The Spring Session of the Raleigh Dart League, week #1, Wednesday, January 22, 2025 Issue #JK897

The "I Love People Who Wait For The One Time Out Of Fifty That Proves They Were Right" Edition

A COUPLE LEAGUE RULES ADDED/UPDATED...

Two sections in the official league rules (a copy of which were distributed with the week 1 packets, as per usual) have been updated. One of them is only important for setting up dart areas in your establishment, but the other is immediately important for the flow of weekly matches.

Board setup requirements

As noted on pages 10/11 of the league rules, there are now new setup requirements for when an establishment is including more than two boards. (Do note that current host setups are grandfathered in, but new hosts will need to consult the new rule.)

Time limit for between-sets listing and getting ready to play

You know how I've posted several times over the years that there is no such thing as a team smoke break in the RDL? And how I say that disappearing between sets to go hang out at the bar or just wander and socialize is disrespectful to your opponents? Well, now you have exactly 10 minutes from the last dart of one set to list, match up sheets with the opposition, and be ready to play the next set (see page 5.)

A LIST OF RECENT IMPORTANT REMIINDERS

FAILURE TO INCLUDE "BLOCKER" NAMES

In games with a shorthanded team (and thus, one or more "blockers"), failure to list the names of all competitors in those games will bear a consequence for BOTH teams. If the submitted scoresheet is missing names, BOTH teams will receive a 5-point penalty.

RESCHEDULING? MAKE SURE I KNOW ABOUT IT

Failure to notify the statistician of a rescheduled match in the proper timeframe is now a 16-point penalty for each team.

FORFEIT ETIQUETTE

If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us all an easy favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.

THROWING AFTER BUSTING IS ILLEGAL PRACTICE

Continuing to throw darts after clearly busting your turn is now officially against RDL rules. Obviously, hitting a wire and not realizing a dart was in, etc., changes the situation. But continuing to chuck away will be deemed unsportsmanlike conduct and is subject to the ladder of warnings/penalties that can come with those issues.

WHAT SCOREKEEPERS CAN SAY DURING CRICKET

It is now official RDL policy that during cricket, the scorekeeper may only tell the thrower how many of each number has been hit during this turn, and may not report any more of the situation (whether a number is now closed, new point total, points still needed, etc.).

PLAYING THE WRONG OPPONENT

Rather than paraphrasing what happens when people don't pay attention and go to the line and play the wrong person, I'm pretty sure this one is just easier if I copy the rule here: "f) If a player plays a game on the wrong board (resulting in playing the incorrect opponent) regardless of when the error is discovered, if the entire match is not complete and the scoresheet signed, the game must be replayed. No statistics from the incorrectly played game are valid. If both players play on the "wrong" board but are playing the correct opponent, no action will be taken."

EARBUD/HEADPHONE USAGE AT MATCHES

This one still pops up now and then, but the ruling was made seasons ago... As of Fall 2017: players can wear earbuds/headphones during a match, while scorekeepers can not. Hilarious that the second part of that sentence even needs typing.

DARTCONNECT USAGE AT MATCHES

Please note the recent league rules pertaining to using DartConnect devices to keep score. They include what is/isn't allowed, and what it takes to "agree" to use the device. Find them in these sections:

MATCHES.F.1 [page 5 of 12 in the rules], and

MATCHES.F.4.b.5 [page 6 of 12 in the rules]

HANDLE BUSINESS BEFORE TUESDAY NIGHT...

If you want to add a player(s) to your roster, they cannot play until they are approved and their dues are paid. And those additions and/or changes must be COMPLETED by 9 pm Tuesday each week. The Membership Director and Treasurer both have their matches to play each week, so all roster changes must finish by the day prior.

SCORESHEETS

You have 3 copies in your team packet. Clearly, you'll need to make some copies for the remainder of the season. Don't forget.

SCORESHEET RETURN DEADLINE

The weekly deadline for submission of your scoresheets is no longer the end of Saturday. The new deadline as of the Fall 2017 season is 11:59 p.m. Friday (unless you had a rescheduled match - then it's within two days of whatever day you played).

1001 PARTICIPANT LISTING IS MANDATORY

Inclusion of the player names for all 1001 participants for BOTH teams on the scoresheet is mandatory! Failure to include those names will incur a penalty equal to a late scoresheet mailing penalty. There is even a box on the front of the scoresheet for names!

ROSTER UPDATES AND SPELLING

Please note: rosters provided in this preseason packet include only players added prior to Jan. 12th. Later additions will appear on the team statistics pages beginning in week 2. Also, please check the spellings and phone numbers from your roster listing - note any changes on your scoresheet or send me an email.

HOSTING TOURNAMENT MATCHES

It is the responsibility of the CAPTAINS (not the RDL board) to ensure their host bars are informed of the tournament schedule when it is released around week 13. A recent rule provision allows host bars to opt out of the tournament rotation, if they want to be done with darts after the regular season. However, they must notify the membership director by week 5, if that is the case.

TWO PEOPLE WITH THE SAME FIRST NAME?

Please, please, please indicate which played. EVERY set, please.

THE TREASURER WILL NOT ACCEPT CASH FOR REGISTRATION, NEWSLETTER, ETC.! BRING A CHECK! AND DO NOT BOUNCE A CHECK TO RDL - THAT WILL COST YOU AN EXTRA $20!

WHO ARE THOSE GUYS?

Many teams just keep their same team name season after season (or an obvious close relative to that name), but not all. For the most part, the same teams change names each season. Anyway, what follows is a list of this season's new names:

- A1/ Bully for the Element . . .was. . . Brave the Elements
- A2/ Fringe Prime . . .was. . . Lunatic Fringe
- A7/ Inconsistently Consistent . . .was. . . Consistently Inconsistent
- B3/ Kids Mis-B-having . . .was. . . Kilts In The Hall
- B5/ Raging Bulls . . .was. . . Raging Bulls Eyes
- C2/ Darty Little Secrets . . .was. . . Put It On Sam's Brother's Tab
- D6/ One Dart Wonders . . .was. . . Dart Side of the Moon
- E8/ Waddle In, Waddle Out . . .was. . . Duck Duck Groove
- G1/ Flight Risks . . .was. . . Coach's Into Enya
- G2/ Flight Club . . .was. . . (sort of) I Got Your 6

New teams: G7/ Game of Throws.

BEST NEW TEAM NAMES THIS SEASON

Ok, 11 new team names this season. Not a huge number, but it will do. To be honest though, one is yet again just a flipback to a team's prior style of the same name, one is a very minor alteration, and three are "new to this team" but are re-uses of prior names. Anyway, let's see what we've got...

- ... let's start with two clarifications for those that have been around a while. The squad named Game of Throws is not the return of the 2016-2020 Eric Bordeau/Chris Montesi squad; this is a fully new team. Also, Flight Club is not the return of the 2015-2016 Eric Bordeau/Chris Montesi squad. Eric & Chris were on fire...
- ... next clarification is that Flight Risks is not the return of the 2011 Tina Boutieller teams. Good name though, just a re-used one.
- ... then comes the one that just flat out stunned me... Fringe Prime. I'm fairly sure that Lunatic Fringe was one of only two teams that had had the same name every single season since before I arrived here 30 years ago. And now I believe Nine Lives (the league's longest-existing team) stands alone on this too.
- ... the great word play that brought back in the word from their name last season that they didn't use then... Kids Mis-B-having.
- ... the one that keeps impressing me with continual new versions of their own seasonal name identity... Waddle In, Waddle Out.
- ... My personal runner-up, with a great music nod that applies so very well to our own hobby confidences... One Dart Wonders.
- ... And my personal favorite, nicely combining a music reference with a great dart match rendezvous wink... Darty Little Secrets.

THIS SEASON'S HOME BARS

It was very sad losing one of our sorta-cornerstone establishments last season, but we have made up for it by the addition of several new places! Those new additions have bucked up our total by two, bringing us up to a total of 23 establishments this season.

Out from last season (1): Brewster's Pub

New this season (3): Backstage Pub,

"HOT DARTS" LISTING GUIDELINES

Here are the guidelines that will be used for the minimum number of all-star points each week for the "hot darts" page.
 "A" Div. = 4.5 or more ASPs; "B" Div. = 4.0 or more ASPs
 "C, D" Divisions = 3.5 or more ASPs
 "E, F" Divs. = 3.0 or more ASPs; "G" = 2.5 or more ASPs
 Also, we will list any fast games, high ins, high outs, or other amazing feats that you think warrant a little recognition (e.g., Ins & Outs higher than a Ton, 24-dart cricket games, 15-dart 301s, 24-dart 501s, Ton-70s and up, 5-Bulls+, etc.).
Extra note: it's also ok to call in "fast games" in each set, even if they don't necessarily meet the maximum dart counts above.

SEASON-LONG TROPHY DART MINIMUM GAMES PLAYED REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for all-star point ave. & singles win %-age awards, you must play at least 66% of this season's projected games:
for Divisions "A", "B", "C" and "G" (7 teams / division):
Singles win %-age: min. of 16 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 32 Total Games Played for Divisions "D", "E" and "F" (8 teams / division):
Singles win %-age: min. of 19 Singles Games Played
All-star pt. Average: min. of 37 Total Games Played

PENALTY LOG

The penalty log returns this season in the same form it has had for years. I will list all of the penalties assessed right here, so that anyone who thinks the point math is incorrect can just check here to see who lost what when.

For those of you who missed the Fall Banquet, you missed the tournament results and may have even missed the final regular season results. What follows here on page 5, and also on pages 6-8, are the final Fall divisional standings, tournament results, tournament perfect throws, and the season-long individual awards. One last chance to relive the glory...

Just for kicks, I've included a symbol for the one penalty "earned" last season too...

SEASON-LONG PREDICTIONS

JK's Standard Disclaimer : Rosters will change multiple times after I've written this, but that's out of my control. So, I go forward with some guesses every season. I could say nothing and let you wonder how ridiculously little I know about our talent levels, or I could do this, and remove all doubt. Wouldn't want to leave you wondering, right? (And yes, I get the schedules from Membership Director Heather Bohanan early enough to do separate week 1 picks nowadays, but you can probably glean most of those from this column...)

"A" Division: A lot of teams in a lot of divisions are more static than usual this season. But not Show Me Your Tips here in A! Show Me added not just Scott Page, but also Will Bennett!! That is how you do it... Add in the absence of Jimmie Jones from Fringe this season, and the already-pretty-tight #2-#5 pack here in A just got a heck of a lot tighter. Or... did it maybe spread out a little bit?! Hmmm... In the end, I of course have to take my Element guys at the top, and I'm going to keep the Fringe in 2nd until somebody proves they can pass them. Due to what I expect is a much more dependable attendance, I'm going to slot Show Me in ahead of Talladega, with Dart Attack just about one slim game behind. Which leaves a super talented Darty squad in 6th somehow, outpacing their Consistent compadres up from B.

"B" Division: And it's here than the huge gains for Show Me in A are felt, as bot Serious and the Kids took huge blows, losing Page and Bennett, respectively. Those changes leave this as one of the toughest calls on the page here. I'm going to hope that Stumble Out gets the spine to just list Eastmead and Butters 3-4 times each every week, and based on that, I'll take them to claim the top spot. If Vic White is actually playing, I'll take Serious next, followed by Hump Day. The Kids outduel The Outlaws and Raging for 4th, which means I'm putting the Mafia in last place, which I think is super unlikely, so I'm now questioning all the other picks. Well, hell, I was questioning everything in this division from the start. So... yeah.

"C" Division: Another race where I think an attendance change could drive the eventual victory. I wish I could say I had enough faith to make the pick I want to make, but... I don't. Thus, I'm going to go with something that hasn't happened in C in a little while, I think. I'm going to say that a team that just won the division below is now going to win C like they're just passing through. Which means I'm on the Wing & A Plaque train! They will be followed by the team I wish I trusted to attend fully and regularly, my Darty Little Secrets. The Village Idiots (who I thought might win C for a while last season) will be next, followed by Shooter McGavin. I then have Rif Raf, Nine Lives, and the Bandits. And it's at this point that I laugh at myself, because the Niners and Bandits don't always win all their matches, but they basically never lose a whole pile of them. Which means I've learned nothing.

"D" Division: Is Angelo Azevedo really back? Is he going to play? I really wish I knew, as that might determine my pick here in D-land. Oh, wait... I mean my pick for 2nd place. Because Dirty Darts is only purchasing a single overnight stay here while they await their connecting flight to C in the morning. Heck, I think I would pick them to win C this season. But they aren't in C, so I'm taking Off Constantly to finish 2nd (because Azevedo will play, dangit!). I'm intrigued by the new version of Possee, so I'll slot them third, followed by Menace, Sanchez, and the Rangers. And that leaves Irish Ton and One Dart, which again makes me laugh at myself. Sigh.

"E" Division: By the end of last season, Bangin The Wire had really figured out something that was missing at the start of the season. If they can avoid that super slow start, I'm thinking they get it done this season. If they blink though, I think a whole series of teams will be poised to run on by, from Rippin Darts to Bottoms Up to Waddle In to Cheap Shots. Even Ton 80 Proof and the Machine could be poised to race on up. I think this race won't be quite the crazy of drama that B division will be, but I think it has the potential to be the next craziest. (And you'll notice I didn't mention the Corks yet... any time an E team loses both Chris Moody AND Phyllis Sweet, I'm just too sad for them to write too much about them.)

"F" Division: Oh, boy... given the number of rosters here that changed minimally, this set feels like it should be easy. I assure you it is not. Death Throw has recently been able to take out teams that won E and moved on to D, so they clearly know what they're doing, so I guess I'll take them. Maybe we'll go with She Said next, followed by Sofa Kings, Shark Shooters, Dart Knights, and The Dartifacts. Which leaves me with She-nanigans and Nein Mark, and there's no way Leslie Phillips, Gerry Updyke and Brian Whitley all finish in the bottom two here, so my list is dumb.

"G" Division: I would love to take the team that is the lineage of I Got Your 6, but Flight Club is basically a new team. Instead, I'm taking Heart of Dartness, who is the one team here in G that really stepped up the roster a bit. Flight Risks and We Throw It will be the top pursuers, with Salute and Bright side close behind. Then I guess we'll go with the two unknowns (who might be awesome for all I know), Game of Throws and Flight Club. Always a crapshoot guess with the new squads.

FALL 2024 PENALTY SUMMARY

In the fall season, we had... ONE penalty. One. A single delayed scoresheet. So close to a blemish-free season.

Now if only we could get rid of the friggin' forfeits! We had FIVE matches forfeited last season. At least no team forfeited more than once, I suppose.

THE PAGE OF INFORMATION THAT I RUN EVERY SEASON...

This is the place where I remind all of you of several things so that you can't say "I didn't know that" later on when you screw up. Sort of takes the blame off me if any of these bad things happen... which I sort of consider to be a good thing...

Some of these things change over the years, some don't... but please read them again.
This stuff is really important for the smooth flow of our nights out with our hobby.

COPIES OF COMPLETED SCORESHEETS

Keep a copy - it's as simple as that. I could give you all the reasons why, but I've done that a hundred times. Just keep a copy of your sheet, even if you lose, because you just never know when one of them will be lost by the postal service or your opponents. Hey, it has happened in twenty-five of the last forty season...

EMAILED TONS OF NEWSLETTER - UPDATED FA24

We have been emailing the Tons of Newsletter for many years now. And we will, of course, be continuing that this season, in a sense - each week, I send a link to the RDL website with a notification that I've posted the new newsletter there. All you need is a relatively recent version of either Microsoft Excel or a PDF Reader like Adobe Acrobat, based on which file version you want to download. Oh, also, you need to not be a whiner, or an ass, or just difficult to like - if that's you, you'll just have to keep checking the website yourself, as I will certainly remove you from the weekly reminder list.

Beyond just generally not sucking, you don't need to do anything to stay on the email list if you were already on it, as the list carries over from season to season. If you would like to be removed from the list, simply email me back and let me know. If you weren't on the list and you would like to receive it, just email my address listed on page 4 and I'll add you to the list.

I generally send the notice of a new Tons in the range of Sunday to Tuesday. Sometimes it's earlier, and every so often a super busy week might instead push it back to Wednesday morning... but generally it will come in the Sunday to Tuesday window. [And on a related note, you can also download past issues (and even historical compilations!) anytime from the league website.]

SIMPLE TRUTHS THAT YOU SHOULD NEVER FORGET

1. Any player who plays in a match without properly registering and paying dues (register with the League Membership Director, pay the League Treasurer) prior to throwing is an ineligible player. Playing an ineligible player will cost your team its win (if you did indeed win), all game points from that match, and all statistics from that match, regardless of how well or poorly that ineligible player did.
2. Any player who doesn't play in any of the four primary sets of the match, but plays in the 1001 tiebreaker is an ineligible player - see number 1 (above) for the horror of this mistake.
3. Indicate which players of both teams took part in 1001 games on the front of the scoresheet. This is MANDATORY, and allows us to check for ineligible players, record statistics, etc.
4. If you ever know that your team is going to miss a match, do us a favor and call the opposing captain AND the host establishment (please!). Thank you very much.
5. Wednesday player additions are not allowed. It turns out that Board members have dart matches too, so all roster additions are required to be completed no later than 9pm Tuesday for any player to play in that week's match.

MANY SCORESHEET RETURN PATHS AVAILABLE - BUT NOT ENTIRELY THE SAME AS IN RECENT YEARS

We have three routes remaining for turning in your scoresheets..

First, you can use your scanner (or your phone in some cases and email me an image of the sheet (my email addresses are in the Tons every week and also on the back of the scoresheet)

Second, you can shoot me photos of your scoresheet if you want to take care of returning it immediately! Just make sure you have good lighting, you're close enough to the sheet, and it's IN FOCUS. (note: out-of-focus or overly dark photos will not be acceptable... duh). And you can send those photos by email or text (as with my email addresses, my phone number is on the scoresheet back).

Finally, you can still use the old school U.S. Postal Service. My address is also on the back of the scoresheet, but I caution you... I still predict that this system will go away before too long (as I haven't received one via this route for many years now... plus the duration of a pandemic!).

[Quick note if you do actually decide to send me a hard copy via the snail mail side of things. Buying a ($1.50-ish?) certificate of mailing could prove to be a nice piece of evidence if your scoresheet ever gets lost in the mail. Do NOT send your scoresheet by certified mail - I do NOT want to have to go to the post office repeatedly (or at all, to be honest) to sign for your scoresheets.]

If you use any of the modern electronic methods, I'll even email or text you a quick confirmation of receipt (since I'll have your email address or phone number, of course) - thus eliminating any worry about whether the sheet got through to me :o).

NO CALL-IN REQUIREMENT FOR MATCH RESULTS

As of the Fall 2017 season, winning teams are no longer required to call in match results each week. And actually, the league long ago discontinued the VoiceMail number. Not enough use of it to warrant the cost any longer.

TEAM NAMES ON YOUR SCORESHEETS

Every season there are several instances of teams listing the team names on opposite sides of the scoresheets (meaning one team's name is written above the other team's players). Obviously, I will eventually figure these out when the names under a team name aren't on the roster, but it would be cool if you simply indicate the error in some way (or simply flip the names - I would rather an away team be on the home side and vice versa than have the wrong people ANI THUS BACKWARDS FINAL SCORE under each side). Thanks

CHECK BOTH SCORESHEETS

We run an item like this every season, and sometimes more than once. And here it is again because it's often needed repeatedly. When you are signing scoresheets at the end of the night, it is up to you to make sure that they match. If the other team turns in a sheet without your ASP or fast game or something, it really sort of doesn't exist... In RDL, not on the sheet = didn't happen.
