously in A div.)... -- Regular season = 30 firsts, 9 seconds, 1 third; 474 wins, 38 losses (and 42 byes that would have pretty certainly been wins if an 8th A team had been there); and yes, that's less than 1 loss per season...

-- Tournament = 24 firsts, 14 seconds, 1 semifinal loss (and no tournament in Sp20); 82 wins, 14 losses (and also 10 first-round byes that would have pretty certainly been wins if an 8th team had been there)

-- League record 64 match win streak (that also included three byes, making for a 67-week unbeaten streak) from Fall 2015 to Fall 2017

-- Team totals of 331 9-marks, 139 T80s, 9 6Bs, 29 High Ins, 16 High Outs, 29 Fast 301s, 23 Fast SCkts, 24 Fast DCkts, 31 Fast 501s, 23 singles titles, and 28 ASP titles. (Robbie Phillips leads most of these, but that ASP one is the award that could really just be renamed for him. 24 of those 28 are his.)

[-- Funny side note: before anybody thinks that we just recruited Robbie because he was already a terminator... in his first season on the roster, he had the 7th best singles win %-age and 6th best ASP average on the team. He didn't start crushing until about our 7th season. :o) ]

How long will Element's run last? No idea, but selfishly I hope it's a long time. Will there ever be another Element? Again, no idea. But I can say this: if I could only wish one feature of Element for you, it wouldn't be the wins... it would be the very deep sense of family that we genuinely have. I have been incredibly fortunate to call this group of people my dear friends for decades.

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM JK

Nowadays, it's a fact... this column has become a banquet Tons staple. I have no idea why so many are so keen on taking a peek into the oddness that is my head, but you are. So without further ado, let's open up my head again and see what falls out. Some of these observations are dart-related, and some of them clearly are not. As always, this is just about the last thing that I'm writing and this season is certainly no exception... soooo, also as always not even I know what's about to hit the page...

-- You ever see license plate letter trios and they immediately represent something for you? Your initials, or some acronym from work or something, or stuff like that? Well, one of these for me is TBB. I don't know that I will ever see that letter trio and not think Traveling Beer Bellies. Collected those scoresheets for 15 years, and every time I see one of those plates, I instantly see Oakie and JJ and Jim Blinco, etc.

-- What an absolute asshat Harrison Butker of the Kansas City Chiefs is. I don't think I probably need to say anymore than that. But we all know me, so we know I will... I hope his hateful, misogynistic, close-minded, holier-than-thou, lost-in-his-ownignorance ass gets heckled and has crap thrown at him until the team just decides he is no longer worth the horrible hassle. Then he can retire... and go work in the kitchen where he belongs.

-- So I'm sitting at the ophthalmologist for one of my follow-up appointments after my cataract surgery, and the technician comes through the waiting area calling out for the next patient to be seen, as is the norm. And what name is the tech calling out? Insomnia. No joke. Somebody there was named (or at least goes by)

Insomnia. She answered, and didn't correct the tech at all. -- I see this other places sometimes too, but for some reason there is a phenomenon I see at a far higher rate in the parking deck at the Durham VA (where our lab is and where I most often work). Employees go out to their cars in the parking deck and sit in them for extended periods of time, with the car running and the headlights on. For like, a long time... As in an expensive-toburn-this-much-gas kind of long time. And what happens over and over and over? Cars coming in to the parking deck pull up and wait for a little bit, because surely a car sitting like this is about to leave, right? But the people in these running cars don't leave. And they don't turn off their lights. And they don't acknowledge the cars that repeatedly wait for them to pull out. Is this just some sort of weird power play in their otherwise sad little days? So exhausting, I just don't get it.

-- A couple months ago, my computer started trying to force Windows updates that it turns out it was supposed to have put in place a full two years earlier. I kept telling it 'fine, just run the update,' and it would start for a few minutes, then decide to give up. But after giving the update the ok for about a dozen days in a row, it finally decided to actually DO the update! It took about two full hours to fully get through the update, and then, when it was supposed to say the update was complete, instead this inexplicable screen showed up!!

How is this a thing they put in the program?! Why do all that updating and then just "undo" it?! Their word, not mine! Ugh. [Yes, I have everything updated now, but it took a full rebuild.] -- So several days ago my wife was watching the morning show with Kelly Ripa on it (the one that used to have Regis Philbin, I'm not sure what the name is, but it's unimportant). They had on a woman who was there to do some little kids craft projects for some reason (and that reason was NOT to do them with your kids, it was for adults), and when she got to what she wanted us to recognize as the big finisher, she informed us it was time for the coup d'etat! Ummm... it's time for a sudden and violent overthrow of the government?? Doesn't seem to fit with the whole crafting vibe... Guessing she probably meant coup de grace. If you're going on national TV, don't toss around French phrases unless you have some idea of what you're saying...

-- You know those super loud Emergency Broadcast System interruptions that cover up any show/channel you have on? They warn us of Amber Alerts, flash floods, hurricanes, etc. And they often have a message spoken by some police officer with specifics (especially for Amber Alerts), telling you what county has issued the warning. But somehow, despite the fact that your cable or streaming show can be paused, played at five different speeds, shown in split screen of up to four shows at a time, cast over to another device, watched on portable stuff from almost anywhere, or broadcast in three languages or with subtitles... that recorded message from the emergency system is almost unintelligible. Static, broken signal, background hum... how is the emergency notice the part that barely works at all?

-- Ever watch a pro golf event on TV? If so, you've seen the standard sportsmanship tradition of the players taking off their hats and shaking hands after finishing on the 18th green. And my favorite part of that? Those guys all play golf all the time, and they're all very very tan. Except for the part of their heads that are inside the hats. Which means that when they take those hats off for those handshakes, they all look like Q-Tips shaking hands! A perfect circle halfway up their foreheads, all tan on the low sides, all pale as ghosts on the high sides. Hilarious.

-- Want to know what bothers me? The fact this is the correct spelling of "bouillon." How the heck is that word pronounced as bool-yaan? That 'i' is just in the wrong damn place. Grrr.

-- What else bothers me far more? How often people say they need time "to process" something. What a crutch that is for people. They have to prooooocessss whatever the very normal situation is. Why? Does your brain work way slower than a normal one? Are your feelings so complex that you somehow need to actively think about each one individually? That's not how people work. Such a Gen Z load of crap. (And yes, I am on faculty in the Department of Psychiatry. And I still think the constant need "to process" is a load of crap.)

-- On a similar note, don't ever bother telling me that "you're going through something." If it doesn't have enough details to be an actual issue rather than "something," then I don't want to hear you whine about going through it. Because the odds are strong that you're using that phrase to generate general pity from others for you having to "go through" something that is very common and every-day normal. Don't play that pathetic crap with me, I have no time for it. And even if I did, still don't.

-- Ever go to Broadway plays? Musicals? Non-musicals? Any at all? I personally love live theater. But there is one play that has one of the dumbest story-selling points I've ever heard. Beauty & the Beast. They describe it as "the greatest love story ever told." Ummmm... excuse me? Kidnapping, imprisonment, extortion, bestiality, witchcraft... Think about it, that's what this Disney story/play/movie actually includes. Greatest love story every told? That is one creepy-ass notion.

-- Anyway, if it's raining while I'm handing this out, I'm likely sad. I've got a bunch of outdoor plans this afternoon/evening.

* If there are players new to RDL and you are aware of their dart experience outside of RDL, please include that information here. You might say things like "Played in a mid-level team in Chicago for the past 6 years" or "No league experience but throws on a regular basis - consistently beats D & E players at Upper Deck LOD"
